ROLL CALL

The roll was called and there were 112 members present, Representative Wolf being absent, so a quorum was declared present.

Representative Muus moved that the Chief Clerk appoint a committee of three members to escort Judge Burr of the State Supreme Court to the rostrum, which motion was seconded and duly carried.

The Chief Clerk appointed Representatives Peters, Aljets and Worner to escort Judge Burr of the State Supreme Court to the rostrum.

Justice Burr, after giving a short talk on the meaning of the oath, administered the oath to all of the members elect, excepting Representative Wolf, who was absent.

The Chief Clerk announced that nominations for the office of Speaker were now in order.

Representative Gordon Cox of Burleigh County presented the name of C. Vernon Freeman of Grand Forks for the office of Speaker, and spoke as follows:

"I am not unmindful that the man who is elected Speaker of the House for this Assembly must follow in the footsteps of those speakers of the past. He must have the honesty, integrity, tact, poise of those leaders of the past. I know when I came to this Assembly to work under the leadership of John W. Carr, that his fairness, knowledge of legislative procedure, his tact and his ability to satisfy all factions, made a lasting impression upon me. Last session you will recall the wonderful record made by Edwin Traynor. This session the problems we must consider are more serious; the issues larger, and our task will be difficult. I feel that the Speaker must be a man who is fair-minded, with dignity, tact and ability. He must have great resourcefulness and have the respect and confidence of the entire house. I believe the man I am about to nominate will measure up to all these requirements. He has the many qualifications necessary for this position. He is of the highest type of citizenship of our State; he has shown ability in the past in his work in our Assemblies, and if he is elected I am entirely confident that he will discharge his duties with credit to himself, with credit to his district and with credit to this assembly. It gives me great pleasure to present in nomination the name of C. Vernon Freeman of Grand Forks County, for Speaker of the House."

Representative Swett presented the name of O. E. Erickson, of Kidder County, in the following words:

"On behalf of the Nonpartisans I wish to say that I think at this time we should elect a man to this position who is able to fulfill the office of this body. The people of North Dakota are expecting great things from this session. They expect to have enacted some progressive legislation. The man whose name I am presenting for consideration is a man who will qualify in every respect. His happy, genial disposition will bring peace and harmony to this assembly. He has every qualification which we have a right to demand of the man who will fill this, the highest office in the power of this assembly to bestow. He is well known and a man who has stood for fairness and progressive, sane legislation. He is a man who has given the best of himself. His ability is well known and he is well qualified for this position. I do not think if he is elected that there will be any criticism of his fairness and justice to all. I present the name of O. E. Erickson of Kidder County."

Representative Olafson of Pembina County spoke on behalf of Mr. Freeman as follows:

"It has been my happy privilege to serve with Mr. Freeman during the four last sessions of the house. During that time he has been one of the outstanding figures. If he is elected I feel sure he will give satisfaction and justice to all."

Representative Halvorson on behalf of the Ward County delegation seconded the nomination of Mr. Freeman for Speaker.

Representative Johnson of Traill County seconded the nomination of Mr. Freeman for Speaker.

Representative Rulon of Stutsman endorsed the nomination of Mr. Freeman with the following words:

"It gives me great pleasure to endorse Mr. Freeman, due to the fact that he and I started in the same session together in this body. I believe if he is elected as Speaker he will perform his duties with due impartiality, that everybody will be given consideration and that after the session is over, we can all go home feeling that we have had fair dealing."

Representative Veitch of Grand Forks County spoke in favor of Mr. Freeman's nomination as follows:

"I believe if he is chosen as Speaker that he will be fair to all the members of the house."

Representative Aljets of Wells County seconded the nomination of O. E. Erickson as follows:

"I think it would be right to put in a man who belongs to the masses of the people in North Dakota. Farming is the great industry of our state and we should vote for the man that is a practical farmer and whose sympathies lie with the farmer."

Representative Lynch of Richland County endorsed Mr. Freeman's nomination, on behalf of his delegation.

Representative Traynor of Ramsey County, on behalf of his delegation, spoke as follows:

"I second the nomination of C. Vernon Freeman with enthusiasm. I have served with Mr. Freeman in the last four sessions and have come to respect and admire him for his ability, confidence and trustworthiness. Few men in this body during these last four years have worked as hard as he and if he is chosen by this body I believe he will achieve distinction not only for his own district but for the entire assembly."

Mrs. Craig of Benson County rose to second the nomination of O. E. Erickson:

"I rise to second the nomination of Representative O. E. Erickson of Kidder County as Speaker of this Assembly. Mr. Erickson has had many years of legislative experience and has many qualifications which make him an ideal candidate for Speaker. He has an amiable disposition, a keen sense of humor, a dignity suited to the position and admirable habits as assets. He has always shown ability as a legislator and if he is elected to preside over the deliberations of this body, I am entirely confident that he is able to discharge the duties and responsibilities of his position with credit to himself, with credit to the 26th District, which he represents, and with credit to this Assembly."

Representative Mau of Ransom County endorsed the nomination of Mr. Freeman for Speaker on behalf of his delegation.

Representative Scholl endorsed Mr. Erickson for Speaker, saying:

"It gives me great pleasure to second the nomination of a man like Mr. Erickson who is very capable and certain to carry out the work set before him and I take this opportunity of endorsing him."

Representative Wilson spoke in endorsement of Mr. Freeman, saying:

"It so happens that Mr. Freeman is from the northeastern part of the state and I am from the southwest, and I have only met Mr. Freeman since becoming a member of this Assembly. I am pleased to say that in my observation he is a man who makes his decisions and he is a man whom we can most certainly depend on."

Representative Flannigan endorsed O. E. Erickson for Stutsman County.

Representative Peters of Pierce County seconded the nomination of Mr. Freeman.

Representative Twichell of Cass County seconded the nomination of Mr. Freeman in the following remarks:

"On behalf of Cass County I second the motion for the nomination of Mr. C. Vernon Freeman for Speaker. And in seconding this motion, I wish to call the attention of this body to the fact that Mr. Freeman has always been a farmer. He left the farm two years ago because he has a younger brother. I considered this fact as one of his qualifications or I would not have supported him."

Representative Akan of McLean County seconded the nomination of Mr. Erickson with the following remarks:

"In seconding the nomination of Mr. O. E. Erickson for Speaker it is a real pleasure to stand on the floor of this house and endorse a real dirt farmer of the good old golden Norsk blood—the blood that was paramount in the building of our great commonwealth. In choosing this Representative I feel that no choice could be better and I feel highly honored in making this endorsement."

Representative Bishop of Stark County seconded the nomination of Mr. Freeman for Speaker.

Representative Van Berkom of Burke County spoke on behalf of Mr. Erickson as follows:

"On behalf of Burke County, I take great pleasure in seconding the nomination of Mr. Erickson. Mr. Erickson has been in this house four or five sessions. He is a good farmer, lives in the country, has been a member of the Nonpartisan League since its organization, which is coming into its own and which will some time save this state from the chain of slavery."

Representative Acheson of Bottineau County spoke as follows in support of Mr. Erickson:

"I am a new member, but nevertheless I think it is quite an honor to nominate Mr. Erickson for Speaker. In nominating him for Speaker, we have considered his progressiveness, his poise, dignity and courtesy. It is unquestionable that the opportunity is coming for legislative matters to be considered that will give us the opportunity to take such steps as will place our state in its rightful position. He is a farmer, farms 1400 acres, is a married man, has two children, one daughter at home and other in high school in Bismarck. He is a man the people of North Dakota will be proud to have elected. I believe, as this is a farming state, that an actual farmer should be given consideration and not one who has left the farm and gone out of the business."

Representative Bishop of Stark County seconded the nomination of Mr. Freeman.

Mr. Indergaard:

"I rise in support of the nomination of Mr. O. E. Erickson of Tappen for Speaker.

"For Speaker of this assembly it is of paramount importance that we select a man possessing these essential qualities: Courage, tact and courtesy, plus an extensive experience and a profound knowledge of parliamentary procedure.

"Through my daily contacts with this man—O. E. Erickson of Kidder County—during the past session of the North Dakota assembly, I found that he possesses all of these essential qualities. Plus that he is unquestionably imbued with the spirit of progress. Looking forward at all times, always doing his bit to build a happy and prosperous agriculture. Ever alert for an opportunity to speed that day when North Dakota shall again take its rightful place in the family of states as the one state preeminently progressive.

"Records conclusively prove that in the 32nd District there is one County we must regard as the shining light in the political firmament of North Dakota. The county which has been most aptly termed the Little Political Giant—Eddy County—never allowing itself to be lulled to sleep, always loyal to progressive principles.

"With these facts in mind, Mr. Chief Clerk, it gives me extreme pleasure, in behalf of the 32nd Legislative District, to second the nomination of Hon. O. E. Erickson of Kidder County."

Representative Henrickson of McHenry County seconded the nomination of Mr. Erickson.

Representative Carlson of Steele seconded the nomination of Mr. Erickson.

Representative Sax of McKenzie County spoke in support of Mr. Erickson as follows:

"On behalf of my constituents, it gives me great pleasure to second the nomination of Mr. Erickson of Kidder County for Speaker. Last session I worked with Mr. Erickson at various times, it being my first experience in the legislature. In my own opinion, I found I was not quite as capable in the work as I desired to be, and Mr. Erickson appealed to me as being a competent guide. I placed my confidence in him and I found his advice of great value."

Representative McCay spoke in support of Mr. Erickson's nomination, saying:

"Coming here eight years ago, it was a pleasure to be seated by Mr. Erickson. I have been connected with him on different occasions, and in my association with him I found him to be fair and generous in his dealings with everybody.

In seconding the nomination for Mr. Erickson I think I am doing something that 85% of the people of North Dakota will approve."

Representative Butt of Mountrail County spoke in support of Mr. Erickson, as follows:

"Other sessions when I have been a member I have not had reason to second any nominations. I believe it is a great privilege to second the nomination of Mr. O. E. Erickson for Speaker. He has done a wonderful work during the several sessions he has been a member. On behalf of his many friends in Mountrail County, I second the nomination of Mr. O. E. Erickson of Kidder County for Speaker."

Representative Rulon moved that the nominations be declared closed.

Which motion was seconded and prevailed.

To me there is a personal touch in it for it gives me a great deal of gratification to think that I am today stepping up as the presiding officer of the body into which my father entered for the first time ten years ago. In view of what has been said on the floor of this house regarding the qualifications of both candidates for the position of Speaker I do not think there is any necessity on my part to make any pledges to you further than that I will be Speaker of all members of this house, that I will be as fair

The county which has been most aptly termed the Little Political Giant—Eddy County—never allowing itself to be lulled to sleep, always loyal to progressive principles.

Members of the joint assembly of the 22nd Legislative Session, State of North Dakota, citizens gathered here today and to those who may be listening in over the radio, I want to say that it was my pleasure and privilege two years ago in January, 1929, to present to the Joint Assembly the first native born Governor of the State of North Dakota. Two years have passed by and it is again my privilege and an added pleasure to again present to this audience here, and to the joint assembly, and to people of the state, the same man I presented two years ago. He has served us now for two years as Chief Executive of this state, and I believe the fact that his administration was well received is best attested by the fact that in the recent election he was reelected by a majority such as was never before given to the Chief Executive of the State of North Dakota.

GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE

Introduction

To the Members of the Twenty-second Legislative Assembly:

We meet again at the threshold of a new year and at the beginning of another milestone in the governmental history of the state to inaugurate a new legislative session and to witness the birth of a new executive administration. We begin these deliberations under the sanctity of a solemn oath, the obligations of which bind us, with the help of God, to execute to the best of our ability the public trust which the people have reposed in us. This public trust is a most sacred one, the serious responsibility of which, I am sure, must greatly impress the mind and conscience of each of us who has assumed it, and the acceptance of it dedicates our labors unreservedly to the service of the state.

May I begin this message by observing that since the legislature last convened, the business of the state, including that of all its departments and institutions, has progressed in a manner most satisfactory.

The several executive officers, both elected and appointed, have co-operated in a most commendable way with each other and with the Chief Executive in the administration of the affairs of the state. My appreciation of this spirit of co-operation, I wish to publicly acknowledge and to congratulate the state upon the good results which have come therefrom and upon the tranquility which abides where unnecessary friction is absent from executive councils. The financial condition of the state is also in good order. Public expenditures have been confined to the available funds, future obligations have been rigidly avoided, and we enter the new term without the burden of accumulated debts. We have striven unceasingly to administer the government not only in accordance with sound business principles but in harmony with sound political principles as well, with results that, I believe, have been beneficial to the state.

Under our form of government the functions and responsibilities of making and executing the laws are wisely vested in separate constitutional bodies, each chosen for a specific purpose by the people. It is the province of the legislature to adopt the laws and of the executives to administer them, but experience has shown that the best results in government are obtained where there is a close and harmonious relationship and a cordial spirit of co-operation existing between the legislative and administrative bodies during the progress of law-making. The most appropriate laws result where the legislature acts in light of the facts made known to it officially by the several public officers charged with the administration of the functions of government and after due deliberation is given to the counsel offered by those whose task it is to deal from day to day with the problems involved. In conformity with the law the heads of the several executive departments have prepared and filed official reports covering the progress of the administration of their respective departments. These reports, some of which are necessarily voluminous, are intended to inform the public in general and the legislature in particular, not only of the routine facts pertaining to those departments, but also describe the practical problems that have arisen which call for legislative action and to give you the benefit of judgment founded upon experience as to the character of legislative assistance required. The aggregate of these departmental reports tell the story of the operation of the executive branch of the state government during the past biennium, and the subject matter of these reports is of such importance that I would urge you to provide for their study and analysis by a select committee appointed by each body of the legislature. Such a special committee should serve as a contact body between the departments and the legislature and promote that spirit of co-operation and co-ordination of effort which the situation requires.

Necessarily, I can not in this message do otherwise than touch in the briefest possible manner some of the more important subjects requiring legislative attention, giving you only the most essential information available and outlining the legislative program and policy which to me appears most appropriate for the needs and welfare of the state.

Appropriations

Probably the most important single duty devolving upon the legislative assembly is that of providing the necessary appropriations for the maintenance and conduct of the state government and its various departments and institutions. In performing this task you will have before you for your guidance the report and recommendations of the State Budget Board which has made a very careful and painstaking study of all the departmental and institutional requests. If these recommendations are substantially followed it will enable the legislature to reduce the total appropriations from the general fund of the state for the next biennium about $835,000 below those granted by the last assembly, and thus make possible a small reduction in general property taxes for state purposes. In order to make this reduction it will not be necessary to curtail the usual operations or impair the normal efficiency of any state departments or state institutions, but it will be necessary to refrain from allowing any requests for the construction of new buildings for the charitable, penal and educational institutions. It is the judgment of the Budget Board, in which I fully concur, that, while new buildings are needed at several institutions in order to take care of normal expansion requirements, none are absolutely necessary during the next two years, except possibly power plant additions and improvements at the School for the Feeble Minded at Grafton. I believe that every effort should be made by the management of these state institutions to get along some way during the next biennium without calling upon the taxpayers of the state to bear the extra burden which the cost of new buildings would necessarily impose.

In this connection I am sure that it is unnecessary for me to remind you that strict economy should be the ruling principle in the making of all appropriations by this assembly, and that the conditions and times demand that not a dollar be appropriated from the general funds of the state for any purpose, however laudable, beyond the sum actually necessary for the proper conduct of the government. Such a conservative policy in the matter of appropriations will be in harmony with both the needs and the desires of all our people at this time. This rigid rule need not, of course, be always followed in the case of appropriations made from those certain special funds not derived from real and personal property taxes, for, as I view it, it is the property owner, the farmer and business man, who needs protection in these times from the burden of heavy taxation.

In urging upon you the necessity of economy in the making of appropriations, I am not unaware of the fact that less than 12% of the total annual tax levy is required to operate the state government, and that 88% goes for the support of the local units of government. However, I believe that the example of the state in reducing its governmental costs will have a very wholesome influence upon all the political subdivisions and municipalities and it may induce many of them to adopt reduced budgets for the next two years.

Public Debt

A considerable part of the cost of government is reflected in the public debt of the state and its political subdivisions. For several years the state has had no bonded indebtedness except for industrial purposes. For the latter purposes, it now has outstanding bonds in the total sum of $38,357,200, of which amount $4,000,000 is for State Mill and Elevator construction and operating capital, $1,000,000 for Bank of North Dakota operating capital, and $33,357,200 for state farm loan purposes. During the present biennium, $500,000 of construction bonds for the State Mill and $1,000,000 of Bank of North Dakota capital bonds have been retired by taxation. Until 1929, the annual interest on both Mill and Elevator bonds and Bank of North Dakota bonds was paid from state tax levies, but during the past two years the interest on the Bank bonds in the sum of $75,000 and $50,000, respectively, has been paid from earnings of the Bank; while the interest on the Mill and Elevator construction bonds for the current year, in the sum of $172,000, was paid from earnings of that institution made during the year of 1929. Accordingly, while tax levies for industrial bond purposes have been reduced considerably during the past two years, it will still be necessary to continue such tax levies for many years before the state will be entirely free of this tax burden.

The total municipal bonded indebtedness of the state is approximately $19,000,000. The annual interest on such bonded indebtedness, together with sinking fund levies, adds much to the annual tax burden of our people. I believe it would be in the interest of economy if the legislature would rigidly limit, not only the amount but the purposes for which municipalities and political subdivisions may create public debts, and also to safeguard all sinking funds raised by taxation and oblige the application of all sinking funds to the retirement of outstanding bonds. In this connection, I would advise the enactment of a law which will require that all municipal bonds shall mature serially, so that the principal of such bonds may be gradually retired as sinking funds accumulate. The municipalities suffer an unnecessary loss by accumulating large sinking funds which earn much less than the interest on the outstanding bonds. If such sinking funds were periodically applied to the payment of the bonds, such losses would be saved to the taxpayers and the danger of the sinking funds being lost through misuse or other causes would be entirely eliminated.

May I also suggest that you repeal all laws on the statute books authorizing the state to issue bonds for any purpose except for farm loan purposes. I am sure that a strict policy of limitation on the creation of bonded indebtedness by either the state government or by local political subdivisions will improve the credit standing of both the state and the municipalities, as well as result in lower taxes. Our object should be to keep our credit good and our taxes down. This can only be accomplished by holding both current expenditures and the public debt within moderate bounds.

