There would be no fiscal impact, insofar as the State of North Dakota is concerned, as a result of enactment of Senate Bill No. 2235. This is an amendment of our present law which excludes farm workers from unemployment compensation benefits. It affects only private employment and will extend benefits to those who work for farmers who employ four or more workers in any twenty weeks of the year or who pay wages of $5,000 or more in any one calendar quarter.
