29 official records, reports, or other records provided for in this chapter, of birth, death,
30 fetal death, marriage, divorce, or other records as may be determined by the state
31 health officer.

~~16-17.~~ "Relative" means a person's current or surviving spouse, a parent or legal guardian, a child, a grandparent, or a grandchild. The state registrar may require proof of the relationship.

~~17-18.~~ "Subregistrar" means a funeral director or other suitable person from a licensed funeral home who is appointed by the state registrar for the purpose of issuing burial-transit permits.

~~18-19.~~ "System of health statistics tabulation and analysis" includes the tabulation, analysis, and presentation or publication of statistical data derived from health statistics.

~~19-20.~~ "System of vital records registration" includes the registration, collection, preservation, amendment, and certification of birth, death, fetal death, marriage, divorce, or other records as may be determined necessary by the state health officer or the state health officer's designee.

SECTION 2. AMENDMENT. Section 23-02.1-13 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

23-02.1-13. Birth registration.

1. A birth record for each live birth that occurs in this state must be filed with the state registrar.
2. When a birth occurs in an institution, the person in charge of the institution or a designated representative must use the state department of health's electronic birth registration system to report the birth, including all personal and medical facts, to the state registrar within five days after the birth.
3. When a birth occurs outside an institution, the required forms prescribed by the state department of health must be prepared and filed with the state registrar, within thirty days of the birth by one of the following in the indicated order of priority:
 - a. The physician in attendance at or immediately after the birth, or in the absence of such a person an individual;
 - b. Any other person individual in attendance at or immediately after the birth, or in the absence of such a person an individual; or
 - c. The father, the mother, or in the absence of the father and the inability of the mother, the person individual in charge of the premises where the birth occurred within five days after the birth.

- 1 4. If a man and the mother are or have been married or have attempted to marry each 2 other in apparent compliance with law, although the attempted marriage is or could be 3 declared invalid, and the child is born during the marriage or attempted marriage, or 4 within three hundred days after the termination of cohabitation or after the marriage or 5 attempted marriage is terminated by death, annulment, declaration of invalidity, or 6 divorce, or after a decree of separation is entered by a court, the name of the man
7 must be entered on the record as the father of the child unless the presumption of 8 paternity has been rebutted by a court decree;
- 9 ~~a. The presumption of paternity has been rebutted by a court order; or~~ 10 ~~b. The child's natural mother and the child's biological father, as determined by~~ 11 ~~medical testing, voluntarily acknowledge the child's paternity on a form~~
12 ~~prescribed by the state department of health, signed by the child's natural mother~~
13 ~~and biological father, and filed with the state registrar.~~
- 14 5. If the child is not born during the marriage of the mother, or within three hundred days 15 after a marriage is terminated by death, annulment, declaration of invalidity, or divorce,
16 or after a decree of separation is entered by a court, the name of the father may not 17 be entered on the birth record unless:
- 18 a. After the child's birth, the father and the child's natural mother have married, or 19 attempted to marry, each other by a marriage solemnized in apparent compliance 20 with law, although the attempted marriage is or could be declared invalid, and:
21 (1) He has acknowledged his paternity of the child in writing filed with the state
22 registrar; or
23 (2) He is obligated to support the child under a written voluntary promise or by 24 court order;
- 25 b. After the child's birth, the child's natural mother and the father voluntarily
26 acknowledge the child's paternity in a writing on a form prescribed by the state
27 department of health, signed by both the child's natural mother and biological 28 father, and filed with the state registrar; or
- 29 c. A court or other entity of competent jurisdiction has adjudicated paternity.
- 30 6. If, in accordance with subsections 4 and 5, the name of the father of the child is not 31 entered on the birth record, the child's surname must be shown on the birth record as the current legal surname of the mother at the time of birth unless an affidavit or an acknowledgment of paternity signed by both parents is received ~~stating the surname to be that of the father~~ filed with the state department of health.

SECTION 3. AMENDMENT. Section 23-02.1-15 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

23-02.1-15. Delayed registration of birth.

1. When the birth of a person born in this state has not been registered, a record may be filed in accordance with the regulations of the state department of health. Such record must be registered subject to such evidentiary requirements as the state department of health shall prescribe to substantiate the alleged facts of birth.
2. Records of birth registered one year or more after the date of occurrence must be marked "delayed" and show on their face the date of delayed registration.
3. A summary statement of the evidence submitted in support of the delayed registration must be endorsed on the record.
4.
 - a. When an applicant does not submit the minimum documentation required in the regulations for delayed registration or when the state registrar finds reason to question the validity or adequacy of the record or documentary evidence, the state registrar may not register the delayed record and shall advise the applicant of the reasons for this action. In the event that the deficiencies are not corrected, the state registrar shall advise the applicant of the right of appeal to a court of competent jurisdiction for a judicial determination of the birth facts.
 - b. The state department of health may by regulation provide for the dismissal of an application which is more than ~~two years~~ one year old and is not being actively pursued.
5. A report of live birth may not be registered for a deceased person one year or more after that person's date of birth.

SECTION 4. AMENDMENT. Section 23-02.1-19 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

23-02.1-19. Death registration.