Governmental Survey Commission

I have long felt that the aggregate amount of taxes imposed upon real and personal property by the local subdivisions could be substantially reduced if the entire governmental system from the township to the state was thoroughly and carefully studied, overhauled and modern business methods adopted. I am confident that many consolidations could be effected and many expensive methods and functions eliminated or curtailed, which would result, not only in a real saving to the taxpayers, but introduce more efficiency in the operation of our complicated governmental machinery. Believing that much good could be accomplished in the direction of both economy and efficiency if some agency were created for the purpose of making a study and survey of our whole structure of government, state and local, I shall repeat the recommendation made by me two years ago, wherein I advised the creation of a governmental survey commission, which commission should be charged with the duty of making the study herein suggested and report its findings and conclusions to the next session of the legislature. I earnestly appeal to you to provide ways and means of attacking this problem of high cost of government in an intelligent way and I urge that there never was a time in the history of the state when our taxpayers were in greater need of relief from property tax burdens than the present.

Taxation and Assessments

In 1928, Section 179 of the State Constitution was amended to vest in the State Board of Equalization the power to assess all public utility property in North Dakota. No statute has yet been enacted by the legislature to prescribe the procedure to be followed by the State Board of Equalization in carrying out this vastly important constitutional duty. For three years the Board has assessed heat, light, power and gas properties without statutory guidance. These assessments in 1930 totalled the sum of $11,363,559. It is imperative that this condition be remedied and I urge this legislative assembly to pass an appropriate law to govern the procedure of the Board in such matters.

Taxation of Express Companies

I wish also to recommend a change in the manner of taxing the property of express companies doing business in this state. For many years this business has been conducted largely by the American Railway Express Company and its property was assessed by the Board of Equalization on the same basis as railroads, that is, on its tangible property and franchise value. In 1929, this property was assessed at the sum of $892,761. Recently, all express business in the state has been taken over by the railroads, which conduct the business through an operating company known as the Railway Express Agency, Incorporated. This company merely acts as an agent for the railroads; it receives no compensation for its services; it has no net income and pays no dividends. The value of its real and personal property within North Dakota is less than $53,000. In view of the fact that this company is merely an operating agent for the railroads, it is doubtful whether it can be assessed on its intangible or franchise value. I would, therefore, advise that a gross earnings tax be substituted for the present method of taxing this class of business.

Commercial Motor Bus Taxation

May I also call your attention to the condition of our laws governing taxation of commercial auto transportation business in North Dakota. This is a new industry which has grown rapidly during the past few years, not only in this state, but throughout the country. There are now 182 persons, firms and corporations doing a commercial auto transportation business within the state, carrying passengers and freight under licenses issued by the State Board of Railroad Commissioners. On October 1, 1930, these licensees were operating 280 cars, cabs and trucks. During the year 1930, these licensees have paid fees to the Board of Railroad Commissioners for regulatory purposes in the sum of $3,232.50, and fees to the State Motor Vehicle Department for highway purposes in the sum of $9,299.10. It is estimated by the Board of Railroad Commissioners that these motor carriers transported 148,844 passengers and 24,741 tons of freight during the year 1929, and that they ran a total of 1,958,612 miles. No record for 1930 operations is now available.

Inasmuch as registered motor vehicles, including the motor buses and trucks above referred to, are exempt from property assessment, this transportation industry pays no taxes for general governmental purposes, state or local, except income taxes which are negligible. Their tax contributions are, therefore, limited to highway taxes only, paid in the form of motor vehicle registration fees and the gasoline tax. It is my judgment that every commercial enterprise operating within the state, whether large or small, should contribute to the support of the general government on a basis of equality with all other lines of business, whether it be agricultural, commercial, or industrial. I would, accordingly, suggest that you give careful consideration to the question of establishing at this time a fair and equitable system of taxation for this rapidly expanding auto transportation business, not for the purpose of adding burdens to this new commercial activity, but in the interest of absolute justice in taxation. For your thought in this connection, may I not suggest the idea of adopting a gross earnings tax in lieu of the present income tax, the proceeds to go into the general treasury, together with an equitable schedule of motor vehicle registration fees for highway purposes.

State Highway Department

The State Highway Department has made good progress in the building of our Federal Highway System. During 1929 and 1930, it added 805 miles of new graded roads and 1,044 miles of new graveled roads to the State System, besides doing 482 miles of re-grading, re-graveling, re-oiling and oil mix surfacing on the old system. This brings our total number of miles graded according to Federal specifications up to 4,710, of which number 3,208 have been graveled. The department is carrying into the new year 752 miles of combined grading, graveling and reconstruction work which is unfinished, consisting of 388 miles of projects upon which work has been done and 364 miles of projects which were placed under contract during the fall for construction in 1931. Our Federal Highway System consists of 7,457 miles designated according to law into two systems known as the primary system and the secondary system. The primary system is about 87% completed; the secondary system is about 29% completed, and the total system about 53% completed. Preference in the order of construction has been given to primary highways as directed by the state law, which accounts for the fact that up to the present time most of the construction work has been done on the primary system.

State Highway Finances

In financing the construction of this great highway system, the state has up to the present time, operated on a strictly cash basis. No debts in the form of bonds or otherwise have been created against the state for highway construction or maintenance purposes. The highway department has operated under a departmental budget and has confined its expenditures each year to the estimated income for that year. In making its annual budget the highway commission has acted carefully and conservatively and has been successful in limiting the department's obligations to the actual income and assets of the department. During the latter part of 1930, the department borrowed $200,000 from the Bank of North Dakota to enable it to promptly pay all estimates due on construction work, but this loan was made against cash advances previously made by the state to the Federal Government in a sum in excess of the loan, which advances will be returned to the state as a matter of course during the next few weeks. Accordingly, the department begins the new year in an entirely solvent condition and prepared to discharge all financial obligations now due against it.

While the Highway Department has so far avoided financial difficulty, it is now confronted with a most serious financial problem, which I wish to lay before you in a frank, and I trust, clear manner.

As you may know, our Federal Highway System is being constructed under a sort of a partnership arrangement with the United States Government under the terms of which the Federal Government provides 50% of the cost of construction and the state 50%; the state's portion thereof being shared by the counties in which the work is done on the basis of one-half by the state and one-half by the counties. The annual Federal allowance for North Dakota for the past three years and until July 1, 1930, was $1,200,000. Under the provisions of a Federal Aid Authorization Act passed by Congress last spring, our annual allotment was increased from $1,200,000 to $2,000,000 beginning July 1, 1930. So far, however, our state has not availed itself of any part of the additional $800,000 authorized, because of lack of State funds with which to match such Federal allotment. In preparing our construction and maintenance budget for both 1929 and 1930, the department has had available sufficient funds, which, when matched by the counties, enabled the state to use most of the Federal Aid allowed on the basis of $1,200,000 annually, but owing to conditions which have recently arisen, this program of Federal Highway construction can no longer be carried on with state funds unless additional highway revenues are provided by this session of the legislature.

For the purpose of giving you definite information as to the amount, source and disposition of State Highway revenues, I am setting forth herewith a summary of the Highway Department's construction and maintenance budget for the year of 1930 and also a similar summary of the budget recently adopted for the year 1931:

1930 Budget for Highway Construction and Maintenance

Estimated Income, State Funds

Auto license fees, State's share.....	$ 850,000
Gas taxes, State's share.....	1,550,000
Miscellaneous receipts	75,000
Total	$2,475,000

Estimated Expenditures, State Funds

General road maintenance	$1,160,263
Snow removal, equipment and labor	174,737
Preliminary and construction engineering	253,000
Balance available for new construction and reconstruction in 1930	887,000
Total	$2,475,000

In making the estimate of income for 1930, the department anticipated an increase of about $150,000 in gasoline taxes and motor vehicle fees above that collected in the previous year. This estimate proved to be too liberal, however, and instead of an increase of highway revenues, the collections for 1930 actually dropped more than $150,000 below those of 1929. The net gasoline tax collections were $140,000 less, and the motor vehicle fees (State's share) were $12,500 less than collections for 1929. In making its budget for 1931, the department has used as a basis the actual revenues received by the state in 1930 without any anticipated increase in our gasoline tax payments or motor vehicle registrations. Under present conditions and under the same laws we have no reason to expect any greater highway income in 1931 than we received in 1930. Accordingly, the 1931 budget is as follows:

1931 Budget for Highway Construction and MaintenanceEstimated Income, State Funds

Auto license fees, State's share	$ 795,000
Gasoline taxes, State's share	1,270,000
Miscellaneous receipts	100,000
Total	$2,165,000

Estimated Expenditures, State Funds

General road maintenance	$1,218,897.80
Snow removal, equipment and labor	214,000.00
Preliminary and construction engineering	192,000.00
Amount required to complete unfinished projects under contract	460,000.00
Amount available for reconstruction	80,102.20
Amount available for new Federal Aid contracts	None
Total	$2,165,000.00

By comparing these two budgets, it will be observed, first, that the estimated highway income for 1931 is $310,000 less than that set up in the budget for the previous year; and, second, that there is nearly $100,000 more required for general highway maintenance and snow removal purposes in 1931 than in 1930, due to the fact that nearly 500 miles more of improved roads have been added to the system requiring maintenance.

The net result of the foregoing analysis is simply this: while there will be ample state funds available in 1931, and, perhaps, in 1932 under present revenue laws to adequately maintain our present 4,710 miles of Federal highway system and to complete the 752 miles of unfinished projects now under construction, there will be no state funds available for any Federal Aid contracts for letting in 1931. This means that in order to carry on the work of completing our Federal highway system, we must either provide more highway revenues, or require the counties to furnish all the money necessary to match Federal Aid allowances, or borrow from the Federal Government under the Emergency Act recently passed by Congress.

While state funds for new construction work have diminished, the demand for new highway construction is greater than ever. On January 1, 1930, the department had on file official requests from the several counties for more than 2,500 miles of new grading and graveling; and even after we have since completed 890 miles this last year, the department now has on file requests for more than 2,100 miles of new highway construction for 1931. The demand of the people for the early completion of the Federal highway system is overwhelming from all parts of the state, and the highway commission has been subjected to a constant barrage of petitions, resolutions and delegations from at least 40 counties in the state, all urging and pleading for a speeding up of highway construction work.

What is the remedy for this situation? Shall the state discontinue highway construction, or shall it proceed to complete the Federal system? I am sure that the people of North Dakota desire that highway construction shall proceed without interruption until the system is fully completed. If this is to be done, how shall new construction work be financed? If no additional state revenues are available, no doubt many counties will furnish the entire amount necessary to meet Federal Aid. Several western counties have already issued bonds in order to speed up construction within these counties. Other counties have made advances to the state department in the form of temporary loans during the past year in order to secure work on important highway projects. Should the counties furnish all the funds necessary to match Federal Aid, it would, no doubt, result in a considerable share of the cost being placed on real and personal property, which it not, in my opinion, the most desirable method of financing highway work. In my judgment, the proper way to solve the problem is to provide for an increase in highway revenues on motor traffic entirely, and to that end I would advise the following legislation:

First: Raise the State gasoline tax by 1 cent per gallon, the collection to go to the state highway construction fund after deducting the usual refunds for gasoline used in tractors and stationary engines.

Second: Provide a moderate increase in motor vehicle registration fees.

Third: Correct, if possible, the defects in the present system of allowing refunds, in order to reduce the frauds that it seems certain are being practiced against the state, and thus save to the state a larger share of gasoline tax collections.

In considering the foregoing suggestions, please bear in mind that a gasoline tax is the only means by which we can place a part of the cost of road construction and maintenance on foreign cars which now use our roads by the thousands each year, and it is the only tax which is levied and paid in direct proportion to the use which the motor vehicle operator makes of the highways. I would also have you know that our present schedule of motor vehicle fees is the lowest in the United States.

It would seem that a combination of the foregoing suggestions, if enacted into law, would give the Highway Department at least an additional million dollars each year which is necessary in order to match the Federal Aid in the sum of $2,000,000 now annually available to North Dakota, and it would enable the state to entirely complete our Federal system within four or five years as well as do some necessary improved highway surfacing, including oil mix surfacing and a limited amount of paving. In this connection, may I remind you that if the state does not use, within three years, the Federal Aid allotted, it is forfeited, and the amount transferred to the other states that are prepared to use it.

Federal Emergency Fund

Pending an increase in State Highway funds, we will be able to proceed with construction work by taking advantage of the provisions of the new Federal appropriation adopted by Congress on December 20th. Under the terms of this Act temporary advances will be made to any state that is without funds sufficient to match Federal Aid, such advances to be deducted later from subsequent Federal Aid allowances. Under this law, North Dakota has been allotted the sum of $1,298,000 which it may draw on under the conditions stated. This emergency Federal assistance is only temporary and will not relieve the state of the necessity of providing other funds to carry on construction after September 1, 1931. The untimely destruction of the highway records by the recent fire will make it very difficult for the department to use as much of this Federal advance as it otherwise might.

In making your study of our highway problem there will be available to you all the information and data in the possession of the Highway Department, and you are invited to carefully scrutinize the present and past operations of the department and to command the assistance and counsel of the members of the highway department staff.

Farm Storage

The last session of the legislature adopted a farm storage law under the provisions of which farm warehouse certificates may be issued covering the storage of grain on the farms under the inspection and seal of the state. Immediately after the Act went into effect on July 1, 1929, a state farm storage department was established at Fargo and it has been in operation some eighteen months. During the crop season of 1929 farm storage certificates were issued by this department covering the storage of 1,546,018 bushels of grain to 1,596 persons. It is estimated that over a million dollars was loaned to farmers on such farm storage certificates, mostly by the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank through the Farmers' Union Terminal Association and other agricultural corporations affiliated with or doing business through the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank, and the remainder by local banks and investment companies. So far in the crop season of 1930, there have been issued farm warehouse certificates for 607,159 bushels of grain to 635 persons. The demand for this class of storage was considerable last year, but not so strong this year, due largely to the fact that the loan value of wheat has been so low that it is not worth while for farmers to borrow against it. It has been clearly demonstrated, however, that farm storage is workable, economical and safe, and that in normal years it would be very helpful to those farmers who desire to keep their grain in storage on their farms and at the same time borrow for current expenses up to 70% of its market value. I believe that farm storage is sound in principle and that its general use would aid in establishing a more orderly marketing system in this state. The inspection fee of one-half of one cent per bushel has proven to be adequate to pay the expenses of field inspection. With a large volume of grain placed under storage, the revenue from such fees would entirely maintain the department.

To facilitate the operation of the law, I believe it would be desirable to repeal the provisions requiring fire and tornado insurance to be placed on farm-stored grain as a condition to the issuance of warehouse certificates. Experience has shown that credit agencies require different kinds of insurance on farm-stored grain, some less insurance and some more insurance than that specified in the law, so that it seems to be the part of wisdom to permit loan companies to make their own insurance requirements without statutory regulations.

Exempt Stored Grain From Assessment

I would also recommend that all stored grain, whether stored in elevators or on farms, be exempt from assessment and taxation.

Butter Substitutes and Dairying

At the present time dairying is the mainstay of agriculture in North Dakota. The dairy cow and a fair price for butterfat is a financial life-line to our farmers, without which their situation would undoubtedly be much worse. It is a matter of vast importance to our agricultural welfare that every protection possible be given to the dairy industry. Prices of dairy products have slumped considerably during the past two years, due in part to the increased use of butter substitutes, such as oleomargarine and other similar products, throughout the country. Every effort should be made to aid the National Dairy Council, the State Dairy Department, the Agricultural College, the several farm organizations and other agencies in their campaign to increase the consumption of butter and decrease the use of butter substitutes as a means of protection to this branch of the agricultural industry.

As a part of such program of protection, as well as a matter of fairness in taxation, I recommend the adoption of a sales tax on all oleomargarine and other butter substitutes sold in North Dakota. Our dairy industry now carries a large share of the cost of the state government, while the butter substitute industry, being located wholly outside the state, contributes nothing. This inequitable condition should be remedied at once.

Some of our state penal and charitable institutions have heretofore used oleomargarine as a matter of economy in maintenance. From the standpoint of economy, the practice is undoubtedly justifiable, but as a matter of state policy it is now a doubtful practice. Under the direction of the Board of Administration, all state institutions have long since discontinued the use of butter substitutes, except the Penitentiary. This institution cannot do so without incurring a considerable increase in the cost of maintenance until butter-making equipment is provided to enable it to convert its cream production into butter for institutional use. In order to do this, it will be necessary for the legislature to provide an additional appropriation in the Penitentiary budget in the amount of about $1,200 for that purpose.

Bureau of Criminal Identification

The last session of the legislature authorized the establishment of a state bureau of criminal identification at the Penitentiary. This bureau has rendered excellent service in identifying criminals and thus aiding in their speedy apprehension. The Superintendent in charge, who is a fingerprint expert, has aided in the solution of several murders, robberies and other crimes during the past year, and has established a very extensive and complete record of identification data relating to criminals. It is apparent, however, that this bureau can not function as it should unless and until it is given some general police powers and has the service of two or three officers who are experienced and efficient in the art of identifying and apprehending criminals. We must not forget that with the aid of automobiles and improved highways, our state has become the playground of the transient criminals of America who wander into and through the state at will, committing robberies, burglaries and sometimes murders, as may suit their fancy. This transient criminal problem is one of the most serious problems in our country today, the successful solution of which challenges the ingenuity of our public officials. I am satisfied that it can not be successfully solved except through the co-operative and co-ordinate efforts of the police authorities of the several states. Such co-operative and co-ordinate efforts can only be secured through central state agencies and such agencies must have police powers. I am aware that an addition to the staff of this bureau would increase the cost of maintenance of that department and I hesitate to burden the general treasury even for this important purpose; accordingly, to provide the necessary additional funds for this bureau, if given enlarged powers, I would suggest that funds be transferred from the fees collected by the Licensing Department of the Attorney General's office, which are now remitted to the municipalities. These remittances amount to so little for each of the 100 municipalities receiving them that they are of no practical value as local police funds and in most cases are not in fact used by the municipal authorities for that purpose. The Attorney General joins me in this recommendation.

