

The funding appropriated to the department of corrections and rehabilitation for the community based behavioral health services shall be considered the payer of last resort whenever any other benefit or source of third-party payment, excluding the substance use disorder treatment voucher program, is available. The funding appropriated to the department of corrections and rehabilitation for the community based behavioral health services shall be utilized prior to utilizing the substance use disorder treatment voucher program funding.