POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Mau: Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege. Mr. President, ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, this morning in our State and Federal Government Committee, action was taken, as a result of earlier action, we passed out Senate Bill 2380 which was unanimous coming out of committee. As amended, the bill was introduced and there were changes made in committee. The changes that were made in committee improved the bill. The committee and the reflection of the changes that were made in that State and Federal government committee are often reflections on the integrity of that committee. After this bill was passed out, and for what reasons I don't know and it is probably immaterial, but for any caucus to impose itself on the judgment of a committee after that judgment has been amended is a breach in the legislative process of this Senate and be it the Republican Caucus, the Democratic Caucus, or any other caucus, the stand that after a bill has come out of committee unanimous, to force that bill back into committee to be amended back to its original form is not in the best interests of the people of this state and this is my own personal feeling as a member of that committee and I would feel the same had it been my bill or had it been Senator Jone's bill, which it was.

President Sanstead announced he was voting to cast the 26th "aye" vote, thus passing Senate Bill No. 2135.

Senator Nothing challenged the decision of the Chair to cast his vote.

President Sanstead refused to accept the motion to challenge the decision of the Chair.

Senator Strinden challenged the right of the Lt. Governor to vote, listing the Attorney General's opinion where he has conflicting opinions of his own. He cites that the office had occasion to comment on the same issue, Feb. 19, 1945. He stated that the Lieutenant Governor is not a member-elect of the Senate. At that time there were no appellate court decisions squarely on the issue presented. I would cite, Mr. President, members of the Senate that in changing the Attorney General's ruling, he cited cases of Delaware and Montana. We have not had a case decided on the Constitution of the State of North Dakota. That issue is still before the Supreme Court of our great state. Until such time as the Supreme Court, State of North Dakota should rule, I would certainly challenge the right of the Lieutenant Governor to cast a vote.

MOTION

Senator Nething moved that the Senate recess until 1:45 P.M., which motion prevailed.

The Senate reconvened, President Sanstead presiding.

LEO LEIDHOLM, Secretary

THIRTY-FIRST DAY

Bismarck, February 15, 1977

The Senate convened at 2:00 P.M., President Sanstead presiding.

The prayer was offered by Rev. Ira Herzberg, Calvary United Methodist Church, Bismarck.

"Dear Father in Heaven: We pray for the members of the Senate in their several responsibilities. Help them in their committee work, and above all, as they meet here in legislative session today. May they never forget that what is said and done here is not done in a corner, but always under Thy scrutiny. May they feel the weight of their responsibility before Thee, and remember the influence of a good example, that all who come to this place, may have a stronger faith in government of the people, by the people, for the people.

May the Senators so speak and act that all who wait upon them and serve them may be inspired, rather than disillusioned, by what they see and hear and are asked to do.

Lord Jesus make Thyself real to these men and women, that each may feel Thee sitting beside them, and hear Thy voice, and win Thine approval in all things they say and do.

In Thy name we pray. Amen"

RECOGNITION

Senator Nething announced that a distinguished guest was in the chamber today and moved that the President appoint a committee of one to escort the Hon. Congressman Mark Andrews to the rostrum. The motion prevailed and President Sanstead appointed as such committee Senator Nelson. Congressman Andrews was escorted to the rostrum whereupon he addressed the Senate.

Senator Nething moved that the following remarks of Congressman Andrews be printed in the Journal, which motion prevailed.

REMARKS BEFORE NORTH DAKOTA SENATE

Representative Mark Andrews

February 15, 1977

Congressman Andrews:

Thank you, Mr. President. It's a privilege, of course, to be here. I might say that Walter Fauntroy, a delegate from the District of Columbia, sends his best wishes to you. You know he represents the District of Columbia, he is a non-voting delegate. He has the same staff and the same pay that we all have. A group of us were talking with Walter one time when we were running over to make a vote, and we said, "Gee, it's about time they gave you the voting privilege," and he said, "If there's anything I don't want, it's the privilege to vote, because I can never get into trouble by the vote I don't cast. So maybe your friends are trying to help you out."

Seriously though, it is a privilege to be back home, and those of us who are privileged to serve North Dakota have a special feeling for our home state and in our hearts, there's a whole host of reasons why we love our state. Those of us who are farmers, of course, have a good deal of pride in the land. Those of us who live in town have that same pride in our clean streets and our good neighborhoods and our friendly neighbors. And most of all, I think that the strength of North Dakota is in our people. Last week, Mary and I had the privilege of being invited out to California to watch Lawrence Welk tape one of his shows, and this show was called "Beautiful America". It's going to be shown the first part of April, and it's a salute to the states, and, of course, knowing Lawrence, you can guess the very first song was a song about North Dakota. And after he had the song about North Dakota, then he went to some of those lesser states like Indiana, Kentucky, Texas. In watching Lawrence Welk in action, and when you see the show on television you always think, he's got a soft job, one of the softest jobs in the world. Why, he only conducts that orchestra about one-third of the time, it's a pretty light weight baton, and then you have one of the other people conduct it for the rest of the two-thirds of the show. But Lawrence is all over the place. He's moving here and there and making sure that the cameras are in the right spot. And his people love him. They are his musical family as he calls them. And I think that all of us in North Dakota can be extremely proud of the fact that the thing that has made him a success through all these decades is that down-to-earth genuineness that we take for granted really among North Dakotans. I think, actually, it's his basic independence, his freedom of spirit, we've got a lot of that in our people of North Dakota. And it's a source of pride, of course, to all of us.

It's good to be home. They kind of turned us loose. They have one of these beneficial groups that run the Congress, as you may know, the Congress is up for a pay raise. Because the Congress is up for a pay raise, the only way that pay raise can be stopped is if we vote against it. And for some strange reason, we haven't been having any sessions for so long we have forgotten really what we all look like. We were supposed to go back; my office called me today, I've got hearings, so I have to be back tomorrow, but they cancelled the business on the floor of the House tomorrow. They cancelled the business for Thursday; they are going to have the Mexican President come in and make a speech, and they cancelled the business for Friday. And, of course, by Friday, if Congress takes no action, the pay raise goes in for all those government bureaucrats, and Congress, too. So it's amazing how well they run that shop down there, Mr. President. I don't know exactly who they've got pegged, or why, but it seems that they have got some reason to have us here at home.

But, in the East, the U.S., of course, as you know, is in an energy crisis. Everybody is saying you've got to do something about the weather. You've heard that on your television screens or read it in your newspaper. But let me assure you, there's no political fix that's going to take care of our weather problems. There's no quick political fix that is going to remedy our energy shortfall in this nation. But there are some things we can do; there are some things we ought to be doing. We just passed a gas bill that's a temporary gas bill. You grab some gas that's available in some areas and you move it to others. The hardest hit areas are Ohio and Pennsylvania, two states that have never set up their natural gas on an interruptable basis. You know, out here in North Dakota, every building, every institution that heats with natural gas has an interruptable secondary source of heat. We take it for granted. But there in the East, in Ohio and Pennsylvania, where they sit on some of the largest coal deposits in all the world, there is no facility for taking over and heating these plants or these public buildings or these schools, and it's really ridiculous. Our gas bill certainly should have had a provision in it to say that within 24 months all public buildings, all factories, and all of the rest install alternate sources of heating so that this type of an economic planning doesn't hit us again. Natural gas is actually too valuable to use in heating boilers. It ought to be used producing fertilizer and all of the other things, the plastics, and the rest of the things it can do uniquely. We ought to be generating our electricity by atomic plants, by coal, by developing solar energy. And we have to move as swiftly as we possibly can to recognize the individual private enterprise system has given us an adequate supply of energy. The more we hamstring that system, the more we come close to the day that the lights are going to go out when we flick that switch instead of on. And that's when this nation will truly slow down.

The other side of the energy equation, the other side from the fuel side, is the food side. And those of us from North Dakota, of course, are deeply interested in what happens there. We are all gratified to see our neighbor, Bob Bergland, be appointed Secretary of Agriculture. He has a deep and sincere dedication to America's farm families and a unique knowledge of the special treatment that we need in the upper Midwest. Not special favors, but, special recognition for the contribution we make, because it's our wheat, actually, that's provided the overseas earnings that's allowed the Eastern industrial plants to stay open and create job opportunities, because they pay for the imports of oil without which those factories on the East Coast wouldn't be in operation. But they take our farm productivity out here for granted. Bob's appointed a special task force. He appointed them two weeks ago last Monday to study the cost and the rationale for price supports, grain storage, food for peace program and a host of other things. He's directed them to report back by the last day of this month. He's going to appear before our sub-committee the first and second of March to give us his report on how we re-structure the farm program. In the meantime, I would hope that our friends in North Dakota would contact him, because he needs all of the backup figures he can possibly get. As you know, the Chairman of the Senate Agriculture Committee, a gentleman from Georgia, has introduced the new farm bill, and that new farm bill calls for a loan rate on wheat of $2.18. I know how Bob Bergland feels. I know how I feel. I think the loan rate ought to be three dollars. I think, Buckshot, you and a number of other people in North Dakota feel that it should be at least three dollars. And it ought to be there so that we can keep this storage on the farms and so our farmers will be encouraged to produce, and it's good not only for people in the rural areas, but it's good for people in the cities, as well. Bob's going to need all the help we can give him in backing him up so that some way or another the sensible price level in agriculture isn't lost in an inter-departmental shuffle. Our price, times our production, and our production will be effected by this drought, gives you your tax base which you can work with. And it affects the decisions you're going to make in the next month right here in this chamber. This is certainly going to be a landmark two years for agriculture. Our whole bill expires, and really, again, we need understanding. Understanding for the contribution American farm families make to our nation as a whole, understanding for price structure, and a better feeling all the way around.