State Hail Insurance

I again call your attention to the operation of the State Hail Insurance Law. At the last session of the legislature I recommended a change in the crop listing features of the present law so as to eliminate the compulsory requirements in counties where a large majority of land owners regularly withdraw their lands from state hail insurance, and substituting therefor an optional system of listing in such counties. Bills designed to enact this recommendation failed of passage. May I now invite your attention to the recommendations of the Insurance Commissioner contained in his Annual Report of the Hail Insurance Department for the year of 1929, wherein an optional system of crop listing is recommended for the whole state in lieu of the present compulsory method, which recommendation is made subject to certain conditions and limitations therein set forth. It is the desire of the Insurance Commissioner to adopt a system of operation which will substantially reduce the loss now resulting from the nonpayment of hail indemnity taxes on insured lands subject to mortgages or other prior liens. Some of the new features recommended by the Insurance Commissioner are not, in my opinion, practical, but many of his suggestions are, I think, feasible, and if adopted would both strengthen as well as facilitate the operation of the law. I thoroughly sympathize with the desire of the Insurance Commissioner to devise a method which will protect the fund from the loss of hail indemnity premiums and from the burden of carrying hail insurance upon certain lands free of cost to the insured, which the present system permits. I believe that a better hail insurance law can be evolved from the suggestions contained in the Insurance Commissioner's report.

Immediate Payment of Hail Insurance Claims

There is another defect in the method of administering the State Hail Insurance Law, that should, if possible, be remedied. Under the present system, hail insurance claims although filed and adjusted during the summer months, are not paid until the following December. This delay causes the farmers who suffer losses much inconvenience and expense. I believe that a method can be worked out whereby these claims can be paid in cash as soon as allowed. The State Hail Insurance Department has at the present time a surplus of over $4,000,000 collected from hail taxes, from which immediate payments of hail losses could readily be made, if the law was changed to permit it. I recommend such amendments to the Hail Insurance Law as will remedy this condition.

Banking Laws

About a year ago I appointed a voluntary banking code commission and charged it with the duty of making a study of the laws of the state governing state banks, savings banks, trust and investment companies, and building and loan associations, with the view of suggesting improvements in these laws. This commission has done considerable work on this task and has filed a report which I shall transmit to you for your information and consideration.

I wish particularly to urge your favorable action on the following matters recommended by such commission:

Building and Loan Associations

The code commission has recommended the enactment of an entirely new code of laws governing the incorporation and operation of building and loan associations. I respectfully commend this proposed new code to you. The existing laws relating to this form of loan business, which has many features of a savings bank business, are entirely inadequate and need substantial revision as a protection to the investors.

General Revision of Banking Laws

The code commission also advises a rather complete revision of the general statutes relating to the operation of state banks, and the supervision thereof by the state. The proposed changes suggested are too numerous for detailed reference here. A bill for such revision will be submitted to you for your consideration and approval.

Banks and Agricultural Credit Corporations

The present banking facilities in the state are entirely inadequate to provide the proper credit accommodations for those farmers and ranchers who need credit for livestock raising and feeding purposes. Many local banks do not have the available capital with which to make such livestock loans and existing legal limitations on banks make it difficult, and in some cases impossible, for them to secure the required capital by rediscounting livestock loans with other banks or credit corporations. Under these circumstances, I believe it would be desirable to grant to state banks the authority to invest a limited amount of funds in capital stock of agricultural credit corporations to be owned and controlled by such banks and to serve as rediscounting agencies with the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank and other banks and credit companies. This plan would enable local banks to avail themselves of much credit not now accessible to them without incurring that degree of risk which direct borrowing involves. Every bank in North Dakota should be placed in a condition to fairly care for the usual needs of its customers who are engaged in livestock production, and this method, would, I believe, be helpful in that direction. This proposal has the approval of the Banking Code Commission.

In my judgment, the future prosperity and well-being of farming in North Dakota rests mainly upon livestock production, including dairying, beef raising, hog and sheep raising. In times like these, when grain prices are abnormally low, more extensive livestock farming is an absolute necessity in order to enable our farmers to live and retain the ownership of their farms. This condition emphasizes the importance of providing adequate credit accommodations for the normal expansion of livestock raising in North Dakota. I am confident that dairying and livestock production will pull us through the present emergency if sufficient low cost credit can be provided for the use of our successful livestock producers.

Security for Public Deposits

Two years ago I recommended a change in the law governing public depositories touching the subject of security for public monies on deposit with state and national banks. I called attention to the fact that personal surety bonds were unsafe and that surety company bonds were both difficult and expensive to obtain. I advised the enactment of a law which would authorize banks to purchase and pledge government bonds, state or national, under careful restriction, as security for public deposits in lieu of personal or surety bonds. I believe such a law would permit many local banks to qualify as depositories of municipal funds under conditions that would be at once safe and beneficial.

State Mill and Elevator

One of the duties that has devolved upon the Governor during the past two years has been the management of the State Mill and Elevator. I have heretofore made available to the members of the Twenty-First Legislative Assembly and to the public a detailed annual report of this business for the year 1929. I will file for your record a copy of this report. I shall not discuss here the details of that report, except to remark that the year 1929 was the most successful, and from all angles, the most satisfactory season in the history of this industry. The net loss to the state was $39,937.47, after charging up interest on bonds and depreciation in the sum of $309,827.94. This large operating earning enabled the management to pay to the State Treasurer the amount of the annual interest on the Mill and Elevator construction bonds in the sum of $172,000, thus reducing the state levy in 1930 for industrial bond purposes by that amount.

A complete report is not yet available on this business for the year 1930. This must await the results of the regular semi-annual audit of the State Board of Auditors which is now in progress. When this audit is available to me, and in accordance with the law which requires the preparation of an annual report by February 1st, I shall submit to you a detailed report of the transactions of this industry for the year 1930.

I do, however, have at hand the Mill auditor's monthly reports for the period up to November 30, 1930, and according to these reports the results for 1930 will not be as satisfactory as those of the previous year. For the first eleven months of the year, the net loss to the state is fixed at $67,944.46, after charging bond interest and depreciation in the amount of $282,670.08.

The most encouraging result of the 1930 business was the fact that for the first time since its establishment the elevator department shows a net profit above operating expenses, including that portion of the bond interest and depreciation chargeable to the elevator department. On November 30, 1930, this net gain in the elevator department amounted to $8,306.26.

From my experience in the management of this business I would say that the future operations of the elevator department should return a small annual profit. This prospect is particularly good if the so-called transit penalty now charged by the railroads is eliminated in accordance with the recent decision of the Interstate Commerce Commission, which is expected to be effective April 1, 1931. I am not, however, so optimistic as to the future prospects of the mill department. I do believe that with careful and efficient management the mill can be made to pay operating expenses, including bond interest and depreciation, during normal years. Under existing handicaps, it is probable that the state will have to retire the principal of the mill and elevator bonds in the amount of $4,000,000 by taxation.

My experience during the past two years has also confirmed my opinion, long entertained, that it is unwise to continue the management of this business in the hands of the Governor. I think it would be decidedly to the benefit of both the business of the mill and elevator and the state to remove this managerial responsibility from the shoulders of the Governor and place it in the hands of a commission, which should supervise the enterprise in the manner of an industrial board of directors. I trust that in the interest of the future welfare of the Mill and Elevator, as well as out of consideration for my successors in office, you will adopt this recommendation.

Bank of North Dakota

I am glad to be able to report that the business of the Bank of North Dakota has progressed in a very satisfactory manner during the past two years. The bank has earned net profits over and above all operating expenses in the sum of $603,000 during the two year period just ended. From these earnings the Bank has paid the annual interest on its capital bonds, set up a reserve for the payment of heavy losses sustained by the Bank during the early years of its operation, and established a reserve for the retirement of the balance of the capital bonds in the sum of $1,000,000 which will be due in 1934. This brings the total profits of the Bank since 1923 up to $1,859,400, a sum which just about equals the total losses sustained during the years of 1919 to 1922. This excellent showing of the Bank is due principally to the very conservative, efficient and sound policy of operation inaugurated by the late Director General C. R. Green in 1922, which policy has been wisely followed since. As you know, the Bank of North Dakota has, during the past several years, confined its banking activities to the operation of the farm loan department and to serving as a depository of state and municipal funds. By keeping out of the field of commercial banking, it has largely avoided the risks and losses which have befallen private commercial banks in late years, and has thus kept safe and in liquid form at all times the millions of public funds on deposit with it.

The farm loan department has continued to actively serve the farmers of the state. Its farm loans now aggregate 13,101 in number and $84,797,672 in amount, of which $2,338,900 was made in 1930. After some years of diminishing demand for real estate loans, this demand again arose rapidly during 1930, and the indications are that this heavy demand will continue for some time. In fact, the Bank of North Dakota has made by far the largest number of loans of any loaning agency now operating in all sections of the state. The last legislature made an increase of $5,000,000 in the real estate bond authorization. In view of the extraordinary demand for farm loans now in evidence, it is likely that the present authorization will not be sufficient to carry on the business until the next legislative session; therefore, it would be wise to extend the authorization at this session.

While the demand for new loans is great, fortunately the bond market is very good for North Dakota bonds at this time. Recently the Bank sold real estate bonds at an interest rate of 4¼%, which is the best sale of North Dakota Bank bonds ever made.

There is another angle to this farm loan business, however, which is more serious: that is the quantity of farm lands which the state is acquiring through the foreclosure of mortgages. The state has taken title to 254,273 acres of land up to this time, involving a loan investment of $3,344,513.31. It has re-sold, mostly on long time contracts, 55,070 acres thereof, leaving 199,203 acres still on hand which the Bank must lease at low rentals in order to pay maintenance expenses. All of this land is tax exempt, which makes the problem all the more serious from the taxpayers' viewpoint. The management of the Bank is actively pushing land sales as fast as conditions warrant, refusing to resell at a loss to the state, and holding these lands for which there is no present market against the time when it is hoped that they may be re-sold without loss to the state.

Drake Mill

Let us not forget the Drake Mill. We still have it on our hands unsold and without prospects of sale, except for junk or local warehouse purposes at a normal figure. It will fall down or blow over in the near future. Will you not grant the Industrial Commission the requisite authority to dispose of it?

Committee on School Laws

Under the provisions of Senate Bill No. 99 passed by the last legislature, a committee on the revision of school laws was authorized to be appointed by the Governor. This committee was duly appointed, has completed its labors and has filed a report which will be submitted to you. May I ask that you give careful consideration to the subject matter of this report.

Teachers' Insurance and Retirement Fund

Under House Bill No. 234 of the last legislature, the Governor was authorized to appoint a commission of five persons to make an investigation of the Teachers' Insurance and Retirement Fund and report its findings to the Governor. This law carried no appropriation for either the expense of the members of the proposed commission or to employ assistance in making such investigation. I found it difficult to find persons willing to serve on this commission at their own expense and without even clerical expense provided. I would advise that this law be re-enacted and that the new Act carry a small appropriation payable from the Teachers' Insurance and Retirement Fund to pay necessary traveling and other necessary expenses of the commission, and to take care of such clerical and actuarial assistance as may be required.

Industrial Survey

For over forty years North Dakota has been developing its vast and rich agricultural resources and has erected an economic and social structure founded almost entirely upon the efficient development of agriculture. While so engaged we have, I believe, overlooked, and to a large extent neglected, our industrial resources and opportunities. As a matter of fact, we have enjoyed considerable industrial development within our state in recent years and it is probable that the value of the annual output of our purely industrial concerns exceeds $50,000,000. While agriculture will, undoubtedly, remain our basic industry for the next century, industry may, and, I believe will, in time, occupy a large place in our economic system and contribute a large share to our material wealth. A considerable industrial development is not inconsistent with or opposed to our agricultural welfare, but on the contrary, it is entirely in harmony with the highest degree of agricultural progress. Industrial plants located near at hand furnish profitable markets for agricultural products without excessive transportation cost; they provide opportunity for the employment of surplus farm labor and add in many ways to the wealth of the community. Our neighboring states of Minnesota, Wisconsin and Iowa, while leading agricultural states, have all recently become great industrial states. We live in an industrial age. With modern mechanical inventions and modern means of rapid communication and transportation, industry, the process of manufacturing and distributing articles of commerce from the resources of the soil, both mineral and agricultural, knocks at the door of every state, including North Dakota. Industry is no longer confined to the East, nor agriculture to the West. Industry is invading the West, adding to its growth and wealth, and agriculture may be found highly developed within an hour's drive of the palatial mansions of New York City. North Dakota will not have fulfilled its opportunities for growth and prosperity until its industrial resources are made use of and its economic foundation broadened by making industry the partner of agriculture within our state.

I believe it is appropriate, therefore, for the state to take stock of its industrial resources, examine its opportunities for local manufacturing and adopt a policy of encouragement toward industrial development. The state may very well at this time sponsor a state-wide survey designed to ascertain the extent and value of our industrial resources, determine the conditions and obstacles which stand in the way of industrial activity in North Dakota, and to prepare accurate data for the information, first, of our own citizens; second, to provide authentic material for the advertising of our industrial resources to the people of the country, and, third, to serve as a basis for the adoption of an industrial development policy for the state. To this end, I would recommend that some state agency be vested by this legislature with the authority to make such a survey and give the result of its findings to the State Department of Immigration and to the various other organizations, public and private, interested in the economic development of North Dakota.

Railroad Consolidations

You are aware that for some years there has been pending before the Interstate Commerce Commission an application for permission to consolidate into one corporation the Great Northern and Northern Pacific Railway systems. During the past year the Interstate Commerce Commission handed down a decision allowing such railroads to merge subject to certain conditions, among which was the requirement that the Great Northern and Northern Pacific Railway Companies surrender their joint ownership and control of the Burlington Railway system. This condition the petitioning railroads decline to accept, but negotiations looking toward a consolidation upon other terms were continued by the stockholders of such railroads. In the meantime, the Board of Railroad and Warehouse Commissioners of the State of Minnesota filed a petition with the Interstate Commerce Commission requesting a rehearing of the whole matter upon its merits, which petition was joined in by the Boards of Railroad Commissioners of all of the northwestern states, including that of North Dakota. This petition for rehearing was granted and the question is again at issue.

After giving this matter considerable thought, I have reached the conclusion that the consolidation of these two great railway systems, which parallel each other from St. Paul to Seattle, would be detrimental rather than beneficial to North Dakota and the Northwest. The competition in public service which the separate ownership of these railway systems has provided throughout the years, has been, I am sure, advantageous to the states served by them and the complete elimination of that element of competition, would, I believe, be injurious to the people living in this vast northwestern empire. While it is likely that some operating expense could be saved through a corporate merger, yet such saving would, in all probability, be made mainly through the release from employment of a large number of people now employed by these companies in the various cities between St. Paul and Seattle, and such a result would certainly not be in the interest of the public welfare in these times.

If you agree with my views in this matter, I would advise that the legislature express its approval of the action of the Board of Railroad Commissioners in joining Minnesota in opposing such proposed consolidation, and instruct that Board and the Attorney General's office to actively participate in the rehearing proceeding now pending before the Interstate Commerce Commission.

State Waterway Development Program

The last legislative assembly created a Missouri River Development Commission to serve as a contact body with other states and the United States Government in connection with the several movements now in progress looking toward the development of the Missouri River for navigation, flood control and diversion purposes. This Commission has performed the functions intended for it since its creation, but its powers are limited to contact functions only. It appears now that the United States Government has undertaken, through the engineering staff of the War Department and under the provisions of the Federal Flood Control Act, to conduct a gigantic survey of the Missouri River and its tributaries with a view of determining the feasibility of several forms of river improvements, including navigation, irrigation, flood control and diversion improvements, which survey, when completed, will extend into and to a large extent cover the water resources of North Dakota. This survey is now in progress, and certain preliminary reports touching a part of the field of investigation have already been filed with the War Department. This great waterway survey is the forerunner of a national waterway development program undertaken by the Federal Government to improve the Mississippi and the Missouri Rivers, both for navigation and flood control purposes. Under the circumstances, North Dakota has a vital interest in the possible consequences of this Federal survey and in the ultimate prospects of the development of the Missouri River and its tributaries for navigation, flood control and water conservation purposes. It would, therefore, seem advisable at this time to enlarge the duties of said commission by authorizing it to formulate a tentative state waterway development program, and in co-operation with the other Missouri River Valley States, urge its adoption by the Federal Government as a part of its national waterway improvement scheme; such a waterway development program to include the improvement of the Missouri River and its tributaries for navigation, flood control, and also the conservation of the waters of those other rivers and lakes in the eastern and central part of North Dakota now known to be diminishing with alarming rapidity. I believe that the prospects for securing Federal assistance for the improvement and protection of our water resources will be enhanced if the state officially adopts and recommends a state waterway development policy that is in harmony with the waterway improvement program of the other Missouri River Valley States and in line with the general interior waterway improvement policies of the Federal Government.

Capitol Building

During the preparation of this message and before the fire which destroyed the Capitol building on the morning of December 28th, last, I had written a paragraph advising that steps be taken at this session of the legislature to provide for the early construction of a new Capitol building. I based my plea for such action largely upon the ground that the state should not longer risk the fire hazard well known to be constantly present in the old building. Now that the long dreaded disaster has happened, with consequences that are known to everyone, the state is confronted with an emergency situation which must be met by this legislature. We tempted the gods of fire too long and now we are faced with the problem of building a new Capitol. I recommend that a Capitol Commission be created with the requisite authority to plan and provide for the building of a new Capitol as soon as the necessary plans and finances can be arranged.

You will recall that the last session of the legislature adopted a law providing for a fractional mill tax levy for the purpose of adding to the Capitol Building Fund. There is now in that fund over $700,000 in the form of money and securities. The state owns 33,411 acres of land granted to it by the Federal Government for Capitol building purposes.

The construction cost for a new Capitol building sufficient for our requirements, need not be large. My thought is that we should not build a large, pretentious and highly expensive Capitol building as some states have done, but, instead, plan to build a comparatively small and relatively inexpensive but well appointed Capitol building, large enough to permanently house the legislature, the supreme court and the principal executive offices, and at the same time, construct on the Capitol grounds for the use of the numerous other departments and bureaus, a modern office building, especially adapted for business offices. Such a building plan would, I feel, be entirely consistent with the dignity of the state, fully meet the needs of the state government and yet be sufficiently modest in cost to invite early realization.

Pending the construction of the new Capitol building, emergency conditions exist which require that provision be made for the temporary housing of the several state departments, the offices of which were destroyed, and for the refurnishing of those departments with office equipment, books, files, records and other necessary supplies. This will involve considerable expense and much careful planning. Necessary emergency appropriations should be provided as soon as possible to take care of this urgent need, to be expended under such supervision as in your judgment seems expedient in the circumstances.

In the meantime, the Board of Administration has made temporary arrangements for the reorganization of these departments.

