"SECTION 3. AMENDMENT. Section 40-18-14 of the 1999 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

40-18-14. Municipal judge may enforce orders and judgments and punish for contempt. A municipal judge ~~has the power to~~ may enforce due obedience to the court's orders and judgments. The judge may fine or imprison for contempt committed in the judge's presence while holding court, as well as for contempt of process issued, and of orders made by the judge. When an act or omission constituting a contempt in a municipal court is not committed in the presence of the municipal judge, an affidavit alleging the facts may be filed and a warrant of arrest thereupon may issue on which the person accused may be arrested and brought before the municipal judge immediately. The person must be given a reasonable opportunity to employ counsel and defend against the alleged contempt. After hearing the allegations and proofs, the municipal judge may discharge the person or adjudge the person guilty and may punish by fine or imprisonment or both. The fine in any case may not be more than one thousand dollars and the imprisonment may not be more than thirty days. In addition, a person adjudged guilty of contempt for failure to pay a fee or fine may be sentenced by the municipal judge to a sanction or order designed to ensure compliance with payment of the fee or fine, or to an alternative sentence or sanction including community service."
