22		enfe	orcement agency or the department of human services.
23	3.	A fi	nancial service provider, or an employee, officer, or director of a financial service
24		pro	vider, is immune from all criminal, civil, and administrative liability for reporting or
25		not	reporting under this section if the determination is made based on a good faith
26		beli	ef that financial exploitation occurred, was attempted, or is being attempted.
27	6-08	8.5-04	4. Individuals who may be contacted regarding suspected financial
28	exploita	ation	- Immunity - Exemption from customer consent and notice provisions.
29	1.	A fi	nancial service provider may offer to an eligible adult the opportunity to submit and
30		upd	late periodically a list of individuals the eligible adult authorizes the financial service

1		provider to contact if the financial service provider has reasonable cause to suspect
2		the eligible adult is a victim or a target of financial exploitation.
3	2.	Notwithstanding subsection 1, a financial service provider having a good faith belief to
4		suspect an eligible adult is the victim or target of financial exploitation may convey the
5		suspicion to one or more of the following individuals, provided the individual is not the
6		suspected perpetrator:
7		a. An individual on the list described in subsection 1.
8		b. A co-owner, additional authorized signatory, or beneficiary on the eligible adult's
9		account.
10		c. An attorney-in-fact, trustee, conservator, guardian or other fiduciary who has 11		been selected or appointed to manage some or all of the financial affairs of the 12		eligible adult.
13	3.	If a financial service provider provides information under this section, the financial
14		service provider may limit the information, such as disclosing only that the financial
15		service provider has reasonable cause to suspect the eligible adult may be a victim or
16		target of financial exploitation, without disclosing any other details or confidential
17		personal information regarding the financial affairs of the eligible adult.
18	4.	The financial service provider may choose not to contact an individual on the list
19		provided under subsection 1, if the financial service provider suspects the individual is
20		engaged in financial exploitation.
21	5.	The financial service provider may rely on information provided by the eligible adult in
22		compiling a list of contact individuals.
23	6.	A financial service provider, or an employee, officer, or director of a financial service
24		provider, is immune from all criminal, civil, and administrative liability for contacting an
25		individual or electing not to contact an individual under this section and for actions
26		taken in furtherance of that determination if the determination is made based on a
27		good faith belief financial exploitation occurred, was attempted, or is being attempted.
28	7.	Contact with an individual, and any information provided under this section, is exempt
29		from the customer consent provisions in sections 6-08.1-03 and 6-08.1-04.

1	6-08	3.5-04. Refusal to accept power of attorney - Immunity.
2	1.	A financial service provider may refuse to accept an acknowledged power of attorney if
3		the financial service provider has a good faith belief to suspect the principal is or may
4		be the victim or target of financial exploitation by the agent or individual acting for or
5		with the agent.
6	2.	A financial service provider, or an employee, officer, or director of a financial service
7		provider, is immune from all criminal, civil, and administrative liability for refusing to
8		accept a power of attorney or for accepting a power of attorney under this section and
9		for actions taken in furtherance of that determination if the determination was based
10		on a good faith belief financial exploitation occurred, was attempted, or was being
11		attempted.