Eielson Statue in National Statuary Hall

I turn for a moment from problems in the economic and political life of the state to a subject of patriotic commemoration. On November 9th, last, the people of our state commemorated the first anniversary of the death of North Dakota's most illustrious son, Carl Ben Eielson, whose fame as an aviator, will, I believe, live through the ages. From many sources it has been suggested that North Dakota should perpetuate his name and fame by placing a statue of this distinguished young American in National Statuary Hall in the capitol at Washington, D. C. I recently had occasion to investigate the probable cost of the making and installation of a suitable statue and find that it can be done for about $12,000. The procedural steps to be followed to carry out such a purpose required under the Federal law, is that the state shall duly authorize the installation by law and create a commission to execute the authority in co-operation with the Architect of the Capitol of the United States.

I believe it would be eminently appropriate for North Dakota to nominate Carl Ben Eielson for a place in this National Sanctuary of America's renowned and illustrious sons, there to remain forever as an inspiration to the youth of our land, and as an example of sublime courage, high character and daring adventure seldom equalled and never excelled in the history of our country. I suggest that the moderate expenditure necessary for such national commemoration may be provided from the unexpended balance remaining in the State Soldiers' Bonus Fund and thus save the general fund from any charge on account of such installation and commemoration.

Conclusion

The foregoing statement is a brief outline of the principal matters upon which I deem legislative action necessary to be taken in order to provide for the needs of the state during the next two years. There will, of course, be offered much other beneficial legislation on numerous subjects, which, I trust, will receive favorable consideration. Conditions are continually changing and changed conditions in the economic and social life of the people require constant readjustment in the laws relating to the government of the people. Such readjustments sometimes call for the application of new principles in political science, but more often, the situation is fully met by the new application of old and proven principles. There is little new in the theory of government, but there is much to be learned in the practice of government. Every legislative session is beset with radical proposals, believed by the authors to represent new and progressive ideas, when, in fact, they are old, worn out theories, often proven false and unsound by the test of trial and experience. Perhaps, such ill-considered and unwise propositions will be offered to you; if so, apply to them the test of thorough analysis and common sense, and judge them in the light of that vast experience which is already the heritage of our country. Hold steadily and unflinchingly to the fundamental principles of the Constitution. Remember that the purpose of government is to protect the people by restraining unwise and evil conduct and by encouraging wise and virtuous action, not to repeal the laws of human nature, nor to suspend the laws of economics. Any laws which are designed, even indirectly, to effect the latter object, are doomed to ignominious failure and their existence will cause an injury to the people. May I urge, therefore, that you give cautious and careful study to all bills presented, placing always upon the sponsors the burden of showing that the measures advocated are sound in principle, free of evils and discriminatory features, and calculated to promote the public welfare. Special legislation on any subject is always dangerous and none should be sanctioned, except where it is clear that the public interest is not adversely affected.

It will be your privilege and province to legislate for the mutual benefit and protection of all the people, not for any class, section or group at the expense of another. Every class of people, large or small; every legitimate interest, big or little; every line of business, foreign or domestic, is entitled to equal protection and a square deal at the hands of the law makers, as well as at the hands of the executives of the state. Special privileges to none, and equal and fair treatment to all is the basic principle of the American system of government, and we truly exemplify that system in proportion to the degree in which we apply that principle of equality in the law-making and administrative functions of the government.

The assembly convenes at a time when the country labors under the shadow of a nation-wide and world-wide depression. Under the pressure of that influence, many thousands of people throughout the land are suffering; some from present needs, others from that natural fear resulting from anxiety over the future. While our state and people are affected by these conditions, yet, I believe that we have much to be thankful for, in that our lot is infinitely better than that of those who live in other countries or in the great industrial centers of our own country. Our people have seen these times before. The pioneer settlers of North Dakota have witnessed more serious periods in other days and have triumphed over them. I am confident that this generation of North Dakotans has the courage, ability and genius to conquer the obstacles and to solve the problems of the present day, and to continue making noticeable progress in the building of our commonwealth.

This is not a time for gloom or discouragement, but a time for sober thinking and careful planning. It is a time for stock taking of the past and a period of intelligent readjustment for the future. In making our plans for the state may we not be given a clear sense of vision and farsightedness, remembering always that we are preparing for the next generation quite as much as for the next biennium. Time is moving rapidly on and the needs of tomorrow will shortly be the needs of today. The laws that we adopt and the action we take at this session of the legislature will long have an influence for good or for evil in the future life of the state.

Members of the Assembly, in performing the numerous and difficult tasks before you, may I pledge to you my individual co-operation and that of my executive associates, all of whom, I am sure, are anxious to be of utmost assistance, to the end that our joint efforts may produce lasting good for the state. We have all been called to render a public service of great importance to the people. I pray that we may have the intelligence and the courage to live up to our responsibilities and opportunities, and that success, not, failure, shall crown our endeavors.

PETITIONS AND COMMUNICATIONS

To the Honorable Legislative Assembly of the State of North Dakota:

The Board of Administration hereby submits a report of some of its actions subsequent to the destruction of the Capitol Building which occurred on the morning of December 28, 1930.

To determine, if possible, the cause of the fire, the Board requested the State Fire Marshal, Mr. H. L. Reade, to make an investigation. His report through Chief Assistant Fire Marshal, Mr. Frank Barnes, is attached herewith.

Following the fire, one of the first tasks of this Board was to secure adequate quarters for the various departments of State Government, so that they might resume their work as promptly and efficiently as circumstances would permit. To facilitate this work, a committee of the Association of Commerce at Bismarck co-operated with the secretary of the Board of Administration in compiling a list of the places available in the city for such office rooms, the amount of space in each, and the rental for which each could be secured.

This committee exercised special care to help the Board avoid the payment of excessive rentals in this emergency. As speedily as the necessary office and storage rooms for each department could be properly provided, temporary arrangements were made, pending the meeting of the Legislature. Thus far no leases have been negotiated to cover the entire period when rented quarters will be required.

It has been necessary for some rooms to be vacated for our convenience and expenses incurred for necessary alterations. These things were done with the understanding that the owners should be properly compensated for any loss or expense incurred, should we vacate any of these places before permanent office quarters may be provided by the state. After considering all of the places available, and the office and storage space needed by each department, temporary arrangements were concluded for the following quarters with the indicated monthly rental, which we believe to be the best arrangements the Board could make, and which we therefore submit for your approval:

Second Floor, Patterson Hotel, (34 rooms), $1000 per month. The Patterson Hotel houses the State Examiner; Commissioner of Agriculture and Labor, with the Dairy Commission; the Superintendent of Public Instruction; the Board of Administration and Children's Bureau; the State Printer; and the State Mine Inspector.

Fleck's Garage, $655 per month. Fleck's Garage is occupied by the entire Highway Department and the State Engineer.

Stair's Garage, $200 per month. Stair's Garage houses the Hail Insurance Department.

Room in Annex Building, $150 per month. The east room in the Annex Building is occupied by the State Tax Commissioner.

Laskin Building, $125 per month. The Laskin Building houses the State Supply Department.

Bismarck Tire & Electric Service, $150 per month. The Bismarck Tire & Electric Service Building houses the Commissioner of Insurance, and State Insurance and Bonding Departments.

Lahr Building, $450 per month. The Lahr Building takes care of the Adjutant General and the Railroad Commission.

City National Bank Building, $125 per month. The City National Bank Building takes care of the State License Department.

Little Building, $125 per month. The Secretary of State is housed in the Little Block.

This makes a total rental per month of $2980.

We request your consideration of the above temporary arrangements, the authority from you to make leases for these quarters until permanent offices may be provided by the state, and provision for paying such rentals.

Most of the valuable records that were stored in the Capitol Building have been salvaged; and most of those that were lost are such as may be replaced.

Some of the office equipment was salvaged and is being used in the temporary offices. The value of such salvage is less than 20 per cent of the total value.

The amount of insurance in force on building and contents is $728,000. In addition to this insurance the State supply store was insured for $8000. Both suffered a total loss. The insurance from the latter policy should be applied on the State Supply Department.

Acknowledgments are hereby made to the City of Bismarck and the County of Burleigh for their co-operation with the members of the Legislature who were in the city just after the fire, to provide suitable places for the meeting of the Legislature. Credit is due to Senator Sperry, Representative Cox, and Colonel Frayne Baker, who served as a committee to prepare the Auditorium and Community Building for the use of the Legislative Assembly, while the Board was busily occupied with the necessary work of securing suitable quarters for the various state offices and departments.

The Federal Government freely extended aid by providing such offices as could be spared in the Federal Building. The Association of Commerce facilitated the work of the Board of Administration through the co-operation of its officers and committees and by extending to the Board the free use of office space until other rooms could be secured. The Quain & Ramstad Clinic furnished us the Third Floor of their building, fully equipped for offices, until other rooms and equipment could be secured.

Respectfully submitted,
 NELSON SAUVAIN,
 Chairman,
 State Board of Administration.
 ERNEST G. WANNER,
 Executive Secretary,
 State Board of Administration.

Note: Since preparing the above, the insurance adjuster has approved our loss as a total loss of $728,000.

(Copy of letter from Chief Assistant Fire Marshal to Board of Administration)

To the Honorable Board of Administration,
Bismarck, North Dakota.

Gentlemen:

As per your request I am herewith submitting a report of the investigation made of the Capitol Building fire which occurred Sunday morning, December 28, 1930, somewhere in the neighborhood of 8 o'clock. The investigation, so far, was made by Chief Assistant Fire Marshal Frank Barnes, who arrived at the scene of the fire about thirty minutes after the fire alarm was sounded. On his arrival at the premises of the fire it was impossible to ascertain just what caused this fire or the particular point the fire originated.

The fire was soon out of control and spread throughout the building very rapidly. The Bismarck Fire Department worked diligently in battling the flames, but it was a losing battle from the start as the water pressure was inadequate and the fire had too much of a start.

Mr. Joe Winkle, a janitor, who was alone in the building at the time the fire was first discovered and who turned in the alarm, states as follows: That he had been in the janitor room about an hour before he discovered the fire and was working in the Bank Examiner's offices on the ground floor which is located in the extreme southeast corner of the building, and that about 8 o'clock he heard an unusual roaring noise in the building and left his work and went out of the office to ascertain what it was, but did not then discover the fire and returned to his work. In a few minutes he heard a loud noise resembling an explosion. He then went outside of the building and discovered smoke and flames coming through the southeast windows of the State Licensing Department offices attached to the Attorney General's offices on the third floor which are located right above the janitor room on the second floor. It is our belief that the noise heard resembling an explosion was caused by a falling beam or some other heavy object that had burned loose by the fire.

Our opinion and conclusion as to the origin of the fire, at this time, with meager information available and disclosed, are that the fire started in the janitors' room on the second floor of the building about one-half hour or more before it was discovered and alarm sounded, cause of fire being spontaneous combustion or some other unknown cause.

Respectfully submitted,
H. L. READE,
State Fire Marshal.

By FRANK BARNES (Signed),
Chief Assistant Fire Marshal.

Bismarck, North Dakota, this 31st day of December, 1930.

Representative Brunsdale moved that this report be printed in the Journal; which motion prevailed.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION

By Messrs. Halcrow, Twichell, Muus, Peters, Cox:

Whereas, all experienced persons know that in each State, legislative problems continually increase, both in number and in complexity.

Whereas, it is obvious that in order to solve such problems most effectively, each legislature must give systematic, scientific and business-like consideration to the actual facts which have a bearing upon each question—to the extent that such facts have been determined by reliable research.

Whereas, each legislature must give similar consideration to the methods and experience of other jurisdictions in dealing with problems similar to its own.

Whereas, no such problems can be dealt with adequately until facilities are established to assist every inquiring legislator to secure the most accurate information and the most expert advice which are available.

Whereas, experience indicates the necessity for an interstate legislative reference bureau to serve as a clearing house of information between all of the legislative reference services which are now being conducted by numerous states, and also to serve as a clearing house of information between the legislatures and all other agencies which are engaged in the study and analysis of legislative problems, such as governmental departments, political science departments of universities, competent reputable associations, and all other sources of information.

Whereas, experience also indicates that in certain States which do not maintain substantial legislative reference services, there is an imperative need for such an interstate legislative reference bureau, which will assist the legislators of those States to secure whatever information they desire in analyzing the legislative problems which they must determine, and to make more readily accessible for them, without cost, the valuable material which is at all times available from the legislative reference libraries and bureaus of various other states, and from many other reliable sources.

Whereas, every individual legislator in the United States shares the responsibility for improving the present inadequate and unsatisfactory condition of the legislative processes, but neither any individual legislator, nor any group of legislators from one State, can bring about such improvement without the cooperation of legislators of other states.

Whereas, such an interstate legislative reference bureau cannot be maintained by any one State alone, without the co-operation of the legislatures of other States.

Whereas, in order to set the machinery in motion to secure the necessary cooperation of the forty-eight legislatures, members of each legislature are working together in the development of the project of the American Legislators' Association.

Whereas, the said American Legislators' Association has now established in the vicinity of the University of Chicago, the Interstate Legislative Reference Bureau, which by explicit pledge is without color of politics, partisanship or propaganda, is conducted without profit, and is engaged upon three principal purposes:

First: To procure promptly for all inquiring state legislators, and their agents, whatever information or advice they desire in connection with any legislative problem, primarily by assisting them to secure, without cost, the benefit of all researches conducted by governmental departments, universities, associations, legislative reference bureaus, and other agencies throughout the United States.

Second: To conduct a systematic study of the legislative processes of each of the States, in order to ascertain the practices which contribute most to efficient and economical organization and procedure; and to render all possible assistance to each legislature—and to each legislative reference bureau—which is endeavoring to improve its organization.

Third: To publish for the benefit of all state legislators the monthly magazine, State Government, as well as special Bulletins, and thus to disseminate information which will be helpful to all conscientious students of legislation.

Whereas, the American Legislators' Association is promoting acquaintance and mutual understanding among all individuals and organizations officially concerned with the impartial and scientific functioning of the legislatures of the various States, by the organization of Standing Committees and Advisory Boards, and otherwise.

Whereas, the character and project of the American Legislators' Association have the endorsement, and its organization has the active cooperation, not only of its membership, which consists entirely of members and ex-members of state legislatures, but also of numbers of other responsible citizens, many of whom, having specialized knowledge, are serving on the Association's Advisory Boards.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY RESOLVED: That the organization of the American Legislators' Association and of the Interstate Legislative Reference Bureau are hereby commended as legitimate and constructive efforts to assist the legislatures of the various States in the efficient performance of their work.

Mr. Twichell moved that the Joint Resolution be printed in the Journal and referred to appropriate committee; which motion prevailed.

Mr. Wigen moved that the report of the Committee on Mileage and Per Diem be amended and corrected so that the mileage of Mr. M. H. Holte be changed from 360 miles to 430; which motion prevailed.

Mr. Twete asked the House consent to withdrawal of House Bill No. 4 for correction; which request was granted.

Mr. Peters moved that the name of L. C. Hoisveen be placed in nomination for night watchman, and William Hutsonpiller for cloakroom attendant.

STATEMENT BY SPEAKER

Your Speaker has to the best of his ability tried to recognize every member of the House by giving him or her at least one committee that will be active during the session. The Speaker has also tried to recognize as far as possible the preference indicated on the cards that were turned in during the session. Also he has further attempted, on making up the committees, to give both factions in the House representation on all important committees. He has even gone so far as to seek advice and suggestions from the leaders of both factions of the House. In looking over appointments he finds that in some instances there are two members from one district on the same committee. This occurs in two or three instances. In order to carry out the plan which the Speaker has just mentioned it was necessary to make this arrangement. He also wishes to acknowledge the courtesies extended to him by members of this House in his attempt to make up these committees. No member has come to the Speaker and insisted on recognition and preference, and the Speaker appreciates the attitude of the House in this respect.

Finally let me say this, that the Chair assumes full responsibility of the assignments made and that they were made in the interests of the House and not with the intention of showing partiality or prejudice in favor of any member.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

STATE OF NORTH DAKOTA
OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR
BISMARCK

January 23, 1931.

To the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of North Dakota:

I have the honor to transmit for your information the report of the Committee on School Laws, appointed pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 200 of the Session Laws of North Dakota for 1929, together with copies of bills attached thereto carrying into effect the recommendations and changes in the existing School Laws proposed by such Committee.

Very truly yours,
GEO. F. SHAFER,
Governor.

REPORT OF COMMISSION ON SCHOOL LAWS, 1929-1930

To the Members of the 22nd Legislative Assembly:

The Commission on School Laws, appointed by the Governor upon your authority, has spent the past eighteen months in a study of the task assigned to it. The result of this study is attached hereto and respectfully submitted for your consideration.

The members of the Code Commission are engaged in other businesses and, therefore, have been prevented from giving this important subject the intensive and comprehensive study to which it is entitled. It has been impossible to give attention to School Laws and school practices of other states so that knowledge might have been gained from the experience of others. Nor has it been possible to attempt a complete codification of our own laws, the study of the problems of taxation, of the unification of school district organization, and of needed constitutional amendments. The recommendations for new laws, amendments to existing laws and repeals is merely a beginning of the work that is recommended to be continued by a new Code Commission composed of men with time and talents sufficient to give this subject the intimate study that it deserves.

In this work the members of the Commission have been inspired by a desire to make our school laws subservient to the needs of and serviceable to every child in the State, whether of town or country. No state can progress; no nation can approach perfection unless the educational interests of all the children are religiously safeguarded. A state is largely measured by the standard of its schools and to raise this standard has been the motive back of every recommendation made.

Although the study has been inconclusive, the members of the Commission appreciate the honor and privilege of serving the children of the State in this capacity. It is earnestly hoped that the Members of the 22nd Legislative Assembly will accept and consider the recommendations made in the same faith in North Dakota childhood that inspired them.

E. J. TAYLOR,
EDWARD ERICKSON,
H. O. SAXVIK,
HAROLD D. SHAFT,
H. K. JENSEN.

Members of the Commission.
W. E. PARSONS,
Secretary.

FREE KINDERGARTENS

The present law requires school boards to establish free kindergartens upon petition of a majority of the electors, and in cities having a population of 5,000 or more, upon petition of only one-fifth of the legal voters.

Petitions are notoriously unreliable indications of public desire, and under the present law an opportunity is given for a very small minority to place a burden, frequently unwarranted, upon a school district which can ill afford to operate a kindergarten.

Through the operation of the present law, kindergartens are now being maintained in several cities of the state under such financial and other circumstances as require the actual curtailment of grade school work in order to accommodate them, and the board has no other alternative than to submit to the will of the small minority.

