"SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Subsection 2 of section 52-04-07 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

2. Notwithstanding subsection 1, an employer's account may not be charged for any of the following:
 - a. With benefits paid to an individual for unemployment that is directly caused by a major natural disaster declared by the president pursuant to section 102(2) of the Disaster Relief Act of 1974 [Pub. L. 93-288; 88 Stat. 143; 42 U.S.C. 5122(2)], if the individual would have been eligible for disaster unemployment assistance with respect to that unemployment but for the individual's receipt of unemployment insurance benefits.
 - b. With benefits paid to an individual who:
 - (1) Left the employment of the base-period employer voluntarily without good cause or with good cause not involving fault on the part of the base-period employer;
 - (2) Was discharged from employment by the base-period employer for misconduct; or
 - (3) Was separated from employment with the most recent employer for reasons directly attributable to domestic violence, stalking, or sexual assault.
 - c. As provided under section 52-06-29.
 - d. With benefits paid to an individual who is in training with the approval of job service North Dakota.
 - e. With benefits paid to an individual who is subsequently determined not entitled to receive the benefits.
 - f. With benefits paid to an individual who is currently employed part time with that employer when the hiring agreement between the individual and the employer has not changed since the individual commenced work for that employer. This subdivision does not apply to an employee of a temporary help firm.

- g. With benefits paid to an individual who was separated from employment with the most recent employer for reasons directly attributable to court-imposed probation or parole restrictions that limit the ability of the individual to perform services and that were undisclosed by the individual upon request by the employer at the time of hire."
