2 North Dakota Century Code, relating to oil and gas production reports; and to provide a penalty.

3 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

4 SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Subdivision i of subsection 1 of section 38-08-04 of the 5 1995 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

6 i. ~~That every~~ Every person who produces, sells, purchases, acquires, stores,
7 transports, refines, disposes of, or processes oil, gas, saltwater, or other 8 related oilfield fluids in this state ~~must~~ to keep and maintain within this state 9 complete and accurate records of the quantities thereof, which records ~~shall~~ 10 must be available for examination by the commission or its agents at all 11 reasonable times, and ~~that every such person~~ to file with the commission 12 ~~such~~ reports as ~~it~~ the commission may prescribe with respect to ~~such~~ oil or 13 gas or the products thereof. An oil and gas production report need not be 14 notarized but must be signed by the person submitting the report. To satisfy 15 this requirement, a person shall submit a notarized form listing persons who 16 are authorized to sign and submit oil and gas production reports on behalf of 17 that person. Additional persons may be authorized to sign and submit reports 18 by filing a form containing their notarized signatures with the commission. By 19 signing the production report, the signer represents that the information 20 contained in the report is accurate and submits the chief executive officer of 21 that entity or that officer's designee to the jurisdiction of the commission for 22 purposes of determining the accuracy of the report. In addition, the chief 23 executive officer of any entity or that officer's designee filing a false report 24 under this subdivision is guilty of perjury.
