Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, an employee or member who does not have an election of continuation coverage as described in this section in effect on the effective date of the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 [Pub. L. 111-5] but who would be an assistance-eligible individual under title III of the Act if the election were in effect may elect continuation coverage. The employer or the group policyholder shall provide employees or members with additional written notice of the right to elect coverage under this subsection. The employer or group policyholder must provide the notice to the employee or member within sixty days of the date of enactment of the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 or within fourteen days of the effective date of this Act, whichever is later. The employee or member must make the election in writing no later than sixty days after the date the employer or the group policyholder provides the notice to the employee or member as required by section 3001(a)(7) of the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 or this subsection.

- b. Continuation coverage elected under this subsection shall commence with the first period of coverage beginning on or after the date of the reenactment of the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 and shall not extend beyond the period of continuation coverage that would have been required if the coverage had instead been elected pursuant to subsection 4.
- c. The period beginning on the date that the enrollee was involuntarily terminated and ending when the coverage starts must be disregarded for the purpose of determining whether a preexisting condition exclusion period applies.
- d. An employee or member electing continuation under this subsection must pay to the group policyholder or the employer, on a monthly basis in advance, the amount of contribution required by the policyholder or employer, but not more than the group rate for the insurance being continued under the group policy on the due date of each payment. The employee's or member's written election of continuation, together with the contribution required to establish contributions on a monthly basis in advance, must be given to the policyholder or employer within thirty-one days of the date the employee's or member's insurance would otherwise terminate.
- e. Continuation of insurance under this subsection terminates at the earlier of the date when the person fails to satisfy subsection 2 or when the person fails to satisfy any requirement of subsection 6.
- f. Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, the provisions of this section apply to an employee or member electing continuation coverage.

SECTION 11. EMERGENCY. Sections 2 and 10 of this Act are declared to be an emergency measure."
