The sentence for an offense against an actor's family or household member as defined in subsection 4 of section 14-07.1-01 must include an order to complete a domestic violence offender treatment program, unless the court makes written findings for the record explaining why such a sentence would be inappropriate.

SECTION 3. AMENDMENT. Subsection 1 of section 12.1-32-07 of the 1999 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

When the court imposes probation upon conviction for a felony, the court shall place the defendant under the supervision and management of the department of corrections and rehabilitation. In class A misdemeanor cases, except for a violation of subdivision b of subsection 2 of section 12.1-17-01, the court may place the defendant under the supervision and management of the department of corrections and rehabilitation or other responsible party. In all other cases, the court may place the defendant under the supervision and management of a community corrections program other than the department of corrections and rehabilitation. If an appropriate community corrections program is not reasonably available, the court may place the defendant under the supervision and management of the department of corrections and rehabilitation. The department of corrections and rehabilitation may arrange for the supervision and management of the defendant by a community corrections program selected by the department of corrections and rehabilitation. A community corrections program means a program for the supervision of a defendant, including monitoring and enforcement of terms and conditions of probation set by the court or pursuant to a conditional release from the physical custody of a correctional facility or the department of corrections and rehabilitation.
