12 an insurer would have quoted or offered an applicant or insured if the applicant's or 13 insured's credit report or credit-based insurance score had been more favorable.
14 "Adverse action" also includes an action in which an insurer discounts the 15 applicant's premium based on the applicant's credit report or credit-based 16 insurance score, unless the discount is the maximum discount available from the 17 insurer.

18 SECTION 2. AMENDMENT. Subsection 2 of section 26.1-25.1-03 of the North Dakota
19 Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

24 without considering other relevant factors. An insurer may decline to write a policy

22 The insurer shall:

23            1. Provide notification to the consumer that an adverse action has been taken, in 24 accordance with the requirements of the federal Fair Credit Reporting Act [Pub. L.
25 90-321; 15 U.S.C. 1681m(a)]; ~~and.~~

27 The reasons must be provided in sufficiently clear and specific language so that a 28 person can identify the basis for the insurer's decision to take an adverse action.
29 The notification must include a description of up to four factors that were the 30 primary influences of the adverse action. The use of generalized terms such as 31 "poor credit history", "poor credit rating", or "poor insurance score" does not meet

1 the explanation requirements of this subsection. Standardized credit explanations 2 provided by consumer reporting agencies or other third-party vendors are deemed

18 granted; and
- 19 f. The duration of the exception.

20 5. The insurer may require that the consumer give reasonable, independently 21 verifiable, written documentation of the event and the direct effect of the event on 22 the consumer's credit. An insurer may consider information contained in a 23 statement of dispute, 15 U.S.C. 1681i(b) on a consumer report as part of this 24 documentation. An insurer is not required to consider repeated events or events 25 the insurer considered previously as an extraordinary life circumstance.
