Sixty-sixth Legislative Assembly of North Dakota

SENATE BILL NO. 2320

Introduced by

Senators Holmberg, Davison

Representatives Becker, K. Koppelman, Mock, Schreiber-Beck

- 1 A BILL for an Act to create and enact chapter 15-10.4 of the North Dakota Century Code,
- 2 relating to free speech at institutions under the control of the state board of higher education;
- 3 and to provide a penalty.

4 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

5 SECTION 1. Chapter 15-10.4 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as6 follows:

7 15-10.4-01. Definitions.

8 As used in this chapter:

- 9 1. "Constitutional time, place, and manner restrictions" means restrictions on the time,
- 10 place, and manner of free speech which do not violate the First Amendment to the
- 11 United States Constitution or section 4 of article I of the Constitution of North Dakota
- 12 and which are reasonable, content- and viewpoint-neutral, and narrowly tailored to
- 13 satisfy a significant institutional interest, and leave open ample alternative channels for
- 14 the communication of the information or message to its intended audience.
- 15 2. "Faculty" or "faculty member" means an individual, regardless of whether the
- 16 individual is compensated by an institution, and regardless of political affiliation, who is
- 17 tasked with providing scholarship, academic research, or teaching, including tenured
- 18 and nontenured professors, adjunct professors, visiting professors, lecturers, graduate
- 19 student instructors, and those in comparable positions. "Faculty" does not mean
- 20 individuals whose primary responsibilities are administrative or managerial.
- 21 3. "Free speech" means speech, expression, and assemblies protected by the First
- 22 Amendment to the United States Constitution or section 4 of article I of the
- 23 Constitution of North Dakota, including all forms of peaceful assembly, protests,
- 24 demonstrations, rallies, vigils, marches, public speaking, distribution of printed

1		materials, carrying signs, displays, or circulating petitions. "Free speech" does not
2		include the promotion, sale, or distribution of a product or service.
3	4.	"Institution" means an institution under the control of the state board of higher
4		education.
5	5.	"Materially and substantially disrupts" means when a person knowingly or intentionally
6		hinders significantly expressive activity of an individual or a group, prevents the
7		communication of a message, or prevents the transaction of the business of a lawful
8		meeting, gathering, or procession by engaging in fighting or violent or seriously
9		disruptive behavior, or physically blocking or significantly hindering an individual from
10		attending, listening to, viewing, or otherwise participating in an expressive activity.
11		Conduct that "materially and substantially disrupts" does not include conduct protected
12		under the First Amendment to the United States Constitution or section 4 of article I of
13		the Constitution of North Dakota. Protected conduct includes lawful protests and
14		counterprotests in the outdoor areas of campus generally accessible to the members
15		of the public, except during times when the areas have been reserved in advance for
16		other events, and minor, brief, or fleeting nonviolent disruptions of events which are
17		isolated and short in duration.
18	6.	"Student" means an individual enrolled in a course of study at the institution.
19	7.	"Student-on-student harassment" means unwelcome conduct directed toward an
20		individual which is discriminatory on a basis prohibited by federal, state, or local law,
21		and is so severe, pervasive, and objectively offensive it effectively bars the victim's
22		access to an educational opportunity or benefit.
23	8.	"Student organization" means an officially recognized organization at an institution, or
24		an organization seeking official recognition, comprised of admitted students receiving
25		or are seeking to receive benefits through the institution.
26	15-1	0.4-02. Adoption of campus free speech policy.
27	1.	The state board of higher education and each institution shall adopt and enforce a
28		policy affirming the following principles of free speech:
29		a. Students have a fundamental, constitutional right to free speech;

