9 must include the state health officer, state engineer, director of the game and fish 10 department, state geologist, and nine other members appointed by the governor, 11 three of whom must be representatives of production agriculture, two of whom 12 must be representatives of manufacturing and processing, one of whom must be a 13 representative of the solid fuels industry, one of whom must be a representative of 14 the fluid and gas fuels industry, one of whom must be a representative of the 15 environmental sciences, and one of whom must be a representative of county or 16 municipal government.
- 17 2. Of the nine members appointed by the governor, each shall serve six-year terms.
18 Appointed members serve at the pleasure of the governor. The governor may fill 19 any vacancy in the appointed membership of the board, ~~and may remove any~~ 20 ~~appointed member for cause.~~
- 21 3. The board shall select its own chairman from among its members. The heads of 22 departments on the board may, by official order filed with the executive secretary 23 of the board, designate a representative of the person's department to perform the 24 duties of the member making the designation. That person, if any, shall have the 25 powers and be subject to the duties and responsibilities of the appointing office.
- 26 4. All members of the board shall serve without compensation for their duties, but 27 must be reimbursed for necessary travel and other expenses incurred in the 28 performance of their official duties. Reimbursement must be paid out of funds 29 allocated to the department for water pollution control.
- 30 5. The department shall provide the board with copies of maps, plans, documents, 31 studies, surveys, and all other necessary information in order that the board may

- 1 be fully cognizant of the current status of water pollution and its control in the state 2 and to enable the board to advise the department in development of programs for 3 the prevention and control of pollution of waters in the state.
- 4 6. The board shall hold at least one regular meeting each year, and any additional 5 meetings the chairman deems necessary, at a time and place to be determined by 6 the chairman. Upon written request of any three members the chairman shall call 7 a special meeting. Seven members constitute a quorum.
- 8 7. The board shall consider and make recommendations regarding any rules and 9 standards relating to water quality or pollution, ground water protection, and safe 10 drinking of water that are adopted by the department. The department may not 11 take final action on any rules or standards without consulting the board. The board 12 shall consider any other matters related to the purposes of this chapter and may 13 make recommendations on its own initiative to the department concerning the 14 administration of this chapter.
