BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1.

Definitions.

As used in this Act only:

1. "Donor" means an individual from whose body gametes were obtained, or an individual from whose body cells or tissues were obtained for the purpose of creating gametes or human embryos, whether for valuable consideration or not.
2. "Embryo" means an organism in its earliest stages of development, including the single-cell stage.
3. "Facility" or "medical facility" means any public or private hospital, clinic, center, medical school, medical training institution, health care facility, physician's office, infirmary, dispensary, ambulatory surgical treatment center, or other institution or location wherein medical care is provided to any person.
4. "Gamete" means an egg (oocyte) or sperm.
5. "Human-animal hybrid" means any of the following:
 - a. A human embryo into which a nonhuman cell or a component of a nonhuman cell is introduced so that it is uncertain whether the human embryo is a member of the species homo sapiens;
 - b. An embryo produced by fertilizing a human egg with a nonhuman sperm;
 - c. An embryo produced by fertilizing a nonhuman egg with a human sperm;
 - d. An embryo produced by introducing a nonhuman nucleus into a human egg;

- e. An embryo produced by introducing a human nucleus into a nonhuman egg;
 - f. An embryo containing at least haploid sets of chromosomes from both a human and a nonhuman life form;
 - g. A nonhuman life form engineered with the intention of generating functional human gametes within the body of a nonhuman life form; or
 - h. A nonhuman life form engineered such that it contains a human brain or a brain derived wholly from human neural tissues.
6. "Human embryo" means an organism with a human or predominantly human genetic constitution from the single-cell stage to eight weeks development that is derived by fertilization (in vitro or in utero), parthenogenesis, cloning (somatic cell nuclear transfer), or any other means from one or more human gametes or human diploid cells.
7. "In vitro" means outside the human body.
8. "In vitro human embryo" means a human embryo created outside the human body.
9. "Pay" or "payment" means pay, contract for, or otherwise arrange for the payment of in whole or in part.
10. "Valuable consideration" means financial gain or advantage, including cash, in-kind payments, reimbursement for any costs incurred in connection with the removal, processing, disposal, preservation, quality control, storage, transfer, or donation of human gametes, including lost wages of the donor, as well as any other consideration.

SECTION 2.

Ethical treatment of human embryos.

- 1. A person may not intentionally or knowingly create or attempt to create an in vitro human embryo by any means other than fertilization of a human egg by a human sperm.
- 2. The creation of an in vitro human embryo may be solely for the purpose of initiating a human pregnancy by means of transfer to the body of a human female for the treatment of human infertility. A pregnancy may not be initiated with the intention of deliberately destroying the embryo for scientific research. A human embryo may not be gestated to the fetal stage for purposes of destroying the fetus in order to harvest tissue, organs, or stem cells. A person may not intentionally or knowingly transfer or attempt to transfer an embryo that is not the product of fertilization of a human egg by a human sperm into a human body.
- 3. A person may not intentionally or knowingly:
 - a. Create or attempt to create a human-animal hybrid;
 - b. Transfer or attempt to transfer a human embryo into a nonhuman womb;
 - c. Transfer or attempt to transfer a nonhuman embryo into a human womb; or
 - d. Transfer or receive for any purpose a human-animal hybrid or any product derived from such hybrid.
- 4. This section does not prohibit:

- a. Research involving the use of transgenic animal models containing human genes;
- b. Xenotransplantation of human organs, tissues, or cells into recipient animals, including animals at any stage of development before birth, if the xenotransplantation does not violate a prohibition in subsection 3;
- c. A person from receiving organs, tissues, or cells delivered from outside this state; or
- d. Cryopreservation of a human embryo.

SECTION 3.

Valuable consideration prohibited.

A person may not give or receive valuable consideration, offer to give or receive valuable consideration, or advertise for the giving or receiving of valuable consideration for the provision of gametes or in vitro human embryos. This section does not regulate or prohibit the procurement of gametes for the treatment of infertility being experienced by the patient from whom the gametes are being derived. This Act may not be construed as prohibiting the cryopreservation of gametes.

SECTION 4.

Identification.

An in vitro human embryo must be given an identification by the facility for use within the medical facility. Records must be maintained identifying the donors associated with the in vitro human embryo. The confidentiality of records kept under this section must be maintained.

SECTION 5.

Care and treatment of in vitro human embryos.

1. A living in vitro human embryo is a biological human being who is not the property of any person. The fertility physician and the medical facility that employs the physician owe a high duty of care to the living in vitro human embryo. Any contractual provision identifying the living in vitro embryo as the property of any party is null and void. The in vitro human embryo may not be intentionally destroyed for any purpose by any person or through the actions of such person.
2. An in vitro human embryo that fails to show any sign of life over a thirty-six-hour period outside a state of cryopreservation may be considered no longer living.

