1 13-11-02. License required.

2 It is unlawful for any person to act as a debt-settlement provider except as authorized by 3 this chapter and without first having obtained a license under this chapter. A person that 4 engages in debt settlement is deemed to engage in debt settlement in this state if the debtor
5 resides in this state.

6 13-11-03. Application for license.

7 Every application for a debt-settlement provider license, or for a renewal thereof, must be 8 made upon forms designed and furnished by the commissioner and must contain any 9 information which the commissioner determines necessary and proper. The commissioner may 10 require any application to provide additional information that is not requested on the application
11 form. The applicant must register with the secretary of state if so required.

12 13-11-04. Fee and bond to accompany application for debt-settlement license.

13 The application for license must be in writing, under oath, and in the form prescribed by the 14 commissioner. The application must give the location where the business is to be conducted 15 and must contain any further information the commissioner requires, including the names and 16 addresses of the partners, officers, directors, trustees, and the principal owners or members, as 17 will provide the basis for the investigation and findings contemplated by section 13-11-03. At the 18 time of making the application, the applicant shall include payment in the sum of four hundred 19 dollars, which is not subject to refund, as a fee for investigating the application; the sum of four 20 hundred dollars for the annual license fee; and provide a surety bond in the sum of fifty 21 thousand dollars or an additional amount as required by the commissioner by rule. In addition,
22 the applicant shall pay a fifty dollar annual fee for each branch location. Fees must be deposited 23 in the financial institutions regulatory fund as provided under section 6-01-01.1.

24 13-11-05. Qualifications for license.

- 25 1. Upon the filing of the application, the approval of the bond, and the payment of the 26 specified fees, the commissioner may issue a license if the commissioner finds all of 27 the following:
- 28 a. The financial responsibility, experience, character, and general fitness of the 29 applicant, managers, partners, officers, and directors are such as to command 30 the confidence of the community and to warrant belief that the business will be 31 operated fairly, honestly, and efficiently within the purposes of this chapter.

- b. The applicant, managers, partners, officers, and directors have not been convicted of a felony or a misdemeanor or disciplined with respect to a license or are not currently the subject of a license disciplinary proceeding concerning allegations involving dishonesty or untrustworthiness.
- c. The applicant, managers, partners, officers, and directors have not had a record of having defaulted in the payment of money collected for others, including the discharge of those debts through bankruptcy proceedings.
- d. The applicant or any managers, partners, officers, and directors previously have not violated any provision of this chapter or any rule adopted by the commissioner.
- e. The applicant has not made any false statement or representation to the commissioner in applying for a license under this chapter.

2. The commissioner shall deliver a license to the applicant to operate as a debt-settlement provider in accordance with this chapter at the location specified in the application. The license remains in full force and effect until it is surrendered by the debt-settlement provider or revoked by the commissioner as provided in this chapter; provided, however, that each license expires by its terms on December thirty-first next following its issuance unless renewed as provided in this chapter. A license may not be surrendered without the approval of the commissioner.

13-11-06. Expiration and renewal of license.

All licenses required under this chapter expire on December thirty-first of each year and may be renewed. Renewals are effective the succeeding January first. Applications for renewal must be submitted at least thirty days before the expiration of the license and must be accompanied by the required annual fees, which are not subject to refund. The form and content of renewal applications must be determined by the commissioner, and a renewal application may be denied upon the same grounds as would justify denial of an initial application. If a licensee has been delinquent in renewing the licensee's license, the commissioner may charge an additional fee of fifty dollars for the renewal of the license. A debt-settlement provider license is not transferable. If the commissioner determines that an ownership change has occurred in a sole proprietorship, partnership, limited liability partnership, corporation, or limited liability corporation that was previously granted a debt-settlement

1 provider license, the commissioner may require a new application from the purchaser. The 2 application must be filed at least thirty days before the date on which the change of ownership 3 is consummated.

4 13-11-07. Applicant's obligation to update information.

5 An applicant or registered provider shall notify the commissioner within ten days after a 6 change in the information provided within the application.

7 13-11-08. Records - Annual reports.

- 8 1. Every licensee shall maintain records in conformity with generally accepted accounting 9 principles and practices in a manner that will enable the commissioner to determine 10 whether the licensee is complying with this chapter. The records of a licensee may be 11 maintained electronically provided all records can be reproduced upon request of the 12 commissioner and within the required statutory timeframe outlined in this section.
13 2. Before August first of each year, the parent company of each licensee shall file with 14 the commissioner a composite annual report in the form prescribed by the 15 commissioner relating to services provided by licensees.

