REMARKS OF SENATOR HECKAMAN

Mr. President: Today is day 36 of our 80-day session and despite the fact that all of our days are the same length, some seem longer than others. We have completed a lot of good work this first half.

I want to thank all of you Senators for facing tough issues with careful consideration for the process and for the civil tone that prevails in this chamber. There have been contentious issues and we will see more, but that is what we are here working for. We have laid some pieces of legislation to rest—no doubt some will spring a new life and we will see them again the second half. And there are some pieces of legislation we will be discussing that we wish would have been laid to rest. But in the end, remember that we are all North Dakotans and what we do here should always be for the betterment of our constituents and state.

I have appreciated the opportunity to work with all of you and with the leadership of the majority party. Thank you to all of you for your efficient and professional work. Thanks to our outstanding staff, front desk, office, and chamber staff. You are always there for us and help facilitate our jobs.

Finally, Mr. President, thank you for your leadership. You have been a quick study in the process and we appreciate your calm demeanor when we have sometimes lost ours.

Let's all take this coming weekend to rejuvenate our minds so we can come back next week ready to tackle the work that remains. Safe travels everyone.

REMARKS OF SENATOR WARDNER

Mr. President: First of all, I want to say well done. We had a very good first part of this session and I appreciate all of you. This is a body of self-motivators, and I not only extend that to the Senators but also, to our staff. Every one of them from the committee clerks, committee interns, and our staff right here in the chamber. We really thank you for all you do. Without you we probably wouldn't get a lot done. You've done an excellent job.

Mr. President, we're doing the work of the people. I know sometimes people don't agree with the stand you or others have, but I want to remind all of you, this is the chamber where we debate things and everybody has a say. You have done an outstanding job of that. As the Minority Leader said, treating people with respect, and I want to say, in this body we do treat each other with respect. I really appreciate the work of the Minority party as we went through the first part. We worked together on several issues. As we go forward, there are going to be differences, but Mr. President, we're here for one reason, to do the work of the people in North Dakota. I think we have done a great job the first half.

I too want to echo what the Minority Leader said, we do appreciate your leadership here and your calm demeanor. You have done a great job. You have gotten through your probation period. You are now one of us.

With that, have a great crossover vacation.

REMARKS OF SENATOR KLEIN

Mr. President: Monday, January 16, 2017 was Martin Luther King Jr. Day and Monday, February 20, 2017 was George Washington's Birthday, both official state holidays. Both days are paid holidays for most state employees. Legislative Assembly employees were required to work on both of these days.

Additionally, employees of the Senate have worked many hours of uncompensated overtime. In recognition of the uncompensated overtime, full time legislative employees will be paid for Friday, February 24th, Monday, February 27th and Tuesday, February 28th, 2017 even though the Senate will be in recess on those days.

MOTION

SEN. KLEIN MOVED that the remarks of Sen. Heckaman, Sen. Wardner, and Sen. Klein be printed in the Journal, which motion prevailed.