1	b.	An institution shall be committed to giving students the broadest possible latitude
2		to speak, write, listen, challenge, learn, and discuss any issue, subject to the
3		exceptions in sections 15-10.4-03 and 15-10.4-05;
4	C.	An institution shall be committed to maintaining a campus as a marketplace of
5		ideas for all students and faculty in which the free exchange of ideas is not to be
6		suppressed because the ideas put forth are thought by some or even most
7		members of the institution's community to be offensive, unwise, immoral,
8		indecent, disagreeable, conservative, liberal, traditional, radical, or wrongheaded;
9	d.	An institution's individual students and faculty may make judgments about ideas
10		for themselves and act on those judgments not by seeking to suppress free
11		speech, but by openly and vigorously contesting ideas the students and faculty
12		oppose;
13	e.	An institution may not attempt to shield individuals from free speech, including
14		ideas the institution finds offensive, unwise, immoral, indecent, disagreeable,
15		conservative, liberal, traditional, radical, or wrongheaded;
16	f.	An institution's concerns about civility and mutual respect may not be used by an
17		institution as a justification for limiting or restricting the discussion of ideas,
18		however offensive, unwise, immoral, indecent, disagreeable, conservative,
19		liberal, traditional, radical, or wrongheaded those ideas may be to some students
20		or faculty:
21	g.	An institution shall be committed to providing an atmosphere most conducive to
22		speculation, experimentation, and creation by all students and faculty so students
23		and faculty are free to inquire, study, evaluate, and gain new understanding;
24	h.	The primary responsibility of faculty is to engage in honest, courageous, and
25		persistent efforts to seek and communicate truth in the areas of the faculty's
26		competence ;
27	i.	Although faculty members are free in the classroom to discuss subjects within
28		their areas of competence, faculty members should be cautious in expressing
29		personal views in the classroom and careful not to introduce matters that have no
30		relationship to the subject taught, especially matters in which the faculty
31		members have no special competence or training and for which the views of the

1			faculty members lack the authority accorded to statements about subjects within
2			areas of their competence. However, a faculty member may not face adverse
3			employment action for classroom speech unless the speech is not reasonably
4			germane to the subject matter of the class as broadly construed and comprises a
5			substantial portion of classroom instruction;
6		;	An institution shall maintain the generally accessible, open, outdoor areas of its j.
7			campus as traditional public forums for free speech by students, faculty, and
8			invited guests;
9		k.	An institution may not restrict students free speech to particular areas of campus,
10			sometimes known as "free speech zones";
11		l.	An institution may not deny student activity fee funding to a student organization
12			based on the viewpoints the student organization advocates;
13		m.	An institution may not establish permitting requirements prohibiting spontaneous
14			outdoor assemblies or outdoor distribution of literature. An institution may
15			maintain a policy granting members of the college or university community the
16			right to reserve certain outdoor spaces in advance;
17		n.	An institution may not charge students or student organizations security fees
18			based on the content of the student's or student organization's speech, the
19			content of the speech of guest speakers invited by students, or the anticipated
20			reaction or oppositions of listeners to speech;
21		0.	An institution shall allow all students, student organizations, and faculty to invite
22			guest speakers to campus to engage in free speech regardless of the views of
23			the guest speakers; and
24		p.	An institution may not disinvite a speaker invited by a student, student
25			organization, or faculty member because the speaker's anticipated speech may
26			be considered offensive, unwise, immoral, indecent, disagreeable, conservative,
27			liberal, traditional, radical, or wrongheaded by students, faculty, administrators,
28			government officials, or members of the public.
29	2.	Eac	ch institution shall make the policy the institution adopted pursuant to subsection 1
30		ava	ailable to students and faculty by annually:

1		a.	Publishing the policy in the institution's handbook and faculty handbook, whether
2			paper or electronic;
3		b.	Posting a prominent notice on the institution's internet site other than through the
4			electronic publication of the policy in the student handbook and faculty handbook;
5		C.	Sending the policy to the institutionally provided electronic mail addresses of
6			students and faculty; or
7		d.	Addressing the policy in the institution's orientation programs for new students
8			and new faculty.
9	3.	This	chapter does not enable an individual to engage in conduct that intentionally,
10		mate	erially, and substantially disrupts the expressive activity of another individual if the
11		activ	ity occurs in a campus space reserved for that activity under the exclusive use or
12		cont	rol of a particular group.
13	15-10	0.4-0	3. Student-on-student harassment.
14	Each	insti	tution shall adopt a policy on "student-on-student harassment" defining the term
15	consister	nt wit	h and no more expansively than the definition in section 15-10.4-01.