16 13-11-09. Approval or denial of a license.

17 Any complete application for a license must be approved or denied within sixty days after 18 the filing of the complete application with the commissioner.

19 13-11-10. Revocation of license - Suspension of license - Surrender of license.

- 20 1. If the commissioner has reason to believe that grounds for revocation of a license
21 exist, the commissioner may send by certified mail to the licensee a notice of hearing 22 stating the contemplated action and in general the grounds thereof and setting the 23 time and place for a hearing thereon. Grounds for revocation of a license include:
24 a. Any debt-settlement provider has failed to pay the annual license fee or to 25 maintain in effect the bond required under this chapter;
26 b. The debt-settlement provider has violated this chapter or any rule lawfully made 27 by the commissioner implementing this chapter;
28 c. Any fact or condition exists that, if it had existed at the time of the original 29 application for a license, would have warranted the commissioner in refusing its 30 issuance; or

d. Any applicant has made any false statement or representation to the commissioner in applying for a license under this chapter.

2. If the commissioner finds that probable cause for revocation of any license exists and that enforcement of the chapter requires immediate suspension of that license pending investigation, the commissioner, upon written notice, may enter an order suspending that license for a period not exceeding thirty days, pending the holding of a hearing as prescribed in this chapter.

3. Any licensee may surrender the licensee's license by delivering the license to the commissioner with written notice of its surrender; however, surrender of the license does not affect the licensee's civil or criminal liability for acts committed before the surrender of the license.

13-11-11. Suspension and removal of debt-settlement provider officers and employees.

1. The commissioner may issue and serve upon a debt-settlement provider officer or employee, and upon the licensee involved, a complaint stating the basis for the commissioner's belief that the officer or employee is willfully engaging or has willfully engaged in any of the following conduct:

a. Violating a law, rule, order, or written agreement with the commissioner;

b. Engaging in harassment or abuse, the making of false or misleading representations, engaging in unfair practices involving debt settlement, or engaging in prohibited acts and practices under section 13-11-23; or

c. Performing an act of commission or omission or practice that is a breach of trust or a breach of fiduciary duty.

2. The complaint must contain a notice of opportunity for hearing.

3. If a hearing is not requested within twenty days of the date the complaint is served upon the officer or employee, or if a hearing is held and the commissioner finds that the record so warrants, the commissioner may enter an order suspending or temporarily removing the employee or officer from office for a period not exceeding three years from the effective date of the suspension or temporary removal.

4. A contested or default suspension or temporary removal order is effective immediately upon service of the order on the officer or employee and upon the licensee. A consent

1 order is effective as agreed. An officer or employee suspended or temporarily removed 2 from office pursuant to this section is not eligible, while under suspension, for 3 reinstatement to a position with a debt-settlement provider.

4 5. When an officer or employee, or other person participating in the conduct of the affairs
5 of a licensee, is charged with a felony in state or federal court which involves 6 dishonesty or breach of trust, the commissioner immediately may suspend the person 7 from office or prohibit the person from further participation in the affairs of the 8 debt-settlement provider, or both. The order is effective immediately upon service of 9 the order on the licensee and the person charged and remains in effect until the 10 criminal charge is finally disposed of or until modified by the commissioner. If a 11 judgment of conviction, federal pretrial diversion, or similar state order or judgment is 12 entered, the commissioner may order that the suspension or prohibition be made 13 permanent. A finding of not guilty or other disposition of the charge does not preclude 14 the commissioner from pursuing administrative or civil remedies.

15 13-11-12. Advertising and marketing practices.

16 1. A debt-settlement provider may not represent, expressly or by implication, any results 17 or outcomes of its debt-settlement services in any advertising, marketing, or other 18 communication to consumers unless the debt-settlement provider possesses 19 substantiation for the representation at the time the representation is made.
20 2. A debt-settlement provider may not make, expressly or by implication, any unfair or 21 deceptive representations, or any omissions of material facts, in any of its advertising 22 or marketing communications concerning debt-settlement services.
23 3. All advertising and marketing communications concerning debt-settlement services
24 must disclose the following material information clearly and conspicuously:
25 Debt-settlement services are not appropriate for everyone. Failure to pay your monthly 26 bills in a timely manner will result in increased balances and will harm your credit
27 rating. Not all creditors will agree to reduce principal balance, and they may pursue 28 collection, including lawsuits.

29 13-11-13. Contracts, books, and records.