1. A death record for each death that occurs in this state must be filed with the state registrar in accordance with the rules and regulations set forth by the state department of health using the electronic death registration system. All registration and issuing of copies of death records will be completed by the state department of health.

2. The funeral director shall obtain the facts of death from the next of kin or the best qualified person or source available and must file the facts of death information using the electronic death registration system within three days after assuming custody of the dead body. The funeral director shall obtain the medical certification of death from the person responsible for the medical certification.

3. The medical certification must be completed and filed using the electronic death registration system within ~~fifteen~~ten days after death by the physician, physician assistant, or nurse practitioner in charge of the patient's care for the illness or condition which resulted in death except when inquiry is required by the local health officer or coroner.

4. When death occurred without medical attendance or when inquiry is required by the local health officer or coroner, the county coroner shall investigate the cause of death, and shall obtain medical information about the individual from the individual's medical records or last-known physician or physician assistant, and shall complete and file the medical certification within ~~fifteen~~ten days after taking charge of the case using the electronic death registration system.

5. If the cause of death cannot be determined within ~~fifteen~~ten days after death, the medical certification may be filed after the prescribed period, in accordance with rules adopted by the state department of health. The attending physician, physician assistant, nurse practitioner, or coroner shall give the funeral director in custody of the body notice of the reason for the delay and final disposition may not be made until authorized by the attending physician, physician assistant, nurse practitioner, or coroner.

6. When a death is presumed to have occurred within this state but the body cannot be located, a death record may be prepared by the state registrar upon receipt of findings of a court of competent jurisdiction, including the facts of death and medical certification required to complete the death record. The death record must be marked "presumptive" and must show on its face the date of registration and must identify the court and the date of the decree.

- 1 7. Each death record~~registration~~ must include the social security number of the 2 decedent, if the information is available. A social security number included on a death
3 record is confidential and may be disclosed only to a relative or authorized
4 representative of the individual named on the record, to a person with personal or real 5 property interests that depend upon information contained in the death record, or by 6 an order of a court of competent jurisdiction.

7 SECTION 5. AMENDMENT. Section 23-02.1-20 of the North Dakota Century Code is
8 amended and reenacted as follows:

9 23-02.1-20. Fetal death registration.

- 10 1. A fetal death record for each fetal death which occurs in this state after a gestation 11 period of twenty completed weeks or more ~~or of less than twenty completed weeks of~~ 12 ~~gestation when provided by rules of the state department of health~~ must be filed with 13 the state registrar.
- 14 2. ~~The funeral director who first assumes custody of a fetus shall file the fetal death~~
15 ~~record. In the absence of such a person, the physician or other person in attendance~~
16 ~~at or after delivery shall file the fetal death record. The person filing the fetal death~~
17 ~~record shall obtain the facts of death from the next of kin or the best qualified person~~ 18 ~~or source available and must file the facts of death information within fifteen days of~~ 19 ~~the occurrence using the electronic death registration system. The person filing the~~ 20 ~~fetal death record shall obtain the medical certification of death from the person~~
21 ~~responsible for the medical certification~~When a fetal death occurs in an institution, the 22 person in charge of the institution or a designated representative shall use the state
23 department of health's electronic fetal death registration system to report the fetal
24 death, including all personal and medical facts, to the state registrar within ten days
25 after the delivery. If a fetal death occurs outside of an institution, a funeral director or 26 other person in attendance at or after delivery shall file the fetal death record.
- 27 3. ~~The medical certification must be completed and filed using the electronic death~~
28 ~~registration system by the physician, physician assistant, or a nurse practitioner in~~ 29 ~~attendance at the delivery within fifteen days after the delivery except when inquiry is~~
30 ~~required by the local health officer or coroner.~~

1 4. When inquiry is required by the local health officer or coroner or in the absence of 2 medical attendance, the county coroner shall investigate the cause of fetal death, and 3 shall obtain medical information about the individual from that individual's medical
4 records or last-known physician or physician assistant and file the medical certification
5 within ~~fifteen~~ten days after taking charge of the case using the electronic death
6 registration system.

7 ~~5.4.~~ If the cause of fetal death cannot be determined within ~~fifteen~~ten days after death, the 8 medical certification may be filed after the prescribed period of time in accordance with 9 rules adopted by the state department of health. The attending physician, physician 10 assistant, nurse practitioner, or coroner shall give the funeral director in custody of the 11 fetus the notice of the reason for the delay and final disposition may not be made until 12 authorized by the attending physician, physician assistant, nurse practitioner, or 13 coroner.

14 ~~6.5.~~ The provision for entering the name of the father of the fetus on the fetal death record
15 and the reporting of out-of-wedlock fetal deaths concur exactly with those set forth in 16 section 23-02.1-13.

17 SECTION 6. AMENDMENT. Section 23-02.1-25 of the North Dakota Century Code is
18 amended and reenacted as follows:

19 23-02.1-25. Correction and amendment of vital records.

