Introduced by

1 A BILL for an Act to amend and reenact subdivision g of subsection 1 of section 40-63-03 and 2 section 40-63-06 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to renaissance zone boundaries 3 and the transferability of renaissance zone historic preservation and renovation tax credits; and 4 to provide an effective date.

5 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

6 SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Subdivision g of subsection 1 of section 40-63-03 of the 7 North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

8 g. The proposed renaissance zone may have a single exception to the 9 continuous boundary and contiguous block requirements under subdivision d 10 if the area of the excepted noncontiguous blocks does not exceed three 11 square blocks ~~and if the shortest distance between the noncontinuous~~
12 ~~boundaries of the two portions of the zone does not exceed one-half mile [ .80~~
13 ~~kilometer].~~

14 SECTION 2. AMENDMENT. Section 40-63-06 of the North Dakota Century Code is 15 amended and reenacted as follows:

16 40-63-06. Historic preservation and renovation tax credit - Transferability.

17 1. A credit against state tax liability as determined under sections 57-35.3-03, 18 57-38-29, 57-38-30, and 57-38-30.3 is allowed for investments in the historic 19 preservation or renovation of property within the renaissance zone. The amount of 20 the credit is twenty-five percent of the amount invested, up to a maximum of two 21 hundred fifty thousand dollars. The credit may be claimed in the year in which the 22 preservation or renovation is completed. Any excess credit may be carried forward 23 for a period of up to five taxable years. Any unused credit under this section to 24 which the owner of property is entitled at the time of the sale of the property

1           transfers to the purchaser of the property at the time of sale as provided for under 2           this section.

3           2. The following apply if a transfer of a credit under this section takes place:

4           a. The tax credit transferor and the purchaser of the property jointly shall file with 5           the tax commissioner a copy of the purchase agreement and a statement 6           containing the names, addresses, and taxpayer identification numbers of the 7           parties to the transfer, the amount of the credit being transferred, and the 8           taxable year or years for which the credit may be claimed. The transferor and 9           the purchaser also shall file a document allowing the tax commissioner to 10           disclose tax information to either party for the purpose of verifying the 11           correctness of the transferred tax credit. The purchase agreement, 12           supporting statement, and waiver must be filed within thirty days after the date 13           the purchase agreement is fully executed as provided in subdivision b.

14           b. The purchaser of the property shall claim the credit beginning with the 15           purchaser's taxable year in which the purchase agreement was fully executed
16           by the parties. A purchaser under this section has only such rights to claim 17           and use the credit under the terms that would have applied to the transferor.

18           c. If the amount of the credit available under this section is changed as a result 19           of an amended return filed by the transferor, or as the result of an audit 20           conducted by the internal review service or the tax commissioner, the 21           transferor shall report to the purchaser the adjusted credit amount within thirty 22           days of the amended return or within thirty days of the final determination
23           made by the internal revenue service or the tax commissioner. The purchaser 24           shall file amended returns reporting the additional tax due or claiming a refund 25           as provided in section 57-38-38 or 57-38-40, and the tax commissioner may 26           audit these returns and assess or issue refunds, even though other time 27           periods prescribed in these sections may have expired for the purchaser.

28           d. The tax commissioner has four years after the date the purchase agreement 29           is fully executed to audit the returns of the transferor and the purchaser to 30           verify the correctness of the amount of the transferred credit and if necessary 31           assess the purchaser if additional tax is found due. This subdivision does not

1                   limit or restrict any other time period prescribed in chapter 57-38 for the 2                   assessment of tax.

3                   SECTION 3. EFFECTIVE DATE. This Act applies to all taxable years beginning after 4                   December 31, 2008.
