

Sixty-first Legislative Assembly of North Dakota

HOUSE BILL NO.

Introduced by

Representative Kretschmar

1 A BILL for an Act to amend and reenact section 16.1-13-10 and subsection 3 of section 2 44-02-02 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to filling a vacancy in a legislative office 3 and resignation of a member of the legislative assembly.

4 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

5 SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Section 16.1-13-10 of the North Dakota Century Code is 6 amended and reenacted as follows:

7 16.1-13-10. Vacancy existing in office of member of legislative assembly.

8 1. If a vacancy in the office of a member of the legislative assembly occurs during a 9 regular legislative session, the county auditor of the county in which the former 10 member resides or resided shall notify the chairman of the legislative council of the 11 vacancy. The county auditor need not notify the chairman of the legislative council 12 of the resignation of a member of the legislative assembly when the resignation 13 was made under section 44-02-02. Upon receiving notification of a vacancy, the 14 chairman of the legislative council shall notify the district committee of the political 15 party that the former member represented in the district in which the vacancy 16 exists. The district committee shall hold a meeting within twenty-one days after 17 receiving the notification and select an individual to fill the vacancy. If the former 18 member was elected as an independent candidate or if the district committee does 19 not make an appointment within twenty-one days after receiving the notice from the 20 chairman of the legislative council, the chairman of the legislative council shall 21 appoint a resident of the district to fill the vacancy. ~~Except as provided in~~ 22 ~~subsection 2, if eight hundred twenty-eight days or more remain until the expiration~~ 23 ~~of the term of office for that office, the~~ The individual appointed to fill the vacancy 24 shall serve until a successor is elected at and qualified following the next general election ~~or special election called by the governor according to subsection 2~~ to serve for the remainder of the term of office for that office.

2. ~~The qualified electors of a legislative district in which a vacancy in the legislative assembly occurs may petition for a special election to be called by the governor to fill the vacancy. The petition must include the signatures of qualified electors equal in number to four percent of the resident population of the legislative district as determined by the last federal decennial census and must be presented to the secretary of state within thirty days following an appointment being made according to subsection 1. If the secretary of state determines the petition contains the required number of signatures of qualified electors of the affected legislative district, the secretary of state shall notify the governor that a special election is required to be called to fill the vacancy. Upon receiving such notice, the governor shall issue a writ of election directed to the county auditor of each affected county commanding the county auditor to hold a special election to fill the vacancy at a time designated by the governor. If a vacancy in the office of a member of the legislative assembly occurs while the legislative assembly is not in regular session, the county auditor of the county in which the former member resides or resided shall notify the chairman of the legislative council and the governor of the vacancy.
A county auditor need not notify the chairman of the legislative council and the governor of the resignation of a member of the legislative assembly when the resignation was made under section 44-02-02. upon receiving notification of a vacancy, the governor, if there is a regular session of the legislative assembly between the time the vacancy occurs and the next general election, shall issue a writ of election directed to the county auditor of each affected county directing the county auditor to hold a special election to fill the vacancy at a time designated by the governor. If there is not regular session of the legislative assembly between the time the vacancy occurs and the next general election, and the term of office for that office does not end before the next regular session of the legislative assembly, the governor shall direct that a special election be held at the same time as the general election. If there is no regular session of the legislative assembly between the time the vacancy occurs and the expiration of the term of office of the~~

1 member whose office is vacated, a governor may issue a writ of election to hold a 2 special election to fill the vacancy. An individual elected to fill a vacancy shall 3 serve for the remainder of the term of office for that office. A special election under 4 this section must conform to the applicable election deadlines found in this title and 5 may be called to coincide with a regularly scheduled primary or general election 6 provided the special election is called by the fifteenth day before the deadline for 7 candidates to file for office before a regularly scheduled primary or general 8 election. ~~A special election under this section may not be scheduled to occur~~ 9 ~~during the time from a general election through eighty days following the~~ 10 ~~adjournment of the next ensuing regular session of the legislative assembly.~~

- 11 3. The secretary of state must be notified of an appointment made by a district 12 committee or the chairman of the legislative council according to this section.
13 Upon notification, the secretary of state shall issue the appointee a certificate of 14 appointment and an oath of office for the appointee to complete and file with the 15 secretary of state.

16 SECTION 2. AMENDMENT. Subsection 3 of section 44-02-02 of the North Dakota 17 Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

- 18 3. A member of the legislative assembly, to the presiding officer of the branch of 19 which the individual is a member, when in session, and when not in session, to the 20 chairman of the legislative council and governor. When made to the presiding 21 officer, the presiding officer at once shall notify the chairman of the legislative 22 council and governor of the resignation.