I think actually we can extend that need for understanding to our Garrison Diversion Project. Yesterday, our senior Senator talked to you about the problem that Garrison is in, and it is in deep trouble. And I certainly agree with everything that Milt Young has said about how serious that trouble is, but I'd like to talk, not just about the trouble that Garrison is in, but I think we ought to address ourselves to how did we get there, and how do we work our way out of that trouble? We can point at trouble, but I think we are a whale of a lot more productive if we say this is where we have to go, this is why we got into this trouble, this is how we resolve it. I think we ought to realize that understanding is again the key word. Our project is a good project. I asked the government accounting office to do a study, on its cost benefit ratio, as compared with 25 other reclamation projects now under construction in the West. Garrison was second from the top in cost benefit ratio. Only one project out of the 25 now under construction in the western states has a better cost benefit ratio than our project. I asked the government accounting office to give me a report on how the quality of our return flows compare with the 25 other western reclamation projects. And there are only four whose return flow quality is better than that of the Garrison Project. And those are all in the Columbia Basin area where they get 30 or 40 inches of rain fall normally, and they got a totally different atmospheric condition than we have. So ours has the facts behind it, it is a good project. Why then the problem? As Milt pointed out, some of the zealots have been able to point the finger and the answers haven't been forthcoming. And the problem is not in the Congress of the United States, the problem is in our sister states. When you have a Congress of 435 members in the House, and you've got a project that's under attack from the Audubon Society, Friends of the Earth and the National Wildlife Federation, names of organizations that sound good to you, and then they look and they say that the State of South Dakota has, by legislative resolutions, said this is a bad and questionable project. And that the State of Minnesota has officially said that this is bad, it's a questionable project. School's out really. That's where our problems lie. That's the basis on which the Reader's Digest could write the article they wrote. Without the official opposition of our sister states, there's no way they could write the article they wrote on just heresy by a group of over zealous environmentalists. Now our problem has come from our sister states, we must of course participate in the lawsuit that is now there, I want a voice of North Dakota heard, I don't want the fate of Garrison Diversion decided in a court 1500 miles away by a judge whose never set foot on our North Dakota soil, who doesn't know about the need for this project. I think that our sister states ought to recognize that before we even had a legislature, when we were still a territory, we memorialized the United States Congress to bring this Missouri River water east into the eastern two thirds of North Dakota and up into the Souris River Basin for the benefit of what? For the benefit of the environment of that area to give us the dependable stream flows we needed to enhance the environment, not to detract from it, to provide a stability in the breeding population of the central flyway for our waterfowl, not to harm our wild birds.

These are things that we know so well but really do others know that well. This is, in fact, our challenge. I would like to point out to you as the leaders of North Dakota this article in this morning's Fargo Forum. It's an article about our new senator to the east, Wendy Anderson, who has been the Governor of Minnesota for sometime. He was in Moorhead and they asked him about a number of things including Garrison Diversion, and I think his answer typifies the problem that we have. Let me quote it directly to you: On the Garrison Diversion Project in North Dakota, Anderson said "we are all of one mind — that we are not going to support a project which has a deleterious effect on Minnesota and Canadian waters. We need more information."

Now you know, where has the state of Minnesota been, this guy's been governor for five years. Hasn't our water commission been able to give them the information that we've got, not just from the Bureau of Reclamation. You in the legislature set up the Carrington Experiment station because we didn't want to leave it to the Feds to tell us whether this is good or not for us. We've got a host of information there. We got of course the information from the Bureau of Reclamation, we've got the information from the city of Jamestown, the city of Fargo, the city of Grand Forks, on the need for this water, we can add backup need by the city of Harvey, and by a host of other towns in this state. Why has the pipeline of information between the state of North Dakota and the state of Minnesota been shut off for these five or six years? This is the question that we have to address ourselves to because without the support of Minnesota and South Dakota, Garrison is indeed in grave problems.

If we can get a resolution out of the Minnesota legislature and a resolution out of the South Dakota legislature, we'll have no problems in the Congress of the United States, but we can't settle for an occasional comment by a public official in one of those states and sit back and relax and say we've got it made, because the official on record position remains that they're opposed. By getting their support, by contacts legislature to legislature we can get back on track.

So certainly we've got problems in this country, we've got problems in our state, problems of energy, fuel and food, problems with our own Garrison Diversion Project, problems in taxation, government income, inflation and a host of other things, but you know, by realizing that these problems exist, we can work together to set them right. The future really of our state, the future of our nation demands the best efforts of all of us. Together we can succeed if we address ourselves to the facts as they are and if we communicate them to others. With your help, I am sure that we'll build a better and stronger North Dakota in the future.

Again, Mr. President, members of the Senate, thank you so much for making this time available to me to visit with you and to let me say again, thanks so much for the cooperation we've received from the individual members of the North Dakota State Senate. It is a privilege to be back home, it is a privilege to be with you this afternoon. Thanks very much.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Redlin: Mr. President, ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, Senate Bill 2429 would allow the drilling of an additional oil well on a spacing unit of an oil field.

Senate Bill 2429 seeks to protect the rights of royalty owners in an oil well spacing unit on which there is a damaged and or ineffective oil well. An oil well which produces substantially less than what competent persons believe the unit should produce.

Your Natural Resources Committee, Mr. President, does not believe that this legislation would allow an additional oil well, if such oil well may materially effect the correlative rights of adjacent royalty owners.

SECOND READING OF SENATE BILLS

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Shablow: "Mr. President, Ladies and Gentlemen: I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"I rise to set the record straight in relation to my vote in committee wherein I voted for these amendments. In the discussion of Senate Bill 2500 which in its original form would establish a loan program for political subdivisions from the state funds derived from a coal tax. I believe this is a good concept and worthy of my support. When these amendments were presented, the testimony revolved around the distribution formula which in general I approve of.

However, there was included in these amendments a repealer, which in effect would continue the flat rate severance tax on coal.

I was not aware of this repealer, and don't believe that all of the committee members were aware of what this repealer section would do.

So I repeat that I want the record to indicate that I had no intention of voting for a flat rate severance tax, which I apparently did. I have always favored a percentage of value severance tax, and will continue to support this concept.

I supported this concept when the interim study committee, in 1973-74 interim committee hearings were held wherein they determined that this was the best approach on this matter and passed out a bill for a percentage of value tax and since that time after hearing all the testimony presented to that committee I have always supported this method of taxation. I resisted the flat rate bill last session and I will continue to resist this method this session as well.

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE OF AMENDMENT:

The amendments to the Legislative Assembly appropriation reflect increases necessary to pay salaries and wages to legislative employees at amounts set by the Legislative Assembly. The amendments to fees and services provide funding necessary to reimburse legislators for expenses during the 46th Legislative Assembly at levels set forth in House Bill No. 1381, which increases the daily expense allowance during the session from $60 to $70. The amendments also take into account House Bill No. 1273, which increases the number of round trips from seven per session to one each calendar week during any regular session, and Senate Bill No. 2201, which increases the monthly allowance for uncompensated expenses from $75 to $150 per month. Senate Bill No. 2201 also provides for a per diem of $35 per day for Legislative Compensation Commission members for attendance at meetings of the commission. The amendment to supplies and materials reflects additional funding necessary for the 45th Legislative Assembly.

The amendments to the legislative organizational session appropriation reflect the increase necessary to reimburse members attending the 1978 organizational session at a rate of $70 per day rather than $60 per day as is currently provided by law.

The amendments to the Legislative Council appropriation reflect an increase in the travel expense reimbursement rates (15 cents to 18 cents per mile, $10 to $12 per day for meals, and $16 to $18 per day plus tax for lodging), as provided in House Bill No. 1444. The amendment also provides additional funding necessary to defray the cost of a committee on public employees retirement programs, created by Senate Bill No. 2061, and legislative review of administrative rules and regulations, as provided in Senate Bill No. 2475.

The foundation payments are decreased by $840,000 because of revised estimates of student enrollments. The amendment includes in the budget federal funds which go to school districts in the state:

|  |                     |
| Title I (remedial program)                             | $13,004,298*       |

The amendment also adds $26,384 to salaries and wages for two additional film clerks for the Division of Independent Study, adds $22,000 for equipment, and deletes the classification change line item of $6,143. The additional $48,384 is to be derived from the estimated income of the Division of Independent Study, and the classification change dollars are deleted from the general fund appropriation.

The increase of $235,217 in grants, benefits, and claims for vocational education is to allow the Vocational Education Board to be adequately funded for current programs and to allow program expansion at the discretion of the board.

This amendment deletes the classification change line item of $4,048 from the Commissioner of Universities and School Lands budget.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Farrington: Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege to speak on Senate Bill No. 2513. Mr. President, ladies and gentlemen of the Assembly, yesterday, an inference was made that some Senators were perhaps not declaring a conflict of interest in accordance with Rule 24. I am sure it wasn't directed to any one Senator but I am sure we all went back and examined what we had been doing, and I would like to report to the Senate that I perhaps have been in conflict with Senate Rule 24 on one issue. It dealt with the repeal of the requirement to publish the list of available publications issued by the Extension Service. Now my business would realize about $150.00 total from publishing this list and I voted against repealing the requirement to publish this list because it wasn't because of the money, it was because I couldn't see the Extension Service spending thousands, perhaps hundreds of thousands of dollars researching these pamphlets, preparing them, writing them, editing them, publishing them, and then not spending a few hundred dollars to let the public know that they were available, it just didn't make sense to me. Now there are going to be many other bills that are going to deal with legal notices, many sections of a law deal with that, and I am not going to rise every time and say that I have a conflict of interest, and the reason I approach this point right now is because of Senate Bill 2513 for which I am carrying the amendments and will carry the bill on the floor tomorrow. The amendments deal specifically with legal publications.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Hanson: Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege. Mr. President, ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, in compliance with Senate Rule 24, I feel that I must declare what may be construed as a conflict of interest. Within Senate Bill 2001, on page 2, line 30, there is included undesignated sums for many remodeling projects at NDSU which my business firm has had architectural and engineering design contracts in the past; and it would be reasonable to assume that my firm, in the next biennium would be asked to perform additional architectural and engineering design services. These projects, are continuations of existing renovation projects. Mr. President, members of the Senate, in accordance with Senate Rule 24, I would like an expression from this body if I should or should not vote on Senate Bill 2001.

Senator Lashkowitz moved that Senator from the 45th District be excused, and be allowed to vote on Senate Bill 2001, which motion prevailed.

Senator Smykowski moved to further amend Senate Bill 2001 as follows:

EXPLANATION OF VOTES

Senator Smykowski: Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege. My point of privilege is to explain my vote on 2001. I felt that the amendments that I proposed to this chamber, and various amendments that I supported in the committee, were of such a nature that I felt would be constructive in regard to the outcome of the bill. In view of their failure, I was required to vote against the entire bill.