The proposed bill provides for the determination of the kindergarten question by a majority vote at an annual school election, which we believe to be more in keeping with a democratic system of government, and which we believe will result in a more wise and satisfactory settlement of the kindergarten problem in each community.

SCHOOL FACILITIES FOR CHILDREN IN UNORGANIZED TERRITORY

We submit the following reasons for the Bill herewith attached providing for educational facilities for children of school age residing in territory not organized as a school district.

1. There is territory in North Dakota which on account of low valuation and insufficient number of children is unable to organize as a common school district.

2. The adjoining school district may refuse to attach the territory and are not obliged to do so according to law.

3. On account of being unorganized, the children living in the territory are often denied school facilities because the entire burden of same rests on the parents. Although we realize that the parents living in such a territory do not pay school taxes we sometimes find parents who are reluctant about providing school facilities for their children. It is to correct this evil that we ask for the passage of this Bill. We desire the compulsory Attendance Act to apply to these cases.

4. Under the proposed Bill the Compulsory Attendance Act will apply and proper school facilities will be provided either in the territory or in an adjacent district by the paying of tuition and transportation if advisable.

SCHOOL FACILITIES IN COMMON SCHOOL DISTRICTS WITH LESS THAN $100,000 VALUATION PER TEACHER

The law permits special school districts to attach adjacent territory upon a petition from the territory to be attached, without giving any opportunity for the district from which the territory is detached to have any voice in the matter. Since 1919 various provisions have been made to protect the remaining territory by providing a minimum assessed valuation per teacher employed which must be left in the school district from which the territory is taken. Prior to 1919 no such limitation existed, and a serious situation exists in some districts from which territory was taken before 1919.

In one case which has been brought to our attention three special school districts, located on three sides of a common district, each attached territory from the common district, leaving but four and one-half sections of very poor land in the common district, with an assessed valuation less than $40,000. This district is wholly unable to provide school facilities, or to pay transportation and tuition in adjoining districts, and the children of the district, except those whose parents can afford to pay their expenses in other schools, must go without schooling.

Such situations are, of course, very rare, and will not be created under the present law. We feel, however, that the plight of the few districts in this deplorable condition is serious enough to warrant the enactment of remedial legislation for their benefit and we therefore recommend the following bill.

CHANGING BOUNDARIES OF SCHOOL DISTRICTS

The present law permits the changing of school district boundaries by the Board of County Commissioners and County Superintendent after a favorable vote of the people in the territory involved, and permits the County Commissioners and County Superintendent, upon a petition of two-thirds of the electors of a proposed new district, to organize a new district out of territory already organized into a school district, without giving any opportunity to the citizens of the remaining territory to vote upon the question.

In several instances which have been called to the attention of this Commission, new school districts have been created out of territory already organized, in such manner as to leave the remaining portion of the old district with so little territory or assessed valuation as to render it impossible to provide school facilities therein.

The attached bill would require an election in all territory affected in all cases of change of boundaries, consolidation of districts, or creation of new districts out of old, and would, in our opinion, do much to remedy the situation which now exists.

DEFINING CONSOLIDATED SCHOOLS

Much dispute arises over the question of whether or not the transportation laws with reference to consolidated schools applies to schools serving 18 or more contiguous sections and having two or more teachers, when there has been no actual consolidation of schools. Section 1446 of the 1925 Supplement provides that such schools shall be deemed consolidated schools, but this section, referring to state aid, is frequently construed not to affect the transportation statutes. We recommended that this situation be clarified by the enactment of the following bill.

DUTY OF SCHOOL BOARDS AS TO PAYMENT OF TRANSPORTATION FEES

Section 1342 provides for the payment of certain fees for transportation of pupils residing beyond a certain distance from school or the equivalent thereof, but it does not specify when such fees shall be paid. This often gives rise to controversy. The section further provides that parents of such children must make demands for such payment upon the board before the close of the school year or the same will be deemed to be waived.

The responsibility for providing educational facilities for all children should rest primarily upon the board. It seems to the Commission that those children living far from school should be given first consideration and that such fees as their parents are entitled to under the law should be paid them promptly and that no demand for such payment should be required.

ADVERTISEMENTS FOR CONTRACTS

Section 1259, of the Special School District Laws, provides certain limitations on expenditures for supplies, etc., without advertisement, while Section 1356, of the General School Laws, provides other and different limitations. It is a question if Section 1356 does not apply to Special School District as well as to other districts. Section 1259 was apparently an effort to give Boards of Education in Special School Districts more power in the purchase of school necessities than granted boards in Common School Districts. To clear up this apparent conflict the attached bill has been drafted. The provisions in this bill are less drastic than those in Section 1356 but they are sufficiently definite to safeguard the interests of all districts.

SCHOOL BUSESSES

The present law simply provides that under given circumstances the board must "furnish vehicular transportation by public conveyance." No machinery is provided for calling for bids or letting contracts, no rules govern the type of busses, the routes to be traveled, the qualifications of drivers, the discipline in busses, or any others of the many very vexatious questions that arise over the operation of school busses. Probably no school problem gives rise to more quarreling and trouble than this. We therefore recommend a rather comprehensive law to correct this evil, and submit the following as our considered judgment as to advisable regulations.

NOMINATIONS OF SCHOOL DISTRICT OFFICERS

The present law (Section 1151-1159) seems to contemplate that in common School Districts all electors are candidates for all offices, and no provision whatever is made for nominations and no form of ballot is prescribed. This results in a great number of methods of voting upon school officers and many election contests. To clarify this situation the following bill provides that a person wishing to be a candidate may have his name placed upon the ballot by filing his name with the clerk five days before the election. A form of ballot is also prescribed. The enactment of this bill, we believe, would make school elections more regular and more fairly representative of the wishes of the electors.

ELECTION OFFICERS

Countless disputes arise every year over the right of school officers who are candidates for re-election to act as judges and clerks of the election at which they are candidates. The law does not now expressly cover this contingency. In the interests of harmony within the school districts and regularity and honesty in their elections, we recommend the adoption of the following Bill.

LEASING OF SCHOOLS ON PETITION

Section 1188 of the 1925 Supplement provides for the leasing of school quarters upon the petition of the parents of nine or more children of school age residing not less than two and one-half miles from the nearest school. Many boards lease quarters which are highly unsuitable for permanent school purposes, and continue to use the same long after the emergency has passed. It is therefore recommended that school be conducted in such premises for no longer period than is necessary.

The law also provides for the erection of a school house at a cost of not to exceed $1200.00 in case suitable quarters cannot be leased. Under present building costs it is practically impossible to build a one-room school house for this amount. $1500.00 is recommended as a more reasonable limit to place upon the cost.

CLOSING SCHOOLS FOR LACK OF PUPILS

We submit the following reasons for the Bill herewith attached with reference to the closing of schools for lack of pupils:

1. The present law, Section 1189, fails to define what is considered proper and convenient school facilities.
2. School boards under the present law are at a loss to know how far they may go in the matter of paying for such "proper and convenient school facilities."
3. In the Bill we recommend for passage there is a fair opportunity for both school board and patron to be heard before a board of arbitration consisting "of the county superintendent of schools, one arbitrator named by the patron, and one arbitrator named by the school board."

4. The present law is specific in granting to school boards the right to close school when the attendance falls below four for ten consecutive days, but does not provide likewise a way to reopen such school. The bill proposed does provide that such school shall be opened "upon demand in writing of the parents or guardians of four or more children of compulsory school age, all of whom reside within two and one-half miles of such school, the school board shall reopen such school for the next ensuing term following such demand."

SELECTION OF SCHOOL SITES

The present law does not specify the method of voting upon the question of selecting a school site or removing a school house. Many districts permit each voter to write in the site he favors, and frequently three or four sites may be voted upon, with no one receiving a majority. Even greater confusion occurs when the question is the removal of a school house. One district court has held that the question of removal and that of the site to which the building shall be moved must be submitted as separate questions. Thus the necessary two-thirds may vote to move the building, but not even a majority may agree as to where it shall be moved.

The following proposed amendment to Section 1184, will, we believe, clarify this situation and eliminate much trouble and many lawsuits.

PROVISIONS FOR VENTILATION IN SCHOOL HOUSE PLANS

The paragraph on ventilation in Section 1490 should be changed because investigations in ventilation have shown that the carbon dioxide content of breathed air does not reach proportions which are injurious. Since other factors affect the desirability of air in the school room provision should be made for re-circulation of the air.

Under the present law no building can be constructed unless provision is made for taking all of the air directly from the outside. As a result the air cannot be properly heated, and since no provision is made for re-circulation, the intakes are closed during severe weather and there is no ventilation provided at a time when it is most needed. Provision should be made for re-circulation so that buildings can be constructed with this newer idea in mind.

CONDEMNATION BY BOARD OF HEALTH

In the Bill proposed we believe the health of many children will be safe-guarded.

At present the County Board of Health may suggest to the District but there is no way to enforce its orders.

Often school boards lease buildings that are unfit for school purposes for a longer period than one year and some make no effort to correct the condition either by building or remodeling. It is to take care of such cases that we have drafted the proposed bill.

The proposed Bill is sufficiently flexible in scope so that there is opportunity for appeal by the School Board if the orders of the County Board of Health are considered unfair.

STANDARDIZATION OF SCHOOLS

The following bill combines all laws now in force relating to the standardization of all classes of schools—the high schools, the consolidated schools, the graded schools and the one-room rural schools.

In the laws now in effect there is a separate classification for the consolidated schools. This bill eliminates that one classification. Consolidated schools are either high schools or graded schools. Under the provisions of this bill they are to be classified as such. Special aid is provided for transportation for high schools and graded schools that meet the legal definition of a consolidated school.

The reason for this proposed change is that many schools now classified as consolidated schools could classify as high schools but these schools are classified as consolidated schools rather than as high schools because of the larger State aid for consolidated schools. Under this bill a consolidated school meeting the requirements for high school classification may so classify and receive the special aid for transportation in addition to the regular high school aid.

In this bill the method of distributing the aid to the one-room rural and the graded schools is changed. In the law now in force the distribution of aid is based upon the class of school and the tax rate making twenty-seven different amounts of aid for these schools. To take the tax rate into consideration should be done provided the amount of aid was sufficiently large to bring into effect the principle that this law intended to observe—that is, to give the larger aid to the districts with the higher tax rates. However, whether a district receives $11.70 or $23.40 will not effect the tax rates very much. Under the present law an increase of one-tenth of a mill may mean the doubling of the aid.

As long as the appropriation can not be made sufficiently large to make an appreciable difference in the amount of State aid when based on the tax rate a simpler way of distributing the aid is as proposed in this bill—that is, to base it on the class of school only.

With these two exceptions, viz: the leaving out of the consolidated school as a class and the method of distribution of aid the provisions of this bill are in the main the same as in the present laws. It combines the several laws now in force into one law.

DEFINING HIGH SCHOOLS

A new law defining different types of high schools is necessary as our present law does not define any types. Difficulties arise in the payment of high school tuition and these problems are hard to settle because high schools are not defined.

Limitations should be placed on the amount of high school work taught in different schools because of the fact that more and more small schools are attempting to do high school work and in so doing decrease the efficiency of the whole system including the elementary school. There is no justification for teaching high school in a one-room rural school and the practice should be stopped. Housing facilities are not adequate and usually the teacher is not properly qualified. The grades are robbed of the time and attention which should be devoted to them.

In order that there should be uniformity in the high school courses offered the Department of Public Instruction should have more power in prescribing such courses.

HIGH SCHOOL TUITION

The most significant change in education during recent years is the enormous increase in attendance upon our high schools. Statistics indicate that in this state high school enrollment has increased 500 per cent in less than twenty years. High Schools are now accepted as a definite and established part of our public school system.

But to carry on high school work with even moderate efficiency requires teachers, rooms, and other facilities not available in rural districts except in the larger consolidated schools. If a rural child wishes to secure for himself a high school education he must generally do so in a school other than the one maintained by his home district.

It has been our boast that the public school including the high school is a privilege common to all our children, and that this privilege should be extended to all alike. Particularly has it been emphasized that educational opportunities should be extended to the rural child equal to those enjoyed by boys and girls in town or city.

At the present time this boast of equal educational opportunity is an idle one. For rural children outside of high school districts must not only be away from home or drive long distances to attend high school, but are further hampered and hindered by existing provisions and regulations.

A pupil from a rural non-high school district may present himself at a high school for enrollment. His home district is required by law to pay the high school attended the sum of $54.00 a year. Many districts have refused to pay even this required tuition; therefore many high schools will not enroll rural pupils unless or until they have a written statement from the board of such rural district that the tuition will be paid. Where a rural school board is opposed to high school attendance, they can practically prevent any pupil such attendance. True, the law requires that such tuition be paid. But many parents and pupils and most high schools are unwilling to carry such a matter to court to prove their claim a just and valid one.

Also, the present tuition of $54.00 a year is only a part of the annual cost of furnishing high school facilities for one pupil. Where the number of rural pupils in any one high school is large, such school is forced to charge a tuition more nearly equal to the cost. A large number of high schools are at the present time charging a tuition in excess of the $54.00 provided for in the present law. The Supreme Court has ruled that a high school may charge tuition in excess of $54.00. The Attorney General has ruled that the rural school board has no authority to pay more than $54.00. The difference, then, must be borne by the student or his parents. Many are unable to do so. Thus our boast of free and equal educational facilities for all is nullified.

Since high schools have not been and cannot soon be brought to rural pupils in a large way, the alternative is to furnish them a chance to attend high school elsewhere. The present law, which was intended to do just that, is failing wretchedly to accomplish this purpose. It is cumbersome and antagonistic in administration and its financial backing of the pupil is uncertain and inadequate.

The proposed law will in fact, as well as in theory and purpose, furnish high school opportunity to every rural pupil able and willing to make use of it.

Briefly, this law restores the old two mill county levy in operation until 1917, when it was reduced to half a mill. From the additional one and one-half mill high school tuition at the rate of $100.00 a year will be paid for each non-resident high school pupil in that county. The remainder will be distributed to the several school districts in the county on the same basis and in the same way as the present half-mill county levy.

There may be a question as to the fairness of levying such a tax on all property in the county, as part of this levy will be paid by districts already maintaining a high school. In answer it may be stated that towns and cities profit in other ways from the attendance of non-resident high school pupils. The cost is moderate for all and excessive for none. Above all it will give a semblance of opportunity to rural children equal to those now enjoyed by those living in districts with their own high schools. Such equality exists now in theory only but is lacking in practice.

This law is not proposed for the benefit of high schools now existing. There is not a city or town in this state where a high school education is not available to every boy and girl within its borders. This law will give every rural boy and girl the same opportunity, the same privilege.

Some may contend that this question is of little importance and that it affects only a few students. The report of the State Department of Public Instruction for 1928 shows that 68 per cent of the elementary pupils in this state are rural pupils. There are at the present time in spite of all obstacles thrown in their way, a greater number of non-resident high school pupils in North Dakota than the combined enrollment of the University, the Agricultural College, and all the normal schools. A large additional number of rural pupils would now be attending high school if they had a chance.

No argument is necessary to convince the thoughtful person that rural pupils deserve a chance. The proposed law will give it to them. It is for this reason the present law is proposed: it is for this reason and for this reason alone that its passage is urged.

CERTIFICATION OF TEACHERS

The proposed bill herewith submitted for a change in the teacher's certification law is based on the following general reasons:

1. There is an over supply of teachers.
2. Our qualifications for teachers are below those of neighboring states.
3. The present minimum qualifications of our teachers is inadequate in view of the present day standards in other professions. This is particularly true with reference to the elementary certificates.
4. Second and First grade elementary certificates should no longer be renewable other than by examination because all teachers should be expected to have professional training.
5. There must be no discriminating against teachers from other states but we do believe that graduates from our state institutions should have their interests safeguarded by demanding of such out of the state teachers that they meet the requirements for certification in their own states, and that such requirements must meet at least the minimum for North Dakota.

OUR SPECIFIC REASONS FOR CHANGES ARE:

I.

1. Second grade elementary certificates now are issued by examination or on graduation from high school and twelve weeks normal training. The applicant by examination may have had no professional training and meager scholarship. Changing the law so as to grant second grade elementary certificates only by examination will differentiate between these two classes of teachers and give more dignity to the high school graduates with professional training. After July 1st, 1935, no second grade certificates will be issued under the proposed law. The same applies to first grade certificates issued by examination.

2. Realizing that no person can acquire the minimum professional training in less than nine months of professional study, the proposed law will require after high school graduation, completion of the one-year teacher training course. This step in advancement of teacher qualification is feasible for the reason that about 29 per cent of the rural teachers in North Dakota have this preparation, 11 per cent need only twelve weeks to complete the requirement, and 58 per cent need only twenty-four weeks to complete the requirement.

There are only 40 teachers in North Dakota who are not high school graduates. With our 4248 rural teachers it can readily be seen that the proposed new law is justifiable.

II.

In the matter of professional certificates, very little change is contemplated by the new law proposed. There is no longer need for offering examinations for first and second grade professional certificates.

During the last four years no one has taken examination for a first grade professional certificate. During the last two years only one person has taken examination for a second grade professional certificate.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTES AND COUNTY SUPER-INTENDENT'S CONTINGENT FUND

Teachers' Institutes, as contemplated by Section 1391, have become practically obsolete. The work formerly conducted at these institutes is now being taken care of by the summer sessions at the various normal schools. Some attempt at following the form of the statute has sometimes been undertaken, by designating normal heads as conductors of institutes for the group of counties surrounding the normal, but this has resulted only in disputes over the payment of the cost thereof by the various counties involved. It is our considered judgment that such institutes should be definitely abolished, and the funds put to other uses.

The existing law appropriates from the State Treasury $100 per year per county for such institutes. Such funds should be expressly designated to be used as we understand they are now actually used, namely, for the purpose of employing demonstration teachers in schools and lecturers at teachers' meetings.

The present law provides for a County Institute Fund, made up from examination fees and an appropriation from the general fund of $2.00 for each school or separate department in the County. We recommend that these examination fees, together with an appropriation of not to exceed $200.00, (on the average much less than $2.00 per school) be designated "County Superintendents' Contingent Fund," to be used for the payment of the expenses of teachers and officers meetings, play days, industrial contests, county commencement exercises, and other like activities which are meeting with more and more favor in the rural districts of the state.

The two following bills will, we believe, accomplish these purposes.

LENGTH OF SCHOOL DAY

Section 1382 defines the school year, the school month and the school week. It would seem advisable to define also the school day.

