1 Any inmate who has pled guilty to, or has been convicted of, a crime of C. 2 violence. For the purpose of this section, a crime of violence includes 3 kidnapping and any violation of any state or federal law when the inmate 4 knowingly or intentionally inflicted, attempted to inflict, or threatened serious 5 bodily injury, or death, or when the inmate was armed with a firearm, 6 dangerous weapon, or destructive device; 7 d. An inmate who has been convicted of aggravated assault involving 8 substantial or serious bodily injury, and the offense is a felony under the laws 9 of the sending state or under federal law, unless the administrator has 10 obtained the approval of the department of corrections and rehabilitation in 11 advance of the placement. The state of North Dakota and any officer or 12 employee of the department is immune from any civil liability for damages for 13 personal injury or property damage caused by an inmate placed in a 14 correctional facility under this subsection; 15 Any inmate who has pled guilty to, or has been convicted of, a sexual offense e. 16 in which the victim was a child under the age of fifteen years, or the inmate 17 compelled, or attempted to compel, the victim to submit by force or by threat 18 of imminent death, serious bodily injury, or kidnapping, or if in the course of 19 the offense, the inmate inflicted serious or substantial bodily injury on the 20 victim; or 21 f. Any inmate who has a documented affiliation as a member of a criminal street 22 gang as defined under section 12.1-06.2-01 or equivalent statute of another 23 state or under federal law. 24 3. Out-of-state inmates may not be permitted to leave the premises of the 25 correctional facility except to comply with a court order or to receive medical care. 26 4. The correctional facility may not house out-of-state inmates in the same cells with 27 inmates of the department of corrections and rehabilitation. 28 A contract under this section must include a requirement that if an out-of-state 5. 29 inmate is charged with committing a crime while in the custody of the correctional facility, the sending state shall take custody of the inmate upon the request of the correctional facility and the written consent of the state's attorney of the county

- where the correctional facility is located. If the sending state takes custody of the inmate and the state's attorney requests the inmate be returned to this state for prosecution, the correctional facility is responsible for the cost of returning the inmate to this state for prosecution. If an out-of-state inmate is convicted and sentenced to the legal and physical custody of the department of corrections and rehabilitation for a crime committed while in the custody of the correctional facility, the correctional facility shall reimburse the department for its costs to confine the inmate until completion of the term of imprisonment.
- 6. The department of corrections and rehabilitation may not assume custody of an out-of-state inmate placed in a correctional facility in this state under a contract between the governing body of a correctional facility and a sending state except under a lawful sentence and judgment of a district court of this state and after notice to the sending state.
- 7. If the state or a political subdivision of this state incurs any cost in the investigation or prosecution of an offense committed by an out-of-state inmate while in the custody of a contracting correctional facility, the correctional facility shall reimburse the state or political subdivision for the costs incurred.
- 8. A contract under this section must include a requirement that the sending state shall notify the correctional facility of the expiration date of the out-of-state inmate's imprisonment when the sending state transfers the out-of-state inmate to the correctional facility and that the sending state shall retake the out-of-state inmate before the expiration date of the out-of-state inmate's imprisonment.
- 9. For purposes of this section, "out-of-state inmate" means an individual who is convicted of a crime in a state other than North Dakota; "sending state" means another state and includes a city, county, or regional correctional center of another state; and "correctional facility" means a facility subject to this chapter.
- 10. The correctional facility shall defend, indemnify, and hold harmless the state of North Dakota, its agencies, officers, and employees from and against claims for personal injury or property damage caused by an out-of-state inmate placed in a correctional facility under this section.
- SECTION 3. EMERGENCY. This Act is declared to be an emergency measure.