Senator Strinden: Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege. I feel that I have to speak somewhat on Senate Bill 2001 that we just passed. I admit that I do not fully understand the rationale in voting for higher education, nor do I understand some of the statements that have been made about higher education prior to the vote. Understandably, the appropriation of $155,000,000 is a lot of money. Nevertheless, we do have the constitutionally directed colleges of higher education. By a vote of 34 to 15, the indication is that Mayville is in trouble. By a vote of 33 to 16, it would also indicate that there is feeling in the body that Valley City is in trouble. Now I state, Mr. President and members of the Senate, these are constitutional institutions. Then I refer you to Senate Bill 2092, which is a deficiency appropriation, and, in my opinion, an illegal expenditure. We vote 39 to 11 to further fund institutions that are not an obligation of this state. We have heard from the good Senator from District 12 that they could shave $5,000,000 from the higher education budget and this in the various newspapers. In making such a statement, there was no direction to the Appropriations Committee just where this $5,000,000 should be cut from. The Senator did not appear before the Appropriations Committee with suggestions or recommendations to eliminate the $5,000,000. I guess what I would like to say, Mr. President and members of the Senate, we have voted on one of the higher expenditures that we will vote on this session. I think if changes are needed in the total higher educational system, we should completely study the whole situation. I do not believe it proper to notify the agencies or the colleges in question that they may be closed because their funding will be eliminated. It is a whole lot more serious than that. I have come to the conclusion that I certainly agree with the Senator from District 12, inasmuch as the whole area does need a thorough study. I think the Board of Higher Education has been alerted by the proposed amendment, and also by the vote on Senate Bill 2001, that higher education needs a complete, thorough study, and let the areas in question know definitely where they stand as far as their institutions are concerned. Thank you very much.

Senator Walsh: Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege. A few minutes ago before the final vote on Senate Bill 2001, I voted for an amendment that would have set the salaries at 5 percent per year instead of 6 percent for instructors at the institutions of higher learning. I want to stress that I do not think they are being overpaid, and I repeat, I do not think they are being overpaid. I voted for the 5 percent to be consistent with the 5 percent increase allotted state employees, of which there are approximately 10,000 in North Dakota. Also, you all are aware North Dakota agricultural prices are down considerably from two years ago, possibly as high as 40 percent. Tax collections in the fourth quarter of 1976 are only up about 1½ percent and the third quarter was only up about 3 percent compared to a year earlier of 16 percent for the year. Most of the budgets we have been dealing with in the Appropriations Committee are up approximately 25 percent over two years ago. I also want to remind the Senate of the budget that we just passed, on Senate Bill 2001, which, by the way, I did vote for the entire bill, is approximately $9.2 million over the Governor's budget, which is a considerable increase, bringing the total up to $155,000,000. I simply wanted to state my position on these two issues.

Senator Lips: Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege. Mr. President, ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, I indicated the budget was up, so many million dollars. I think I pointed out to you that 6.2 of that million increase was involved in the boilers at those four institutions. And also, it took about a million dollars to fund the residency program and put back in the budget, which was an error, I think, when the budget was made up, the salaries at the medical school, so there was $7.2 million involved in those two items alone.

LEO LEIDHOLM, Secretary

THIRTY-THIRD DAY

Bismarck, February 17, 1977

The Senate convened at 2:00 P.M., President Stanstead presiding.

The prayer was offered by Ralph Spicer, Salvation Army, Bismarck.

“Our Heavenly Father, Father of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ; we come to you today, grateful for the countless blessings that have been our privilege to experience. You have made a beautiful world for us to enjoy. Forgive us for polluting it with selfishness, and give these our representatives the wisdom to discern what is your will. Help each one in this room to be sensitive to the guidance of God, the Holy Spirit. These are important days in which we live, so right decisions are so vital to our future. Sometimes we are so inclined to make decisions that will bring pleasure to a few, but hurt and much suffering to many; may the heart dictate what our stand will be in these areas. May these words be more than merely a prayer to get the events of the day underway. May it be the conscience and your voice within giving direction in all matters. Your Word says “there are ways that seem right unto man, but the end thereof are the ways of death.” Help us to choose the right way for Christ’s sake and for ours.

We ask these favors in the name of Jesus Christ who is our only hope and salvation, both now and for eternity. AMEN.”

The roll was called and revealed all Senators present.

A quorum was declared by the President.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Barth: Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege and request my remarks be printed in the Journal.

Those of us who subscribe to a 33 1/3 percent severance tax are now accustomed to being called a wide variety of names. A presentation made in this building on January 12 by Andrew Freeman of Minnkota Power Cooperative rather desperately implied that those of us who support the 33 percent tax are extortionists, dirty pool players and robbers. It is unfortunate that we can't have opposite views without engaging in name calling. In my judgement whatever value and credibility Mr. Freeman's presentation has was derogated by his name calling. He concluded his remarks by hoping that by some miracle this legislature may have the compassion and wisdom to deal with the problems at hand. (See page 10, Freeman 1-12-77, Statement to Strinden-Nething Committee).

We have the right and certainly the obligation to look at the track record of those who oppose the 33 1/3 percent tax. Do you see a strong similarity between this group and another group who were lobbying previous legislatures? About four sessions ago the efforts to get a reclamation bill through the legislature met a stonewall. The following session the same type of legislation was clobbered again. It took two sessions and two defeats to get a reclamation bill passed. It is perfectly accurate to identify those who opposed reclamation as the same people who now are opposing 33 1/3 percent. It's a neat little group of Coal Companies, Investor Owned Utilities and an REC or two. Let your memory go back a few years and you'll recall that they told us then that the land was cheap land not worth reclaiming. They told us that they couldn't effectively reclaim the land and that the cost would be prohibitive. They told us that the spoil piles made wonderful game refuges and they planted the vision of forested slopes in the coal fields.

We now say that we have a good, workable reclamation law. That group that opposed it seems quite proud of it and would even lead us to believe that they were the prime sponsors rather than the bitter opponents. Reclamation, good reclamation, is now accepted. The legislature did the right thing.

I submit that the severance tax issue may be nothing more than a replay of the reclamation law battle. Generally speaking we have the same clique of people against us. We hear the same basic arguments by the same guys. Whenever we as legislators ask these people to face up to their corporate social responsibilities and be good citizens we get all kinds of excuses. We ask them to put their money where their mouths are and we strike some sensitive nerves.

This legislature and those that have been here before us is not anti-coal or anti-energy development. We and our predecessors have gone the last mile for development. We have insisted, as we have a right and duty to do, that any development be responsible, environmentally sound and pay its own way. Whenever we press for those essential terms we are accused of being extortionists, playing dirty pool and robbers and an implied threat is returned that we will cripple the industry, hamper development and increase energy costs. Are we asking too much now? Were we asking too much when we asked for effective land reclamation?

It is time that we stopped worrying about these Coal Companies. They've got a pretty good thing going for them. In this country they are the only game in town. They have it all sewed up. Insulated and protected as they are they will make a profit no matter what the costs are.

Any thoughtful citizen in this state or in this country must by now know that the energy honeymoon is over and the price is going up. Energy is in short supply. We are all going to have to pay more for what is available. That's just hard, modern day fact.

The question is should we close our eyes and give away our resources under the pretense that we are making a contribution in the public interest? If we do that then what shall we tell our children and our grandchildren when they ask us what we did in the legislature in 1977?

In spite of what you may have been told or what you have read, my basic faith in the people of this state has me convinced that the great majority of them support the 33 1/3 percent tax. North Dakota people want the truth and the facts. They know what's going on here and they know the motives of those who oppose the severance tax.

Few states have been exploited as vigorously and effectively by outside interests as North Dakota. There is every reason to be apprehensive about our resources being exploited. That's what you and I are supposed to guard against. That's why we are here.

This business of taxation has two sides to it. It's like the sheep business. We have a group that says that we are skinning the sheep. That is not our idea at all. We are just shearing the sheep. No legislature ever skins the sheep — we limit our activities to shearing.

MOTION

Senator Nething moved that the Senate stand recessed for fifteen minutes, which motion prevailed.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Lashkowitz: Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege. Mr. President, ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, yesterday, the members of this body found on their desk a piece of yellow paper which I have in my hand, which I am certain defies description in terms of its repulsiveness. I slept on it overnight, hoping that I would forget about it the following day. But I think it's important that I do share a few thoughts with the members of this body. It's very easy to demean and downgrade the people in government. It's very easy to be loose with your tongue and the printed word, and it's very difficult to catch up with this type of degrading and insulting comment. I can't ignore it because it degrades every member of this Assembly. And I for one, would not stand by idly, because it's my duty to bring this next bill to the floor. As a matter of fact, in characterizing this piece of yellow paper, I believe that the author of same is dangerously close to criminal libel. However, I personally would be pleased that he would acknowledge he has made a horrible mistake and apologize to this body. I think the irony of this type of comment is underscored by a realization that the bill before us, Senate Bill 2417, is in effect being withdrawn by its sponsor by his having prepared an amendment which changes the bill 100 percent. Thereby, the sponsor acknowledging that his good intentions in coming to grips with a problem were inadequate in the form in which the bill was submitted to the Senate and considered by the committee. The amendments may be submitted to the body, however, I preface my comments on the bill by strongly objecting to this type of irresponsible comment which is very, very destructive to our institutions if allowed to remain unchallenged because of the references contained particularly in the last paragraph. I believe that's all I have to say at this time on this particular aspect of the subject, and I am prepared at this time to move on to the subject of the bill at hand.

EXPLANATION OF VOTES

Senator Lashkowitz: Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege to explain my vote.

I rise, members of the Senate, to explain my vote on this bill; Senate Bill 2004, which was against the legislative appropriation. I think an explanation is in order. I feel that with the present mood for sunset legislation that we in the legislative assembly must also bear close examination and scrutiny. The size of the appropriation is only one factor. It indicates that we are now virtually a professional legislature, which means that we will be further and further removed from the ultimate source of our authority, the people. I am concerned that we have in our bill books 1,277 bills and resolutions. The cost of each bill has been estimated from $100 up to $500 or more per bill and resolution, not only for printing, but for processing. I think that this has become a costly and unmanageable extravaganza. I am not interested in the power struggle that is taking place as to where REAP should be placed. I think that ought to be resolved by the people of this state. I am concerned as to whether or not it has a rationale in its being when we have duplicating agencies in existence. I am also concerned that we must take an inward look at our own operation which has become unmanageable and costly. We have seen a lot of legislation that has been ill-conceived and of dubious quality. Much of it has been withdrawn. Much of it has been rejected. Much of it has displayed lack of careful research. I would say further, members of the Senate, that what we have essentially is a bill manufacturing factory. I think we should get back to the basics of real substantial research and thought. And one further observation at the pre-session, members of the Senate, I noted that the committee chairman made a brief introductory statement about one-and-a-half or two minutes, and then they turned the rostrum over to the technician who made the total presentation that we were treated to.

