3 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

4 SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Section 57-02-08.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is 5 amended and reenacted as follows:

6 57-02-08.1. Homestead credit.

- 7 1. a. Any person sixty-five years of age or older or permanently and totally 8 disabled, in the year in which the tax was levied, with an income that does not 9 exceed the limitations of subdivision c is entitled to receive a reduction in the 10 assessment on the taxable valuation on the person's homestead. An 11 exemption under this subsection applies regardless of whether the person is 12 the head of a family.
- 13 b. The exemption under this subsection continues to apply if the person does not 14 reside in the homestead and the person's absence is due to confinement in a 15 nursing home, hospital, or other care facility, for as long as the portion of the 16 homestead previously occupied by the person is not rented to another person.
- 17 c. The exemption must be determined according to the following schedule:
- 18 (1) If the person's income is not in excess of ten thousand dollars, a 19 reduction of one hundred percent of the taxable valuation of the 20 person's homestead up to a maximum reduction of three thousand 21 three hundred seventy-five dollars of taxable valuation.
- 22 (2) If the person's income is in excess of ten thousand dollars and not in 23 excess of twelve thousand dollars, a reduction of eighty percent of the

2 reduction of two thousand seven hundred dollars of taxable valuation.
- 3 (3) If the person's income is in excess of twelve thousand dollars and not in 4 excess of fourteen thousand dollars, a reduction of sixty percent of the 5 taxable valuation of the person's homestead up to a maximum 6 reduction of two thousand twenty-five dollars of taxable valuation.
- 7 (4) If the person's income is in excess of fourteen thousand dollars and not 16 valuation.

- 17 d. Persons residing together, as spouses or when one or more is a dependent of 18 another, are entitled to only one exemption between or among them under 19 this subsection. Persons residing together, who are not spouses or 20 dependents, who are coowners of the property are each entitled to a
21 percentage of a full exemption under this subsection equal to their ownership 22 interests in the property.
- 23 e. This subsection does not reduce the liability of any person for special 24 assessments levied upon any property.
- 25 f. Any person claiming the exemption under this subsection shall sign a verified 26 statement of facts establishing the person's eligibility.
- 27 g. A person is ineligible for the exemption under this subsection if the value of 28 the assets of the person and any dependent residing with the person,
29 excluding the unencumbered value of the person's residence that the person 30 claims as a homestead, exceeds fifty thousand dollars, including the value of 31 any assets divested within the last three years. For purposes of this subdivision, the unencumbered valuation of the homestead is limited to one hundred thousand dollars.

h. The assessor shall attach the statement filed under subdivision f to the assessment sheet and shall show the reduction on the assessment sheet.

i. An exemption under this subsection terminates at the end of the taxable year of the death of the applicant.

2. a. Any person who would qualify for an exemption under subdivisions a and c of subsection 1 except for the fact that the person rents living quarters is eligible for refund of a portion of the person's annual rent deemed by this subsection to constitute the payment of property tax.

b. For the purpose of this subsection, twenty percent of the annual rent, exclusive of any federal rent subsidy and of charges for any utilities, services, furniture, furnishings, or personal property appliances furnished by the landlord as part of the rental agreement, whether expressly set out in the rental agreement, must be considered as payment made for property tax. When any part of the twenty percent of the annual rent exceeds four percent of the annual income of a qualified applicant, the applicant is entitled to receive a refund from the state general fund for that amount in excess of four percent of the person's annual income, but the refund may not be in excess of two hundred forty dollars. If the calculation for the refund is less than five dollars, a minimum of five dollars must be sent to the qualifying applicant.

c. Persons who reside together, as spouses or when one or more is a dependent of another, are entitled to only one refund between or among them under this subsection. Persons who reside together in a rental unit, who are not spouses or dependents, are each entitled to apply for a refund based on the rent paid by that person.

d. Each application for refund under this subsection must be made to the tax commissioner before the first day of June of each year by the person claiming the refund. The tax commissioner may grant an extension of time to file an application for good cause. The tax commissioner shall issue refunds to applicants.

1 e. This subsection does not apply to rents or fees paid by a person for any living
2 quarters, including a nursing home licensed pursuant to section 23-16-01, if 3 those living quarters are exempt from property taxation and the owner is not
4 making a payment in lieu of property taxes.

5 f. A person may not receive a refund under this section for a taxable year in 6 which that person received an exemption under subsection 1.

7 3. All forms necessary to effectuate this section must be prescribed, designed, and 8 made available by the tax commissioner. The county directors of tax equalization
9 shall make these forms available upon request.

10 4. A person whose homestead is a farm structure exempt from taxation under 11 subsection 15 of section 57-02-08 may not receive any property tax credit under 12 this section.
