"SECTION 25. CENTERS OF EXCELLENCE STATE TAX REVENUE IMPACT STUDY - REPORT.

1. During the 2009-11 biennium, the state auditor, in consultation with the tax commissioner and the department of commerce, shall conduct a study of the state tax revenue impact of the centers of excellence program and shall calculate the direct impact of the program on state tax revenues. The study must include an analysis for each center of excellence of the actual matching funds received by source; actual number of private sector jobs created, including information as to whether the jobs would have been created without the center; and new private sector facilities opened as the result of the center. The study must be based on information available to the tax commissioner and the state auditor.
2. During the organizational session of the sixty-second legislative assembly, the state auditor shall submit to the president pro tempore of the senate and the speaker of the house a report on the findings and results of the centers of excellence tax revenue impact study.
3. The tax commissioner shall compile direct tax revenue and expenditure data and provide this data to the state auditor. Notwithstanding the confidentiality provisions contained in chapters 57-38 and 57-39.2, the tax commissioner shall provide the state auditor the information necessary to accomplish and effectuate the study required by this section. The tax commissioner may request the assistance of the department of commerce as necessary to compile this data.
4. The tax commissioner may establish the procedure and format by which the tax data will be provided to the state auditor. If additional information is needed by the state auditor to calculate the tax impact of the centers of excellence program, the state auditor may contact those taxpayers deemed necessary to effectuate the study required by this section.
5. Except as provided in subsection 6, the state auditor may establish the manner in which the centers of excellence impact data will be analyzed, organized, and presented in the report.
6. Confidential information the state auditor receives from the tax commissioner may not be divulged by the state auditor unless the information is in the aggregate and in a manner that will not divulge information specific to any taxpayer."