This indicates to me that we, as legislators, are abdicating our responsibility to truly be the authors, as well as the sponsors of legislation. I think some inward thinking, introspection and restructuring is long overdue. Thank you.

Senator Mau: Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege to explain my vote on Section 4 of Senate Bill 2004. I voted "no" for a couple of reasons. The REAP program is issuing reports that are not comprehensive. They are providing possibly a false sense of security. There are many aspects to these reports that they have not investigated, not included in their studies, and to continue funding a project on the premise that because there is already such an amount of money invested in that project, that it would reflect on the integrity of this body, I would suggest that the continuation and funding of a project that is not doing the job that it was originally intended, is worse. And that sir, is why I voted "red".

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Freed: Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege. Mr. President, ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, on the bill that we have just passed now, we gave the Supreme District Court judges a 10 per cent increase. Most of you who have been here in past sessions will recall how I was against too large of an increase two years ago when all of the executive departments got a very very large increase, you will recall. Now, I was of the opinion that they were not getting enough of an increase with the bill that was just passed. I hope that it will be corrected over in the House. I feel that part of the reason for this was because of some decisions the Supreme Court are sitting on or that have considered and I don't think that we should let that interfere with our decisions at all. These judges do have hard decisions to make and we may not agree with them, but we don't give them an increase depending on how they make decisions. That would be the worst thing we could do. I do hope that when this gets over to the House it is corrected, because yesterday we passed a bill giving the county court increased jurisdiction. Now that's a lower court that we have, we gave them a 20 per cent increase in salary for the next two years and when the district judge salary bill comes up you give them 10 per cent. Now it just doesn't add up and I hope that if this comes back in conference committee, this body will remember that.

The amendments to Senate Bill 2469 were laid on the table.

POINTS OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Shablow: Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege. Mr. President, ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, the purpose of my amendment was to try to save the bill. I was sure it was dead with the ten per cent in there, even though the amendments indicate that we will have a method of taxation in the bill that will come across wherein they will be able to deduct expenses and so forth before they would pay a tax of any kind. I thought that this was a better method, one per cent of the gross is much easier to determine than those that will say they had only a small margin of profit by the time they have all the deductions in relation to their facilities and the costs of operating their entire business. I am sure that this would have been a better method on a one per cent of the gross; however we will see when the other bill comes over.

Senator Goodman: Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege. Mr. President, ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, I think the subject can be fully discussed when the House bill comes over and an amendment lays before us, and I am sure that it will be fully discussed.

Senator Orange: Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege: Mr. President, members of the Senate, I first stood up in comment to the amendment and then I wanted to try to encourage this body to consider overturning the committee recommendation. Several statements were made that I wanted to respond to, but because of the motion to lay on the table, I feel that I was in some way short-circuited here in not being able to participate in the legislative process. However, thank you Mr.

President, for the recognition of my point of personal privilege, and I would like to make the statement that if this state is going to have some form of gambling, I believe as I think very many of these members believe, there should be some means whereby that activity self-supports the ancillary activities that will require enforcement, audit, and control of that activity. Mr. President, I believe that my qualifications of being one of the executive board members of Muscular Dystrophy, being a past chairman of the Grand Forks area of the kidney foundation of the upper midwest, and various other handicapped and charitable organizations I belonged to in the past, I can freely state that these charities will look at the receipts from gambling as manna from Heaven. They will be very appreciative of any contributions that this activity may bring them, but I think they recognize the realities of life as well as we do, and the fact that gambling activities will create additional costs to the state. I believe they are willing, whatever percentage, I am not sure of, but they are willing to carry their burden or not receive the total amount of charity to provide these controls and audits. I hope that when that gambling bill, that is becoming so famous now, gets to the Senate, and when we consider the ten per cent, that we will again look back at this bill 2469, which has been drafted not by me, but by two tax experts from the Tax Department, namely, Mr. Richau and Mr. Jakes, and they followed the guide lines of the North Dakota Century Code 57-39.2. It is almost letter perfect except for the insertion of the word "gambling" instead of sales tax. I believe that if nothing else, this tax should support the controls and audits, but for some of us it may be that we would want to have this as an income producing source. We have just passed the exemption of sales tax on heating fuels, on water, on electricity and I applaud that, but I think gambling is a luxury and if we can afford a luxury we can afford the tax. If the charities are willing to accept the contributions they should also accept the fact that we need to police them.

THIRTY-FOURTH DAY

Bismarck, February 18, 1977

The Senate convened at 2:00 P.M., President Sanstead presiding.

The prayer was offered by Rev. Charles Ostlie, Christian and Missionary Alliance, Bismarck.

"Dear Heavenly Father, -

We thank you this afternoon for this opportunity to meet together. Thank you for these men who have given themselves to this task for the leadership of North Dakota. We thank you that we can come to you in prayer, and that you have promised that if we ask anything in prayer believing we shall receive. We also thank you that you have given us your Holy Spirit to guide and direct us. He is our comforter and giver of divine wisdom, and that he directs us by your Word, the Bible to know all things of you. We thank you that your Word was given to us for instruction and training in righteousness. That we have a tool, a book of instruction. That it is everlasting. We know God that in a world of change, of sin and crime and corruption, we can go to the Bible for our answers. May it become alive. The Word says in II Timothy 3:16 that "All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: that the man of God may be perfect thoughly furnished unto all good works." Show us your path ahead. Keep us from going ahead following aimlessly after our wisdom, which can deceive us. You said that if anyone lacks wisdom we can ask of God and you will give abundantly, and without reproach. We think of Solomon, Lord, how he was king of Israel, only a boy, and he asked for wisdom, and you gave it to him and he became the wisest person that ever lived, and not only wisdom, but riches, and honor, and long life.

Guide us, show us, use us; may the decisions made by these men cause this state to get back to the true values in life. May we see a decrease in crime and corruption with our people as a result of the decisions that are made here. Teach us how to pray even as you taught the apostles how to pray. Teach us how to trust you for these things before us. May our state see that these men are led by divine wisdom.

We also pray for each one here as some are troubled, some are having troubles at home. Some are having financial troubles. Bless them, and may your love become real to each one. Meet the various spiritual needs as well as physical needs. Any may your Spirit become the life of these men, and give them the strength needed for every hour of every day.

Thank you now and bless abundantly, in Jesus' name, Amen"

The roll was called and all Senators were present.

A quorum was declared by the President.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Senator Lashkowitz: Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege to explain my vote. As the members of this body observed, I cast a negative vote on this particular bill, Senate Bill 2529. That does not mean that I was critical of every provision in that bill. However, I do listen and I do heed, and I recognize that some of the arguments in opposition of this bill have set forth valid bonafide concerns. One of the concerns that they have raised is whether or not courts in small communities without lawyers will be unable to function. That's a matter that I think we must address ourselves to. Then a second concern was the question as to whether or not they are building fences around our profession. Members of the Senate, I have my self respect and pride and I hope that it isn't a matter of elitism, but I recognize that the figure of $150 may be restrictive to perhaps someone who is aspiring to practice law in this state. I do not wish to exclude that person who might otherwise be talented and meet the other qualifications as set forth in the law. For those reasons I voted against this bill.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Solberg: Mr. President, before we leave the Chamber now after a heavy week, I feel a grave responsibility to one of the persons in this chamber because I was responsible for returning the "smoking bill" to this chamber and caused him to act in a most unusual manner. As a result of this, we find the vindictiveness of his actions has caused him to reverberate many areas and his cerebral concoctions are not very pleasant any more and that the creation of those things that circulate through the mind becomes a very difficult thing to resolve, and so now I feel that he has come to a point where the experience of the moment becomes the struggle of a lifetime and that a promise made is a debt unpaid and that his social status is not a moderate thing. As a result in order to pacify those things that accrue to an individual who has made a rapid and quick decision and has caused a great deal of concern internationally through the news media we think he should be given a substitute solution to his problem and we therefore want to present him with a nice box of Copenhagen snoose.

Senate Nothing moved that at the conclusion of the 13th Order of Business, the Senate adjourn until Tuesday, February 22, 1977 at 2:00 P.M., which motion prevailed.

THIRTY-FIFTH DAY

Bismarck, February 22, 1977

The Senate convened at 2:00 P.M., President Sanstead presiding.

The prayer was offered by Rev. DeVern Schwenn, First United Methodist Church, Bismarck.

"Oh God, our Heavenly Father, we pause in holy reverence to recognize You; and Your sovereignty over the affairs of all people everywhere. We, the people of North Dakota, have a great State, but only because You have given us such by grace. We are here today to choose the future of our State. As we do so we are reminded of the words of the Psalmist that "Unless the Lord builds the house, those who build it labor in vain." We recognize that if we endeavor to succeed in our strength and wisdom we shall fail; but if we learn the ways of God, and do them, we shall help our people. We believe that You have an order for the affairs of State that will bless the people and satisfy Your Divine Will. As we as elected officials seek to find that order, give us sensitive minds and moral insight. Make us aware of the promptings of Your Holy Spirit. Help us to be able to discern the Higher Good for the sake of the people. We ask this through Christ, our Lord. Amen."

The roll was called and all Senators were present except Sandness, Solberg, Strand and Tallackson.

A quorum was declared by the President.

SENATE RESOLUTION No. 10

Introduced by Senator Lashkowitz.

A resolution urging President Carter to visit North Dakota to discuss the Garrison Diversion Project.

WHEREAS, North Dakotans have registered deep concern and anxiety over the revelation that funds for the much-needed Garrison Diversion Project have been deleted from the budget President Jimmy Carter has submitted to Congress; and

WHEREAS, the need for water in North Dakota and the other Upper Midwestern and Western states is as great now as it has been since the drought-stricken 1930's; and

WHEREAS, the need for water is a basic need for human consumption and to grow food, the very essentials of life sustaining activities; and

WHEREAS, North Dakotans are shocked and sick at heart at the unfortunate action that came without warning cutting Garrison Diversion funds from the budget at a time when North Dakota farmers are facing the very real possibility of drought years, when North Dakota cities are desperately seeking water sources, and when some cities have been forced to implement water rationing; and

WHEREAS, a trip to North Dakota would enable President Carter to view firsthand the need for the Garrison Diversion Project and to visit with citizens at the grassroots level to get the benefit of their views, concerns, and expertise regarding Garrison Diversion; and

WHEREAS, North Dakotans are looking to the Forty-fifth Legislative Assembly to take the initiative in meeting the mounting difficulties facing the Garrison Diversion Project;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF NORTH DAKOTA:

Page 2

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Senate of the Forty-fifth Legislative Assembly urges Governor Arthur Link, the state's elected public officials, and the legislative leaders of both parties to take im-

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

IN RE: Supreme Court Opinion on Lt. Governor's Right to Vote
Senator Hoffner:

I rise on this occasion to inform the members of the Senate that the Supreme Court of the State of North Dakota has ruled on the issue whether the President of this body can constitutionally vote to break tie votes on both procedural and substantive matters. Unfortunately, a majority of that body has chosen not to support the Lt. Governor of this state.

