2 components sold by an aviation manufacturer and the performance of any modification, 3 maintenance, alteration, repair, or installation of components in aircraft in this state are 4 governed by an aftermarket risk contract. The contract between the seller or aviation ~~manager~~ 5 manufacturer and the purchaser must be executed at the time of purchase and reconsidered at 6 each subsequent resale. The first and subsequent seller or aviation manufacturer shall agree
7 to be bound by North Dakota law and the aftermarket risk contract or to provide a fully paid 8 aftermarket product liability insurance policy that covers exposure to tort liability within the 9 United States. The option of providing the insurance policy applies only to aircraft or aircraft 10 components that sell for more than two thousand dollars.

11 SECTION 21. AMENDMENT. Subsection 3 of section 27-01-10 of the 1995
12 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

- 13 3. The governing body of the county or city may determine the amount of the fee to 14 be assessed in all cases or it may authorize the district or municipal judge to 15 determine the amount of the fee to be assessed in each case. The fee assessed 16 under this section is in addition to any fine, penalty, costs, or administrative fee
17 prescribed by law. The ~~county~~ district or municipal judge may assess the fee

24 SECTION 36. AMENDMENT. Subsection 2 of section 47-02-27.5 of the 1995
25 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

- 26 2. If a contingent property interest or a power of appointment was created before 27 July 1, 1991, and is determined in a judicial proceeding, commenced on or after 28 July 1, 1991, to violate this state's rule against perpetuities as that rule existed
29 before July 1, 1991, a court upon the petition of an interested person may reform
30 the disposition in the manner that most closely approximates the transferor's 31 manifested plan of distribution and is within the limits of the rule against perpetuities applicable ~~in~~ when the contingent property interest or power of appointment was created.

SECTION 37. AMENDMENT. Section 50-06-01.8 of the 1995 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

50-06-01.8. Department to seek waiver to establish welfare reform demonstration project - Interim rulemaking. The department of human services shall seek, from appropriate federal officials, authorization to establish a demonstration project to combine the benefits provided under the state's aid to families with dependent children, fuel assistance, and food stamp programs, pursuant to title IV-A of the Social Security Act [42 U.S.C. 601 et seq.], the low-income home energy assistance program [42 U.S.C. 8621-8629], and the Food Stamp Act [7 U.S.C. 2011-2027]. The demonstration project established under this section must provide for uniform and consistent treatment of income and assets in determining eligibility; provide for the creation of a uniform method of budgeting and computing benefits, a consistent certification period for the receipt of benefits, and uniform reporting requirements; provide for necessary child care to allow a participant to meet educational and employment goals; and provide for universal employment and training to assist individuals in becoming self-sufficient. The project may be administered notwithstanding the requirements of subsections 4 and 5 of section ~~50-01-09~~ 50-01.2-03, section 50-03-07, subsections 17 and 19 of section 50-06-05.1, chapter 50-09, and section 50-11.1-11.1, relating to the administration of the aid to families with dependent children, fuel assistance, and food stamp programs, except that a county shall reimburse the state for expenditures for the aid to families with dependent children program in that county as required by section 50-09-21. The demonstration project may require any participant to cooperate with child support enforcement efforts. The department of economic development and finance, job service North Dakota, county social service boards, and any other state agency determined appropriate, shall cooperate with the department to ensure the success of the project. Local government agencies within the demonstration project counties are encouraged to cooperate with the department. Rules adopted to implement the demonstration project may be adopted as interim final rules without a finding that emergency rulemaking is necessary, and the interim final rules may take effect on a date no earlier than the date of filing with the legislative council of the notice of proposed adoption of a rule required by subsection 4 of section 28-32-02.

1 SECTION 38. AMENDMENT. Subdivision a of subsection 4 of section 54-52-17 of the
