

Testimony for the House Education Committee

Senate Bill 2304

Andrew Alexis Varvel

Couteau AB Room

March 9, 2021

9:00AM

Itháŋčhaŋ Owens naháŋ Khamíte Óyapȟapi:

Andrew Alexis Varvel emáčiyapelo. Tħaspáŋ Ožú-yata waúŋ.

Chairman Owens and Members of the Committee:

My name is Andrew Alexis Varvel. I live in Bismarck.

Wóophela kágapi waŋží ognáke waŋ sekse yeló. Ognáke waŋ “AĞÚYAPI ĞIĞÍLA TŦÓGNAKE” tħaħáže hakáphataŋhaŋ yuhá okíhi. Yešáŋ kuŋkúŋla gnáke é héčinħaŋ lé kuŋkúŋla tħógnake.

A bill is like a jar. A jar can be outwardly labeled “COOKIE JAR”. And yet, if it contains pickles, it is a pickle jar.

Toháŋl wóophela kágapi waŋží patítanpi naíňš khipážiŋpi wakáhniġe čhájna takúŋl wóophela kágapi kiŋ lé mahél ablúta. Tħaħáže hakáphataŋhaŋ lila waŋkátuya šni.

When I decide to support or oppose a bill, I look at what the bill contains. Its outward label is not so important.

Wóophela kágapi tħokáheya wakhípažiŋ. Aphíya wóophela kágapi lé sáŋm wašté. Yunkħáŋ, wapátitan.

I opposed the original bill. This revised bill is better. And so, I support it.

Wazýata Dakota Makȟópašpe Wayáwapi eháŋni wóyakapi na makȟówapi na okhíčharje waŋkátuya wasúye kinháŋ, ikčé oyáte eháŋni wóyakapi letánharj waŋkátuya nakúŋ wasúye okíhiphiča. Khéya Wítá T̍hamákȟopašpe Wayúwaŋzila eháŋni wóyakapi wayúšna šni waŋží ikčé oyáte eháŋni wóyakapi kȟóye. Yunjkȟáŋ, lé aíyopteya.

If North Dakota Studies requires emphasis on history, geography, and agriculture, it can also emphasize the history of local Indian tribes. Any accurate history of the United States includes Indian history. So, this is appropriate.

Wóopȟela káŋapi lé wasúyapike čiŋ. Táku waŋ wóunjspe okó tópa čha wičhúŋmapi kin ihéyab ikčé wičháša waksátitan kta tkhá wasúyakhiyŋ šni.

This bill is a general rule. It does not impose a four week course that would have separated Indians from the rest of humanity.

Ečháŋleš wóopȟela káŋapi lé ikčé oyáte eháŋni wóyakapi uŋkítȟawičhouŋpi owáŋžila haŋké. Lé waŋkátuya. Lé líla waŋkátuya.

Instead, this bill, as now written, recognizes that Indian history is part of our common heritage. This is important. This is very important.

Yunjkȟáŋ, aphíya wóopȟela káŋapi lé IYÓPTEYAYANPO yak'úpi yé.

So, please give this amended bill a DO PASS recommendation.

Philámayayapi.

Thank you.

Andrew Alexis Varvel
2630 Commons Avenue
Bismarck, ND 58503
701-255-6639
mr.a.alexis.varvel@gmail.com