30 1. Upon request, each debt-settlement provider shall furnish to the commissioner a copy 31 of the contract entered between the debt-settlement provider and the debtor. The

1 debt-settlement provider shall furnish the debtor with a copy of the written contract at 2 the time of execution which sets forth the charges, if any, agreed upon for the services
3 of the debt-settlement provider.

4 2. Each debt-settlement provider shall maintain records and accounts that will enable 5 any debtor contracting with the debt-settlement provider, at any reasonable time, to 6 ascertain the status of all the debtor's accounts with the debt-settlement service 7 provider, including the amount of any fees paid by the debtor, amount held in trust, if 8 applicable, settlement offers made and received on each of the debtor's accounts, and 9 legally enforceable settlements reached with the debtor's creditors. Within seven days 10 after a request for that information by the debtor, the debt-settlement provider shall 11 furnish a statement showing the total amount received and the total disbursements to 12 each creditor to any individual. Each debt-settlement provider shall issue a receipt for 13 each payment made by the debtor at a debt-settlement provider office. Each 14 debt-settlement provider shall prepare and retain in the file of each debtor a written 15 analysis of the debtor's income and expenses to substantiate that the plan of payment 16 is feasible and practical.

17 13-11-14. Trust funds - Requirements and restrictions.

18 1. All funds received by a debt-settlement provider or the provider's agent from and for 19 the purpose of paying bills, invoices, or accounts of a debtor constitute trust funds 20 owned by and belonging to the debtor from whom the funds were received. All such 21 funds received by the debt-settlement provider must be separated from the funds of 22 the debt-settlement provider not later than the end of the business day following 23 receipt by the debt-settlement provider. All such funds must be kept separate and 24 apart at all times from funds belonging to the debt-settlement provider or any of its 25 officers, employees, or agents and may be used for no purpose other than paying bills,
26 invoices, or accounts of the debtor. On or before the close of the business day 27 following receipt, all such trust funds received at the main or branch offices of a 28 debt-settlement provider must be deposited in a bank in an account in the name of the 29 debt-settlement provider-designated trust account, or by some other appropriate name 30 indicating that the funds are not the funds of the debt-settlement provider or its 31 officers, employees, or agents.

2. Such funds are not subject to attachment, lien, levy of execution, or sequestration by order of court except by a debtor for whom a debt-settlement provider is acting as an agent in paying bills, invoices, or accounts.

3. At least once every month, the debt-settlement provider shall render an accounting to the debtor that itemizes the total amount received from the debtor, the total amount paid each creditor, the amount of charges deducted, and any amount held in reserve, if applicable, and the status of each of the debtor's enrolled accounts. In addition, a debt-settlement provider shall provide such an accounting to a debtor within seven days after written demand, but not more than three times per six-month period.

4. This chapter does not require the establishment of a trust account if no consumer funds other than earned settlement fees are held or controlled by a debt-settlement provider.

13-11-15. Requirement of good faith.

A provider shall act in good faith in all matters under this chapter.

13-11-16. Customer service.

A provider that is required to be registered under this chapter shall maintain a toll-free communication system, staffed at a level that reasonably permits an individual to speak to a certified counselor or customer service representative, as appropriate, during ordinary business hours.

13-11-17. Required presale consumer disclosures and warnings.

1. Before the consumer signs a contract, the debt-settlement provider shall provide an oral and written notice to the consumer that clearly and conspicuously discloses all of the following:

a. Debt-settlement services may not be suitable for all consumers.

b. Using a debt-settlement service likely will harm the consumer's credit history and credit score.

c. Using a debt-settlement service does not stop creditor collection activity, including creditor lawsuits and garnishments.

d. Not all creditors will accept a reduction in the balance, interest rate, or fees a consumer owes.

