Narrative:

HB 1213 gives the Governor administrative authority to combine and reorganize Job Service North Dakota and the Workmen's Compensation Bureau. Such reorganization should result in long-term savings and improved services. The extent of the savings cannot be accurately estimated without the planning and preparation incident to the reorganization.

Findings and recommendations regarding the reorganization must be reported to the fifty-first legislative assembly before substantive changes to existing law are considered. An accurate fiscal report of savings will also be provided.

The reorganization must be made within the appropriations for Job Service and Workmen's Compensation Bureau made by this legislative assembly.
