

SECTION 4. LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL STUDY - ELECTED OFFICIALS' SALARIES.

During the 2009-10 interim, the legislative council shall consider studying the salaries of state elected officials. The study must include a comparison of salaries, the number of full-time equivalent and temporary employees supervised by the elected official, and the complexity of each elected official's responsibilities. The study must also include a comparison to similar positions in other states. The legislative council shall report its findings and recommendations, together with any legislation required to implement the recommendations, to the sixty-second legislative assembly.
