

SECTION 13. LEGISLATIVE MANAGEMENT STUDY - STATE AGENCY AIRPLANES. During the 2011-12 interim, the legislative management shall consider studying the use of state-owned airplanes. The study, if conducted, must include a review of airplanes owned by state agencies, the justification for each airplane, the frequency of use of each airplane, options for purchasing or leasing new airplanes, and the feasibility and desirability of requiring state airplanes to be managed by state fleet services. The legislative management shall report its findings and recommendations, together with any legislation required to implement the recommendations, to the sixty-third legislative assembly.