The Supreme Court has chosen not to rule in accordance with the Attorney General's opinion of 1975 but rather to base its decision on totally different grounds, that is, rules of constitutional construction and on some alleged long-standing tradition of this body. It is sad to learn that the people of this state are to be ruled not by a Constitution which they have mandated but rather by judicial rules of construction and vague traditions.

I think that it is interesting that in 1973 the Republican majority leader saw fit to introduce a resolution for constitutional amendment which restructured the office of Lt. Governor. It is also interesting to note that the vast majority of the Senate members of that majority party voted in support of that resolution. Now we find that same majority has successfully redefined the powers and function of Lt. Governor. They have accomplished this task by persuading, once again, three justices to agree with their actions.

By their action the majority party and a majority of the court have seen fit to deny what the people of this state ordained in 1974 when they reenacted, by constitutional amendment, the provision of the Constitution which authorized the Lt. Governor to cast a tie-breaking vote in his capacity as President of the Senate.

I would like to remind the Supreme Court and the majority party of the Senate that all branches of government function by the grace of the people as expressed in the Constitution of this state. Also, let us not forget that the State Constitution is the supreme law of the state of North Dakota and can only be changed by a vote of the people.

The people of this state by constitutional amendment in 1974 authorized the power of the Lt. Governor to cast the tie-breaking vote in the Senate. Whether the majority party of the Senate and a majority of the Supreme Court agrees or disagrees with the decision reached by the people of this state in 1974 is of no consequence. Nor is it their right to play fast and loose with the rights and powers which reside exclusively in the hands of the people; rules of construction and alleged long-term custom and usage notwithstanding.

While the points that I have just made deal with past events, their effect concerns me most when applied to the future.

This body on several occasions has found itself in conflict with Section 43 of the Constitution which reads as follows:

"Any member who has a personal or private interest in any measure or bill proposed or pending before the legislative assembly, shall disclose the fact to the house of which he is a member, and shall not vote thereon without the consent of the house."

The question which is now raised in my mind is whether the majority party of this body in conjunction with three members of the Supreme Court can chose to violate that which the people have mandated.

If it is held that this body can, in conjunction with the court, circumvent the constitutional provisions which deal with the legislature, can it then also by majority rule violate and infringe upon the constitutional powers granted to the Governor of this state by the people of this state.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Hoffner: Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

Mr. President, ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, House Bill 1032 was requested returned by Majority Leader Nething and the House sent it back. Such a request has never been denied in the past, it is a courtesy thing, sort of an unwritten code of ethics that we have, a code of conduct, call it what you like. The respect for the other chamber that they are an equal body and down here to enact legislation. I don't think there is any member here that wants to indulge in trickery or deceitfulness. I think that the people of North Dakota sent us down here to enact legislation, to do the business of state — we are the Board of Directors for the State of North Dakota and we are sent down here to do that. In the process, it is just that. We have two chambers, meeting simultaneously to enact laws. We have hearings and if we don't agree on a measure on a certain law, certainly House Bill 1262 is a big one, coal severance tax, then we appoint a conference committee, three members from each chamber, and we try to work out our differences again.

The Majority Leader said that his reason for refusing the request to return House Bill 1262 to the House was that the House had played games with House Bill 1360. He said that the House forced the Bill out of the Taxation Committee by using parliamentary tactics. I want to remind the members of the Senate that House Bill 1360 had a proper hearing and was properly brought before the North Dakota House of Representatives. If every bill had as thorough hearing as House Bill 1360 we'd be here for the entire year and I'm very disappointed that this Chamber chose on party lines to deny the request of the House to return House Bill 1262. It is unfortunate that the Majority Leader chose again to use a motion to table as a method to kill my motion to return the House Bill and shut off all debate.

MESSAGE TO THE HOUSE

Senate Chamber

Mr. Speaker: I have the honor to inform you that it is with regret that your request for the return of House Bill No. 1262 has been denied.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Tallackson:

Mr. President: I rise on a point of personal privilege.

Mr. President and distinguished colleagues, as many of you possibly noticed, I was missing from my Senate seat on Tuesday, February 22. I want to relate to you, Mr. President and my distinguished colleagues that I was in Atlanta, Georgia. My first purpose was to attend the national meeting of the Rural Electric held in Atlanta.

On Tuesday, I took time to visit the capitol of Georgia at Atlanta. I was shown about by a friend of our own Senate President who was president pro tem of the Georgia Senate, Senator Holloway. He showed me about the floor of the Senate and I sat in on consideration of four bills.

The Georgia Senate consists of 56 senators who represent about 80,000 people each. They meet in a Senate chamber about two thirds the size of ours. Their districts are not the same as those of the representatives. There are 180 representatives. Their legislature meets for 40 days each year and consider about 2,500 bills and resolutions each year. A senator receives $7200 per year and $36 daily expenses plus actual mileage.

A senator who sponsors a bill always carries it on the Senate floor. They also go to the front of the senate and deliver their message from a podium. Educational public television is on at all times and later it is edited and an hour of legislative activity is shown on prime time between 7:00 p.m. and 8:00 p.m.

The Georgia Senate uses a voting machine, but it is quite different from ours. When the time to vote occurs, a bell rings and the board counts down a minute with the bell ringing each 10 seconds. At the end of a minute, the board is turned on and votes registered. You do not know how anyone votes until it's over.

I was impressed by their capitol building. The capitol was built in 1874 and contains many more meeting rooms than ours even though the chambers are smaller.

I do not wish to demean their quarters, but I believe we should be real proud of our capitol and our system. I did visit the governor's office and brought back some genuine Georgia peanuts. Thank you.

SECOND READING OF HOUSE BILLS

House Bill No. 1360. A Bill for an Act to provide for a severance tax for the privilege of severing coal from the earth; to provide procedures for the imposition, collection, and administration of such tax; to provide for the deposit of the proceeds of such tax in the state treasury and for the allocation thereof to the state and its political subdivisions; to provide for a coal development impact office in the office of the governor; and to provide for a coal development impact commission to approve or disapprove impact grants.

Which has been read.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Lashkowitz: Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege. Mr. President, ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, in regard to the severance tax issue, it appears that this Legislative Assembly is acting out "the inevitable scenario", with both sides not only polarized but also unyieldingly galvanized.

We are at an impasse — with emotions high, bitterness mounting, and time running short. Yet, we must act to produce desperately needed energy, reclaim and restore our soil, and cushion the physical, social and economic impact of this development. Thus, the need for a reasonable severance tax has arisen.

It is apparent that neither side of this legislature can impose its will on the other side — and that perhaps neither side can convince the other side by undisputed data. Thus, it appears that an honorable, open adjustment of differences must be sincerely sought — to enable us to legislate in the public's interest.

It is further apparent that whatever we do here — that the 46th Legislative Assembly will review and perhaps modify.

While I acknowledge with gratitude the impressive analysis developed by our especially able and distinguished tax commissioner, and further recognizing that a percentage tax should be able to adjust to the sometimes unpredictable vagaries of the market and further recognizing the limitations of present knowledge — the public well-being requires that we make an earnest effort to reach an honorable, intelligent resolution of these different positions on the severance tax issue. It is in that spirit I offer the following amendment.

Senator Lashkowitz moved to amend House Bill No. 1360 as follows:

On page 4, line 19, delete the words "thirty-three and one-third" and insert in lieu thereof the word "twenty-five"

On page 4, line 25, after the period, delete the rest of the line.

Delete lines 26 and 27.

Senator Lashkowitz moved that the amendments be adopted, which motion lost.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Pietron: Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

I would like to explain my vote on Bill No. 1348 Thursday. I am a veteran and I know that many who sit in this body have also served their country and served it well. We are veterans of four wars. Many of the veterans that are now confined to the Veterans Hospital were not as fortunate as some of us. I fear that by building this $1.5 million dollar medical complex next to the VA Hospital in Fargo, the unfortunate persons may be subject to experimentation for the advancement of medicine in the years to come.

I have proof that this practice goes on in VA hospitals as we have a veteran in my home town who has lost one arm due to surgeons experimenting on him. They went in to remove some shrapnel and before they got finished with him they had severed the arm. This is only one instance. I have a daughter who is a disabled veteran at the age of 25 after serving 4½ years. She is disabled because of surgeon experimentation. She has a rare eye disease and they thought they could solve the problem by using laser on her eye. They shot the laser and missed the spot and hit the macula leaving her in a blind condition.

It is instances like this that prompted me to vote No against this bill. Thank you.

RECOGNITION

Judy Lynn Fischer, Miss Rodeo North Dakota is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fischer of Jamestown. She is currently a junior at Dickinson State College, is named in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities, a cheerleader at Dickinson and participates in the Modern Choir. Miss Fischer will represent North Dakota this fall in the "Miss Rodeo America" contest at the National Rodeo finals in Oklahoma City.

Senator Nething moved that the President appoint a committee of two to escort Miss Fischer to the rostrum. The motion prevailed and the President appointed as such committee, Senators Freed and Melland. Miss Fischer was escorted to the rostrum and addressed the assembly.

Senator Nething moved that the remarks of Miss Fischer be printed in the Journal, which motion prevailed.

Remarks of Miss Lynn Fischer, Miss Rodeo North Dakota:

What is it that captivates a person who has lived in North Dakota but who has left only to return again to this great state of ours? I asked myself this very question, and I'd like to share with you what might be the answer.

Dorothy Stickney, a North Dakotan by birth who became a world famous Broadway actress, returned many a time to North Dakota and upon a trip back here she stated, "North Dakota means to me all the lovely things that the word childhood implies. Summer was riding an Indian pony across the fenceless prairie, smelling the fragrant wind, hearing the meadowlarks. Winter was clean snow that squeaked and crunched beneath my overshoes, and twinkling Christmas tree lights — and most of all, my beloved family. It means the joy of coming back after a long time away to the warmth of the wonderful North Dakota people."

