19 the demanding state for the issuance of a requisition for the juvenile's return. The 20 petition shall state the name and age of the juvenile, the name of the petitioner and 21 the basis of entitlement to the juvenile's custody, the circumstances of the 22 juvenile's running away, the juvenile's location if known at the time application is 23 made, and such other facts as may tend to show that the juvenile who has run 24 away is endangering the juvenile's own welfare or the welfare of others and is not 25 an emancipated minor. The petition shall be verified by affidavit, shall be executed 26 in duplicate, and shall be accompanied by two certified copies of the document or

1 petitioner is entitled to the legal custody of the juvenile, whether or not it appears 2 that the juvenile has in fact run away without consent, whether or not the juvenile is 3 an emancipated minor, and whether or not it is in the best interest of the juvenile to 4 compel the juvenile's return to the state. If the judge determines, either with or 5 without a hearing, that the juvenile should be returned, the judge shall present to 6 the appropriate court or to the executive authority of the state where the juvenile is 7 alleged to be located a written requisition for the return of such juvenile. Such 8 requisition shall set forth the name and age of the juvenile, the determination of the 9 court that the juvenile has run away without the consent of a parent, guardian, 10 person, or agency entitled to the juvenile's legal custody, and that it is in the best 11 interest and for the protection of such juvenile that the juvenile be returned. In the 12 event that a proceeding for the adjudication of the juvenile as a delinquent, 13 neglected, or dependent juvenile is pending in the court at the time when such 14 juvenile runs away, the court may issue a requisition for the return of such juvenile 15 upon its own motion, regardless of the consent of the parent, guardian, person, or 16 agency entitled to legal custody, reciting therein the nature and circumstances of 17 the pending proceeding. The requisition shall in every case be executed in 18 duplicate and shall be signed by the judge. One copy of the requisition shall be 19 filed with the compact administrator of the demanding state, there to remain on file

22 the executive authority to whom the requisition is addressed shall issue an order to 23 any peace officer or other appropriate person directing the peace officer or other 24 appropriate person to take into custody and detain such juvenile. Such detention

26 hereunder. No juvenile detained upon such order shall be delivered over to the 27 officer whom the court demanding the juvenile shall have appointed to receive the 28 juvenile, unless the juvenile shall first be taken forthwith before a judge of a court 29 in the state, who shall inform the juvenile of the demand made for the juvenile's 30 return, and who may appoint ~~counsel~~ counsel or a guardian ad litem for the juvenile or

- 1           that the requisition is in order, the judge shall deliver such juvenile over to the 2           officer whom the court demanding the juvenile shall have appointed to receive the 3           juvenile. The judge, however, may fix a reasonable time to be allowed for the 4           purpose of testing the legality of the proceeding. Upon reasonable information that 5           a person is a juvenile who has run away from another state party to this compact 6           without the consent of a parent, guardian, person, or agency entitled to the 7           juvenile's legal custody, such juvenile may be taken into custody without a 8           requisition and brought forthwith before a judge of the appropriate court who may 9           appoint ~~counsel~~ or a guardian ad litem for such juvenile or counsel may be 10          provided at public expense, and who shall determine after a hearing whether 11          sufficient cause exists to hold the person, subject to the order of the court, for the 12          person's own protection and welfare, for such a time not exceeding ninety days as 13          will enable the person's return to another state party to this compact pursuant to a 14          requisition for the person's return from a court of that state. If, at the time when a 15          state seeks the return of a juvenile who has run away, there is pending in the state 16          wherein the juvenile is found any criminal charge, or any proceeding to have the 17          juvenile adjudicated a delinquent juvenile for an act committed in such state, or if 18          the juvenile is suspected of having committed within such state a criminal offense 19          or an act of juvenile delinquency, the juvenile shall not be returned without the 20          consent of such state until discharged from prosecution or other form of 21          proceeding, imprisonment, detention, or supervision for such offense or juvenile 22          delinquency. The duly accredited officers of any state party to this compact, upon 23          the establishment of their authority and the identity of the juvenile being returned, 24          shall be permitted to transport such juvenile through any and all states party to this 25          compact, without interference. Upon the juvenile's return to the state from which 26          the juvenile ran away, the juvenile shall be subject to such further proceedings as 27          may be appropriate under the laws of that state.
- 28          2. That the state to which a juvenile is returned under this article shall be responsible 29          for payment of the transportation costs of such return.

