8 new single-family and condominium and townhouse residential property, exclusive
9 of the land on which it is situated, is exempt from taxation for the ~~first two taxable~~
10 years after the taxable year in which construction is begun the residence is 11 occupied for the first time and the next two taxable years if all of the following 12 conditions are met:
- 13 a. The governing body of the city, for property within city limits, or the governing 14 body of the county, for property outside city limits, has approved the 15 exemption of the property by resolution. A resolution adopted under this 16 subsection may be rescinded or amended at any time. The governing body of 17 the city or county may limit or impose conditions upon exemptions under this 18 subsection, including limitations on the time during which an exemption is 19 allowed.
  - 20 b. Special assessments and taxes on the property upon which the residence is 21 situated are not delinquent.
  - 22 e. ~~The first owner after the builder resides on the property, or the builder still~~ 23 ~~owns the property. For purposes of this subsection, "builder" includes a~~
24 ~~person who builds that person's own residence.~~

~~For purposes of this subsection, "single family residential property" does not include condominium or townhouse property.~~

~~36. Up to seventy five thousand dollars of the true and full value of each unit of all new condominium and townhouse residential property, exclusive of the land on which it is situated, is exempt from taxation for the first two taxable years after the taxable year in which construction is begun if all of the following conditions are met:~~

~~a. The governing body of the city, for property within city limits, or the governing body of the county, for property outside city limits, has approved the exemption of the property by resolution. A resolution adopted under this subsection may be rescinded or amended at any time. The governing body of the city or county may limit or impose conditions upon exemptions under this subsection, including limitations on the time during which an exemption is allowed.~~

~~b. Special assessments and taxes on the property upon which the condominium or townhouse is situated are not delinquent.~~

~~c. The first owner, after the builder, who resides in the condominium or townhouse unit still owns the property.~~

~~37.~~ The governing body of the city, for property within city limits, or of the county, for property outside city limits, may grant a property tax exemption for the portion of fixtures, buildings, and improvements, used primarily to provide early childhood services by a corporation, limited liability company, or organization licensed under chapter 50-11.1 or used primarily as an adult day care center. However, this exemption is not available for property used as a residence.

~~38.~~ 37. a. A pollution abatement improvement. As used in this subsection, "pollution abatement improvement" means property, exclusive of land and improvements to the land such as ditching, surfacing, and leveling, that is:

18          therein, relating to any waterworks, mains, and water distribution system leased to 19          the state, or any agency or institution of the state, or to a private entity pursuant to 20          subsection 5 of section 40-33-01, subsection 12 of section 61-24.5-09, or 21          subsection 23 of section 61-35-12, which property is operated by, or providing 22          services to, a municipality or other political subdivision or agency of the state, or its 23          citizens.
- 24   ~~44.~~ 40.   Notwithstanding any other law, all property, including any possessory interest
25          therein, relating to any sewage systems and facilities for the collection, treatment,
26          purification, and disposal in a sanitary manner of sewage leased to the state, or
27          any agency or institution of the state, or to a private entity pursuant to section
28          40-34-19 or subsection 23 of section 61-35-12, which property is operated by, or 29          providing services to, a municipality or other political subdivision or agency of the 30          state, or its citizens.

1     ~~42.~~ 41.     Notwithstanding any other law, all property, including any possessory interest
2                   therein, leased to a private entity pursuant to section 54-01-27, which property is
3                   operated by, or providing services to, the state or its citizens.

4             SECTION 2. EFFECTIVE DATE. This Act is effective for taxable years beginning after 5     December 31, 2008.
