- SECTION 3. AMENDMENT. Section 43-30-12 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:
- 43-30-12. Revocation or refusal to renew Disciplinary action. The board may either refuse to renew or may, suspend or may, or revoke a license, or place on probationary status any licensee, or impose a monetary fine or issue a letter of reprimand to any licensee, for any one or any combination of the following causes:
- Fraud in obtaining a license.
 - 2. Violation of this chapter or rules adopted which implement section 43-30-04.
 - 3. If the holder of any license or a member of any copartnership, an officer of any corporation, or a manager of any limited liability company has been adjudged guilty of the commission of an offense determined by the board to have a direct bearing upon a holder's ability to serve the public as a private investigative or security agency, or if the board determines that, following conviction of any offense, the holder is not sufficiently rehabilitated under section 12.1-33-02.1.
 - 4. Upon the disqualification or insolvency of the surety of the licenseholder.
 - SECTION 4. AMENDMENT. Section 43-30-13 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:
 - 43-30-13. Notice and hearing on license revocation. The board may, upon its own motion, and shall, upon the verified complaint in writing of any person setting forth facts which, if proven, would constitute grounds for refusal, suspension, or revocation, as herein set forth a violation of this chapter or rules adopted by the board, investigate the actions of any person holding or claiming to hold a license. The board shall, before refusing to issue, suspending, errevoking any license, at least ten days before the date set for the hearing, or taking any other licensure action, notify in writing the applicant or holder of such the license of any charges made and shall afford the accused person an opportunity to be heard in person or by counsel in reference thereto. The written notice may be served by personal delivery to the accused person, or by registered mail to the place of business specified by the accused person in the person's last notification to the board. At the time and place fixed in the notice, the board shall proceed to hearing of the charges and both the accused person and the complainant must be accorded ample opportunity to present in person or by counsel, such statements, testimony,
