4 SECTION 1. A new section to chapter 14-05 of the North Dakota Century Code is created 5 and enacted as follows:

6 Summary real estate disposition judgment.

- 7 1. If real estate is described in a judgment and decree of divorce, the court may direct 8 either of the parties or their legal counsel to prepare and submit to the court, in a form
9 prescribed by the court, a proposed summary real estate disposition judgment. Upon 10 approval by the court and filing of the summary real estate disposition judgment with 11 the ~~court administrator~~ clerk of court, the ~~court administrator~~ clerk of court shall provide 12 to any party upon request certified copies of the summary real estate disposition 13 judgment.
- 14 2. A summary real estate disposition judgment must contain the following information:
- 15 a. The full caption and file number of the case and the title "Summary Real Estate 16 Disposition Judgment";
- 17 b. The dates of the parties' marriage and of the entry of the judgment and decree of 18 divorce;
- 19 c. The names of the parties' attorneys or if either or both appeared pro se;
- 20 d. The name of the judge and referee, if any, who signed the order for judgment and 21 decree;
- 22 e. Whether the judgment and decree resulted from a stipulation, a default, or a trial 23 and the appearances at the default or trial;

- 1 f. If the judgment and decree resulted from a stipulation, whether the real property 2 was described by a legal description;
- 3 g. If the judgment and decree resulted from a default, whether the petition contained 4 the legal description of the property and whether disposition was made in 5 accordance with the request for relief;
- 6 h. Whether the summons and petition were served personally upon the respondent
7 in accordance with the North Dakota Rules of Civil Procedure;
- 8 i. If the summons and petition were served on the respondent only by publication, 9 the name of each legal newspaper and county in which the summons and 10 petition were published and the dates of publications;

12 decree;

- 14 l. The name or names of the persons awarded an interest in each parcel of real 15 estate and a description of the interest awarded;
- 16 m. Liens, mortgages, encumbrances, or other interests in the real estate described 17 in the judgment and decree; and
- 18 n. Triggering or contingent events set forth in the judgment and decree affecting the 19 disposition of each parcel of real estate.
- 20 3. a. On the court's own motion or on application by an interested person, the court 21 shall issue an order authorizing the ~~court administrator~~ clerk of court to issue an 22 amended summary real estate disposition judgment to correct an erroneous legal 23 description of real estate contained in the judgment and decree of divorce.
- 24 b. An application to correct a legal description under this subdivision must contain:
25 (1) The erroneous legal description contained in the judgment and decree;
26 (2) The correct legal description of the real estate;
27 (3) Written evidence satisfactory to the court to show the correct legal 28 description, or a request for an evidentiary hearing to produce evidence of 29 the correct legal description; and 30 (4) A proposed amended summary real estate disposition judgment.

1 c. The court shall consider an application under this subsection on an expedited
2 basis. The court's order must be based on the evidence provided in the 3 application, the evidence produced at an evidentiary hearing, or the evidence
4 already in the record of the proceeding. If the court is satisfied that an erroneous 5 legal description should be corrected under this subsection, the court may issue 6 its order without a hearing or notice to any person. A filing fee is not required for 7 an application under this subsection. The court's order must be treated as an 8 amendment of the court's findings of fact regarding the legal description of the 9 property in question, without the need to amend the original judgment and 10 decree. The court shall issue the order if the court specifically finds that the court 11 had jurisdiction over the respondent in the divorce proceeding and that the 12 property was sufficiently identified in the original proceedings to prevent prejudice 13 to the rights of either party to the divorce and that the amendment will not 14 prejudice their rights. The court's order is effective retroactive to the date of entry 15 of the original judgment and decree of divorce.

16 d. An amended summary real estate disposition judgment must be treated the same 17 as the prior summary real estate disposition judgment for all purposes.

18 e. On request by any interested person, the ~~court administrator~~ clerk of court shall 19 provide a certified copy of an amended summary real estate disposition judgment
20 showing the correct legal description of the real property affected by the judgment 21 and decree.

22 f. This subsection may not be used to add omitted property to a judgment and 23 decree of divorce, unless the court determines that the omitted property is an 24 integral or appurtenant part of real property already properly included in the 25 judgment and decree.

26 4. An order or provision in a judgment and decree that provides that the judgment and 27 decree must be recorded in the office of the county recorder means, if a summary real 28 estate disposition judgment has been approved by the court, that the summary real 29 estate disposition judgment, rather than the judgment and decree, must be recorded in 30 the office of the county recorder.

- 1 5. The summary real estate disposition judgment operates as a conveyance and transfer 2 of each interest in the real estate in the manner and to the extent described in the 3 summary real estate disposition judgment. A summary real estate disposition 4 judgment, or an amended summary real estate disposition judgment that supersedes 5 an earlier judgment, is prima facie evidence of the facts stated in the summary real 6 estate disposition judgment. A purchaser for value without notice of any defect in the 7 divorce proceedings may rely on a summary real estate disposition judgment or a later 8 amended summary real estate disposition judgment to establish the facts stated in the 9 judgment.
- 10 6 If a conflict exists between the judgment and decree and the summary real estate 11 disposition judgment, the summary real estate disposition judgment recorded in the 12 office of the county recorder controls as to the interest acquired in real estate by any 13 subsequent purchaser in good faith and for a valuable consideration, who is in 14 possession of the interest or whose interest is recorded with the county recorder.
15 before the recording of the judgment and decree in office of county recorder.