1           3.    That "juvenile" as used in this article means any person who is a minor under the 2                    law of the state of residence of the parent, guardian, person, or agency entitled to

8                    executive authority of the state where the delinquent juvenile is alleged to be 9                    located a written requisition for the return of such delinquent juvenile. Such 10                   requisition shall state the name and age of the delinquent juvenile, the particulars 11                   of the juvenile's adjudication as a delinquent juvenile, the circumstances of the 12                   breach of the terms of the juvenile's probation or parole or of the juvenile's escape 13                   from an institution or agency vested with the juvenile's legal custody or 14                   supervision, and the location of such delinquent juvenile, if known, at the time the 15                   requisition is made. The requisition shall be verified by affidavit, shall be executed 16                   in duplicate, and shall be accompanied by two certified copies of the judgment, 17                   formal adjudication, or order of commitment which subjects such delinquent 18                   juvenile to probation or parole or to the legal custody of the institution or agency 19                   concerned. Such further affidavits and other documents as may be deemed 20                   proper may be submitted with such requisition. One copy of the requisition shall 21                   be filed with the compact administrator of the demanding state, there to remain on 22                   file subject to the provisions of law governing records of the appropriate court.
23                   Upon the receipt of a requisition demanding the return of a delinquent juvenile who 24                   has absconded or escaped, the court or the executive authority to whom the 25                   requisition is addressed shall issue an order to any peace officer or other 26                   appropriate person directing the peace officer or other appropriate person to take 27                   into custody and detain such delinquent juvenile. Such detention order must 28                   substantially recite the facts necessary to the validity of its issuance hereunder.
29                   No delinquent juvenile detained upon such order shall be delivered over to the 30                   officer whom the appropriate person or authority demanding the juvenile shall have 31                   appointed to receive the juvenile, unless the juvenile shall first be taken forthwith

1 before a judge of an appropriate court in the state, who shall inform the juvenile of 2 the demand made for the juvenile's return and who may appoint ~~counsel or a~~ 3 guardian ad litem for the juvenile or counsel may be provided at public expense. If 4 the judge of such court shall find that the requisition is in order, the judge shall 5 deliver such delinquent juvenile over to the officer whom the appropriate person or 6 authority demanding the juvenile shall have appointed to receive the juvenile. The 7 judge, however, may fix a reasonable time to be allowed for the purpose of testing 8 the legality of the proceeding.

9 Upon reasonable information that a person is a delinquent juvenile who has 10 absconded while on probation or parole, or escaped from an institution or agency 11 vested with that person's legal custody or supervision in any state party to this 12 compact, such person may be taken into custody in any other state party to this 13 compact without a requisition. But in such event, that person must be taken 14 forthwith before a judge of the appropriate court, who may appoint ~~counsel or a~~ 15 guardian ad litem for such person or counsel may be provided at public expense, 16 and who shall determine, after a hearing, whether sufficient cause exists to hold 17 the person subject to the order of the court for such a time, not exceeding ninety 18 days, as will enable the person's detention under a detention order issued on a 19 requisition pursuant to this article. If, at the time when a state seeks the return of a 20 delinquent juvenile who has either absconded while on probation or parole or 21 escaped from an institution or agency vested with the juvenile's legal custody or 22 supervision, there is pending in the state wherein the juvenile is detained any 23 criminal charge or any proceeding to have the juvenile adjudicated a delinquent 24 juvenile for an act committed in such state, or if the juvenile is suspected of having 25 committed within such state a criminal offense or an act of juvenile delinquency, 26 the juvenile shall not be returned without the consent of such state until discharged 27 from prosecution or other form of proceeding, imprisonment, detention, or 28 supervision for such offense or juvenile delinquency. The duly accredited officers 29 of any state party to this compact, upon the establishment of their authority and the 30 identity of the delinquent juvenile being returned, shall be permitted to transport 31 such delinquent juvenile through any and all states party to this compact, without

1 interference. Upon the juvenile's return to the state from which the juvenile 2 escaped or absconded, the delinquent juvenile shall be subject to such further 3 proceedings as may be appropriate under the laws of that state.

