

My children aren't being educated in the public school. There is no reason for the public school system to object. They are not educating these private/home schooled children yet my taxes go to support children that aren't mine. This makes no sense. I support HB1281.