21 Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

- 22 4. "Compact administrator" means the individual in each compacting state appointed 23 under the terms of this compact, or the individual's designee, responsible for the 24 administration and management of the state's supervision and transfer of offenders 25 subject to the terms of this compact, the rules adopted by the interstate 26 commission, and policies adopted by the state council under this compact.

28 Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

- 29 2. The interstate commission consists of commissioners selected and appointed by

2 are not commissioners but who are members of interested organizations. The 3 noncommissioner members include a member of the national organizations of 4 governors, legislators, state chief justices, attorneys general, and crime victims.
5 All noncommissioner members of the interstate commission are nonvoting 6 members. The interstate commission may provide in its bylaws for additional 7 nonvoting members as it deems necessary.

8 SECTION 4. Six new sections to chapter 12-65 of the North Dakota Century Code are 9 created and enacted as follows:

10 Custody and detention of offender for violation of terms and conditions of 11 compact supervision - Hearing and waiver - Report to sending state. Whenever it is 12 alleged that an offender has violated any terms and conditions of supervision under the 13 compact for the supervision of adult offenders, the compact administrator may issue a warrant 14 to take the offender into custody and detain the offender and request that the sending state 15 retake the offender. If there is probable cause to believe an offender has violated any of the 16 terms or conditions of supervision under the compact for the supervision of adult offenders, a 17 parole and probation officer or any peace officer directed by a parole and probation officer may 18 take the offender into custody and detain the offender in a correctional facility pending 19 application for a warrant of arrest and authority to detain. The offender may not be released on 20 bail pending the probable cause hearing under this chapter. The offender is entitled to a 21 hearing to be held in accordance with this chapter within a reasonable time after being taken 22 into custody to determine whether there is probable cause to find that the offender violated any 23 of the terms and conditions of parole or probation while under compact supervision. The 24 offender may waive the hearing and admit there is probable cause to find that the offender
25 violated any of the terms and conditions of parole or probation while under compact
26 supervision. As soon as practical after the hearing or waiver of the hearing, the compact 27 administrator shall furnish a copy of the hearing record and make a report to the sending state
28 with findings of fact regarding the violations of the terms and conditions of parole or probation 29 while under compact supervision and shall make recommendations regarding the disposition of 30 the offender. If it appears to the compact administrator that the sending state will retake the

1 offender, the compact administrator may detain the offender for a reasonable period after the 2 hearing or waiver in order for the sending state to arrange for retaking the offender.

3 Waiver of extradition. Authorized officers of a sending state may enter this state and 4 apprehend and retake any offender from the sending state who is present in this state pursuant 5 to the compact for the supervision of adult offenders. The sending state shall establish the 6 authority of the officers and the identity of the offender before the officers may retake the 7 offender back to the sending state. All legal requirements to obtain extradition of fugitives from 8 justice are hereby expressly waived. The decision of the sending state to retake an offender is 9 conclusive upon and not reviewable by this state. If the offender is alleged to have committed a 10 criminal offense within this state, or if there is any criminal charge pending against an offender 11 in this state, and unless permission has been obtained from the state's attorney in the county in 12 which the criminal offense is alleged to have occurred, the sending state may not retake the 13 offender from this state until the offender has been discharged from prosecution or released 14 from imprisonment for the criminal offense.

15 Who may hold a hearing. A hearing pursuant to this chapter must be before a hearing
16 officer designated by the compact administrator. The hearing may not be conducted by a 17 person directly involved in the supervision of the offender or by the person bringing the 18 allegation of a probation or parole violation.

19 Conduct of hearing. The offender is entitled to:

- 20 1. Notice in writing of the nature and content of the allegations against the offender 21 and that the purpose of the hearing is to determine whether there is probable 22 cause to believe that the offender has violated any terms and conditions of 23 compact supervision that may result in the sending state retaking the offender and 24 may result in revocation of parole or probation in the sending state.
- 25 2. Opportunity to be heard in person and present witnesses and evidence.
- 26 3. The opportunity to confront and cross-examine adverse witnesses, unless the 27 hearing officer determines that confrontation may present a risk of harm to a 28 witness.
- 29 4. Written findings of fact and an explanation of the decision.

30 Force and effect of hearings in other states. In a case of alleged parole or probation 31 violation by an offender being supervised in another state pursuant to the interstate compact for

1 the supervision of adult offenders, any appropriate judicial or administrative officer or agency in 2 another state is authorized to hold a hearing on the alleged violation. Upon receipt of the 3 record of a parole or probation violation hearing held in another state pursuant to a statute 4 substantially similar to this chapter, the record has the same standing and effect as though the 5 proceeding of which it is a record was had before the appropriate officer or officers in this state,
6 and any recommendations contained in or accompanying the record must be fully considered 7 by the appropriate officer or officers of this state in making disposition of the matter.

8 Violation of compact - Penalty. An offender who is on parole or probation in another 9 state, who is present in this state without the permission of the compact administrator, and who 10 does not leave this state within seven days after being notified in writing by a law enforcement
11 officer that the offender may not remain in this state without the permission of the compact
12 administrator is guilty of a class C felony. Within twenty-four hours after a law enforcement 13 officer has notified an offender that the offender may not remain within the state without the 14 permission of the compact administrator, the law enforcement officer shall report the notification
15 to the designated officer. An offender who is on parole or probation in another state may not 16 remain in this state without the permission of the compact administrator. In a prosecution for 17 an offense under this section, an offender's good-faith belief that the offender received 18 permission to be present in this state is an affirmative defense if the offender acted in 19 reasonable reliance upon the written statements of an authorized officer of this state or the 20 state in which the offender is on parole or probation. This defense is not available to a person
21 who remains present in this state after being notified in writing by the compact administrator 22 that the offender does not have permission to be present.

23 SECTION 5. AMENDMENT. Subsection 1 of section 54-57-03 of the North Dakota
24 Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

25 1. Notwithstanding the authority granted in chapter 28-32 allowing agency heads or 26 other persons to preside in an administrative proceeding, all adjudicative 27 proceedings of administrative agencies under chapter 28-32, except those of the 28 public service commission, the industrial commission, the insurance commissioner, 29 the workers compensation bureau, the state engineer, the department of 30 transportation, job service North Dakota, and the labor commissioner, must be 31 conducted by the office of administrative hearings in accordance with the

1 adjudicative proceedings provisions of chapter 28-32 and any rules adopted
2 pursuant to chapter 28-32. But, appeals hearings pursuant to section 61-03-22 3 and drainage appeals from water resource boards to the state engineer pursuant 4 to chapter 61-32 must be conducted by the office of administrative hearings.
5 Additionally, hearings of the department of corrections and rehabilitation for the 6 parole board in accordance with ~~chapters 12-56.1 and chapter~~ 12-59, regarding 7 parole violations; job discipline and dismissal appeals to the board of higher
8 education; Individuals With Disabilities Education Act and section 504 due process
9 hearings of the superintendent of public instruction; and chapter 37-19.1 veterans' 10 preferences hearings for any agency must be conducted by the office of 11 administrative hearings in accordance with applicable laws.

12 SECTION 6. REPEAL. Chapters 12-56 and 12-56.1 of the North Dakota Century Code
13 and section 2 of chapter 141 of the 2001 Session Laws are repealed.