4 2. That the state to which a delinquent juvenile is returned under this article shall be 5 responsible for the payment of the transportation costs of such return.

6 Article VI - Voluntary Return Procedure.

7 That any delinquent juvenile who has absconded while on probation or parole, or 8 escaped from an institution or agency vested with the juvenile's legal custody or supervision in 9 any state party to this compact, and any juvenile who has run away from any state party to this 10 compact, who is taken into custody without a requisition in another state party to this compact 11 under the provisions of article IV, 1. or of article V, 1., may consent to the juvenile's immediate 12 return to the state from which the juvenile absconded, escaped, or ran away. Such consent 13 shall be given by the juvenile or delinquent juvenile and the juvenile's counsel or guardian 14 ad litem if any, by executing or subscribing a writing, in the presence of a judge of the 15 appropriate court, which states that the juvenile or delinquent juvenile and the juvenile's 16 counsel or guardian ad litem, if any, consent to the juvenile's return to the demanding state.
17 Before such consent shall be executed or subscribed, however, the judge, in the presence of 18 counsel or guardian ad litem, if any, shall inform the juvenile or delinquent juvenile of the 19 juvenile's rights under this compact. When the consent has been duly executed, it shall be 20 forwarded to and filed with the compact administrator of the state in which the court is located 21 and the judge shall direct the officer having the juvenile or delinquent juvenile in custody to 22 deliver the juvenile to the duly accredited officer or officers of the state demanding the juvenile's 23 return, and shall cause to be delivered to such officer or officers a copy of the consent. The 24 court may, however, upon the request of the state to which the juvenile or delinquent juvenile is 25 being returned, order the juvenile to return unaccompanied to such state and shall provide the 26 juvenile with a copy of such court order; in such event a copy of the consent shall be forwarded 27 to the compact administrator of the state to which said juvenile or delinquent juvenile is ordered 28 to return.

29 Article VII - Cooperative Supervision of Probationers and Parolees.

30 1. That the duly constituted judicial and administrative authorities of a state party to 31 this compact, herein called "sending state", may permit any delinquent juvenile

1           within such state, placed on probation or parole, to reside in any other state party 2           to this compact, herein called "receiving state", while on probation or parole, and 3           the receiving state shall accept such delinquent juvenile, if the parent, guardian, or 4           person entitled to the legal custody of such delinquent juvenile is residing or 5           undertakes to reside within the receiving state. Before granting such permission, 6           opportunity shall be given to the receiving state to make such investigations as it 7           deems necessary. The authorities of the sending state shall send to the 8           authorities of the receiving state copies of pertinent court orders, social case 9           studies, and all other available information which may be of value to and assist the 10          receiving state in supervising a probationer or parolee under this compact. A 11          receiving state, in its discretion, may agree to accept supervision of a probationer 12          or parolee in cases when the parent, guardian, or person entitled to the legal 13          custody of the delinquent juvenile is not a resident of the receiving state, and if so 14          accepted the sending state may transfer supervision accordingly.

15          2. That each receiving state will assume the duties of visitation and of supervision 16          over any such delinquent juvenile and in the exercise of those duties will be 17          governed by the same standards of visitation and supervision that prevail for its 18          own delinquent juveniles released on probation or parole.

