- A petitioner may file an appeal of a decision made by the commission with the district court. If the appeal is unsuccessful, the petitioner shall pay the costs of the hearing and appeal incurred by the state including reasonable attorney's fees.
 - 5. Any activity or service provided by a state agency or institution before the effective date of this Act which is found to be in competition with private enterprise may continue until the expiration of any contract that would be affected adversely by the cessation of the activity.
 - 6. Unless a state agency or institution demonstrates a compelling public interest for an activity to be in competition with private enterprise, it must be the policy of the state to contract with private enterprise. If a state agency or institution is authorized to engage in an activity in competition with private enterprise, the commission shall set a fee for that activity to reflect the fair market value and the actual costs incurred.
 - 7. This section does not apply to the Bank of North Dakota, the state mill and elevator, or the department of corrections and rehabilitation.
- 8. The commission shall report to the legislative management by March fifteenth of each even-numbered year on the status of petitions received under this section.
