6 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

- SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Subsections 4 and 8 of section 14-07.1-02 of the 1995 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code are amended and reenacted as follows:
 - 4. Upon a showing of actual or imminent domestic violence, the court may enter a protection order after due notice and full hearing. The relief provided by the court may include any or all of the following:
 - Restraining any party from threatening, molesting, injuring, harassing, or having contact with any other person.
 - b. Excluding either the respondent or any person with whom the respondent lives from the dwelling they share, from the residence of another person against whom the domestic violence is occurring, or from a domestic violence care facility, if this exclusion is necessary to the physical or mental well-being of the applicant or others.
 - c. Awarding temporary custody or establishing temporary visitation rights with regard to minor children.
 - d. Recommending or requiring that either or both parties undergo counseling with a domestic violence program or other agency that provides professional services that the court deems appropriate. The court may request a report from the designated agency within a time period established by the court.

1 The costs of the court-ordered initial counseling assessment and subsequent 2 reports must be borne by the parties or, if indigent, by the respondent's 3 county of residence. 4 e. Requiring a party to pay such support as may be necessary for the support of 5 a party and any minor children of the parties and reasonable attorneys' fees 6 and costs. 7 f. Awarding temporary use of personal property, including motor vehicles, to 8 either party. 9 Requiring the respondent to surrender for safekeeping any firearm or other g. 10 specified dangerous weapon, as defined in section 12.1-01-04, in the 11 respondent's immediate possession or control or subject to the respondent's 12 immediate control, if the court has probable cause to believe that the 13 respondent is likely to use, display, or threaten to use the firearm or other 14 dangerous weapon in any further acts of violence. If so ordered, the 15 respondent shall surrender the firearm or other dangerous weapon to the 16 sheriff, or the sheriff's designee, of the county in which the respondent resides 17 or to the chief of police, or the chief's designee, of the city in which the 18 respondent resides. 19 8. The petition for an order for protection must contain a statement listing each civil or 20 criminal action to which involving both parties were a party. 21 SECTION 2. AMENDMENT. Subsection 2 of section 14-07.1-03 of the 1995 22 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows: 23 An ex parte temporary protection order may include: 24 Restraining any party from having contact with or committing acts of domestic 25 violence on another person. 26 Excluding the respondent or any person with whom the respondent lives from 27 the dwelling they share, from the residence of another person, or from a 28 domestic violence shelter care facility. 29 Awarding temporary custody or establishing temporary visitation rights with C. 30 regard to minor children.

•		u.	requiring the respondent to surrender for safekeeping any meant of other
2			specified dangerous weapon, as defined in section 12.1-01-04, in the
3			respondent's immediate possession or control or subject to the respondent's
4			immediate control, if the court has probable cause to believe that the
5			respondent is likely to use, display, or threaten to use the firearm or other
6			dangerous weapon in any further acts of violence. If so ordered, the
7			respondent shall surrender the firearm or other dangerous weapon to the
8			sheriff, or the sheriff's designee, of the county in which the respondent resides
9			or the chief of police, or the chief's designee, of the city in which the
10			respondent resides.
11	SEC	CTIOI	N 3. A new subsection to section 14-07.1-13 of the 1995 Supplement to the
12	North Dako	ta Ce	entury Code is created and enacted as follows:
13		A la	w enforcement officer shall arrest a person without a warrant if the officer
14		dete	ermines there is probable cause that the person has committed the offense of
15		viol	ating an order prohibiting contact under this section, whether or not the
16		viol	ation was committed in the presence of the officer. A law enforcement officer
17		who	acts in good faith on probable cause and without malice is immune from any
18		civil	or criminal liability for making an arrest under this subsection.
19	SECTION 4. AMENDMENT. Subsection 1 of section 29-06-15 of the North Dakota
20	Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:
21	1.	A la	w enforcement officer, without a warrant, may arrest a person:
22		a.	For a public offense, committed or attempted in the officer's presence; and for
23			the purpose of this subdivision, a crime must be deemed committed or
24			attempted in the officer's presence when what the officer observes through
25			the officer's senses reasonably indicates to the officer that a crime was in fact
26			committed or attempted in the officer's presence by the person arrested.
27		b.	When the person arrested has committed a felony, although not in the
28			officer's presence.
29		C.	When a felony in fact has been committed, and the officer has reasonable
30			cause to believe the person arrested to have committed it.
