

SENATE BILL NO. 2152

Introduced by

Senators Mathern, Nelson

Representative Zaiser

1 A BILL for an Act to amend and reenact subsection 1 of section 57-02-08.1 of the North Dakota
2 Century Code, relating to property tax credits for persons sixty-five years of age or older or 3 persons who are permanently and totally disabled; and to provide an effective date.

4 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

5 SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Subsection 1 of section 57-02-08.1 of the North Dakota
6 Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

- 7 1. Any person sixty-five years of age or older in the year in which the tax was levied, 8 or any person who is permanently and totally disabled in the year in which the tax 9 was levied, as certified by a licensed physician approved by the local governing 10 body, with an income of fourteen thousand dollars or less per annum from all 11 sources, including the income of any dependent person, including any county, 12 state, or federal public assistance benefits, social security, or other retirement 13 benefits, is entitled to receive a reduction in the assessment on the taxable 14 valuation on the homestead as defined in section 47-18-01, except that this 15 exemption applies to any person who otherwise qualifies under this subsection 16 regardless of whether the person is the head of a family. The exemption under this 17 subsection continues to apply if the person does not reside in the homestead and 18 the person's absence is due to confinement in a nursing home, hospital, or other 19 care facility, for as long as the portion of the homestead previously occupied by the 20 person is not rented to another person. The exemption to which any person may 21 be entitled must be determined according to the following schedule:
- 22 a. If the person's income is not in excess of eight thousand dollars, a reduction 23 of one hundred percent of the taxable valuation of the person's homestead up

- 1 to a maximum reduction of ~~two~~ four thousand five hundred dollars of taxable 2 valuation.
- 3 b. If the person's income is in excess of eight thousand dollars and not in excess 4 of nine thousand five hundred dollars, a reduction of eighty percent of the 5 taxable valuation of the person's homestead up to a maximum reduction of 6 ~~one~~ three thousand six hundred dollars of taxable valuation.
- 7 c. If the person's income is in excess of nine thousand five hundred dollars and 8 not in excess of eleven thousand dollars, a reduction of sixty percent of the 9 taxable valuation of the person's homestead up to a maximum reduction of 10 ~~one~~ two thousand ~~two~~ seven hundred dollars of taxable valuation.
- 11 d. If the person's income is in excess of eleven thousand dollars and not in 12 excess of twelve thousand five hundred dollars, a reduction of forty percent of 13 the taxable valuation of the person's homestead up to a maximum reduction 14 of one thousand eight hundred dollars of taxable valuation.
- 15 e. If the person's income is in excess of twelve thousand five hundred dollars 16 and not in excess of fourteen thousand dollars, a reduction of twenty percent 17 of the taxable valuation of the person's homestead up to a maximum 18 reduction of ~~four~~ nine hundred dollars of taxable valuation.

19 In no case may a husband and wife who are living together both be entitled to the 20 credit as provided for in this subsection upon their homestead. The provisions of 21 this subsection may not reduce the liability of any person for special assessments
22 levied upon any property. Any person eligible for the exemption herein provided 23 shall sign a statement that the person is sixty-five years of age or older or is 24 permanently and totally disabled, that the person's income, including that of any 25 dependent, as determined in this chapter does not exceed fourteen thousand 26 dollars per annum and that the value of the person's assets, excluding the value of 27 the person's "homestead" as defined in section 47-18-01, does not exceed fifty 28 thousand dollars including the value of any assets divested within the last three 29 years. The term "dependent" includes the spouse, if any, of the person claiming 30 the exemption. The assessor shall attach the statement to the assessment sheet

1 and shall show the reduction on the assessment sheet. All benefits available in 2 this section terminate at the end of the taxable year of the death of the applicant.

3 SECTION 2. EFFECTIVE DATE. This Act is effective for taxable years beginning after 4 December 31, 2004.
