Narrative:

This bill would allow the state to reimburse counties for services of county judges in district court matters. It is presumed that such reimbursements would be discretionary and would only be done when funds were available in the state general fund appropriation to the district courts.

It is estimated that 150 county-judge days would be used each year at a rate of $220 per day or a total estimated cost of $66,000 per biennium. These funds can be considered to be included in H. B. 1002, the appropriation to the Judicial Branch.
