SECTION 2. AMENDMENT. Section 54-66-08 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

1       54-66-08. Investigations - Referrals.

2       1. If an informal resolution is not reached under section 54-66-07, the ethics commission
3       may:

4       a. ~~Disregard~~Dismiss the complaint;

5       b. Require ethics commission staff to investigate the allegations in the complaint; or 6       c. Engage an outside investigator to investigate allegations in the complaint.

7       2. If the commission believes a complaint contains allegations of criminal conduct, the

8       ~~ethics commission shall refer the allegations of criminal conduct to the bureau of~~

9       ~~criminal investigations or other law enforcement agency and may not take further~~

10      ~~action on the referred allegations. The commission shall inform the accused individual~~

11      ~~by registered mail of a referral under this section and the nature of the referred~~

12      ~~allegations as soon as reasonably possible~~matter must be coordinated with the 13      appropriate law enforcement agency with jurisdiction over the offense. If the law

14      enforcement agency agrees to accept a referral for possible criminal prosecution, the

15      commission may not take further action on the complaint until the law enforcement

16      agency informs the commission law enforcement proceedings regarding the complaint

17      are complete. If the law enforcement agency declines a referral for prosecution, the 18      commission may investigate the complaint under the rules and policies adopted by the

19      commission. Unless the agency accepting the referral objects, the commission shall

20      inform the complainant and respondent as soon as reasonably possible of a referral

21      and the nature of the referred allegations.

22      3. The commission may require the testimony of a witness or the production of a book,

23      record, document, data, or other object at any of the commission's investigator

24      interviews or proceedings held in connection with the investigation of a complaint. If a

25      witness fails or refuses to appear or any individual fails to produce requested

26      information, the commission may issue a subpoena to compel the witness to appear or

27      a subpoena duces tecum to compel the production of any book, record, document,

28      data, or other object.

29      4. If a person refuses to obey a subpoena by the commission, the district court, upon

30      application by the commission, may issue to the person an order requiring the person

1           to appear and give evidence or otherwise produce documentary evidence requested
2           by the commission regarding the matter under investigation.

3           5. A witness who is subpoenaed under this section and who appears before the 4           commission or the commission's investigator is entitled to receive the same fees and 5           mileage as a witness in a civil case in district court.

6           SECTION 3. AMENDMENT. Section 54-66-09 of the North Dakota Century Code is
7 amended and reenacted as follows:

8           54-66-09. Investigation findings - Ethics commission determinations.

- 9           1. An investigator, other than a law enforcement agency, of a complaint shall provide 10           written findings of the investigation to the ethics commission within a reasonable
11           amount of time. The ethics commission shall provide copies of the written findings and 12           evidence considered to the accused individual, who may respond to the commission in 13           person or in writing within a reasonable time. If the accused individual responds in 14           person, no fewer than three members of the commission shall meet in a closed
15           meeting with the accused individual. An accused individual may be accompanied by 16           legal counsel when responding to the commission in person.
- 17           2. After providing a reasonable time for an accused individual to respond to the 18           investigation findings and considering any response to the findings, the ethics
19           commission shall determine whether a violation of article XIV of the Constitution of 20           North Dakota, this chapter, or another law or rule regarding transparency, corruption, 21           elections, or lobbying occurred, and inform the accused individual of the 22           determination. If the commission determined a violation occurred, the commission may 23           impose a penalty authorized by law for the violation or refer the matter to the agency
24           with enforcement authority over the violation.
- 25           3. The commission may not terminate the employment of a public official or otherwise 26           remove a public official from the public official's public office.
- 27           4. The ethics commission may not reconsider, invalidate, or overturn a decision, ruling, 28           recommended finding of fact, recommended conclusion of law, finding of fact,
29           conclusion of law, or order by a hearing officer under chapter 28-32 on the grounds the 30           hearing officer failed to grant a request for disqualification under section 28-32-27 or

1 failed to comply with subsection 5 of section 2 of article XIV of the Constitution of 2 North Dakota.

3 SECTION 4. AMENDMENT. Section 54-66-12 of the North Dakota Century Code is
4 amended and reenacted as follows:

5 54-66-12. Confidential information.

6 1. The following information is a confidential record as defined in section 44-04-17.1,
7 unless the commission has determined the accused individual violated article XIV of 8 the Constitution of North Dakota, this chapter, or another law or rule regarding 9 transparency, corruption, elections, or lobbying, and a court affirmed the determination 10 if appealed, except the information may be disclosed as required by law or as 11 necessary to conduct an investigation arising from a complaint:

- 12 a. Information revealing the contents of a complaint;
13 b. Information that reasonably may be used to identify an accused individual; and 14 c. Information relating to or created as part of an investigation of a complaint.

15 2. If a complaint is informally resolved under section 54-66-07, the following information
16 is a confidential record as defined in section 44-04-17.1:

- 17 a. Information revealing the contents of the complaint;
18 b. Information that reasonably may be used to identify the accused individual;
19 c. Information relating to or created as part of the process leading to the informal 20 resolution; and
21 d. Information revealing the informal resolution.

22 3. Information that reasonably may be used to identify the complainant is confidential
23 unless the complainant waives confidentiality, authorizes its disclosure, or divulges
24 information that reasonably would identify the complainant. However, the ethics 25 commission shall notify an accused individual of the identity of the complainant who 26 made an allegation against the accused individual, and the information. Information, 27 including evidence under consideration by the investigator or commission, deemed 28 confidential under this subsection may be disclosed as required by law or as 29 necessary to conduct an investigation arising from a complaint ~~to include disclosure of~~ 30 ~~evidence being considered to an accused individual.~~

1           4. The information deemed confidential in subsections 1 and 2 may be disclosed by the 2 ethics commission if the accused individual agrees to the disclosure.

3           SECTION 5. A new section to chapter 54-66 of the North Dakota Century Code is created
4 and enacted as follows:

5           Commission delegation of duties.

6           The commission may delegate duties to the commission's executive director and other staff
7 as necessary to assure the efficient administration of the commission's responsibilities.

8 Delegation of duties to the executive director and other staff must be made through rules or 9 policies adopted by the commission at a public meeting. The commission may reconsider,
10 modify, or reverse actions taken by the executive director or other staff pursuant to a delegated 11 duty.

12           SECTION 6. A new section to chapter 54-66 of the North Dakota Century Code is created
13 and enacted as follows:

14           Advisory opinions - Authority - Effect.

15           1. In response to a request from a public official, candidate for elected office, or lobbyist, 16 the ethics commission may provide a written advisory opinion regarding the 17 application of the following to a specified set of hypothetical or actual facts:

18           a. Article XIV of the Constitution of North Dakota; or

19           b. State statutes and ethics commission rules related to transparency, corruption,
20 elections, and lobbying.

21           2. Within fourteen days after receiving a request for a written advisory opinion, the ethics
22 commission shall notify the requester whether the commission will provide an opinion.

23           3. Within ninety days after notifying a requester a written advisory opinion will be 24 provided, the ethics commission shall issue the opinion.

25           4. Criminal and civil penalties may not be imposed upon an individual for an action taken 26 in accordance with an opinion issued under this section if:

27           a. The individual acts in good faith; and

28           b. The material facts surrounding the action taken are the same as the facts
29 presented in the opinion.

30           5. Opinions and requests for opinions under this section are open records, except names
31 of persons in the opinions and requests are exempt records.

- 1       6. The ethics commission shall publish all written advisory opinions issued under this
- 2       section on a website or in another medium readily available to the public.