In present day education an effort is being made to enlarge and enrich our school curricula. More and more time is being devoted to work aside from the regular school studies. There seems to be a tendency, especially in the cities and villages, to shorten the school day while the demands upon the teachers' and pupils' time is being increased. The attached bill provides a day of the same length as that followed in the majority of rural schools in the State.

SCHOOL TREASURERS' BONDS

We recommend the passage of the Bill herewith attached referring to School Treasurers' Bonds for the reason that the present law does not safe-guard the funds of school districts as would the proposed law. The present law permits a personal bond "signed by two or more sufficient sureties, to be approved by the school board." The safe-guarding of the funds in the hands of a treasurer should not be the responsibility of two or three tax payers in a school district but should be the responsibility of the entire district which it will be if the proposed Bill becomes law.

Our experience has been that if the school treasurer's bond is with the State Bonding Fund or a Corporate Surety Company there is a double check on Depository Bonds in as much as the State Bonding Fund and the Surety Company will immediately cancel a treasurer's bond if depositories fail to give bond or same being insufficient.

SCHOOL CENSUS

We submit the following reasons for an Amendment to Section 1195 of the Compiled Laws of North Dakota for 1913 in the matter of taking the School Census.

1. The law provides that the School Census shall be taken every year and we consider this to be unwarranted inasmuch as the number of pupils enumerated varies very little each year. By having the School Census taken every two years a more thorough job will be done and likewise it will be an economical measure for the School District.

2. With the exception of the above we recommend that the law remain unchanged except to require that the Census enumerator also list the name and age of each crippled person of any age living in the School District. This information is useful to those agencies in the State who are directly interested in helping the crippled child.

REPORTS OF SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION

The present law provides for the printing and distribution of 3000 copies of the report of the State Superintendent. Many hundreds of copies remain unused. One thousand copies are sufficient for the purpose for which such reports are intended.

ADDITIONAL RECOMMENDATIONS

In addition to the foregoing recommendations upon which we have prepared bills for the consideration of the Legislature, we offer the following suggestions as to matters for which no bills have been prepared, either because of lack of time, or because they are matters which we believed the Legislature would prefer to work out in their own way.

DEPOSITARY BONDS

The closing of banks has worked greater havoc with School Districts, probably, than any other class of public corporations. Their governing boards are more informal in the conduct of their business, and less attention is paid to fiscal precautions than is true of cities, villages and counties. They are more prone to accept doubtful sureties on their bonds than others, particularly when the sureties happen to be officers of banks with which the members of the board do their business.

We therefore recommend that unless corporate surety bonds in a reliable company are furnished by the depositary, all funds of school districts should be deposited in the Bank of North Dakota.

REPEALS

We recommend the repeal of the following sections:

Sections 1112 and 1113, C. L. 1913. These refer to the duties of the State Superintendent with reference to Teachers Institutes. Teachers Institutes, as contemplated by the statutes, have not been held for a number of years. The bills which we have prepared with reference to the State Institute Fund and the County Superintendents Contingent Fund, will, if enacted, abolish such institutes as a matter of law.

Section 1129, C. L. 1913. This refers to the preparation of sectional maps by the County Superintendent for the use of assessors, and has been obsolete for some years.

Section 1396, C. L. 1913, with reference to teachers reading circles, is obsolete.

Section 1453, C. L. 1913, requiring a review of grade subjects by the Senior Class in high schools, is entirely ignored by the majority of high schools, and if not ignored, it upsets the regular and orderly course of high school study.

Sections 1471d1 to 1471d6 of the 1925 Supplement provide for the teaching of grain grading, etc., in the Common and Consolidated schools, and the furnishing of apparatus therefor by the County Superintendent. This work never brought satisfactory results and has been abandoned in most school districts.

Section 1367, C. L. 1913, provides for the issuance of permits to teach by the County Superintendent and State Superintendent. Regulations of the State Superintendent have long since abolished all permits, and this section is both obsolete and meaningless under the present situation.

SCHOOL CODE

We again call attention to the fact that the work of your Commission has but scratched the surface. We have been hampered by lack of finances, lack of time, and the private business concerns of each of the members of the Commission.

Many of the gravest problems we have been compelled to ignore for the reason that no opportunity for investigation or preparation was available. For instance, it is the unanimous opinion of the Commission, that the present system of five different classes of school districts, each having a separate and different set of laws governing it, is grossly inefficient, if not actually ridiculous. Much argument has been heard, too, in recent years, for a complete change in the methods of taxing for school purposes, and to make the county or even the state the taxing unit for school purposes. Again, several problems involving Constitutional Amendments, such as a change in the nature of the State and County Superintendents' offices, and a change in the method of apportioning state aid, have been widely discussed among those interested in our public school system.

The problems mentioned above, and many others of real importance, we have been unable to give sufficient attention to warrant us in making any recommendation thereon.

The suggestions made in this report, if enacted into law, would, in our opinion, be of material benefit to our school system, but would by no means give us a thoroughly efficient educational system. We have attempted only to patch the existing school code, but the state really needs a complete new school code.

With this in mind, we earnestly recommend the appointment of a commission of experts, adequately financed (preferably with at least one full time paid member whose efforts could be utilized to carry the burden of the detail work involved) to completely re-draft the School Laws of North Dakota.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. C-3

Introduced by Representative Crockett

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE STATE OF NORTH DAKOTA, THE SENATE CONCURRING

WHEREAS, the Legislative session of the State of Minnesota for 1893 passed Chapter 30, which directed the Railroad and Warehouse Commission of the State of Minnesota, to purchase property at Duluth, Minnesota, and erect and operate thereon a State owned elevator, and

WHEREAS, in compliance with this act the Railroad and Warehouse Commission did in fact purchase such property, but because of the declaration of the Supreme Court of Minnesota that the operation of an elevator was without the constitutional prerogatives of the State, no elevator has ever been constructed and operated under the provisions of said Chapter 30, but the State still has possession of the property so purchased, and

WHEREAS, the purchase money so used was taken from a Fund known as the "Grain Inspection Fund," which was created by fees assessed for the inspection and weighing of grain, and

WHEREAS, the farmers of the State of North Dakota, by shipments of large volumes of grain to the terminals of Minnesota, provided a large portion of the moneys in such fund, and by reason of this fact such fund is in fact a trust fund created by the Northwest farmers, the State of Minnesota through its Railroad and Warehouse Commission being custodian of such funds, the possession of the property purchased at Duluth, Minnesota, is and can reasonably be considered to be held in trust for the Northwest farmers, and

WHEREAS, the farmers of the State of North Dakota believe that there is urgent need for additional elevator storage space at the Head of the Lakes, not privately owned, and

WHEREAS, the Farmers Union Terminal Association of St. Paul, Minnesota, a co-operative association duly organized under the cooperative laws of the State of Minnesota, farmer owned and controlled, and operating and constructing terminal elevators in the State of Minnesota for the farmers of the Northwest, and said Farmers Union Terminal Association, being a duly qualified co-operative affiliated with the Farm Board and the Farmers National Grain Corporation, is in a position to construct and operate large terminal elevators on a very low construction and operating cost, and has successfully demonstrated this fact, now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Legislative Assembly of the State of North Dakota hereby respectfully petition the Legislature of the State of Minnesota, now in session, to pass appropriate legislation directing its Governor, and other proper state officers, to deliver to the said Farmers Union Terminal Association of St. Paul, in fee simple, without cost, the title to the said property at Duluth, St. Louis County, Minnesota, purchased by the Railroad and Warehouse Commission of the State of Minnesota, under the provisions of Chapter 30 of the Session Laws of 1893, for the express and stipulated purpose of constructing thereon a terminal elevator, for and in the name of the said Farmers Union Terminal Association of St. Paul, Minnesota, to be held by it in fee simple so long as it may be engaged in the co-operative marketing of grain; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that a copy of this Resolution be sent to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, the President of the Senate, the Governor, and the Railroad and Warehouse Commission of the State of Minnesota.

Mr. Twichell moved that Concurrent Resolution No. C-3 be printed in the Journal and that it be referred to the Committee on Judiciary.

Which motion prevailed.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION D-4.

Introduced by House State Affairs Committee

Relating to the coloring of oleomargarine by the use of palm oil.

WHEREAS, Under a ruling of the United State Commission of Internal Revenue, palm oil may now be used in the manufacture of oleomargarine to give it the color of butter without making such product subject to the tax on colored oleomargarine; and

WHEREAS, this practically nullifies the protection which the dairymen of this country have enjoyed since 1902 in the law taxing colored oleomargarine ten cents per pound; and

WHEREAS, the effect of this ruling has been to greatly increase the manufacture and sale of oleomargarine and similar butter substitutes despite the present very low price of butter; and

WHEREAS, the coloring of oleomargarine to resemble butter constitutes a fraud upon the consuming public of the country; therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the House of Representatives, the Senate concurring; that the 22nd Legislative Assembly of the State of North Dakota hereby protests against the ruling permitting oleomargarine and similar butter substitutes to be colored like butter through the use of palm oil without making these products subject to the ten cent tax on colored oleomargarine, and respectfully requests the United States Commission of Internal Revenue to reverse his ruling, in the interests of the great dairy industry of this country and fair dealing with consumers. Be it further

RESOLVED, that in the event that the United States Commissioner of Internal Revenue shall not promptly reverse his ruling allowing palm oil to be used in the manufacture of oleomargarine and similar butter substitutes without making the product subject to the tax on colored oleomargarine, the Congress of the United States is respectfully requested to enact legislation either prohibiting the use of palm oil in the manufacture of oleomargarine or making any product manufactured with palm oil subject to the tax on colored oleomargarine. Be it further

RESOLVED, That properly attested copies of this resolution be transmitted to the commissioner of internal revenue, the secretary of the treasury, the presiding officers of both houses of the Congress of the United States, and to each North Dakota member thereof.

Mr. Kneeland: I rise to a question of personal privilege. I have in my hand a copy of the Bismarck Tribune of last night containing what I regard as a libellous statement upon certain members of this House, particularly my colleague from Stutsman county, Mr. Rulon, and myself. The statement as made in this article referring to the discussion and the votes had in this House and in the Committee of the Whole when the Capitol Building Bill was under consideration, that rumors had been heard to the effect that the Independent members of this House from Stutsman county have been engaged in trading with the Nonpartisan members of this House to obtain their support on the motion to eliminate the emergency clause from the bill in consideration of our vote on some measure which the Nonpartisans may be interested in later on. And the article further adds an alleged reason giving added weight to the reports.

In order that I may make clear the scurrilous and libelous character of such allegation, I wish to read a portion of Section 40 of the Constitution of the State of North Dakota:

"If any member of the legislative assembly shall give his vote or his influence for or against any measure, or proposition, pending or proposed to be introduced into such legislative assembly, so to do upon condition that any other member will give, promise or assent or offer, promise or assent to give his vote or influence in favor of or against any other such measure or proposition pending or proposed to be introduced into such legislative assembly, or in consideration that any other member has given his vote or influence, for or against any other measure or proposition in such legislative assembly, he shall be deemed guilty of bribery. And any person, member of the legislative assembly or person elected thereto, who shall be guilty of either such offense, shall be expelled, and shall not thereafter be eligible to the legislative assembly, and, on the conviction thereof in the civil courts, shall be liable to such further penalty as may be prescribed by law."

In law and morals, Mr. Speaker, a newspaper has no more justification in publishing statements to the effect that libellous reports are being circulated than it has to publish such statements as a matter of fact, and the only defense that a newspaper can furnish to any such publication is the truth of the allegation or the truth of such matter set forth.

I realize that as far as Mr. Rulon and myself are concerned, this statement is definite enough, or, at least, it seems to me that it is so, that we might have our redress in the courts of law, but this article is a libel and a slander not only upon us but upon the House of Representatives of North Dakota. I am not a member of the minority faction of this House, and I am not called upon to defend them, but I do say that it is proper and necessary that some member should protest against such statements as I have referred to in the public press. I want to say, Mr. Speaker, and I do not believe any member of this House will dispute or question my word, when I say that no member of the Nonpartisan faction of this House has in any way, shape or manner, directly or indirectly, intimated to me that they wanted to trade or that they expected any consideration from me whatsoever for any vote they have given or may give on the Capitol Commission Bill, in favor of any other bill pending or that may hereafter be introduced in this House, and I say, furthermore, that I have not mentioned to any member of that faction or suggested to them in any manner directly or indirectly that they vote against the emergency clause on the Capitol bill in consideration of any help or vote I may give them on any measure in which they are interested. I believe further that no member of this House or any faction for a moment questions that both Mr. Rulon and myself have voted on this bill according to the dictates of our consciences and without any trade, promise or consideration from any member of this House or anybody else. But I think it is in very poor taste that a newspaper should make such public expression when such a bill is pending before the House, with the possible intention of intimidating some members as to their votes. I also believe that it is time that protest be made against such publication, and I do protest against such libellous and scurrilous remarks in the public press in regard to the integrity and honor of this House or members of the House.

Mr. Rulon: I believe all the members of this Body when they were sworn in took a solemn oath to support the constitution of the United States and the Constitution of the State of North Dakota. The articles which Mr. Kneeland has referred to would indicate that he and myself had broken that solemn oath that we took at the opening of this Session. I do not know who is responsible for the articles, but I want to say that I can say the same as Mr. Kneeland, that as far as I am personally concerned I have never directly or indirectly made any promise, compromise or even mentioned to any member of the opposing faction that I was trying to make a trade and I further want to say that if there is any member of the Nonpartisan faction of this House, any member of the I. V. A. faction of this House, any representative of the local paper, it doesn't make any difference if it is Bismarck, Mandan or any other city or any resident of the City of Bismarck that can show where I have made such a statement I want them to do so and I want them to do so in a very short time.

Mr. Swett: In view of the fact that I am one of the minority, and that the remarks made may have been more or less directed toward the minority faction, and in view of the fact that Mr. Kneeland has asked that his remarks be recorded, I would like to say a few words on this and I would like to have my remarks recorded in the Journal. I wish to say that so far as I am concerned, being one of the minority members, that at no time during this Capitol Bill controversy has there been any discussion of any trade between either the Representatives from Stutsman County, the Independent faction or the Nonpartisan faction. There has been no trade effected to my knowledge, with any of the Stutsman county delegation regarding this fight. And I think that I can say that any vote that may be cast on this Bill by the minority faction will be a conscientious vote.

Mr. Flannigan: While the paper did not refer to the Nonpartisan members from Stutsman, it might be inferred that they, too, were induced to consider trading. Therefore, as a matter of record, I, too, make the same challenge as my colleague, Mr. Rulon.

Mr. Cox: As a member from Burleigh County and Bismarck I am very much interested in this fight and the battle in this House and I wish to say that I have absolute confidence in the integrity and honesty of Mr. Rulon and Mr. Kneeland and I am satisfied that they are not interested in trading in this matter of the Capitol fight.

Mr. Flannigan: I rise to the question of personal privilege. Mr. Cox, will you kindly include Mr. Strutz and myself in your statement?

Mr. Cox: I will certainly do so. My only reason for not including you gentlemen was that no mention was made of you.

Mr. Flannigan: I assure you that I do not believe you were alluding to us, and I wish to thank you for your courtesy in this matter.

Mr. Cox asked the unanimous consent of the House to make the following amendment to House Bill No. 79, which consent was granted.

In line 2, section 1, on page 1, after the word "building" insert the following: "for legislative, executive and judicial purposes."

Mr. Cox then moved that the rules be suspended, that House Bill No. 79 be considered properly re-engrossed and placed on Third Reading and final passage; which motion prevailed.

Mr. Speaker: I believe it is no more than right that I explain my vote on this and I would like to have my remarks recorded in the Journal. I think that possibly the people here know how I feel about this. I have not been in favor of the emergency clause on this bill at any time. I am for Bismarck first, last and all the time and I am very sorry that under the circumstances, with the emergency clause on this bill, that I will have to vote "No."

Mr. Niewoehner explained his vote as follows:

Mr. Speaker: I am against the emergency part of this bill because I believe the people should be permitted to exercise their constitutional right of voting on the location of the new Capitol if they so desire, and while I am for the building of the new Capitol at Bismarck, I do not want the Capitol Commission to commence spending the taxpayers' money until the question of the location of the Capitol is definitely decided. Therefore I vote "No."

BOARD OF ADMINISTRATION

North Dakota
Executive Department

Bismarck

February 7, 1931.

To the Honorable House of Representatives of the Twenty-second Legislative Assembly,

Gentlemen:

We would beg to call your attention to the fact that it will be impossible to run the street car on the Capitol car line beyond March 1, 1931, unless further means are provided for keeping it running. The receipts at the present time are too light to run the car longer than the time mentioned.

In this connection we wish to call your attention to the fact that while there are but few that ride on the car at the present time, the car is used very extensively in connecting the downtown offices with the offices at the State Capitol, and if the north wing of the old Capitol is repaired, the car will be badly needed.

If, in your opinion, the car should be continued, we trust that you will take the proper steps for such continuation. The law specifically requires this Board to run the car, but, of course, the Board cannot do so unless proper means are provided.

Respectfully submitted,

BOARD OF ADMINISTRATION,

By Ernest G. Wanner,
Executive Secretary.

Mr. Mau moved that the communication from the Board of Administration be printed in the Journal and referred to proper committee.

Which motion prevailed.

Referred to committee on State Affairs.

HOUSE COMMITTEE ON ENROLLMENT AND ENGROSSMENT

WHEREAS, Resolutions of sympathy and condolence have been received from the Twenty-second Legislative Assembly of the State of South Dakota, relative to the loss of our State Capitol building, which building prior to statehood was also the seat of government for Dakota Territory; comprising the area now making up our two sister states; and

WHEREAS, many past memories were associated with this old state house, common to the people of both South Dakota and North Dakota; and

WHEREAS, these bonds of friendship evidenced throughout the past years in exceptional uniformity of law and cooperative efforts; and

WHEREAS, Your said resolution further links us together in bonds of love and friendship;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That we express our sincere thanks and appreciation for the kindly sympathy extended, and are most pleased to inform the Twenty-second Legislative Assembly of the State of South Dakota that the Loss sustained was reasonably well covered with insurance; and that with a fund heretofore provided, a new capitol building entirely adequate to our needs can be constructed without additional levies or the issuance of bonds; also that the records, at first believed destroyed, were largely recovered, so that with the kind offer of your State to Permit the taking of duplicates of territorial records, we will be enabled to entirely preserve these historic memories for the coming generations, for which offer and kindness we are sincerely grateful; and

MEMORIAL TO THE LEGISLATURE OF NORTH DAKOTA

With the thought of economy, we deem it unnecessary to here set forth lengthy recital of conditions after ten years of progressive poverty with which you should be familiar; but, in view of the present situation of the taxpayer in our great State, and his inability to "carry on," we extend our urgent and serious appeal to the legislature of North Dakota for a constant and vigorous consideration in all legislation of the man who "foots the bills." That this consideration extend to all matters affecting state, county, city, village and school district governments, general and special taxes and all public burdens, is our request.

