POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

SEN. COOK: Mr. President: I rise on a point of personal privilege.

REMARKS OF SENATOR COOK

MR. PRESIDENT: Across the river in a high school gymnasium there hangs a very special bell. It is the Mandan High School championship bell that is only allowed to ring when a Mandan High School team wins a state championship. For the last six years our state class A basketball tournament has concluded with the ringing of this proud championship bell. Well Mr. President, this past weekend that string of six straight girls championships and 21 straight tournament victories came to an end. I would like to congratulate Girls Coach Greg Amundson and the team for their tremendous success. I would also like to congratulate senior Ali Collins for becoming the sixth Mandan Girls Basketball player to be named Miss Basketball North Dakota. To all the girls, to Coach Amundson, and to Ali Collins, I say job well done.

But Mr. President, the ending of that championship streak did not mean the conclusion of this year's state class A basketball tournament would keep that bell silent. Mr. President, the championship bell in the Mandan gymnasium was again ringing loud with pride. For the Mandan boys team, lead by first year coach and Coach of the Year, Jason Horner, brought home their own championship trophy. With a resilient defense, and clutch free throw shooting, the boys continued Mandan's proud tradition as they defeated the West Fargo Packers in the championship game.

Special congratulations to Brian Kielpinski, for being named the tournament's most valuable player and to Jordan Thilmony and Jordan Maurer for being named to the All Tournament Team.

To the entire Mandan boys basketball team, job well done. The championship bell is still ringing in Mandan!

REQUEST

SEN. COOK REQUESTED that his remarks be printed in the Journal, which request was granted.