Yes, North Dakota and its people are truly descriptive of just such a picture. But wait, there's more, much more to this grand state. What state offers man more variety of seasons than does ours? None, that I can think of. Crisp, cold North Dakota winters are softened by being snug and warm inside. Then the beautiful North Dakota spring with melting snow, budding trees and crocuses on the hills. Next the warmth of a Dakota summer day with its sky of blue hue and finally a brisk North Dakota autumn with leaves of purest gold. Yes, her seasons go on changing. I like the idea too that it is my state that contributes an act of friendliness, like the International Peace Gardens, for it is the friendly spirit and neighborliness of North Dakotans which is the basis of our western hospitality.

Speaking of North Dakotans, they are of special types too. Good, strong, kind, and honest people. People helping each other in time of need, building strength of character as they learn to live with what they have, and learning to do so many things that are useful all through life. But what is even more special about North Dakotans? Well — it's the sweetness of Dakota friends who show you with warm, smiling eyes that they are glad when something nice happens to you.

Did I hear you say you were looking for something to do in Dakota land? Again, North Dakota offers a limitless variety of recreational activities. Enjoy a piece of western heritage by attending a rip-roaring rodeo, or hunt your favorite game. Try some camping and fishing, and how about some golfing? The fun doesn't end there. North Dakota winters offer some fine skiing, skating and snowmobiling. There's just not much that you can't do in North Dakota.

Yes, North Dakota is truly a state of variety in every respect. Her seasonal changes, differences in land, types of people, numerous recreational activities, and even the kinds of farming done all represent the diversity of this great state. It is no wonder then, why the person who has left this state returns again, not by birth but by choice, to this state of unending opportunities — North Dakota.

FORTIETH DAY

Bismarck, March 1, 1977

The Senate convened at 2:00 P.M., President Sanstead presiding.

The prayer was offered by Rev. Paul Stuart, Regular Baptist Church, Bismarck.

Our gracious God, Creator of heaven and earth, we thank You that by Your grace and mercy we are able to come into Your presence, humbly, knowing that You hear and answer the prayers of those who humble themselves before you, admitting the need of your help in decisions great and small. Gracious Father, only You have the wisdom and knowledge needed to govern the people of this state. We need and ask Your help for each person here, responsible for the great job before them. As each item of business comes up, give wisdom to each of these men and women that they might recognize their need of your help, wisdom and guidance. May Your name be praised and honored in all that is done here today.

We ask in the name of our gracious Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ, who gave Himself for us.

Amen.

REMARKS OF

Rev. Hensel E. Hendrickson
Senate Memorial Service

A few days ago I had one of those experiences that I am sure many of you have had. I don't get back to the home of my boyhood years very often. So naturally when there is an opportunity, it is a very special treat.

Through the years, you and I have visited many places and have seen much of the beauty that abounds as God's gifts to us. Sometimes our eyes have gazed upon great Cathedrals — bearing testimony of man and his faith in God and man's faith in fellowman. We have been struck by these dazzling sights — gleaming stained glass windows, magnificent altars, quiet, meditative surroundings.

Or we have been enriched by the spectacle of a Cathedral on the prairie, with all of its history and memories that unlock for us treasures of great worth. Each structure has a message of its own.

We all have Cathedrals in our lives, that are special to us, that release the dams of our mind's reservoir and allow us to enjoy momentarily at least a system of recall. My home of boyhood years could hardly be judged a Cathedral in the architectural sense. What makes it a Holy place are the memories that I have — a communion with brothers and sisters, a remembrance of the sacrifice of Mother and Father, that makes the place a Shrine. The walls have a Psalmist's melody of its own as it glances into the past through pictures of a different era. As I walk through those rooms and point out parts of that Cathedral to my children, the liturgical music of the past rests in my heart. Great arias from great composers with simple melodies for some hard times arise almost spontaneously.

Time has sent the inhabitants of those years to different places to establish new Cathedrals. The Leader of the Group, the High Priest, has gone and lies as a silent sentinel over the Cathedral he and his spouse so religiously created.

I feel that your Senate Chamber is also a Cathedral of its own. Here there are many memories of the past — a place hallowed by many as they return from their stations in life. I rather suspect that you develop a kinship here that stays with you as you go from here to the highways and byways of life. I feel that in the inner recesses of your hearts there beats a mystique that is personal and is shared only by a selected few.

It's strange, in a way, that this place should so captivate a person. Like our house, it has little special architectural phenomena as a Cathedral to bind you to it.

Even Governor Langer could not have had that much foresight!

But what ties you together is more intangible than tangible. You have earned the right to be here and that right carries an awesome responsibility. A friend of mine has loaned me a book entitled The History of Congress. In its first few pages it describes the struggle that went on, as Congress fought for identity, until Thaddeus Steven spoke these words that ricocheted through the halls of time.

"This is not a government of Kings, but a government of the people and that Congress is the people."

To feel the weight of the needs of people is a heavy one to carry. It sets you apart in this Cathedral.

In this Cathedral there is the constant pervading need of Divine Guidance. Loneliness is present here for this is a lonely task of service. There is solace in the words:

"Behold, I have set before you an open door and no man can shut it."

In this Cathedral, I am sure that you receive support from one another. That here there is a freedom to agree to disagree — but free above all. Here we know what freedom and liberty are really all about.

We are aware of some age old litany that came from the lips of Benjamin Franklin:

"Those who would give up essential liberty to purchase a little temporary safety, deserve neither liberty nor safety."

Today in this Cathedral you have set aside a few moments for a Memorial Service. It is not too strange that you should do this. For here you have given a great part of your wisdom and your life.

You have cherished the memories of those of your calling whose voices are now silent but whose labors are known in the laws of this land. It is fitting that they should be remembered.

May God's Power and God's Peace keep those memories alive as you and I reflect the days and the times that stand before us. May we hold high those ideals that were precious to them as we go about the tasks that we have been called upon to perform in this Cathedral.

Senator Nething moved that the Memorial Session be dissolved, which motion prevailed.

The Senate reconvened, the President presiding.

FORTY-SECOND DAY

Bismarck, March 3, 1977

The Senate convened at 2:00 P.M., President Sanstead presiding.

The prayer was offered by Rev. Ron Norman, Bismarck Baptist Church.

Almighty God, You have granted to this state the democratic ideal by which our destiny may be fashioned: We thank You that You have blessed our land to survive the infectious climate of confusion and uncertainty, helplessness and irresponsibility, by preserving among us enlightened and concerned citizens who cherish their heritage and who have purposed in their hearts to extend it.

We thank You for like-minded leaders whom You have raised up to guide our state. We would pray that You would grant those whom we have entrusted with the authority of government to be responsible and wise, courageous and strong.

And guide us, the people, to expect of them and to support them in all wise legislation and a faithful administration that we may all prosper under an equal law. Defend our liberties and grant us a sense of our responsibility. Achieve unity and purpose among us, and grant unto the victory of faith in the ideals to which we are committed as a state and as a nation.

Strengthen us with honor and grant us peace. Provide us, O God, with the strength and spiritual sustenance for performing with might the tasks which our common life yet confronts us — this is our common prayer, in the Name of Jesus Christ our Saviour, Amen.

MR. PRESIDENT: I have the honor to inform you the House has properly moved that this Assembly on March 3, 1977, with unanimous acclaim, extend to the Senate of the Great State of North Dakota its congratulations and best wishes to Acting Majority Floor Leader Senator Lips and Acting Minority Floor Leader Senator Maher on their attaining the high positions for which they have been selected to serve this day.

Further, The House would admonish the members of the Senate who are absent today on official business to conclude that business prior to the session of March 4, 1977; otherwise, the efficiency and speed with which legislation has been handled on this 42nd Legislative Day might prove to be a pattern to be followed hereafter and forever more in that august Chamber—a pattern, the House adds, which might prove extremely difficult for the officially elected floor leaders to follow.

Rep. Fleming, Acting Speaker

Rep. Peterson, Acting Republican Floor Leader

Rep. Mertens, Acting Democratic Floor Leader

Rep. Peterson moved that the foregoing message be read in its entirety, not be printed in the Journal, but be properly called to the attention of the officially elected floor leaders when and if they return to the Senate Chambers.

MOTION

Senator Goodman moved that House Bill No. 1519 be placed at the foot of the calendar, which motion prevailed.

We thank You for Your grace that is new each day. We are humble in Your presence. We ask for grace and guidance. We see a world filled with needs and problems. Help us as a nation; guide us as a state. Give us grace and wisdom sufficient to meet the test of our time. Bring health and physical stamina to each of our lawmakers. Bring mental clarity and sensitive spirit. Help us to do the greatest good for the most in a lasting way. Give each of us a sense of mutual respect and recognize the gifts of God in each.

RECOGNITION

President Sanstead:

"We have with us today the presiding officer of the State Senate of the State of Ohio. Senator Oliver Ocasek is the Majority Leader of the Ohio Senate. He is also the President pro tem of the Ohio State Senate. He has served 19 years in the State Senate of Ohio, including 16 years on the Appropriations Committee. Senator Ocasek comes to us today as Chairman of the Midwest Legislators Conference, a 12-state group, and North Dakota, of course, is one of the members of that Midwest Legislators Conference. Senator Ocasek is a Professor of Educational Finance at Ohio State University in Ohio and has been a long time participant in counsel state government activities. He's also been a visitor to North Dakota. He was here the last time the Midwest Council of Governors and of the legislators met in North Dakota. On behalf of the State Senate, we have had the opportunity today to be a host to Senator Ocasek who will be traveling on later this evening to South Dakota. We want to ask at this time if Senator Ocasek will say a few words to the North Dakota State Senate.

Senator Nething moved that the remarks of Senator Ocasek be printed in the Journal, which motion prevailed.

REMARKS OF SENATOR OLIVER OCASEK,
STATE OF OHIO

Senator Oliver Ocasek:

"Fellow Senators, I certainly am getting an education today. When I became the leader of the Senate a few years ago I ordered everybody to come to work at 8:30 instead of 9:00, I was almost immediately deposed. I arrived late last night, but I got to the capitol about 25 minutes after eight this morning, and I literally had the shock of my life. I was taken into this committee room which was going full blast; I was taken to that committee room, and I certainly want to commend you for being at work so early in the morning. That is perhaps one of my most difficult chores to get committees to start before 10:00 o'clock in the morning. I was astounded at your attendance as well. I also note that your calendar almost embarrasses me.

