The prayer was offered by Pastor Keith Ritchie, Cornerstone Community Church, Bismarck.

REMARKS OF SENATOR AXTMAN

Mr. President, I feel very honored to share a few comments about my colleague and mentor, Senator Kyle Davison.

Kyle grew up here in Bismarck, about a mile from the Capitol building, and I guess that is where Kyle and my connection actually began because he lived just a few houses away from my dad. The two have stayed best friends since childhood, so I have known Kyle my entire life.

Going way back to his youth, Kyle was chosen as the captain of the west Owen bobcats, the neighborhood baseball team and excelled in several sports, leading to being a standout lefthanded pitcher for the Bismarck Governors and he continued on to play college ball at Valley City State. His athleticism hasn't faded much as he is still a great golfer with a sub ten handicap.

Kyle is married to his wife Laura and together they frequently travel and cruise around the globe visiting different countries. He has 3 children and one little granddaughter. Kyle has recently retired from a 20-year career as the executive director of the southeast education cooperative.

He was first elected in 2014 and served his first session in 2015, making this his 6th legislative session representing district 41 in Fargo. He served his first 3 sessions in education and government and veterans affairs, of which he served as chair. He was appointed to appropriations in 2021, where his focus shifted to human services.

Senator Davison has been a trusted voice in the legislature and as an appropriator has earned himself a reputation for asking the no nonsense questions that get to the heart of the issue. Senator Davison is a committed and dedicated legislator, always willing to put in the extra time to gain knowledge for the benefit of not just himself, but for all of us as his colleagues.

For these and so many other reasons, Mr. President, it is my privilege to nominate Senator Kyle Davison as the next Senate Pro tempore.

MOTION

SEN. HOGAN MOVED that a unanimous ballot be cast for Senator Davison, which motion prevailed.

REMARKS OF SENATOR DAVISON

Madam President, colleagues, friends, thank you.

Standing here today, I am filled with deep gratitude and humility. To be elected as President Pro Tempore of this Senate is an honor I do not take lightly. I want to thank everyone who has supported me, collaborated with me and even argued with me. I believe deeply in the purpose of this chamber; and I consider it a great honor to serve here every day.

I want to first recognize my family. As many of you know, I grew up in Bismarck and graduated from Bismarck Century. My father and mother were both educators. My father served as the Associate Commissioner of Higher Education, working just upstairs on the 10th floor of this very Capitol for over twenty years. My mother was an elementary school teacher, shaping young lives every single day. Together, they taught me that serving others—especially through education—is one of the most powerful ways to make a lasting impact.

I want to thank my wife, whose love, faith, and steady support have been a constant source of strength in my life. Her quiet courage and unwavering belief in me have carried me through more moments than I can count. She reminds me daily of what grace looks like in action—and through her, I've learned that true strength often speaks the softest.

To my children—and now to my grandchild—you are my greatest joy and my proudest legacy.

If there's one thing I've learned in this chamber, it's that relationships matter. The success of any piece of legislation doesn't rest solely on its text—it rests on trust, respect, and the willingness to engage with one another. It's not enough to count votes; we must first connect as people.

When we take the time to build real relationships in this chamber, we don't just help ourselves—we help each other. And with that foundation, we all have a greater chance at success—not just individually, but collectively, for the people we represent.

Before I close, I would be remiss not to acknowledge the foundation of my faith. I am deeply thankful to Jesus Christ, who continues to guide my heart, my decisions, and my sense of purpose. May I lead in a way that reflects His love, His justice, and His wisdom.

With that spirit, I step into this role ready to serve—not just as a presiding officer, but as a steward of trust, of fairness, and of hope.

Thank you again for this incredible honor. May God bless this chamber, and may He bless the people we are here to serve.

REQUEST

SEN. KLEIN REQUESTED that the remarks of Pro Tem Davison be printed in the journal, which request was granted.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

SEN. HOGAN rose on a point of personal privilege.

REMARKS OF SENATOR HOGAN

MR. PRESIDENT: This week is National Public Health Week when we celebrate the power of prevention and community. This year's theme is 'It Starts Here', a reminder that healthier futures begin with action in our neighborhoods, our schools, in the choices we make, and the systems we build. Whether it's advocating for clean water, access to care, or mental health support—it starts here with each of us.

Public Health Week is also a time to honor North Dakota's public health work force working to improve health on the local, tribal, and state level. We are also grateful for the public health programs at North Dakota State University and University of North Dakota training the public health heroes of the future and engaging in research to improve our quality of life. Together we build a healthier tomorrow.

Please thank your local public health team.
