POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

SEN. WOBBERMA rose on a point of personal privilege.

REMARKS OF SENATOR WOBBERMA

MR. PRESIDENT: Today, I would like to bring to the attention of this chamber, the achievement of the Valley City Hi-Liners girls' basketball team. This past weekend was the first state title game for the Valley City girls' basketball team since 1982, resulting in the first state title in team history. I want to congratulate their effort and celebrate this remarkable achievement in North Dakota high school athletics.

This victory demonstrates the dedication, perseverance, and teamwork of these outstanding young women. Under the leadership of their coaches, they demonstrated the grit, discipline, and sportsmanship that define true champions. And in a tournament that saw close victories with the top seeded teams knocked out of competition, the result of their hard work and a great team chemistry showed the indomitable spirit of these ladies as they progressed through this tournament.

Their historic win in this journey was not without challenges, but through dedicated focus and hard work, these young ladies showed what is possible when a team comes together with a common goal. Their commitment to excellence has inspired not only their school and community but the entire state of North Dakota.

Congratulations to the coaching staff. Their leadership and mentorship helped shape these student-athletes into who they are today. The key role coaches have in molding the character of our youth cannot be underestimated, and this team's success is a reflection of that dedication.

To the Hi-Liner girls basketball team, all your names are now forever etched in history, and I, along with those closest to you, look forward to watching your success in the future. May this victory be just the beginning of the many great accomplishments that you will achieve through your lives.

Congratulations to Katie Burchill for being named the tournament MVP, her double-doubles through the tournament always kept her team in the hunt. And congratulations to Skye Nielson for joining Burchill in being named to the All-Tournament team.

To this 69th Legislative Assembly Senate Chamber, please join me in congratulating the Valley City Hi-Liners girls basketball team on their incredible achievement!