- 20 1. A record registered under this chapter may be amended only in accordance with this 21 chapter and regulations thereunder adopted by the state department of health to 22 protect the integrity and accuracy of vital records.
- 23 2. A record that is amended under this section must be marked "amended" except as 24 provided in subsection 4. The date of amendment and a summary description of the 25 evidence submitted in support of the amendment must be endorsed on or made a part 26 of the record. The state department of health shall prescribe by regulation the 27 conditions under which additions or minor corrections may be made to birth records 28 within one year after the date of birth without the record being considered as 29 amended.
- 30 3. Upon receipt of a certified copy of a court order ~~changing the name of a person born in~~ 31 ~~this state~~that is amending a birth, death, or fetal death record and upon request of such person or the person's parent, guardian, or legal representative, the state registrar shall amend the record ~~to reflect the new name~~as directed in the court order, however, if the state registrar has information to believe the facts of the court order are false or inaccurate, the state registrar shall provide the court and any known parties with the correct information.

4. Upon receipt of a sworn acknowledgment of paternity of a child born out of wedlock signed by both parents and upon request, the state registrar shall amend a record of birth to show such paternity if paternity is not shown on the record. Upon request of the parents, the surname of the child must be changed on the appropriate record to ~~that of the father~~the surname designated by the parents on the acknowledgment of paternity. Such record may not be marked as "amended". The provisions of this subsection apply also in their entirety to records of fetal death.

SECTION 7. AMENDMENT. Section 23-02.1-27 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

23-02.1-27. Disclosure of records.

Birth, death, and fetal death records, filings, data, or other information related to birth, death, and fetal death records are confidential and may not be disclosed except as authorized under this chapter. The state registrar shall restrict access to all vital records to protect vital records from loss, mutilation, or destruction and to prevent disclosure of the information contained in these records except as authorized under this chapter.

1. A certified copy of a birth record may be issued to the individual named on the record if that individual is at least sixteen years old, to a parent named on the record, to an authorized representative, or by the order of a court of competent jurisdiction. If the individual named on a birth record is deceased, a certified copy of that record may also be issued to a relative. If the date of birth on any birth record is more than one hundred and twenty-five years old, that record is an open record and a certified copy may be issued to anyone, except that adoption records remain confidential.
2. A certified copy of a complete death record may be issued to a relative, an authorized representative, the child fatality review board, a licensed physician for the purposes of researching family medical history, a funeral director reporting the facts of death, or a person with personal or real property interests that depend upon information contained

1 in the complete death record or by the order of a court of competent jurisdiction and 2 may include the cause of death and the social security number. A certified copy of the 3 facts of death record that includes the facts of death and the social security number
4 may be issued to any person that may obtain a certified copy of a complete death
5 record or to any licensed attorney who requires the copy for a bona fide legal 6 determination. A certified copy of an informational death record may be issued to the 7 general public, but the copy may not contain the cause of death or the social security 8 number.

9 3. A certified copy of a fetal death record may be issued to a parent named on the 10 record, an authorized representative, or by the order of a court of competent 11 jurisdiction. A person authorized to receive a certified copy of a fetal death record may 12 request the certified copy be issued in the form of a certification of birth resulting in 13 stillbirth.

14 4. A noncertified informational copy of a marriage record may be issued to the general
15 public.

16 5. Any individual authorized to receive a certified copy of any specific record may grant
17 another individual the same authority by completing a written authorization on a form
18 prescribed by the state department of health.

19 6. The state department of health may grant limited access to birth and death information 20 to divisions and programs of the state department of health, the department of 21 transportation, the protection and advocacy project, and the department of information 22 technology, and to the department of human services necessary for the purpose of 23 completing their respective official duties.

24 7. The state department of health may issue, through electronic means determined by 25 the state department of health, verifications of information contained on birth or death
26 records filed with the state registrar when such information is provided and a 27 verification is requested by a governmental agency, whether foreign or domestic, in 28 the conduct of the agency's official duties. The state department of health may also 29 issue these electronic verifications for a negotiated and agreed-upon fee to:

30 a. Benefit-paying parties, such as annuity companies, pension plans, and life
31 insurance companies, that demonstrate a need for such information to determine

- 1 whether the benefits the benefit-paying party are paying should be terminated or 2 distributed to a beneficiary;
3 b. Physicians licensed to practice in the United States who demonstrate such 4 information is needed to determine whether a patient the physician is treating has 5 been lost to care;
6 c. Attorneys licensed to practice in the United States who demonstrate that the 7 information is necessary to administer the attorneys' client's estate; or 8 d. Other entities for fraud prevention as determined by the state registrar.

9 SECTION 8. AMENDMENT. Subsection 5 of section 23-02.1-30 of the North Dakota
10 Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

- 11 5. On or before the fifth day of each month, each hospital, institution, funeral director, 12 embalmer, or person acting as such in this state shall report to the state registrar, on 13 forms provided for this purpose, information required by the state registrar regarding 14 each ~~dead body or fetus~~birth, death, or fetal death handled by ~~such person~~ during the 15 preceding calendar month.

16 SECTION 9. APPLICATION. Under subsection 3 of section 23-02.1-13, the state
17 department of health shall use forms that are substantially similar to the department's North
18 Dakota parent's worksheet and certifier's worksheet for completing the North Dakota birth 19 certificate.