"I will sit down here after this and observe how you handle it. I think the thing that astounds me is that we meet starting in January, and adjourn as we did last year on December 14. Our Senate in Ohio meets tonight, and we do not have a roll call on Monday nights. We have one bill on the calendar for tomorrow, and two items on the calendar Wednesday, and two on Thursday, and we don't meet on Friday. You can see we are a little more deliberative than you people.

"Another thing that impresses me is that you take all of your bills out of committee and vote on them, one way or another. We introduce some 2200 plus bills, and we killed 80 percent in committee. We pass 20 percent of the proposals. I would think when you stand for election in your state, your constituents have a clear record of your views.

"I don't want to filibuster. We leave here tonight for South Dakota, where we spend tomorrow. But, this morning we had an early breakfast, and we arrived at the capitol before 8:30, and we could barely find a parking place, and you have more land at the capitol than we have. Your people were busy at 8:30 in the morning. As leader, I constantly urge my people to start their committee meetings by 10 in the morning. Our session is in the afternoon, and we do have committee meetings in the evening. I want to commend you for your diligence in starting your days' work, and for handling all the proposals in the manner you do.

"I would invite you to participate in our Council activities and our Annual Conference Convention is to be Columbus, Ohio, in July. You are good dues-paying members of our Council, and we have been pleased with your participation, and invite you to continue to participate in our Council's activities.

"I have looked at your budget, and as I told your committee this morning, I am a teacher. I found you are funding your schools about 70 percent. We are doing about half that well. We have a $14.5 billion budget, and we are not able to fund our schools to that tune.

"All I can suggest is that you serve the people of this state well, and I hope your constituents appreciate you, and I would urge you to continue to do more of the same. God bless you."

FORTY-FIFTH DAY

Bismarck, March 8, 1977

The Senate convened at 2:00 P.M., President Sanstead presiding.

The prayer was offered by Rev. Bob Fisher, Pastor, Wesleyan Church, Bismarck.

"Dear Lord, Thank You for giving us enough time for the most important things in life. Thank You for this small moment of time during which we have no responsibility but to rest our minds from the powers of concentration, and to visualize Your loving control over our lives. As we visualize Your Majesty we find we want to worship You. Not because we understand You or Your way of controlling our lives. Often we don't. But we thank You for being there when we need You. Help us to recognize our need.

One of the greatest challenges we have is to hold faith in Your power and love when situations are hard to accept. Although we often feel threatened, we can understand why You do not. Provide us with that constant thought that You, O God, are more than equal to our every frustration. Give us that microscopic faith that can overwhelm any mountain. And we will praise You in Jesus Name. Amen."

The roll was called and all Senators were present.

A quorum was declared by the President.

The prayer was offered by Senator Solberg.

“Let us pray. I would like to present an interpretation of Corinthians 10.

“Let us who think we stand, take heed that we may fall. No temptation has confronted us that is not common to all man. God is faithful, and He will not let us be tempted beyond our strength, but with every temptation, He will provide a way of escape, so that we may be able to endure. All things that are lawful do not always build. Therefore, let us not seek our good only, but also the good of others. Search me, O God and know my heart — Try me, and know my thoughts — See if there be any wicked way in me. But may You lead me in the everlasting life and in this service, we ask Thy consideration and Thy help, in Thy name, we pray. Amen.”

The roll was called and all Senators were present except Freed, Lee and Melland.

A quorum was declared by the President.

FORTY-NINTH DAY

Bismarck, March 14, 1977

The Senate convened at 2:00 P.M., President Sanstead presiding.

The prayer was offered by Rev. A. Ben Dove, First Presbyterian Church, Mandan

"Dear God

Thank you for the painful, but precious gift of ruling ourselves.

Even in this brief pause we are still pushed by the dwindling days on the calendar, by the relentless hands of the clock.

Remind your servants here that not only our state, but time itself belongs to you — that there is enough to do our work and yours.

You know the other pressures operating within these walls, personal burdens, differing interests, political habits and fears.

Beyond them all make this body responsive to your own direction toward excellence, renewal and hope.

Grant sharp recognition of what is really essential, most valuable in life. Grant freedom from sterile conformity and courage to act, expecting your good will to be worked out among us.

All this we pray trusting you.

Amen"

The roll was called and all Senators were present.

A quorum was declared by the President.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Strinden: Mr. President: I rise on a point of personal privilege.

I rise on the floor of this body to perform a task I do not relish. As Caucus Chairman of the Senate Republican Majority I must answer publicly some charges made against my caucus by the Minority Leader.

Mr. President and members of the Senate, the Minority Leader has cast reflections on the Republican Senate Members as to the propriety of its caucus determinations. He has planted seeds of doubt in the minds of the citizens of North Dakota by speaking with a forked tongue. He has challenged the integrity of the Majority Leader.

The Minority Leader publicly and openly, with little regard for the truth has accused the Republican Senate members of being like lambs led to slaughter by Senator Nothing our majority leader. He has accused very falsely and with little regard for the truth the budget cutting measures being determined in SMOKE FILLED POLITICAL CAUCUS by the Republican majority.

Mr. President and members of the Senate. The Smoke filled room the minority leader speaks of is Room G1 of this Capitol, where the Republican Senate holds its caucus meetings. Each and every caucus and I emphasize every, is announced publicly from this floor, or in the case of the first caucus of this session, by letters to the Republican Senate membership and to the News media by word of mouth and I may add the media was in attendance and was invited to stay. This smoke filled political caucus room the minority leader speaks of was lined with visitors, news reporters, and television personnel when budget matters were discussed and voted upon.

The Democrat minority leader has attempted throughout this session, to lead the people of North Dakota through loose talk into believing the Democrat party is concerned about fiscal responsibility. He, as leader of the Democrat party in this Senate has talked of fund cutting to preserve the state of North Dakota from financial collapse. When the Republican Majority takes action to bring back financial responsibility to the Legislative Body, the fiscally responsible minority leader is the first to condemn the action. Loose talk is not fair to the citizens of North Dakota. The Republican majority has had to act contrary to how we as individuals feel about certain programs. We have to vote against programs we would like to fund.

Mr. President and members of the Senate. Senator Lips, the appropriations chairman has bit the bullet. No one can call the good senator an ultra-conservative, yet he has displayed the sense of responsibility needed to restore balance to the financial picture of our state. Senator Nothing, the majority leader has displayed a needed sense of leadership when he has been completely honest with the senate membership and the people of North Dakota.

As caucus chairman of the Senate Republican Majority, I resent the implication cast on my caucus by the Minority Leader in his statement of Smoke Filled decision making. My Republican colleagues have honored me by electing me their caucus chairman for the fourth time. I cannot stand by and allow hollow charges to go unanswered. We have never asked the news media to leave our caucus and then close the doors as the Democrat party has done this session. The minority leader talks of open government but has not lived up to that pledge.

Mr. President and members of the senate, as caucus chairman of the Republican Majority, I request of the Television media to give me equal time, so as to inform the people of North Dakota the Republican members of this body do not make decisions in smoke filled caucus rooms. In caucus the problems at hand are explained by the Majority leader and the committee chairman and after complete and open discussion the Republican Senators are asked to cast their votes without pressure. On many occasions the Republican Senators have voted against new programs, not because of the program, but because of lack of finances.

Mr. President-I realize what I have said today is harsh, but I cannot tolerate false impressions of my Republican caucus being given to the people of our State, and casting doubts as to the honesty, integrity and sincerity of the Republican members of the Senate. The Republican Caucus of the Senate of the State of North Dakota will remain open for all who wish to attend.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Hoffner: Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege and request my remarks be printed in the Journal. Mr. President, members of the Senate, apparently some feathers have been ruffled, and so that all members know exactly what I said at that news conference, I think it is only fair that these remarks be placed in the Journal, because the media didn't carry the entire statement, maybe it was too long.

Senator Nething is leading his members, like lambs to a political slaughter.

The Republicans killed off a few of their members last session by rejecting a responsible coal severance tax program and they are doing so again this session by deserting programs like educational television and kindergarten to Senior Citizens Ag related projects and others.

Our system has gone from legislation in the chambers of the House and Senate floors to a smoke-filled political caucus room. In the past few sessions, more and more legislation which should be non-partisan has become a political football. Now Senator Nething has dragged almost all of the issues into the political arena by trying to kill them in a Republican caucus on a recorded vote.

When you drag this many issues into the political arena, it's not good for the people, the system, the law, anyone or anything. The bills should be allowed to stand or fall on their own individual merits.

All legislators are elected to represent a certain constituency and are expected to stand up and be counted when their constituents are for or against something. When a majority leader tells his Party members to kill all new programs without consideration for the desires of his constituents, it's a mockery to the legislative process.

Senator Nething may feel like the Christmas grinch for instructing his caucus to kill such programs as ETV and kindergarten, but he is acting like Santa Claus for the energy interests.

It is ironic that at the same time Senator Nething is saying we have no money for important programs like ETV and Kindergarten, he is working to give the energy companies gigantic breaks which will assure we won't have enough money.

For example, I was amazed to see Senator Nething introduce Senate Resolution 4072 which recognizes the direct cost to State Government agencies from energy development may be $19 million for the next biennium; while the energy taxation bills he is backing — both severance tax and the in-lieu property tax, will give the general fund only $7.5 million in revenue during that same period.

I don't understand how Senator Nething can justify denying programs for North Dakota people so that we can subsidize energy development largely for out-of-state users.