- 1 e. The consumer should inquire about other means of dealing with debt, including 2 nonprofit credit counseling and bankruptcy.
- 3 f. The consumer remains obligated to make periodic or scheduled payments to 4 creditors while participating in a debt-settlement plan, and that the 5 debt-settlement provider will not make any periodic or scheduled payments to 6 creditors on behalf of the consumer.
- 7 g. The failure to make periodic or scheduled payments to a creditor is likely to:
8 (1) Harm the consumer's credit history, credit rating, or credit score;
9 (2) Lead the creditor to increase lawful collection activity, including litigation, 10 garnishment of the consumer's wages, and judgment liens on the 11 consumer's property; and 12 (3) Lead to the imposition by the creditor of interest charges, late fees, and 13 other penalty fees, increasing the principal amount of the debt.
- 14 h. The amount of time estimated to be necessary to achieve the represented 15 results.
- 16 i. The estimated amount of money or the percentage of debt the consumer must 17 accumulate before a settlement offer will be made to each of the consumer's 18 creditors.
- 19 j. A statement indicating that debt-settlement providers are licensed and regulated
20 by the North Dakota department of financial institutions and any complaints 21 regarding the services of a debt-settlement provider should be directed to the 22 North Dakota department of financial institutions, Bismarck, North Dakota.
- 23 2. The consumer shall sign and date an acknowledgment form entitled "Consumer 24 Notice and Rights Form" that states: "I, the debtor, have received from the 25 debt-settlement provider a copy of the form entitled "Consumer Notice and Rights 26 Form". The debt-settlement provider or its representative also shall sign and date the 27 acknowledgment form, which includes the name and address of the debt-settlement
28 services provider. The acknowledgment form must be in duplicate and incorporated 29 into the "Consumer Notice and Rights Form". The original acknowledgment form must 30 be retained by the debt-settlement provider, and the duplicate copy must be retained
31 within the form by the consumer. If the acknowledgment form is in electronic form,

1 then the acknowledgment form must contain the consumer disclosures required by 2 section 101(c) of the federal Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce
3 Act [15 U.S.C. 7001(c)].

4 3. The requirements of this section are satisfied if the provider provides the following
5 warning verbatim, both orally and in writing, with the caption "CONSUMER NOTICE
6 AND RIGHTS FORM" in at least twenty-eight-point font and the remaining portion in at 7 least fourteen-point font to a consumer before the consumer signs a contract for the 8 debt-settlement provider's services:

- 24 debt-settlement provider from the consumer for the provision of debt-settlement
- 25 service contemplated by the contract.
- 26 j. A statement of the proposed savings goals for the consumer, stating the amount

- 8 (1) The consumer is entitled to a full refund of all unearned fees and
- 9 compensation paid by the consumer to the debt-settlement provider, and a
- 10 full refund of all funds provided by the consumer to the debt-settlement
- 11 provider for a consumer settlement account, except for funds actually paid
- 12 to a creditor on behalf of the consumer, under the terms of the contract for

- 25 language.
- 26 13-11-20. Cancellation of contract and right to fee and settlement fund refunds.
- 27 1. A consumer may cancel a contract with a debt-settlement provider at any time before

- 30 perform.

- 1 2. If a consumer cancels a contract with a debt-settlement provider, or at any time upon a

5 consumer to the debt-settlement provider that have accumulated in a consumer 6 settlement account and that the debt-settlement provider has not disbursed to 7 creditors. Upon cancellation, all powers of attorney and direct debit authorizations 8 granted to the debt-settlement provider by the consumer are considered revoked and 9 voided.

24 enrollment fee of no more than one hundred dollars.
- 25 3. A debt-settlement provider may charge a settlement fee that may not exceed an 26 amount greater than fifteen percent of the savings. If the amount paid by the 27 debt-settlement provider to the creditor or negotiated by the debt-settlement provider 28 and paid by the consumer to the creditor pursuant to a settlement negotiated by the 29 debt-settlement provider on behalf of the consumer as full and complete satisfaction of 30 the creditor's claim with regard to that debt is greater than the principal amount of the 31 debt, the debt-settlement provider is not entitled to any settlement fee.

1 4. A debt-settlement provider may not collect any settlement fee from a consumer until a
2 creditor enters into a legally enforceable agreement to accept funds in a specific dollar
3 amount as full and complete satisfaction of the creditor's claim with regard to that debt 4 and those funds are provided by the debt-settlement provider on behalf of the 5 consumer or are provided directly by the consumer to the creditor pursuant to a 6 settlement negotiated by the debt-settlement provider.

7 13-11-22. Voluntary contributions.

8 A provider may not solicit a voluntary contribution from an individual or an affiliate of the 9 individual for any service provided to the individual. A provider may accept voluntary 10 contributions from an individual but, until thirty days after completion or termination of a plan, 11 the aggregate amount of money received from or on behalf of the individual may not exceed the 12 total amount the provider may charge the individual under section 13-11-21.

13 13-11-23. Prohibited acts and practices.

