23 7-05, 13-03.1, 13-04.1, 13-05, and 51-17.

1           SECTION 2. A new section to chapter 13-03.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is 2 created and enacted as follows:

3           Maximum charges permitted for loans not in excess of one thousand dollars -
4 Refund - Installment payments - Permitted charges.

- 5           1. Every licensee may make loans under this section in any amount not exceeding 6 one thousand dollars, and may contract for, receive, or collect on the loans, 7 charges not in excess of two and one-half percent per month on that part of the 8 unpaid balance of principal not exceeding two hundred fifty dollars; two percent per 9 month on that part of the unpaid balance of principal exceeding two hundred fifty 10 dollars but not exceeding five hundred dollars; one and three-fourths percent per 11 month on that part of the unpaid balance of principal in excess of five hundred 12 dollars but not exceeding seven hundred fifty dollars; and one and one-half percent 13 per month on that part of the unpaid balance of principal exceeding seven hundred 14 fifty dollars but not exceeding one thousand dollars. For the purpose of computing 15 charges for a fraction of a month, whether at the maximum rate or less, a day is 16 considered one-thirtieth of a month. Amounts to be charged for any small loan by 17 a licensee under this chapter may also be calculated and charged on a stated 18 dollar per hundred basis but the charges over the entire term of the loan may not 19 be in excess of the equivalent percentage charges on the monthly unpaid balances
20 of principal authorized in this section. If charges are calculated and charged on a 21 dollar per hundred basis, the loan must be repayable in substantially equal periodic 22 installments of principal and charges, and the annual percentage simple interest
23 equivalent must be conspicuously stated in the note or small loan contract 24 executed in connection with the loan.
- 25           2. When any note or loan contract in which charges have been calculated and 26 charged on a dollar per hundred basis is paid in full by cash, a new loan, renewal
27 or otherwise, one month or more before the final installment date, the licensee 28 shall refund or credit to the borrower a portion of the total charges which must be 29 at least as great as the sum of the full periodic installment balances scheduled to 30 follow the installment date following the date of prepayment in full bears to the sum 31 of all the periodic installment balances of the loan contract, both sums to be

1 determined according to the payment schedules that had been agreed upon in the 2 loan contract. Charges during the month of payment must be prorated in the 3 proportion that the number of days remaining in the installment period bears to the 4 total days of the installment period. No refund of one dollar or less need be made.

5 3. On any note or loan contract in which charges have been calculated and charged 6 on a dollar per hundred basis, a licensee may charge, collect, and receive on any 7 installment of principal and charges continuing unpaid for five or more days from 8 the date the payment is due a sum that may not exceed the amount of charges
9 during the final full month of the loan before maturity. The charge may not be 10 collected more than once for the same default. The charge may be collected at 11 the time of the default or any time thereafter. However, if the charge is taken out 12 of any payment received after a default occurs and if the deduction results in the 13 default of a subsequent installment, no charge may be made for the subsequent 14 default.

15 4. On any note or loan contract in which charges have been calculated and charged 16 on a dollar per hundred basis, if the payment date for any scheduled installment is 17 deferred one or more full months and a corresponding deferment is made for all 18 subsequent installments, the licensee may charge and receive a deferment charge
19 that may not exceed one-twelfth of the charges authorized in subsection 1 applied
20 to the balance of principal and charges due at the date of the deferment multiplied 21 by the number of full months during the deferment in which no payment is made.
22 Thereafter, charges must be made over the remaining extended life of the loan in 23 the same manner and at the same ratio as though no deferral or extension had 24 been granted. The charges may be collected at the time of the deferment or any 25 later time. If the loan is prepaid in full during the deferment period, the borrower is 26 entitled to receive in addition to the refund required under subsection 2 a refund of 27 that portion of the deferment charge applicable to any unexpired months of 28 deferment period.

29 5. A licensee may not enter into any contract of loan under this chapter under which 30 the borrower agrees to make any scheduled payment of principal and charges 31 more than twenty-four and one-half calendar months from the date of making the

1           contract. Every loan contract must require payment of principal and charges in 2           installments that must be payable at approximately equal periodic intervals except 3           that payment dates may be omitted to accommodate borrowers with seasonal 4           incomes. No installment contracted for may be substantially larger than any 5           preceding installment. When a loan contract provides for monthly installments, the 6           first installment may be payable at any time within forty-five days after the date of 7           the loan.

8           6. A licensee may not induce or permit any person, or husband and wife, jointly or 9           severally, to be obligated, directly or indirectly, under more than one contract of 10           loan at the same time if the multiple loans result in a higher rate of charge than 11           would otherwise be permitted by this chapter.

12           7. No further amount in addition to the charges provided for in this chapter may be 13           directly or indirectly charged, contracted for, or received. However, this restriction 14           does not apply to court costs, lawful fees for the filing, recording, or releasing in 15           any public office of any instrument securing a loan, and the identifiable charge or 16           premium for insurance provided for in section 13-03.1-17. If any sum in excess of 17           the amounts authorized by this chapter is willfully charged, contracted for or 18           received, the licensee or any assignee or other person has no right to collect or 19           receive any charges or recompense.

20           SECTION 3. AMENDMENT. Section 13-03.1-02 of the North Dakota Century Code is 21 amended and reenacted as follows:
