Introduced by

Senators Lyson, Kinnoin

Representatives Nichols, Wald

1 A BILL for an Act to create and enact a new section to chapter 11-10 of the North Dakota
2 Century Code, relating to the appointment of state's attorneys; to amend and reenact sections 3 11-08-05, 11-08-07, 11-08-08, 11-08-09, 11-08-10, 11-08-13, 11-08-15, 11-09-18, 11-09-19, 4 subsection 3 of section 11-09.1-05, sections 11-10-02, 11-10-04, subsection 3 of section
5 11-10.2-01, and section 11-15-01.1 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to the election 6 of the county sheriff and county state's attorney; and to provide for application.

7 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

8 SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Section 11-08-05 of the North Dakota Century Code is 9 amended and reenacted as follows:

10 11-08-05. Vote required - Effective date - Procedure for discontinuance. If a 11 majority of the votes cast on the question of the adoption of the county consolidated form of 12 government are in favor of that form, it becomes effective on the first day of January next 13 succeeding the election. All elected officers whose offices become appointive under this 14 chapter shall continue in office until their successors are appointed pursuant to the provisions 15 of this chapter. The question of the discontinuance of the county consolidated office form of 16 government may be submitted to the electors at the next primary election through the same 17 procedures set forth in this chapter for adopting that form of government. On the first day of 18 January following a vote to discontinue, the county reverts to the form of government of the 19 county immediately preceding adoption of the consolidated office form of government, with all 20 offices made appointive under this chapter subject to election at the last preceding general 21 election, or to another optional form of county government adopted by the electors as provided 22 by law.

24 amended and reenacted as follows:

1           11-08-07. Appointive officers - County commissioners, sheriff, and state's 2 attorney elected - Terms of office - How vacancy filled. The board of county commissioners 3 shall appoint each county officer mentioned in section 11-08-06, except the members of the 4 board of county commissioners, who must be elected in the manner provided in section 5 11-11-02, and the sheriff and the state's attorney, who must be elected as provided in section 6 11-10-02, except as provided in section 12 of this Act. Each county officer shall hold office for 7 a term of four years, except as otherwise provided in this chapter, and until the officer's 8 successor is duly appointed and qualified. The board of county commissioners shall fill any 9 vacancy resulting from any cause.

11 amended and reenacted as follows:

12           11-08-08. When appointment of officers made - Qualification. The county officers 13 to be appointed must be appointed by the board of county commissioners at the following times 14 in the year in which the county consolidated office form of government goes into effect:

- 15           1. On or before the fifteenth day of January, the ~~sheriff, state's attorney, and~~ coroner 16           must be appointed, and ~~such officers shall~~ the coroner must qualify within ten days

5 amended and reenacted as follows:

6 11-08-10. ~~Board may appoint officers~~ Sheriff or state's attorney of adjoining
7 county may run for election - Term of office - Compensation. The ~~board of county~~ 8 ~~commissioners may appoint the sheriff or the state's attorney, or both, of an adjoining county to~~ 9 ~~act as the sheriff or state's attorney of its county~~ may run for election in a county which has 10 adopted the county consolidated office form of government. Any such officer of an adjoining 11 county so ~~appointed~~ elected shall serve for a term of ~~two~~ four years and until that officer's 12 successor is ~~appointed~~ elected and qualified. An officer ~~appointed~~ elected under this section is 13 eligible to serve in such dual capacity and ~~shall~~ must receive, in addition to the salary as an 14 officer of the county of residence, a sum not exceeding one-half of such salary, to be fixed by 15 the board of county commissioners. The additional salary ~~shall~~ must be paid by the county in 16 the same manner as other county officers are paid.

18 amended and reenacted as follows:

19 11-08-13. Powers and duties of other officers. The sheriff, state's attorney, and 20 coroner elected or appointed under this chapter shall perform the duties and exercise the 21 powers conferred by law upon them.

23 amended and reenacted as follows:

24 11-08-15. Removal of officers. Any county officer appointed by the board of county 25 commissioners or elected under the provisions of this chapter may be suspended or removed 26 by the governor or by judicial proceedings in the manner provided by law.

26 adjoining county must be such as shall be that agreed upon by the sheriff so elected, the 27 county manager, and the boards of county commissioners of the counties affected.

28 SECTION 10. AMENDMENT. Subsection 3 of section 11-09.1-05 of the 1997
29 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

30 3. Provide for county elected and appointed officers and employees, their selection, 31 powers, duties, qualifications, and compensation, and the terms of county

1 appointed officers and employees. However, after adoption of a home rule charter 2 a county elected office may not be eliminated or combined with another office 3 except upon approval of a majority of the electors of the county voting upon the 4 question at a primary or general election or pursuant to the county officer
5 combination, separation, or redesignation procedures of chapter 11-10.2. A home 6 rule charter may not diminish the term of office for which a current county officer 7 was elected, redesignate that elected office during that term as appointed, or 8 reduce the salary of the office for that term. This subsection does not authorize a 9 county to redesignate the elected offices of sheriff and state's attorney as 10 appointed, except as provided in section 12 of this Act.

