Introduced by

(At the request of the Department of Financial Institutions)

- 1 A BILL for an Act to amend and reenact section 6-01-04.1 of the North Dakota Century Code,
- 2 relating to the removal of officers, directors, and employees of financial corporations or
- 3 institutions.

4 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

5 SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Section 6-01-04.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is 6 amended and reenacted as follows:

6-01-04.1. Removal of officers, directors, and employees of financial corporations or institutions.

9	1.	The department of financial institutions or the board may issue and serve, upon
10		any current or former officer, director, or employee of a financial corporation or
11		institution subject to its jurisdiction and upon the $\underline{a}$ financial corporation or
12		institution involved, a complaint stating the basis for the board's or the
13		department's belief that the current or former officer, director, or employee is
14		engaging, or has engaged, in any of the following conduct:
15		a. Violating any law, regulation, board order, or written agreement with the
16		board;
17		b. Engaging or participating in any unsafe or unsound practice; or
18		c. Performing any act of commission or omission or practice which is a breach of
19		trust or a breach of fiduciary duty.
20	2.	The complaint must contain a notice of opportunity for hearing pursuant to chapter
21		28-32. The date for the hearing must be set not less than thirty days after the date
22		the complaint is served upon the current or former officer, director, or employee of
23		the a financial corporation or institution. The current or former officer, director, or
24		employee may waive the thirty-day notice requirement.

Sixty-first Legislative Assembly

- 13.If no hearing is requested within twenty days of the date the complaint is served2upon the current or former officer, director, or employee, or if a hearing is held and3the board finds that the record so warrants, and if the board finds that the financial4corporation or institution has suffered or will probably suffer significant loss or other5significant damage or that the interest of its depositors, shareholders, members, or6creditors could be seriously prejudiced, it may enter an order suspending or7removing the current or former officer, director, or employee.
- 8 4. A contested or default suspension or removal order is effective immediately upon 9 service on the current or former officer, director, or employee and upon the a
  10 financial corporation or institution. A consent order is effective as agreed.
- 5. Any current or former officer or director suspended or removed from office pursuant to this section is not eligible, while under suspension, for reelection to any official position within a financial corporation or institution in North Dakota for a period not exceeding three years from the effective date of the suspension or removal until the suspension or removal is terminated by the department of financial institutions or board.
- 17 6. When any current or former officer, director, employee, or other person 18 participating in the conduct of the affairs of a financial corporation or institution is 19 charged with a felony in state or federal court, involving dishonesty or breach of 20 trust, the commissioner may immediately suspend the person from office or 21 prohibit the person from any further participation in the a financial corporation's or 22 institution's affairs. The order is effective immediately upon service of the order on 23 the financial corporation or institution and the person charged, and remains in 24 effect until the criminal charge is finally disposed of or until modified by the board. 25 If a judgment of conviction, a federal pretrial diversion, or similar state order or 26 judgment is entered, the board may order that the suspension or prohibition be 27 made permanent. A finding of not guilty or other disposition of the charge does not 28 preclude the commissioner or the board from pursuing administrative or civil 29 remedies.