Recognizing the increased buying power of the dollar, we commend as a proper move and an important example and great encouragement to other public economy, a general salary and wage cut for all public officers and employes and measures contemplating a cut in numbers. Fundamentally agricultural, our State is not burdened with great unemployment problem, and we protest against a ruthless expansion in public works and enterprises within this State as false economy apt to result in an artificial and unstable wave of prosperity to a few; dangerous and without definite or permanent benefit to the taxpayer. We urge that if any expansion be deemed necessary it be accomplished with proper safeguard to the public in the full buying power of its dollar.

Further that Utopian projects for the betterment of government, schools and living standards be held subject in your consideration to the vital necessity of the most strict and extreme economy and vigorous tax reduction.

We deem this course imperative to the preservation of our governmental structure, the foundations of which are disintegrating with the ruin of the taxpayer. Remember that North Dakota has not the large reserves of industrial wealth enjoyed by some of our sister states; that North Dakota's reserves are the fertility of its soil, now impotent because of price of products, and the vigor of its manhood, now impaired by ten years of agricultural depression. In order to avoid the ridiculous situation in the not far distant future, of a bankrupt State, you must frame our government after the pattern upon which the farmer now conducts his household. In other words, costs, appropriations and taxes should be reduced, not to the present farm level, but in all particulars, toward the equalization of all levels necessary to our survival.

We ask that this memorial be brought before each body of the legislature and given appropriate publicity.

Dated February 6, 1931.

NEBRASKA AND THE BASIC SCIENCE LAW

Examination Called Off—No Osteopathic Candidates. The recent law, which requires that candidates for license to practice the healing arts must pass an examination in the basic sciences, has apparently stopped the flow of osteopaths into Nebraska. It is reported that the examination scheduled for November 25-26 was called off because no one applied for examination. During the last year or more not more than a half dozen osteopaths have been licensed in the state, and there will not be another examination until spring. The basic science law has affected the chiropractors to such an extent that not one, it is reported, has been licensed in Nebraska in two years. The board of chiropractic examiners has not been called on to function during that time.

Mr. Lehr explained his vote as follows: "I vote 'no' for the reason that I feel it is class legislation."

Mr. McCay explained his vote as follows: "I vote 'no' on this bill for the reason that I do not believe that the legislature has a right to give any profession a monopoly on a business. It is a case that will force everybody into the hospitals and any profession that gets a monopoly ought to be put out of business."

Mr. Sundby of McLean voted "no" and explained his vote as follows: "I want to vote 'no' and leave the matter up to them and to practice on their merits and let the people be the judge as to who they will consult."

Mr. Timm voted "no" and explained his vote as follows: "With all due respect to the medical profession which I used in my own affairs within the past 60 days, I still contend that this bill is not consistent and for that reason I vote 'no'."

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 1931

February 14, 1931.

Mr. C. V. Freeman,
Speaker of the House of Representatives,
Bismarck, North Dakota.

Dear Sir:

We have been asked to state what we can do with regard to the replacement of the Senate and House group pictures which were lost in the Capitol fire, and we take pleasure in giving you the following information:

We can replace the Senate pictures for 1923, 1925, 1927 and 1929 from the original negatives which we have on file in our studio. We offer to make these pictures at $50.00 for each group. This price does not include framing the pictures.

We also have on file in the studio the group negatives for Senate pictures of 1907, 1909, 1911, 1913, 1915 and 1917 and also most of the individual negatives of the Senators for these years. We will therefore be able to replace all Senate groups from 1907 to 1921, inclusive. As some of the individual negatives are missing in this bracket of groups, such negatives will have to be replaced from the group negatives. This would mean that a lot more time would be consumed in making the picture and the price would have to be higher than for the 1923 to 1929 bracket of groups. We hesitate to quote a definite price for this bracket of groups—1907 to 1921—not knowing just what trouble we might run up against, but we believe we can produce all of them at a flat rate of $75.00 for each group. This price would not include frames.

We also have on file negatives of the House groups for 1907, 1909, 1911, 1913, 1915 and 1917, together with the individual negatives of most of the members of the House of Representatives for these sessions, and we will therefore be able to replace all House groups from 1907 to 1917, both inclusive. For the House groups as for the Senate groups for these same years, we hesitate to quote a definite price, not knowing how many of the individual negatives may be missing or how much trouble we may have replacing them, but we believe we can undertake to replace these group pictures at a price of $1.50 per member for each group.

If there is any other information we can give you, we are at your service any time.

Respectfully yours,

THE BUTLER STUDIO,
By O. J. Gravem.

To the Members of the North Dakota
House of Representatives.

At the time the State Capitol burned there was destroyed by fire several groups of former members of the state Senate and House of Representatives. Considerable interest has been shown in having as many as possible of these groups replaced.

We have in our possession the individual negatives of the House groups, including 1915 and up to this date. And also of the Senate, including 1915 up to and including 1921.

We offer to replace these groups at a cost to the State of North Dakota of $100.00 each for the House groups and $50.00 each for the Senate groups.

As this job will require a great deal of time and labor we respectfully request the present Legislative Assembly to authorize us to proceed with the work so that all groups may be ready for hanging by the time the new Capitol is ready.

Respectfully submitted by,

SLOBY STUDIO,
C. A. Sloby.

curities as in its judgment is necessary or expedient. Any person, firm, corporation or association, heretofore licensed, neglecting or refusing, for thirty days notice thereof, to comply with any direction or order of said Commission relating to such deposit required herein, shall forfeit its right to sell such securities within the State of North Dakota and its license shall be immediately revoked.

Section 2. Amendment.) Section 5235a5, of the Supplement to the Compiled Laws of 1913, is hereby amended and re-enacted to read as follows:

Section 5235a5. It shall be the duty of the Commission as soon as is practical, to examine the statement and documents so filed and if said Commission shall deem advisable, it shall make, or have made, a detailed inspection, examination, audit and investigation of the affairs of the makers or guarantors of such securities which said inspection, examination, audit and investigation shall be at the applicant's expense. As a part of the aforesaid inspection, examination, audit and investigation, the Commission may cause an appraisal to be made of the property of the maker or guarantor, including the value of patents, formulae, and good-will, promotion and intangible assets and such appraiser or appraisers shall furnish a full and complete statement or report of his or their inspection and investigation aforesaid to the Securities Commission. If the statement disclose that any of such securities have been or it is intended they shall be issued for any patent right, copyright, trademark, process or good-will, or for promotion fees or expenses, or for other intangible assets, the amount and nature thereof, shall be fully set forth, and securities issued in payment of such patent right, copyright, trademark, process or good-will, or for promotion fees or expenses, or for other intangible assets, shall be delivered, in escrow, to such bank or trust company as shall be designated by the Commission, under an escrow agreement, that the owners of such securities shall not, in case of dissolution or insolvency, participate in the assets of the corporation until after the owners of all other securities shall have been paid in full. Said escrow agreement shall remain in full force until the securities of the issuer thereof are on a dividend paying basis. The State Securities Commission shall, within ten days thereafter, examine the statement or report, and give the promoter a hearing if he so desires.

If, from the statements, papers and documents on file, and the investigations made or caused to be made by the Commission, or from other evidence submitted, it shall appear, and the State Securities Commission shall find either:

1. That the makers and guarantors of such securities are insolvent or that the applicants plan for business is dishonest or fraudulent; or
2. That the applicants' literature or advertising is misleading and calculated to deceive purchasers or investors; or
3. That the securities offered or to be offered are to be issued in payment for property, patents, formulae, good-will, promotion, or any intangible assets, in excess of the reasonable value thereof; or

4. That the enterprise of the applicant is unlawful or against public policy; or is a mere scheme of a promotor or promoters to get rich quick at the expense of the purchasers of the aforesaid securities; or

5. That there is lack of adequate proof sufficient to satisfy said Commission of the soundness of the venture or enterprise or prospective success thereof; or

6. That in the judgment of the Commission the prospect of future earnings is too uncertain to insure to the investors the safety of their investment and the return thereof with a reasonable profit thereon; or

7. That the agreements, contracts or securities under whatever name designated, purposed to be issued to any purchaser are in the judgment of the Commission, harsh, unconscionable or unfair to any such purchaser,

Then said Commission may in its discretion deny such application; provided, however, that if in the minds of the Commission, there is any doubt as to the sufficiency of the showing of the applicant as to sub-division 6 above, said Commission may in lieu of an adverse finding as to said sub-division 6, require all advertising, subscription blanks and certificates or other instruments by whatever name designated, issued or to be issued or used, in connection with the sale of said securities, to be stamped in red letters in 18-em Ionic or Gothic type diagonally across the face thereof the following words: "Speculative Security."

Provided further, that if said Commission shall find from the statements, papers, and documents of any licensee to whom a license has been issued that the prospect of future earnings is too uncertain to insure to the investors the safety of their investment and the return thereof with a reasonable profit thereon, it may require any licensee heretofore licensed to stamp the words "speculative security" across the face of any subscription blanks, certificates or instruments hereafter used or issued in the manner hereinbefore provided.

If, however, said Commission is satisfied with the showing made and that the said applicant has complied in all respects with the provisions of this statute, it may direct the issuance of a license to the applicant.

It is the intent and purpose of this Act that the applicant or the licensee shall at all times assume the burden of satisfying said Commission of the soundness and safety of the enterprise and of the good faith and intentions of the promoters thereof.

Section 3. Amendment.) Section 5235a6, of the Supplement to the Compiled Laws 1913, as amended by Chapter 255, Session Laws of 1927 is hereby amended and re-enacted to read as follows:

Strike out everything after the words "A Bill" and insert in lieu thereof the following:

For an Act to Amend and Re-enact Section 396a7 of the Supplement to the Compiled Laws of 1913.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF NORTH DAKOTA:

Section 1. Amendment.) That Section 396a7 of the Supplement to the Compiled Laws of North Dakota of 1913 be and the same is hereby amended and re-enacted to read as follows:

Section 396a7. Classification of employments; premium rates; payment into fund; second injuries, premiums in case of. The workmen's compensation bureau shall classify employments with respect to their degrees of hazard, and shall determine the risks of different classifications, and shall fix the rates of premium for each of said classifications sufficiently high to provide for the payment of the expenditures of the bureau, the payment of compensation according to the schedules established by this Act, and for the maintenance of adequate reserves and surplus by the North Dakota workmen's compensation fund, to the end that such fund may be kept at all times in an entirely solvent condition.

The bureau may establish a system of merit rating within any class which will tend to equitable treatment of individual employers.

It shall be the duty of the workmen's compensation bureau, in the exercise of the powers and discretion conferred upon it, ultimately to fix and maintain, for each class of occupation, the lowest possible rates of premium consistent with the payment of compensation according to schedule, the payment of expenditures of the bureau, the maintenance of a solvent compensation fund, and the creation and maintenance of a reasonable surplus after the payment of legitimate claims for injury and death that it may authorize to be paid from the workmen's compensation fund for the benefit of the injured and the dependents of deceased employees, and in order that said object may be accomplished, the Bureau shall observe the following requirements in classifying occupations and fixing the rates of premium for the risks of the same.

It shall keep an accurate account of the moneys paid in premiums by each of the several classes of occupations or industries and the disbursements on account of injuries and death of employees thereof, and it shall also keep an account of the moneys received from each individual employer and the amount disbursed from the workmen's compensation fund on account of injuries and death of the employees of each employer.

Ten (10) per cent of the money that is paid into the workmen's compensation fund shall be set aside for the creation of a surplus until such surplus shall amount to the sum of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000.00), after which time the sum of five (5) per cent of all the moneys paid into such workmen's compensation fund shall be credited to such surplus fund, until such time as, in the judgment of the bureau, such surplus shall be sufficiently large to guarantee the workmen's compensation fund from year to year.

Every employer subject to this Act shall pay, annually, into the workmen's compensation fund the amount of premium determined and fixed by the bureau for the employment or occupation of such employer, the amount of which premium to be so paid by such employer to be determined by the classification, rules and rates made and published by the bureau; and a receipt or certificate specifying that such payment has been made shall immediately be mailed to such employer by the bureau, which receipt or certificate, attested by the seal of the bureau, shall be prima facie evidence of the payment of such premium. The bureau may make provisions so that premiums fall due on different dates to the end that the business of the bureau may be distributed as evenly as possible throughout the year.

In the event that the amount of premium collected from any employer at the beginning of any premium period is ascertained and calculated by using the estimated expenditures for wages for the period of time covered by such premium payments, as a basis, an adjustment of the amount of such premiums shall be made at the end of said period, the actual amount of such premium to be determined from the actual expenditure of wages for said period.

Whenever a subsequent injury occurs to an employee who has been injured previously in a different employment, the risk of the employer for whom such injured person was working at the time of such subsequent injury shall be charged only with the amount of the awards resulting from such subsequent injury; and whenever such subsequent injury, in connection with a previous injury, results in a permanent total disability, the compensation which is in excess of the amount to which the injured employee would have been entitled solely by the subsequent injury shall be charged to the surplus fund and not to the classification or the risk to which the subsequent injury is charged.

In case of aggravation of any disease existing prior to a compensable injury, compensation shall be allowed only for such proportion of the disability due to the aggravation of such prior disease as may reasonably be attributable to the injury.

Section 2. All acts and parts of acts in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

Said escrow agreement shall remain in full force until the securities of the issuer thereof are on a dividend paying basis. The State Securities Commission shall, within ten days thereafter, examine the statement or report, and give the promoter a hearing if he so desires.

If, however, said Commission is satisfied with the showing made and that the said applicant has complied in all respects with the provisions of this statute, it may direct the issuance of a license to the applicant.

a surplus until such surplus shall amount to the sum of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000.00), after which time the sum of five (5) per cent of all the moneys paid into such workmen's compensation fund shall be credited to such surplus fund, until such time as, in the judgment of the bureau, such surplus shall be sufficiently large to guarantee the workmen's compensation fund from year to year.

Every employer subject to this Act shall pay, annually, into the workmen's compensation fund the amount of premium determined and fixed by the bureau for the employment or occupation of such employer, the amount of which premium to be so paid by such employer to be determined by the classification, rules and rates made and published by the bureau; and a receipt or certificate specifying that such payment has been made shall immediately be mailed to such employer by the bureau, which receipt or certificate, attested by the seal of the bureau, shall be prima facie evidence of the payment of such premium. The bureau may make provisions so that premiums fall due on different dates to the end that the business of the bureau may be distributed as evenly as possible throughout the year.

In the event that the amount of premium collected from any employer at the beginning of any premium period is ascertained and calculated by using the estimated expenditures for wages for the period of time covered by such premium payments, as a basis, an adjustment of the amount of such premiums shall be made at the end of said period, the actual amount of such premium to be determined from the actual expenditure of wages for said period.

Whenever a subsequent injury occurs to an employee who has been injured previously in a different employment, the risk of the employer for whom such injured person was working at the time of such subsequent injury shall be charged only with the amount of the awards resulting from such subsequent injury; and whenever such subsequent injury, in connection with a previous injury, results in a permanent total disability, the compensation which is in excess of the amount to which the injured employee would have been entitled solely by the subsequent injury shall be charged to the surplus fund and not to the classification or the risk to which the subsequent injury is charged.

In case of aggravation of any disease existing prior to a compensable injury, compensation shall be allowed only for such proportion of the disability due to the aggravation of such prior disease as may reasonably be attributable to the injury.

Section 2. All acts and parts of acts in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

And the further amendment:

"Section 3. Emergency.) This act is hereby declared to be an emergency measure and shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage and approval."

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

HOUSE BILL NO. L12.

Introduced by Representatives Smith of Cass and Swett of Kidder.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION GREAT LAKES-ST. LAWRENCE WATERWAY

WHEREAS, Economic authorities in the United States and Canada, acting officially both as Joint Commissions and severally, have repeatedly and unanimously declared that enlarging the connecting channels of the Great Lakes and St. Lawrence River to admit uninterrupted movement by ocean steamers from and into the Great Lakes, is economically sound and necessary to raise the competitive position, establish equality, permit future development and effect the return of prosperity to the vast continental areas of both countries, and

WHEREAS, During the past five years diplomatic correspondence has brought the two nations into agreement on the assignment of tasks and division of costs, said correspondence having allocated to the United States the construction and cost of all improvements in international waters—which includes the deepening to 27 feet of the connecting channels of the upper Great Lakes, a new lock at the Soo corresponding in dimensions to the locks in the New Welland Ship Canal and the improvement of the international stretch of the St. Lawrence River from Lake Ontario to the 45th parallel (opposite Cornwall), where the river ceases to form the boundary line between the two countries, and allocating to Canada the completion of the New Welland Ship Canal and the improvement of the river from the 45th parallel aforesaid to the sea, and

WHEREAS, Approximately one-half of the tasks assigned to each Government has either been completed, is in process of completion or already authorized by one or other of the two Governments, and approximately one-half of the total cost of the through Seaway has either been expended, in process of being expended or involved in authorizations already made, all of which has been carried out and is capable of being completed without any treaty, and

WHEREAS, Engineering authorities in Canada and the United States, acting officially both as Joint Boards and severally, have agreed upon engineering plans and costs and unanimously declared that the International Rapids (48 miles) of the St. Lawrence River, extending from Ogdensburg to the International Boundary must, for economic reasons, be developed for navigation and power jointly by the United States and Canada, and

WHEREAS, the State of New York, with the clear intent of delaying or obviating the completion of a through Seaway, via the St. Lawrence, and advancing a deep water route across the State of New York by way of the Erie and Oswego Barge Canals, has caused to be prepared engineering plans, which if permitted to be carried out, will under the most favorable conditions postpone navigation development for many years, and in the meantime afford New York opportunity to transfer its barge canals to the Federal Government, and embark the Government upon the staggering expense of deepening or widening them for the passage of lake ships down to the port of New York for transfer to the ocean carrier, but not admitting the ocean ship to the Great Lakes, thus denying to mid-continental areas direct access to the sea, and

WHEREAS, no development of this International Rapids Section of the St. Lawrence River can be undertaken by either country or any agency in either country without an agreement or treaty appropriate thereto having first been entered into between Canada and the United States, and

WHEREAS, the landlocked interior of the United States is deeply concerned and in emergent need of the relief which would accrue to that area by the opening of such Seaway and the citizens of New York state also are directly interested in the improvement and early utilization of the large reservoir of cheap power which would be made available by such joint development, and

WHEREAS, the need exists for a plan that will effect the development of this section of the river for navigation and power at the earliest possible date, by employing the most practical, the most expeditious and best agency or agencies for that purpose,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the House of Representatives, the Senate concurring, that the President of the United States be and is hereby memorialized to proceed to a treaty with Canada for the development of the aforesaid International Rapids Section of the St. Lawrence River at the earliest possible date and in accordance with the plans agreed upon by the International Joint Board of Engineers, or such amendment to or changes in said plans as may be subsequently adopted by such Joint Board, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Congress of the United States be and is hereby memorialized to enact the necessary preliminary legislation declaring all lands and the entire flow of the St. Lawrence River, extending from the shore to the International boundary line in the river, from Lake Ontario to the 45th parallel, where the river ceases to form the boundary between the nations, necessary for the purposes of navigation of said waters and the waters connected therewith, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that copies of this resolution be forwarded to the President of the United States and to the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States.