11 SECTION 11. AMENDMENT. Section 11-10-02 of the 1997 Supplement to the North 12 Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

13 11-10-02. Number and election of county officers. Each organized county, unless it 14 has adopted one of the optional forms of county government provided by the code or has 15 combined or separated the functions of county offices or redesignated offices as elective or 16 appointive pursuant to chapter 11-10.2 or 11-10.3, must have the following officers:

- 17 1. One county auditor.
- 18 2. One register of deeds.
- 19 3. One clerk of the district court, except as otherwise provided by this section.
- 20 4. ~~One state's attorney.~~
- 21 5. ~~One sheriff.~~
- 22 6. One county treasurer.
- 23 7. ~~5.~~ One coroner.
- 24 8. ~~6.~~ A board of county commissioners consisting of three or five members as provided 25 in this title.

26 In addition, unless otherwise provided in section 12 of this Act, each county must have an 27 elected state's attorney and an elected sheriff. In counties having a population of six thousand 28 or less, the register of deeds shall perform the functions of the clerk of the district court, unless 29 the board of county commissioners adopts a resolution separating the offices no less than thirty 30 days before petitions for nomination to county offices may first be filed for the primary election.
31 In a county having a population of more than six thousand, the offices of clerk of district court

1 and register of deeds may be combined into an office of register of deeds if the board of county 2 commissioners, following consultation with the supreme court, adopts a resolution combining 3 the offices no less than thirty days before petitions for nominations to county offices may first be 4 filed for the primary election. For a county that has properly initiated the option pursuant to 5 section 11-17-11, and the office of the clerk of court is funded by the legislative assembly, the 6 board of county commissioners may provide for the functions of the register of deeds, which 7 may include functions of the clerk of district court and other functions as determined by the 8 board of county commissioners. Counties having a population of six thousand or less and 9 exercising the option provided in section 11-17-11 may contract with the state court
10 administrator for the provision of shared funding for register of deeds' services. The required 11 officers must be chosen by the qualified electors of the respective counties at the general 12 election in each even-numbered year, except the register of deeds, county auditor, treasurer, 13 sheriff, state's attorney, and clerk of the district court, who must be chosen in 1966 and every 14 four years thereafter, the members of the board of county commissioners, who must be chosen 15 in the manner prescribed in section 11-11-02, and the county coroner, who must be chosen in 16 the manner prescribed in section 11-19.1-03. The clerk of district court elected pursuant to this 17 section is not subject to election in any future general election that occurs after the start of the 18 state biennium after the county has properly initiated the option and the legislative assembly 19 has provided appropriations pursuant to section 11-17-11.

20 SECTION 12. A new section to chapter 11-10 of the North Dakota Century Code is 21 created and enacted as follows:

22 Appointment of state's attorney upon voter approval. Upon the submission to the 23 board of county commissioners of a petition signed by ten percent or more of the total number 24 of qualified electors of the county voting for governor at the most recent gubernatorial election 25 or upon resolution of the board of county commissioners, the county auditor shall place the 26 question of appointing the state's attorney on the ballot at the next regular election. If a majority 27 of the qualified electors of the county voting on the question approves the change from elective 28 to appointive, the change is effective at the end of the term of office of the state's attorney 29 holding office at the time of the election.

31 amended and reenacted as follows:

1           11-10-04. Officer must be qualified elector - Exceptions. Except as otherwise 2 specifically provided by the laws of this state, a county officer must be a qualified elector in the 3 county in which the person is ~~chosen~~ or appointed, and a county commissioner must be a 4 qualified elector in the district from which the commissioner is chosen. Upon approval of the 5 board of county commissioners of each affected county, a person may serve as an elected 6 officer of more than one county and must be a qualified elector of one of the counties in which 7 the person is elected. A candidate for election to a county office must be, at the time of 8 election, a qualified elector in the jurisdiction in which the candidate is to serve. Two or more 9 counties may appoint one person to fill the same office in each county and the person filling the 10 office must be a qualified elector of one of the counties.

11           SECTION 14. AMENDMENT. Subsection 3 of section 11-10.2-01 of the North Dakota
12 Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

13           3. This option is available in addition to, or in lieu of, other county structural options 14 authorized under this title, unless a specific mandate for combining or separating
15 particular county offices is otherwise provided by law. The office of ~~county judge~~ 16 sheriff is excluded from the application of this chapter.

18 amended and reenacted as follows:

19           11-15-01.1. Sheriff must be qualified elector and shall must receive required 20 training - Exception. Except as otherwise specifically provided by state law, the sheriff must 21 be a qualified elector in the county in which the sheriff is elected ~~or appointed~~. Within one year 22 after taking office, the sheriff shall attend the sheriffs' school on civil process for one week, and 23 unless already licensed under sections 12-63-01 through 12-63-14, shall begin the training 24 necessary to become so licensed. Within two years after taking office, the sheriff shall 25 complete the procedures required to be licensed under sections 12-63-01 through 12-63-14.

26           SECTION 16. APPLICATION. Section 12 of this Act does not apply to any county that 27 has an appointive state's attorney before the effective date of this Act.