19          3. That, after consultation between the appropriate authorities of the sending state 20          and of the receiving state as to the desirability and necessity of returning such a 21          delinquent juvenile, the duly accredited officers of a sending state may enter a 22          receiving state and there apprehend and retake any such delinquent juvenile on 23          probation or parole. For that purpose, no formalities will be required, other than 24          establishing the authority of the officer and the identity of the delinquent juvenile to 25          be retaken and returned. The decision of the sending state to retake a delinquent 26          juvenile on probation or parole shall be conclusive upon and not reviewable within 27          the receiving state, but if, at the time the sending state seeks to retake a 28          delinquent juvenile on probation or parole, there is pending against the juvenile 29          within the receiving state any criminal charge or any proceeding to have the 30          juvenile adjudicated a delinquent juvenile for any act committed in such state or if 31          the juvenile is suspected of having committed within such state a criminal offense

1           or an act of juvenile delinquency, the juvenile shall not be returned without the 2           consent of the receiving state until discharged from prosecution or other form of 3           proceeding, imprisonment, detention, or supervision for such offense or juvenile 4           delinquency. The duly accredited officers of the sending state shall be permitted to 5           transport delinquent juveniles being so returned through any and all states party to 6           this compact without interference.

7           4. That the sending state shall be responsible under this article for paying the costs of 8           transporting any delinquent juvenile to the receiving state or of returning any 9           delinquent juvenile to the sending state.

10                           Article VIII - Responsibility for Costs.

11           1. That the provisions of articles IV, 2., V, 2., and VII, 4. of this compact shall not be 12           construed to alter or affect any internal relationship among the departments, 13           agencies, and officers of and in the government of a party state, or between a 14           party state and its subdivisions, as to the payment of costs, or responsibilities 15           therefor.

16           2. That nothing in this compact shall be construed to prevent any party state or 17           subdivision thereof from asserting any right against any person, agency, or other 18           entity in regard to costs for which such party state or subdivision thereof may be 19           responsible pursuant to articles IV, 2., V, 2., or VII, 4. of this compact.

20                           Article IX - Detention Practices.

21           That, to every extent possible, it shall be the policy of states party to this compact that 22           no juvenile or delinquent juvenile shall be placed or detained in any prison, jail, or lockup nor be 23           detained or transported in association with criminal, vicious, or dissolute persons.

24                           Article X - Supplementary Agreements.

25           That the duly constituted administrative authorities of a state party to this compact may 26           enter into supplementary agreements with any other state or states party hereto for the 27           cooperative care, treatment, and rehabilitation of delinquent juveniles whenever they shall find 28           that such agreements will improve the facilities or programs available for such care, treatment, 29           and rehabilitation. Such care, treatment, and rehabilitation may be provided in an institution 30           located within any state entering into such supplementary agreement. Such supplementary 31           agreements shall:

- 1           1. Provide the rates to be paid for the care, treatment, and custody of such delinquent
- 2            juveniles, taking into consideration the character of facilities, services, and
- 3            subsistence furnished;
- 4           2. Provide that the delinquent juvenile shall be given a court hearing prior to the
- 5            juvenile being sent to another state for care, treatment, and custody;
- 6           3. Provide that the state receiving such a delinquent juvenile in one of its institutions
- 7            shall act solely as agent for the state sending such delinquent juvenile;
- 8           4. Provide that the sending state shall at all times retain jurisdiction over delinquent
- 9            juveniles sent to an institution in another state;
- 10          5. Provide for reasonable inspection of such institutions by the sending state;
- 11          6. Provide that the consent of the parent, guardian, person, or agency entitled to the
- 12          legal custody of said delinquent juvenile shall be secured prior to the juvenile being
- 13          sent to another state; and
- 14          7. Make provision for such other matters and details as shall be necessary to protect
- 15          the rights and equities of such delinquent juveniles and of the cooperating states.

16                           Article XI - Acceptance of Federal and Other Aid.

17           That any state party to this compact may accept any and all donations, gifts, and grants

18 of money, equipment, and services from the federal or any local government, or any agency

19 thereof and from any person, firm, or corporation, for any of the purposes and functions of this

20 compact, and may receive and utilize the same subject to the terms, conditions, and 21 regulations governing such donations, gifts, and grants.

