

Fifty-sixth Legislative Assembly, State of North Dakota, begun in the Capitol in the City of Bismarck, on Tuesday, the fifth day of January, one thousand nine hundred and ninety-nine

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 3079
(Representatives Stefonowicz, Fairfield, Meyer, Solberg, Thorpe)

A concurrent resolution directing the Legislative Council to study the relationship of rural subdivisions and townships.

WHEREAS, the establishment and growth of rural subdivisions that are not incorporated as cities sometimes create conflicts with township governments and residents; and

WHEREAS, traditional control and services of township government are affected by the development of a rural subdivision within a township; and

WHEREAS, orderly development of rural subdivisions in a manner that is fair to other township residents is in the best interests of everyone;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF NORTH DAKOTA, THE SENATE CONCURRING THEREIN:

That the Legislative Council study the relationship of rural subdivisions and townships; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Legislative Council report its findings and recommendations, together with any legislation required to implement the recommendations, to the Fifty-seventh Legislative Assembly.