- 15 a. Misappropriate or misapply money held in trust;
 - 16 b. Settle a debt on behalf of an individual for more than fifty percent of the principal 17 amount of the debt owed a creditor, unless the individual assents to the 18 settlement after the creditor has assented;
 - 19 c. Take a power of attorney that authorizes the provider to settle a debt, unless the 20 power of attorney expressly limits the provider's authority to settle debts for not 21 more than fifty percent of the principal amount of the debt owed a creditor;
 - 22 d. Exercise or attempt to exercise a power of attorney after an individual has 23 terminated a contract;
 - 24 e. Initiate a transfer from an individual's account at a bank or with another person

28 chapter, and for:
 - 29 (a) Payment to one or more creditors pursuant to a plan; or

2 executing a contract;
- 3 g. Offer, pay, or give a gift or bonus, premium, reward, or other compensation to a 4 person for referring a prospective customer, if the person making the referral has 5 a financial interest in the outcome of debt-management services provided to the 6 customer, unless neither the provider nor the person making the referral 7 communicates to the prospective customer the identity of the source of the 8 referral;
- 9 h. Receive a bonus, commission, or other benefit for referring an individual to a 10 person;
- 11 i. Structure a plan in a manner that would result in a negative amortization of any of 12 an individual's debts, unless a creditor that is owed a negatively amortizing debt
13 agrees to refund or waive the finance charge upon payment of the principal 14 amount of the debt;
- 15 j. Compensate the provider's employees on the basis of a formula that incorporates 16 the number of individuals the employee induces to enter contracts;
- 17 k. Settle a debt or lead an individual to believe that a payment to a creditor is in 18 settlement of a debt to the creditor unless, at the time of settlement, the individual 19 receives a certification by the creditor that the payment is in full settlement of the 20 debt;
- 21 l. Make a representation that:
- 22 (1) The provider will furnish money to pay bills or prevent attachments;
- 23 (2) Payment of a certain amount will permit satisfaction of a certain amount or 24 range of indebtedness; or
- 25 (3) Participation in a plan will or may prevent litigation, garnishment, 26 attachment, repossession, foreclosure, eviction, or loss of employment;
- 27 m. Misrepresent that the provider is authorized or competent to furnish legal advice 28 or perform legal services;
- 29 n. Represent that it is a not-for-profit entity unless the provider is organized and 30 properly operating as a not-for-profit under the law of the state in which it was

1 formed or that it is a tax-exempt entity unless the provider has received
2 certification of tax-exempt status from the internal revenue service;

3 o. Take a confession of judgment or power of attorney to confess judgment against 4 an individual; or

5 p. Employ an unfair, unconscionable, or deceptive act or practice, including the 6 knowing omission of any material information.

7 2. If a provider furnishes debt-management services to an individual, the provider may 8 not, directly or indirectly:

9 a. Purchase a debt or obligation of the individual;

10 b. Receive from or on behalf of the individual:

11 (1) A promissory note or other negotiable instrument other than a check or a 12 demand draft; or

13 (2) A postdated check or demand draft;

14 c. Lend money or provide credit to the individual, except as a deferral of a 15 settlement fee at no additional expense to the individual;

16 d. Obtain a mortgage or other security interest from any person in connection with 17 the services provided to the individual;

18 e. Except as permitted by federal law, disclose the identity or identifying information 19 of the individual or the identity of the individual's creditors, except to:

20 (1) The commissioner, upon proper demand;

21 (2) A creditor of the individual, to the extent necessary to secure the 22 cooperation of the creditor in a plan; or

23 (3) The extent necessary to administer the plan;

24 f. Except as otherwise provided in section 13-11-21, provide the individual less than 25 the full benefit of a compromise of a debt arranged by the provider;

26 g. Charge the individual for or provide credit or other insurance, coupons for goods 27 or services, membership in a club, access to computers or the internet, or any 28 other matter not directly related to debt-management services or educational 29 services concerning personal finance; or

h. Furnish legal advice or perform legal services, unless the person furnishing that advice to or performing those services for the individual is licensed to practice law.

3. This chapter does not authorize any person to engage in the practice of law.

4. A provider may not receive a gift or bonus, premium, reward, or other compensation, directly or indirectly, for advising, arranging, or assisting an individual in connection with obtaining an extension of credit or other service from a lender or service provider, except for educational or counseling services required in connection with a government-sponsored program.

5. Unless a person supplies goods, services, or facilities generally and supplies them to the provider at a cost no greater than the cost the person generally charges to others, a provider may not purchase goods, services, or facilities from the person if an employee or a person that the provider should reasonably know is an affiliate of the provider:

a. Owns more than ten percent of the person; or

b. Is an employee or affiliate of the person.

