

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 4035

Introduced by

Senators Grindberg, Anderson, Fischer

Representatives Carlson, J. Kelsh, Thoreson

(Approved by the Delayed Bills Committee)

1 A concurrent resolution urging Congress to establish the Red River Valley authority as an 2 agency or authorized board of the federal government for the purpose of the regulation and 3 control of water quality of the Red River and regulation and control of the retention and flow of 4 water, including retention by dams or retention ponds or other areas, and of drainage on the 5 Red River.

6 WHEREAS, the Red River of the North and its contributing tributaries and watershed 7 have experienced repeated problems with massive dangerous and destructive flooding, which 8 has seriously threatened the health, safety, and welfare of citizens along the Red River and 9 caused damage to the property of citizens of federal, state, and local government; and

10 WHEREAS, the repeated flooding and threat of flooding has required an extraordinary 11 level of time, money, and resources of state, local, and federal government in fighting and 12 recovering from the repeated floods which, in terms of financial impact, may exceed 13 $200,000,000 for the flood event of spring 2009 and which cumulatively over the past 12 years 14 is estimated to have had a financial impact in the hundreds of millions of dollars; and

15 WHEREAS, there exists certain regulatory conflicts between urban and rural areas and 16 between different states affected by the Red River and its contributing tributaries such that 17 water quality and quantity concerns are not being consistently addressed, regulated, or 18 enforced; and

19 WHEREAS, the states of Minnesota, North Dakota, and South Dakota are affected by 20 and therefore have an interest in the control of the volume and flow of water and the retention of 21 water in the Red River as well as the quality of water in the Red River; and

22 WHEREAS, there are differences in the procedures and regulations of Minnesota, North 23 Dakota, and South Dakota pertaining to the governance and procedures establishing rules for 24 the control of water quality, water flow, water retention, and the enforcement of those laws and 25 rules; and

1 WHEREAS, the circumstances described in this resolution constitute a matter of 2 interstate concern which the federal government is uniquely able to address;

3 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF NORTH DAKOTA, THE 4 HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING THEREIN:

5 That the Sixty-first Legislative Assembly urges the Congress of the United States to 6 establish the Red River Valley authority as an agency or authorized board of the federal 7 government for the purpose of the regulation and control of water quality of the Red River and 8 regulation and control of the retention and flow of water, including retention by dams or 9 retention ponds or other areas, and of drainage on the Red River; and

10 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Congressional Act establishing the Red River 11 Valley authority provide a process for the President of the United States to appoint the 12 members of the board consisting of not more than nine members and with all but two members 13 being residents of the area serviced by the Red River Valley authority and with a provision that 14 requires the President to consider recommendations from public officials such as the governors
15 of the states of Minnesota, North Dakota, and South Dakota; individual citizens; individuals 16 representing business, industry, labor, electric power distribution, the environment, cities, and 17 service organizations; and the Congressional Delegations of the states of Minnesota, North 18 Dakota, and South Dakota in selecting qualified members to serve on the board; and

19 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Secretary of State forward copies of this 20 resolution to the President of the United States; the governors of Minnesota, North Dakota, and 21 South Dakota; and to each member of the Minnesota, North Dakota, and South Dakota 22 Congressional Delegations.
