Narrative:

Senate Bill No. 2361 requires the Legislative Assembly to reconvene each even-numbered year for budget adjustment purposes. The estimated costs for the 52nd Legislative Assembly to meet in February 1992 for budget adjustment purposes, assuming a 10-day assembly, total $495,300. For each day more or less that the session lasts, the estimated costs would be either increased or decreased by $49,530. Since the constitution and the bill provide that the combined days of the two annual sessions cannot exceed 80 days and since the Legislative Assembly's budget request provides funding for 74 days, only the moneys to fund six additional days would be needed. The estimated costs for the six additional days is $297,180 even though the actual cost would be as estimated above.
