19 SECTION 19. Section 27-20-32.3 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and 20 enacted as follows:

21 27-20-32.3. Definitions - Active efforts regarding Indian child - When required.

22 1. As used in this section:

23 a. "Active efforts" includes:

- 24 (1) A request to the Indian child's tribe to convene traditional and 25 customary support and resolution actions or services;
- 26 (2) Identification and participation of tribally designated representatives at 27 the earliest point;
- 28 (3) Consultation with extended family members to identify family structure
29 and family support services that may be provided by extended family
30 members;

- 1 (4) Frequent visitation in the Indian child's home and the homes of the 2 child's extended family members;
- 3 (5) Exhaustion of all tribally appropriate family preservation alternatives; or 4 (6) Identification and provision of information to the child's family
5 concerning community resources that may be able to offer housing,
6 financial, and transportation assistance and actively assisting the family
7 in accessing the community resources.
- 8 b. "Extended family member" means a relationship defined by the law or custom
9 of the Indian child's tribe or, in the absence of such law or custom, means a 10 person who has reached the age of eighteen and who is the Indian child's 11 grandparent, aunt or uncle, brother or sister, brother-in-law or sister-in-law, 12 niece or nephew, first or second cousin, or stepparent.
- 13 c. "Indian" means any person who is a member of an Indian tribe, or who is an 14 Alaska native and a member of a regional corporation as defined in 43 U.S.C.
15 1606.
- 16 d. "Indian child" means any unmarried person who is under the age of eighteen 17 and is either a member of an Indian tribe or is eligible for membership in an 18 Indian tribe and is the biological child of a member of an Indian tribe.
- 19 e. "Indian child's tribe" means the Indian tribe in which an Indian child is a 20 member or eligible for membership or, in the case of an Indian child who is a
21 member of or eligible for membership in more than one tribe, the Indian tribe
22 with which the Indian child has the more significant contacts.
- 23 f. "Indian custodian" means any Indian person who has legal custody of an 24 Indian child under tribal law or custom or under state law or to whom 25 temporary physical care, custody, and control has been transferred by the 26 parent of the child.
- 27 g. "Indian tribe" means an Indian tribe, band, nation, or other organized Indian 28 group or community of Indians recognized as eligible for services provided to 29 Indians by the United States secretary of the interior because of their status
30 as Indians, including any Alaska native village as defined in 43 U.S.C.
31 1602(c).

- 1 h. "Parent" means any biological parent or parents of an Indian child or any

3 under tribal law or custom. "Parent" does not include the unwed father if 4 paternity has not been acknowledged or established.
- 5 i. "Termination of parental rights" means any action resulting in the termination
6 of the parent-child relationship. It does not include a placement based upon

8 crime or a placement upon award of custody to one of the child's parents in a 9 divorce proceeding.
- 10 2. Before removal of an Indian child from the custody of a parent or Indian custodian 11 for purposes of involuntary foster care placement or the termination of parental 12 rights over an Indian child, the court must find that active efforts have been made 13 to provide remedial services and rehabilitative services designed to prevent the 14 breakup of the Indian family and that these efforts have proved unsuccessful. The 15 court may not order the removal unless evidence of active efforts shows there has 16 been a vigorous and concerted level of casework beyond the level that would 17 constitute reasonable efforts under section 27-20-32.2. Reasonable efforts must 18 not be construed to be active efforts. Active efforts must be made in a manner that 19 takes into account the prevailing social and cultural values, conditions, and way of 20 life of the Indian child's tribe. Active efforts must utilize the available resources of 21 the Indian child's extended family, tribe, tribal and other relevant social service
22 agencies, and individual Indian caregivers.
- 23 3. The court may order the removal of the Indian child for involuntary foster case 24 placement if the court determines, by clear and convincing evidence, that 25 continued custody of the child by the parent or Indian custodian is likely to result in 26 serious emotional or physical damage to the child.
- 27 4. The court may order the termination of parental rights over the Indian child if the 28 court determines, by evidence beyond a reasonable doubt, that continued custody
29 of the child by the parent or Indian custodian is likely to result in serious emotional 30 or physical damage to the child.

1 5. In considering whether to involuntarily place an Indian child in foster care or to 2 terminate the parental rights of the parent of an Indian child, the court shall require
3 that a qualified expert witness with specific knowledge of the child's Indian tribe 4 testify regarding that tribe's family organization and child-rearing practices and 5 regarding whether the tribe's culture, customs, and laws would support placement 6 of the child in foster care or termination of parental rights on the grounds that 7 continued custody of the child by the parent or Indian custodian is likely to result in 8 serious emotional or physical damage to the child.

9 SECTION 20. AMENDMENT. Subsection 4 of section 27-20-34 of the North Dakota

28 (3) The court finds that the extension is necessary for the treatment or 29 rehabilitation of the child.

30 b. A permanency hearing must be conducted within thirty days after a court 31 determines that aggravated circumstances of the type described in

1 subdivisions a, c, d, or e of subsection 3 of section 27-20-02 exist, or within 30 parent to have consented. A guardian may consent to the marriage or adoption of 31 the child.

1 4. A guardian shall file an annual report with the court informing the court of the 2 status or condition of the child and provide a copy of the report to the child. The
