

JOURNAL OF THE SENATE

Sixty-ninth Legislative Assembly

* * * * *

Bismarck, March 24, 2025

The Senate convened at 1:00 p.m., with President Strinden presiding.

The prayer was offered by Pastor Paul Ewing, Century Baptist Church, Bismarck.

The roll was called and all members were present except Senators Beard, Bekkedahl, and Meyer.

A quorum was declared by the President.

MOTION

SEN. KLEIN MOVED that HB 1297 be returned to the Senate floor from the Judiciary Committee and be rereferred to the State and Local Government Committee, which motion prevailed.

Pursuant to Sen. Klein's motion, HB 1297 was rereferred.

MOTION

SEN. KLEIN MOVED that HB 1213, which is on the Sixth order, be laid over one legislative day, which motion prevailed.

VETO MEASURE

Pursuant to Article V, Section 9 of the North Dakota Constitution, I have vetoed Senate Bill 2261 and return it to the Senate.

Section 1 of Senate Bill 2261 establishes a new prison industries workforce development tax credit. Under the section, primary sector businesses are allowed a non-refundable tax credit equal to 10% of the cost of purchased components of final manufactured products or labor from prison industries. Rough Rider Industries is a self-sustaining state agency which would qualify as a prison industry providing final manufactured products.

Establishing a tax credit for the purchase of components made at Rough Rider Industries would discourage purchases from out-of-state manufacturers in a discriminatory manner. This potentially violates the Dormant Commerce Clause of the U.S. Constitution, which prohibits states from enacting laws that discriminate against or unduly burden interstate commerce.

This bill creates an uneven playing field by giving Rough Rider Industries an unfair competitive advantage over out-of-state manufacturers. By carving out a special market incentive in the form of a tax credit, the state is disrupting the longstanding principle of fair and equal market access for all participants.

The efforts of the prime sponsor to promote and advance the important work of Rough Rider Industries are laudable and deserve recognition. Rough Rider Industries provides necessary job skills training and opportunity for incarcerated individuals to assist in their successful reentry. However, the tax credit in Senate Bill 2261 will not help Rough Rider Industries in that mission in any meaningful way. In fact, it will only benefit businesses already doing business with Rough Rider Industries.

Tax credits, when given to micro-segments of the economy, decrease state revenue and further saddle those still paying taxes with a higher percentage of the tax burden. While this bill does not involve a lot of money in our state budget, any tax policy that creates this type of carve-out must be tied to a significant outcome that benefits the state's economic interests. This bill does not do that. Combined with the aforementioned legal concerns, the juice in this case is quite simply not worth the squeeze.

For the reasons stated above, Senate Bill 2261 is vetoed.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

SEN. WEBER rose on a point of personal privilege.

REMARKS OF SENATOR WEBER

MADAM PRESIDENT: It is my privilege and honor to recognize another outstanding basketball team from District 22, the 2025 Class A state champion Kindred Vikings boys' basketball team, a game that will long be remembered.

The Kindred Vikings at one point were down twenty-six points in the first half and it appeared hopeless, desperate. It appeared they were doomed. After an inspirational and very motivational pep talk in the locker room by head coach Brad Wale, the Vikings came roaring back.

The Vikings scraped and clawed their way into contention by the middle of the fourth quarter. The Vikings had what appeared to be a chance to tie the game at the free throw line. They were down by 2 points with 6 seconds left.

The tension was so thick you could cut it with a knife.

Senior Jake Starcevic hit the first one but missed the second one and a wild scene unfolded. Vikings senior Presley Peraza used his sky-high leaping ability to secure the rebound and whipped it out to teammate senior Carson Ouse who launched a long-range bomb and narrowly missed a 3 pointer. The shot was followed by a miraculous tip in at the buzzer from super sophomore Brooks Bakko that sent the crowd into absolute pandemonium, the likes of which we have never seen.

Kindred had secured an amazing 59-58 come from behind victory to secure its first boys' basketball state class A state championship. All 4 players previously mentioned earned all-tournament team honors, and Kindred coach Brad Wale was deservedly selected as ND Class A Coach of the year.

We send our congratulations to the coaching staff, players, cheerleaders, statisticians, student managers, and community on their terrific season and for providing an instant classic that people will remember for decades.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

SEN. BURCKHARD rose on a point of personal privilege.

REMARKS OF SENATOR BURCKHARD

MADAM PRESIDENT: The title of this floor speech is:

"It wasn't a slam dunk, but then again, maybe it was."

Madame President, my high school Alma mater, the Bishop Ryan Lions won their first basketball championship since 1994 with a victory over the Westhope/Newburg Sioux in the Class B state tournament held in Minot at the MSU Dome on Saturday night.

The game was never in question as the Lions stifled the Sioux all night. Bishop Ryan led by 10 points at the half and the Lions never trailed in the game. The final score would suggest it was a defensive battle, with Bishop Ryan winning by 52-33. Both teams averaged about 70 points a game during the regular season.

Jet Lundeen and the 6'7" Ramsey Walz were the top two scorers for the Lions in this game, with a combined 25 points. Ramsey Walz put a punctuation mark on the victory when he slam dunked the ball late in the fourth quarter to the delight of the Ryan fans. He was named the tournament MVP and had over 50 rebounds through the state tournament. Walz and Lundeen earned all-state tournament team honors, and the Lions season record was 27-3.

Head coach Broderick Bosch said, "we thought we would have won a championship a year or two earlier. It didn't happen, but they kept grinding, kept working, so the kids really deserved this."

So, Madame President it seems the Magic City has earned the honor of being called "Title Town" once again with the Bishop Ryan Lions proud to be called State Champions.