Mr. Swett moved that House Concurrent Resolution No. L-12 be printed in the Journal and adopted by Roll Call.

Which motion prevailed.

Mortgage loans made under the provisions of this chapter may be foreclosed either by action or advertisement, in the same manner and upon the same notice as required in other real estate foreclosures. When foreclosure is made by action, said action shall be brought and prosecuted in the name of the state; provided, that the Board of University and School Lands may, and it is hereby authorized and empowered to assign any or it shall be for the best interests of the state so to do; provided, all of said mortgages, whenever in the judgment of said board it shall be for the best interests of the state so to do; provided, however, that said board shall not accept as a consideration for said assignment any amount less than the principal and interest due upon said mortgage or mortgages. Such assignments when made shall be executed by the Commissioner and Secretary of the Board of University and School Lands, and attested by the Secretary of State with the great seal of the state of North Dakota attached. Provided, further, that whenever a mortgage loan made under the provisions of this chapter has been foreclosed, the debtor or redemptioner may redeem the property from the purchaser within one year after sale on paying the purchaser the amount of his purchase with five per cent interest thereon together with the amount of any assessment or taxes which the purchaser may have paid thereon after the purchase, and interest at the same rate on such amount; and if the purchaser is also a creditor having a prior lien to that of the redemptioner other than the mortgage under which such purchase was made, the amount of such lien with interest. Provided, further, that whenever a mortgage loan made under the provisions of this chapter has been foreclosed and a sheriff's deed to the mortgaged premises issued to the State, the Board of University and School Lands, may sell and convey the said land at private sale to any person; provided, however, that such sale be subject to any then existing lease of such land and premises, and such land must be so sold for cash and for not less than the amount for which the land was sold to the State on mortgage foreclosure sale, with interest on such sums at five per cent per annum, and the amount of all taxes and recording fees paid by the State, with interest at five per cent thereon to the date of conveyance. The Board of University and School Lands shall issue to the purchaser a quit claim deed conveying the right of the State in and to such land and premises, which deed shall be signed and executed in the manner hereinbefore provided as to assignments of mortgages.

The Board of University and School Lands may sell and dispose of said land at public sale to the highest bidder according to the terms fixed by said board, but in no case shall said board be authorized to accept less than one-fifth of the price in cash, nor shall the time of payments extend beyond the period of twenty years. All deferred payments and all past due interest shall draw interest at the rate of six per cent per annum. Such sale shall be subject to any then existing lease of such land and premises and such land must be sold for not less than the appraised value as determined by the county board of appraisal of the county in which said land is located. Provided, that in the case of public sale, the Board of University and School Lands shall cause to be published once each week for a period of two weeks prior to the date of sale, in a legal newspaper published within the county in which said land is situated, a notice of such sale, properly describing said land, together with the appraised value thereof, and the terms and conditions of sale. The Land Commissioner shall execute and deliver a contract of sale to the purchaser, said contract to be in the form prescribed by the board. When final payment has been made to the State, the Board of University and School Lands shall issue to the purchaser, his heirs or assigns, a quit claim deed conveying such land and premises, which deed shall be signed and executed in the manner hereinbefore provided as to assignment of mortgages. In case the purchaser fails to pay either the principal, interest or taxes in accordance with the provisions of said contract, the Board of University and School Lands may in its discretion by resolution declare such contract null and void and cancelled and of no further force or effect; and in case of such declaration, shall notify the holder thereof of such declaration, by written notice mailed to his post office address. A certified copy of said resolution shall be forwarded to the county auditor and the register of deeds of the county in which such land is situated. The register of deeds shall record such certified copy of said resolution in the proper records of his office, and said resolution, when so recorded, shall operate as a complete and final cancellation of said contract, without any order or decree of the court. When such contract has been cancelled, such land shall not thereafter be listed for taxation.

The Land Commissioner shall, as soon as possible after a sale of such land, transmit to the auditor of the county in which such land is located, a detailed description of the land so sold, and the name of the purchaser, and the auditor shall extend the same upon his tax records for the purpose of taxation. Land contracted to be sold by the state shall be subject to taxation from the date of such contract and the taxes assessed thereon shall be collected and enforced in like manner as against other land. Such land may be sold for delinquent taxes as other lands are sold, and the purchaser shall only acquire, by virtue of such purchase, the right to be substituted in the place of such holder and owner of such contract of sale, as the assignee thereof; and upon the production to the Land Commissioner of the tax certificate given upon such tax sale, in case such land has not been redeemed, such tax purchaser shall have the right to have his name substituted in place of the original holder and owner of such contract, provided, however, that no substitution shall take place unless such tax purchaser makes payment of principal or interest then in default upon such contract of sale as the assignee thereof, and provided, further, that no substitution shall take place until three years after the date of such tax certificate. No tax deed shall be issued upon any tax certificate procured, while the legal title of said land remains in the State of North Dakota.

In all cases where the rights of a purchaser, his heirs or assigns, become forfeited, by failing to pay the amounts required, such purchaser, his heirs and assigns, may, before the resale at public auction of the land described in such contract, redeem the land and premises by paying all past due deferred and interest payments, and all costs which have been incurred in addition thereto, together with interest on such sums at the rate of six per cent per annum, provided, however, that no redemption shall be made where the name of the tax purchaser has been substituted in place of the contract holder. In the event of a redemption of said land and premises, the Land Commissioner shall execute and deliver a new contract of sale to the purchaser, his heirs or assigns, said contract to be in the form prescribed by the board.

The Board of University and School Lands is hereby authorized to make such rules and regulations, as shall be by it deemed necessary for the manner, place and time of payment of principal, deferred and interest payments, and for such other conduct of the business of selling and disposing of foreclosed land not in conflict with the provisions of law.

Section 2. Emergency.) An emergency is hereby declared to exist, and therefore this act shall take effect and be in force immediately upon its passage and approval.

And when so amended recommend that the same do pass.

Such assignments when made shall be executed by the Commissioner and Secretary of the Board of University and School Lands, and attested by the Secretary of State with the great seal of the state of North Dakota attached. Provided, further, that whenever a mortgage loan made under the provisions of this chapter has been foreclosed, the debtor or redemptioner may redeem the property from the purchaser within one year after sale on paying the purchaser the amount of his purchase with five per cent interest thereon together with the amount of any assessment or taxes which the purchaser may have paid thereon after the purchase, and interest at the same rate on such amount; and if the purchaser is also a creditor having a prior lien to that of the redemptioner other than the mortgage under which such purchase was made, the amount of such lien with interest. Provided, further, that whenever a mortgage loan made under the provisions of this chapter has been foreclosed and a sheriff's deed to the mortgaged premises issued to the State, the Board of University and School Lands, may sell and convey the said land at private sale to any person; provided, however, that such sale be subject to any then existing lease of such land and premises, and such land must be so sold for cash and for not less than the amount for which the land was sold to the State on mortgage foreclosure sale, with interest on such sums at five per cent

The Board of University and School Lands may sell and dispose of said land at public sale to the highest bidder according to the terms fixed by said board, but in no case shall said board be authorized to accept less than one-fifth of the price in cash, nor shall the time of payments extend beyond the period of twenty years. All deferred payments and all past due interest shall draw interest at the rate of six per cent per annum. A certified copy of said resolution shall be forwarded to the county auditor and the register of deeds of the county in which such land is situated. The register of deeds shall record such certified copy of said resolution in the proper records of his office, and said resolution, when so recorded, shall operate as a complete and final cancellation of said contract, without any order or decree of the court. When such contract has been cancelled, such land shall not thereafter be listed for taxation.

The Land Commissioner shall, as soon as possible after a sale of such land, transmit to the auditor of the county in which such land is located, a detailed description of the land so sold, and the name of the purchaser, and the auditor shall extend the same upon his tax records for the purpose of taxation. Land contracted to be sold by the state shall be subject to taxation from the date of such contract and the taxes assessed thereon shall be collected and enforced in like manner as against other land. Such land may be sold for delinquent taxes as other lands are sold, and the purchaser shall only acquire, by virtue of such purchase, the right to be substituted in the place of such holder and owner of such contract of sale, as the assignee thereof; and upon the production to the Land Commissioner of the tax certificate given upon such tax sale, in case such land has not been redeemed, such tax purchaser shall have the right to have his name substituted in place of the original holder and owner of such contract, provided, however, that no substitution shall take place unless such tax purchaser makes payment of principal or interest then in default upon such contract of sale as the assignee thereof, and provided, further, that no substitution shall take place until three years after the date of such tax certificate. No tax deed shall be issued upon any tax certificate procured, while the legal title of said land remains in the State of North Dakota.

In all cases where the rights of a purchaser, his heirs or assigns, become forfeited, by failing to pay the amounts required, such purchaser, his heirs and assigns, may, before the resale at public auction of the land described in such contract, redeem the land and premises by paying all past due deferred and interest payments, and all costs which have been incurred in addition thereto, together with interest on such sums at the rate of six per cent per annum, provided, however, that no redemption shall be made where the name of the tax purchaser has been substituted in place of the contract holder. In the event of a redemption of said land and premises, the Land Commissioner shall execute and deliver a new contract of sale to the purchaser, his heirs or assigns, said contract to be in the form prescribed by the board.

The Board of University and School Lands is hereby authorized to make such rules and regulations, as shall be by it deemed necessary for the manner, place and time of payment of principal, deferred and interest payments, and for such other conduct of the business of selling and disposing of foreclosed land not in conflict with the provisions of law.

Section 2. Emergency.) An emergency is hereby declared to exist, and therefore this act shall take effect and be in force immediately upon its passage and approval.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF NORTH DAKOTA:

Section 1. Amendment.) That section 189b3 of the Supplement to the Compiled Laws of 1913 is hereby amended and re-enacted to read as follows:

Section 189b3. The Commissioner of Insurance shall have authority to employ all necessary assistance, to provide for and furnish all necessary supplies, to appoint, subject to the approval of the Governor, a manager whose salary shall not exceed Thirty-six Hundred Dollars ($3,600.00) per annum, an assistant manager whose salary shall not exceed Twenty-four Hundred Dollars ($2,400.00) per annum, and as many adjusters and assistants as may be necessary to adjust all claims for losses from hail. The commissioner of insurance shall designate the duties and fix the compensation of all such employees and may remove any or all of them with or without cause. Such compensation together with all other expenditures for the operation and maintenance of the Hail Insurance Department shall remain within the appropriation made available in each biennium for such purposes except as provided by sections 189b16 and 189b17 of the Supplement to the Compiled Laws of 1913 and Acts amendatory thereto. The Commissioner of Insurance shall, out of the operating fund herein provided for, pay all salaries and expenses of the department by voucher issued by him and approved by the state auditing board.

There is hereby appropriated out of the hail indemnity levy made in the year 1931, the sum of One Hundred Seventy-five Thousand Dollars ($175,000.00) and a like sum out of the hail indemnity levy made in the year 1932, for the purpose of operating and maintaining the said hail department for the next succeeding year in which said indemnity levy is made.

Provided further, that each Legislative Session shall appropriate out of the Hail Insurance Fund into the Hail Insurance Operating Fund which is hereby created, a sum sufficient to provide for the operation and maintenance of the Hail Insurance Department for the next biennium. Provided further, that in the case of the Hail Insurance Department, such biennium shall commence on January 1st of each even numbered year.

No appropriation is made to operate said department for the year 1931 for the reason that One Hundred Seventy-six Thousand Dollars ($176,000.00) (more than a sufficient amount) has been appropriated out of the indemnity levy made in the year 1930. Provided, further that not later than August first of each year next preceding the session of the legislative assembly, the State Auditor shall send to the manager of the State Hail Insurance Department, a suitable blank form to be filled out by the said manager, with an itemized statement of the amount of money which said manager considers necessary for the proper maintenance and operation of his department, during the two fiscal years next ensuing. The said manager shall return said blanks, properly filled out, on or before the first day of October of each year next preceding the session of the legislative assembly, to the State Auditor together with such data and statements as may be necessary to fully and clearly explain the purposes and need of any appropriation which is requested by the said manager of the Hail Department; it being the intent and purpose of this section to place the state hail insurance department upon a budgetary basis in the same manner as required of state officers, bureaus, boards, departments and commis-marks of class legislation in an American state, in an English speaking community, where we think we are patriotic and say 'that three-fourths of it may be printed in a foreign language' and that paper may be allowed to run for the office of official newspaper, I vote 'No.'

"If this bill is passed it will be passed over the protest of the Daughters of the American Revolution and the American Legion Auxiliary. Mr. Traynor asked that the amendment offered by Mr. Crowley be entered in the Journal and he further requested, that his own remarks, relative thereto, be recorded.

Mr. Traynor's statement follows: "I would say, Mr. Speaker, that this proposed amendment would provide additional security for the Hail Department. It would give the department, in addition to the lien, which they have now under the existing law, additional security in that they would have a lien on the crops insured, subject only to threshing liens, seed liens, and labor liens. I would further state that this amendment was suggested to the Committee on Insurance and the Commissioner of Insurance was present at that time. He objected to the amendment. It was not satisfactory to him and the majority of the committee did not feel that they wanted to force it on the Hail Insurance Department in opposition to their wishes. Had the department been in favor of it, the Independents of the committee would have been willing to adopt it.

Now, when the amendment is offered on the floor, I do not see why the Independents should oppose it. As you know it requires unanimous consent to adopt this amendment at this time. I hope none of the Independents of the House will oppose it. I think it is a matter of good business for the Hail Department to have the additional security which this amendment would give them, and I hope that the Independent members of the House will raise no objection to it. If any of the Minority object to it, that is their privilege, as I presume they will be expressing the wishes of the Hail Department.

The amendments as offered by Representative Crowley were objected to by Aljets and Sundby of Renville.

Mr. Aljets moved the previous question.

Mr. Correll demanded a roll call.

Which was granted.

Mr. Speaker: I vote "No" on House Bill No. 282 for the reason that it is now the 51st day. That the clock was stopped at 3 minutes of two, whereas it is now 10 minutes of 3 p. m.

I vote "No" for the further reason that should this Bill pass it would be unconstitutional for the reason that the constitution says all Bills must pass the House in which it originates on the 50th day.

I vote "No" for the further reason that if this Bill should pass it would work a hardship on the farmer in that it allows the farmer no share of the crop or the proceeds of the Hail insurance until all liens and mortgages are paid, leaving the farmer and his family to face winter without any funds.

Mrs. Craig explained her vote and asked to have her explanation recorded in the Journal:

"Some time ago we heard much talk over the radio and read propaganda in the newspapers that the people should sustain the legislature and vote to repeal the Depositors' Guaranty Fund Act. I believe in consistency, Mr. Speaker; so I am voting 'no' in order to sustain the wish of the common people as expressed at the last election."

Mr. McCay explained his vote and asked to have the explanation recorded in the Journal.

"I vote 'aye' because the people in all three of the counties of my district asked it. I am voting 'aye' because I think it is the most just way of raising a road tax. I vote 'aye'."

Mr. Niewoehner explained his vote and asked to have his explanation recorded in the Journal:

"I vote 'no' because a majority of the people at the election held last June expressed themselves as opposed to the four cent tax. Our constitution provides for the initiative, the people exercised it only last June and we should sustain them. Therefore I vote 'no'."

Mr. Stoa explained his vote and asked to have his explanation recorded in the Journal:

"A few months ago the people of this state, the Second district included, which district I am representing, had their say on this question, and by their vote said they did not at that time want an increase in the gas tax, and the people as a whole have not since spoken to the contrary; so I think it is with poor grace that we now so shortly afterward should disregard their wish. I am personally in favor of the increase at this time, but the people have otherwise spoken; so, Mr. Speaker, I have to vote 'no'."

Mr. Scholl explained his vote and asked to have the explanation recorded in the Journal:

"I believe that as a representative I am here as a servant of the people.

"I believe further in the referendum and that it registers the voice of the people.

"Therefore, since my district rejected the four cent tax by a large majority, and it was likewise rejected over the state, I feel that it is my duty to vote 'no' on this measure."

"I believe further that this measure would require the farmers to deposit about one-fourth of the purchase price of gasoline with the state for some time and for no purpose. I feel that it is further my duty to vote 'no'."

Senate Bill No. 95. A Bill for an Act Imposing a Tax on the Gross Receipts of Express Companies for the Privilege of Operating an Express Business in North Dakota, Providing for the Making of Reports to the State Tax Commissioner and Fixing Penalty for Failure or Neglect to Report; Providing That Such Tax Shall Be a Lieu Tax, and Repealing All Acts and Parts of Acts in Conflict Herewith and Declaring an Emergency.

Mrs. Craig explained her vote and asked to have the explanation recorded in the Journal.

"I would like to express my disapproval of the attempted divorcement of this department from the Agricultural College Experiment Station at Fargo. I believe the supervision provided for in this bill might be more economically given. I also protest against the excessive salaries paid to the heads of this State Seed department. The tremendous amount of lobbying for this bill has been, in my opinion, both decidedly obnoxious and illegal. In spite of my objections and in spite of my conscientious belief that this bill will not increase the price of one single product the farmer has to sell, I vote 'Yes.'