I want to say that I have mentioned nothing about a "closed-door" caucus and I want this chamber to know that we in the Senate have never had a "closed" caucus in this session.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Barth: I rise on a point of personal privilege and request my remarks be printed in the Journal. I would like to say that I pleaded with the members of the Senate Agriculture Committee last week, and here we read in the newspapers, we hear this on the floor constantly about the fiscal responsibility of the Majority Party. Well I submit to this body and to the people of North Dakota that just last week when I decided to have breakfast at the motel that I was staying at I picked up the latest issue of the newspaper, on the very front page of the newspaper said that, "The Senator Nething Kill Sheet". I read the action that was taken by the Majority Party in their Senate Caucus the evening before, and included in that kill list was a piece of legislation, a bill which was to be heard the next day. We talk about fiscal responsibility. If the action had already been taken by the Senate to kill the bill, then why did the Senate Agriculture Committee have a hearing on a bill which was basically dead. And I submit to this body, yes, the Majority party has taken positions long before the people of North Dakota know what the issue is, what it entails, what will the fiscal impact be to the State of North Dakota, what will the revenue be to the State of North Dakota, and I do not believe that our Minority Leader has to apologize to anybody. It is a fact, it was an Associated Press article, that this is what it was. And I then pleaded with the Senate Agriculture Committee, and I want the body to remember that there are four Republicans and three Democrats. And I said gentlemen of this committee, let's sit down and legislate like legislators should. Let's keep Republican and Democrat politics out of the fact that we have a bill here before us that we need to pass. I don't know what position the caucus has taken since. But I think it disturbs me and it disturbs my people back home. I was home this weekend, yes, and I visited with my people, and they were very disturbed that the action on bills which have not yet had a hearing in this chamber, the action had been taken by the Majority Leader when he proposed the kill sheet to his people, to his Senators, and said, "Look here's what goes down the tube", and we have not yet had a hearing. Now if this body and if anybody in the State of North Dakota can relate to us, and you can honestly and truthfully say this is fiscal responsibility, then certainly I need to go back to school and learn more because it is not. This is what's happened and we have no apologies to make. It is a matter of record.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. President, members of the Senate,

Senator Jones: I have had the privilege of listening to that lecture twice now, and I just want to mention that the bill that he was referring to in the Ag Committee, is not yet dead, is not on the kill list. It was held over, and has a very good chance if we all get together as has been suggested, that we can salvage this bill and pass it. I do not like the accusation that we are instructed to do, as has been said. I have sat silently through all of these talks and I hope that I will be able to sit silently through the rest, but I don't like that instructed insinuation.

CONFIRMATION SESSION

Senator Nething moved that the Senate resolve itself into a confirmation session, which motion prevailed.

Mr. S. Bryce Streibel July 1, 1977 — July 1, 1984

SENATOR SANDNESS, Chairman

Senator Solberg moved that the report be adopted, which motion prevailed.

Senator Nething moved that the confirmation session be dissolved, which motion prevailed.

The Senate reconvened, the President presiding.

RECOGNITION

Senator Nething announced that very special guests are here today, the Saudi Arabian fact finding team that arrived in North Dakota yesterday, to promote business opportunity and to encourage cultural exchange between this country and Saudi Arabia. Senator Nething moved that the President appoint a committee of two to escort the Honorable Fouad Al Farsy to the rostrum. The motion prevailed and the President appointed Senators Wright and Larson. Dr. Fouad Al Farsy was escorted to the rostrum and addressed the Senate.

REMARKS OF DR. FOUAD AL FARSY

Dr. Al Farsy: Mr. President, distinguished Senators. I am very delighted to be here tonight with you, and as a matter of fact, literally I am overwhelmed and speechless, you see I can't say it even, being here, and I am really pleased that we decided to come to Bismarck, North Dakota, and we as a team of paid delegates touring the United States of America, and a fact finding and a fact telling delegation to try and exploit possibilities to promote and strengthen their already existing Saudi Arabian relations and try to, would not say correct, try to put together the true picture of the northern Arabs, rather than what is being depicted in the newspapers and news media, and so forth, and while being in Washington, we looked through the schedule of the trips that were being taken in the US and one of my delegates said that why should we go to Bismarck, we have never heard of the place and just skip North Dakota and I said "no". Wise good Americans go to Saudi Arabia. There is a potential between you and us. There is a lot to be given from you and there is a lot to be learned on our side from your people and I have already learned a lot during our flight which I took from Minneapolis to Fargo, when I was sitting beside a lovely mother, who had just finished visiting her two sons, one in Columbia, South Carolina, and the other one in Rockville, Maryland, and I was very impressed by the speech we had together and she told me that she was visiting them for eight weeks, and this is to me as a person who lived in the USA eight weeks is too much to be devoted to two sons, and I immediately received that thanks to God there is still a strong attachment in this part of the country to the commitment to God and family, and I was very touched and very pleased, and yesterday when we went to his Excellency, the Governor of North Dakota, we had a marvelous time and he put it in a much — the best thing we could have done through this is bridging the gap and had the communication between the North Dakotan and between the Saudi Arabian government and to me it is an achievement, it's a pleasure and it is an opportunity for me to speak about your political system. I went to Duke for about three years and a half and I was very impressed by the federalist government. The federalist system that is being adopted in this country and I decided that I should take master's degree in American Government, which I took in 1975, and while taking a course in American Political Science I was very, very much impressed by President Jefferson to an extent that on the spring break I went to Monticello and I decided to go to that place and feel the whole democracy that had developed this great nation of yours and I was very pleased and touched that I was there, and I must admit while being in this country for four years I had some doubts and I was skeptical about the, if you will forgive me, the American Democracy, because every person who is having to be a Senator or Congressman is a lawyer. I am a lawyer myself, nothing wrong in being a lawyer, but I have discovered that in North Dakota everybody almost, and I was talking to the Governor, he is a farmer and gowing wheat, the Speaker of the House is a farmer, the Rep. Eugene Nicholas is a farmer, and I was really very touched, and I said to myself, "by God, by Jefferson's words and by the Declaration of Independence, that it's a government, by the people, for the people, that exists in North Dakota" and I was very pleased and I wish you, it's a late visitation, I know that your Bicentennial was over last year, but I think it's a good opportunity for me to come before you and hope that you would live forever, the leader of democracy and hopefully the greatest nation on earth. Thank you very much.

President Sanstead invited Abdulrahman Al Sadhan to the rostrum, whereupon he was introduced to the Senate.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Hoffner: Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege. Just a very short comment. Yesterday in this chamber I was accused of speaking with forked tongue. I have checked it out, and that, I guess apparently means speaking out of both sides of your mouth, according to an Indian interpretation. This decision that was just made, was made in a caucus, and a political caucus by the Republican Party, and this is what I had reference to. This is number one of a list of twenty-one. And all the time we were debating this issue, I for one, knew what the outcome was going to be, and I hate to think what is ahead for us.

MOTION

Senator Nething moved that Senate Rule 44 be suspended, that the time limit for committee reports to be out of committee be extended to 4:00 P.M. today, which motion prevailed.

LEO LEIDHOLM, Secretary
FIFTIETH DAY

Bismarck, March 15, 1977

The Senate convened at 2:00 P.M., President Sanstead presiding.

The prayer was offered by Rev. Jeffrey Mantz, Assemblies of God, Bismarck.

Father we come to you today in the Name of Jesus Christ your Son. We first thank you for all the blessings you've sent our way. We all want to thank you for the trials we've encountered as a state and nation for it has taught us to appreciate the freedom we now enjoy so richly. Forgive us for the times we have failed to consult with you for decisions that had to be made that affected the lives of so many people. Help us with every decision, every vote to maintain a level of communication with you for we know that any decision that would be out of line with Divine law will not prosper or be for the people's good.

We're not to be swayed by the minds of evil men for a land without the blessing of God is sick and will die for lack of Spirit which is life to mankind. We do not claim to be perfect in every decision that we must make but we ask your perfecting hand in our lives to bring unity and healing to our land and communities and most of all our families. O God give strength to the moral character of every assemblyman here and courage to speak for truth and justice rejecting the temptations that would make it so easy to go with the crowd, but destroy our liberty.

Deal with us as sons, O Father, and chasten us according to your statutes and precepts for they are eternal and help us always to be conscious of your presence, especially today. We thank you in Jesus' Name, Amen.

The roll was called and all Senators were present.

A quorum was declared by the President.

On page 1111, roll call for House Bill 1541, change Peterson's vote to nay and Pietron's vote to aye.

House Bill No. 1448 lost for lack of a two thirds majority.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Freed: Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege. Mr. President, members of the Senate, I think this was an unfortunate incident that just happened. The Minority Leader all during the last legislative session was being very very critical because we were not having any reform to the election laws, and I am very concerned as to why he would take the action that he has just taken unless there was some reason all along that this should be the case. I hope that's an error, but I think that it is very very unfortunate that all the effort that was put in by both parties trying to come up with something, and an opportunity was not given to work some minor details out. I think it is very unfortunate and I hope the record will show this for posterity in case this argument comes up again, that a great effort was made to have election reform and a good share of it was just eliminated by the action of the minority party.

Senator Hoffner: Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege. I remember very well what happened in the last session and as I have stated earlier, that I don't recognize this bill with these amendments. I've given the majority party a chance to take out a petty amendment, a petty amendment I say, that they want that left hand column that they say doesn't mean a thing. If it doesn't mean a thing, why did they change it to the "member of Congress", which they control very solidly, when the original bill called for the "governor", which would have put the Democratic party column on the left hand side. I say that is a petty thing, and I say that the Republican party has demonstrated a petty move in this case. If I if given a chance to compromise to talk and say that this bill will end up in conference committee, doesn't change anything because that conference committee, the action has to be taken by the final chamber, and we have had a test vote on that. Now if the chairman of the Judiciary Committee wants to reconsider that, and I'll be on the prevailing side and demonstrate that he is willing to compromise, this is the way the session works, the legislative process works, that he's willing to compromise, then by all means this is a very important part, but this is just a portion of the election law reform, I might remind the Senator, which he very well knows, and he has spent many many hours in the interim and in committee and so has that House Committee. So to stand up and say that the minority party has demonstrated that they don't want election reform is false.

Senator Sands: Mr. President, I would like to speak on a point of personal privilege. I served on that same committee in which the senator was the chairman and we worked very hard and he says this is a petty amendment. Well, if it's a petty amendment for the Republicans, then it must be a petty amendment that he proposed because he wanted his way. Now, I would also like to say that in our hearings, we accepted the amendments of Austin Engel. They are all in here. There is only one amendment by the Republicans, so if he is objecting to the amendments, he should check with Austin Engel.

Senator Hoffner: Mr. President, I rise on a point of clarification. The original bill states the governor, so I haven't suggested a petty amendment, it's the Judiciary committee and I don't know what the vote was, but the majority of the Judiciary Committee voted to amend the governor out of there and put in U.S. Representative, just check the bill, so it is incorrect to say that I was petty in recommending the governor be in there, because that is the original bill, that is the original law.

Senator Sands: Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege. I will withdraw the statement, but I wish that he would consider the fact that we accepted the recommendations of the Democratic party and we only made one change, and that was to keep us consistent with the ballot form in the general election. I don't see that this is a big issue. We have upside down ballot and we put the heading on both ends of the ballot as per the request during the interim, so that you couldn't tell the top from the bottom, you couldn't tell upside from downside, and I think that was fair. We accepted these amendments of Austin Engel and I think they are fair, and all we wanted to do was be consistent and I don't see anything that could cause such a motion to kill a bill that is quite necessary. I think he agrees with that.