SECTION 6.

Judicial standard.

In disputes arising between any parties regarding an in vitro human embryo, the judicial standard for resolving such disputes is the best interest of the in vitro human embryo.

SECTION 7.

Penalty.

1. It is a class B misdemeanor for a person to violate this Act.

2. A violation of this Act by a physician constitutes grounds for disciplinary action under section 43-17-31.
3. A violation of this Act may be the basis for denying an application for, denying an application for the renewal of, or revoking any license, permit, certificate, or any other form of permission required to practice or engage in a medical trade, occupation, or profession.
4. A violation this Act by an employee of a licensed health care facility to which the management of said facility consents, knows, or should know may be the basis for denying an application for, denying an application for the renewal of, temporarily suspending, or permanently revoking any operational license, permit, certificate, or any other form of permission required to operate a medical or health care facility.

SECTION 8.

Construction.

1. Nothing in this Act may be construed as creating or recognizing a right to abortion.
2. It is not the intention of this Act to make lawful an abortion that is currently unlawful."

32-15-06.1. Duty to negotiate - Just compensation - Appraisals.

1. A condemnor shall make every reasonable and diligent effort to acquire property by negotiation. In addition to the requirements of this section, to be a reasonable and diligent effort the condemnor shall submit to the owner by certified mail three offers of negotiation and just compensations. A condemnor may not exercise the right of eminent domain unless the condemnor complies with this section.
2. Before initiating negotiations for the purchase of property, the condemnor shall establish an amount which it believes to be just compensation therefor and promptly shall submit to the owner an offer to acquire the property for the full amount so established. The amount shall not be less than the condemnor's approved appraisal or written statement and summary of just compensation for the property.
3. In establishing the amount believed to be just compensation, the condemnor shall disregard any decrease or increase in the fair market value of the property caused by the project for which the property is to be acquired or by the reasonable likelihood that the property will be acquired for that project, other than a decrease due to physical deterioration within the reasonable control of the owner.
4. The condemnor shall provide the owner of the property with a written appraisal, if one has been prepared, or if one has not been prepared, with a written statement and summary, showing the basis for the amount it established as just compensation for the property. If appropriate, the compensation for the property to be acquired and for the damages to remaining property shall be separately stated.

"SECTION 1. A new section to chapter 15-10 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Professional student exchange programs - Notes - Repayment.

1. Before the state board of higher education makes a payment to an out-of-state institution on behalf of an individual participating in a professional student exchange program in dentistry, optometry, or veterinary medicine, that individual must sign an annual note with the Bank of North Dakota in an amount equal to that by which the individual's tuition is reduced as a result of a contract between the institution and the board.
2. If the individual who signed the note in accordance with subsection 1 is not practicing dentistry, optometry, or veterinary medicine in this state thirty-six months after the individual's date of graduation, the individual shall begin repaying the note, together with interest accruing from the date of signing, at the rate per annum established by the Bank of North Dakota.
 - a. If the individual who signed the note in accordance with subsection 1 elects to practice dentistry, optometry, or veterinary medicine in this state, or if the individual begins to practice in this state at any time between the individual's graduation and thirty-six months thereafter, the Bank of North Dakota shall reduce the amount of the note by one-third, together with all accrued interest, for each full year the individual serves in that capacity.
 - b. If an individual ceases to practice dentistry, optometry, or veterinary medicine in this state before the note is waived in its entirety, the individual shall repay the remaining portion of the note, together with interest accruing at the rate per annum established by the Bank of North Dakota, from the date that the individual ceased such practice.

4. If the individual who signed the note in accordance with subsection 1 departs before graduation from a program in dentistry, optometry, or veterinary medicine, the individual shall begin repaying the note, at the time of departure, together with interest accruing from the date of signing, at the rate per annum established by the Bank of North Dakota.
5. The Bank of North Dakota shall determine all other terms applicable to the time and manner in which the notes must be repaid.
6. The Bank of North Dakota shall defer any repayment of a note otherwise due under this section, for the period of time the individual who signed the note is:
 - a. Pursuing full-time graduate or postdoctoral studies; or
 - b. Called to active duty as a member of the armed forces.
7. The state board of higher education shall consult with the Bank of North Dakota and adopt rules implementing this section.
8. This section is applicable only to individuals initially entering a professional student exchange program in dentistry, optometry, or veterinary medicine after June 30, 2014."