13-11-24. Notice of litigation.

Within thirty days after a provider has been served with notice of a civil action for violation of this chapter by or on behalf of an individual who resides in this state at either the time of a contract or the time the notice is served, the provider shall notify the commissioner in a record that it has been sued.

13-11-25. Liability for the conduct of other persons.

If a provider delegates any of its duties or obligations under a contract or this chapter to another person, including an independent contractor, the provider is liable for conduct of the person which, if done by the provider, would violate the contract or this chapter.

13-11-26. Powers of the commissioner.

Insofar as consistent with other provisions of law, the commissioner may:

1. Determine the qualifications of all applicants based on financial responsibility, financial condition, business experience, character, and general fitness which must reasonably warrant the belief that the applicant's business will be conducted lawfully and fairly. In determining whether this qualification is met, and for the purpose of investigating

1 compliance with this chapter, the commissioner may review and consider the relevant
2 business records and capital adequacy of the applicant and the competence,
3 experience, integrity, and financial ability of a person who is a member, partner,
4 director, officer, or twenty-five percent or more shareholder of the applicant.

5 2. Conduct investigations and make an examination of any person, whether licensed or 6 not, who is engaged in the debt-settlement services business, including all records of 7 such business, and to subpoena witnesses anytime the commissioner has reason to 8 believe such is necessary. The licensee shall pay an examination or visitation fee and 9 must be charged by the commissioner at an hourly rate to be set by the commissioner, 10 sufficient to cover all reasonable expenses of the department associated with the 11 examination or visitation provided for by this section. Fees must be deposited in the 12 financial institutions regulatory fund.

13 3. Issue and serve upon any person or licensed debt-settlement provider an order to 14 cease and desist to take corrective action when the commissioner has reason to 15 believe the person or agency is violating, has violated, or is about to violate the 16 provisions of this chapter. An interested party may appeal issuance of a cease and 17 desist order under chapter 28-32 by filing written notice of appeal within twenty days
18 after service of the order.

19 4. Deny, suspend, revoke, condition, or decline to renew a license for a violation of this 20 chapter, rules or regulations issued under this chapter, or an order or directive entered 21 under this chapter.

22 5. Deny, suspend, revoke, condition, or decline to renew a license if an applicant or 23 licensee withholds information or makes a material misstatement in an application for 24 a license or renewal of a license.

25 13-11-27. Enforcement authorities, violations, and penalties.

26 1. Any person that violates this chapter or any rule or order of the commissioner under 27 this chapter or which engages in any act, practice, or transaction declared by any 28 provision of this chapter to be unlawful is guilty of a class C felony.

29 2. The commissioner may impose a civil money penalty not to exceed five thousand 30 dollars per violation upon a person or agency that willfully violates a law, rule, written 31 agreement, or order under this chapter. An interested party may appeal the

1 assessment of a civil money penalty under chapter 28-32 by filing a written notice of 2 appeal within twenty days after service of the assessment of civil money penalties. A 3 civil money penalty collected under this section must be paid to the state treasurer and 4 deposited in the financial institutions regulatory fund.

5 3. The attorney general also may enforce this chapter. The attorney general, in enforcing 6 this chapter, has all the powers provided in this chapter or chapter 51-15 and may 7 seek all remedies in this chapter or chapter 51-15. A violation of this chapter is 8 deemed a violation of chapter 51-15. The remedies, duties, prohibitions, and penalties
9 of this chapter are not exclusive and are in addition to all other causes of action, 10 remedies, and penalties under chapter 51-15, or otherwise provided by law.

11 13-11-28. Voidable contracts.

12 1. If a provider imposes a fee or other charge or receives money or other payments not 13 authorized by sections 13-11-21 and 13-11-22, the individual may void the contract 14 and recover as provided in section 13-11-20.
15 2. If a provider is not licensed as required by this chapter when an individual assents to a 16 contract, the contract is voidable by the individual.
17 3. If an individual voids a contract under subsection 2, the provider does not have a claim 18 against the individual for breach of contract or for restitution.

19 13-11-29. Private enforcement.

20 Any person that is aggrieved by a violation of this chapter may bring an action to enjoin the 21 violation, or for restitution, or both. The court may award the plaintiff the plaintiff's actual 22 restitution or a sum up to two thousand dollars, whichever is greater. The court may award the 23 plaintiff costs, expenses, and reasonable attorney's fees. This section does not limit any other 24 claims the person may have against the debt-settlement provider or any third party subject to 25 this chapter.