22                           Article XII - Compact Administrators.

23           That the governor of each state party to this compact shall designate an officer who,

24 acting jointly with like officers of other party states, shall promulgate rules and regulations to 25 carry out more effectively the terms and provisions of this compact.

26                           Article XIII - Execution of Compact.

27           That this compact shall become operative immediately upon its execution by any state

28 as between it and any other state or states so executing. When executed it shall have the full 29 force and effect of law within such state, the form or execution to be in accordance with the 30 laws of the executing state.

31                           Article XIV - Renunciation.

1 That this compact shall continue in force and remain binding upon each executing state 2 until renounced by it. Renunciation of this compact shall be by the same authority which 3 executed it, by sending six months' notice in writing of its intention to withdraw from the 4 compact to the other states party hereto. The duties and obligations of a renouncing state 5 under article VII hereof shall continue as to parolees and probationers residing therein at the 6 time of withdrawal until retaken or finally discharged. Supplementary agreements entered into 7 under article X hereof shall be subject to renunciation as provided by such supplementary 8 agreements, and shall not be subject to the six months' renunciation notice of the present 9 article.

10 Article XV - Severability.

11 That the provisions of this compact shall be severable and if any phrase, clause, 12 sentence, or provision of this compact is declared to be contrary to the constitution of any 13 participating state or of the United States or the applicability thereof to any government, 14 agency, person, or circumstance is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this compact 15 and the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person, or circumstances shall not be 16 affected thereby. If this compact shall be held contrary to the constitution of any state 17 participating therein, the compact shall remain in full force and effect as to the remaining states 18 and in full force and effect as to the state affected as to all severable matters.

31 offense took place ~~if the action is prosecuted in municipal court~~. The city shall also 1 pay the expenses in any appeal taken to district court from a judgment of 2 conviction in municipal court pursuant to section 40-18-19. A defendant requesting 3 representation by ~~appointed~~ counsel at public expense, or for whom ~~appointed~~ 4 counsel provided at public expense without a request is considered appropriate by 5 the court, shall submit an application for ~~appointed~~ indigent defense services. For 6 an application for ~~appointed~~ indigent defense services in the district court, a 7 nonrefundable application fee of twenty-five dollars must be paid at the time the 8 application is submitted. The district court may extend the time for payment of the 9 fee or may waive or reduce the fee if the court determines the defendant is 10 financially unable to pay all or part of the fee. If the application fee is not paid 11 before disposition of the case, the fee amount must be added to the amount to be 12 reimbursed under this section. Application fees collected under this subsection 13 must be forwarded for deposit in the indigent defense administration fund 14 established under subsection 4.

26 commission, the defendant is obligated to reimburse if able to do so and of 27 the defendant's right to a hearing on the reimbursement amount. It is a 28 rebuttable presumption that reasonable reimbursement of costs and 29 expenses consists of seventy-five dollars per hour for ~~appointed~~ counsel 30 services plus reasonable expenses. If the defendant requests a hearing 31 within thirty days of receiving notice under this subdivision, the court shall

1 schedule a hearing at which the basis for the amount to be reimbursed must 7 expenses and who is not willfully in default in that reimbursement may at any 8 time petition the court to waive reimbursement of all or any portion of the 9 costs and expenses. If the court is satisfied that reimbursement of the 10 amount due will impose undue hardship on the defendant or the defendant's 11 immediate family, the court may waive reimbursement of all or any portion of 12 the amount due or modify the method of payment.

13 3. The state's attorney of the county or prosecuting attorney of the city in which the 14 alleged offense took place, if reimbursement has not been received, shall seek civil 18 was paid on that person's behalf. A person against whom civil recovery is sought

20 debtors. The state's attorney may contract with a private sector collection agency 21 for assistance in seeking recovery of such funds. Before referring the matter to a 22 collection agency, the state's attorney shall notify the person who is the subject of 23 the collection action.

24 4. The indigent defense administration fund is a special fund in the state treasury.
25 The state treasurer shall deposit in the fund all application fees collected under 26 subsection 1. All moneys in the indigent defense administration fund are 27 appropriated on a continuing basis to the commission on legal counsel for
