

Sixty-first Legislative Assembly of North Dakota

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 1323

Introduced by

Representatives Dahl, DeKrey, Nathe

Senators Olafson, Schneider

1 A BILL for an Act to create and enact a new section to chapter 23-06 of the North Dakota
2 Century Code, relating to preparations for disposition at death; and to amend and reenact
3 section 23-06-03 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to duty of burial.

4 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

5 SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Section 23-06-03 of the North Dakota Century Code is 6 amended and reenacted as follows:

7 23-06-03. Duty of burial.

- 8 1. The duty of burying the body of a deceased ~~person~~ individual devolves upon the 9 surviving husband or wife if the deceased was married or, if the deceased was not 10 married but left kindred, upon ~~the person or persons~~ one or more individuals in the 11 same degree, of adult age, nearest of kin to the deceased and possessed of 12 sufficient means to defray the necessary expenses.
- 13 2. If the ~~person~~ individual who has the duty of burial does not bury the body within the 14 time required by this chapter, the ~~person~~ individual next specified shall bury the 15 body.
- 16 3. If the deceased is not survived by ~~a person~~ an individual described by 17 subsection 1 and did not leave sufficient means to defray funeral expenses, 18 including the cost of a casket, the county social service board of the county in 19 which the deceased had residence for county general assistance purposes or, if 20 residence cannot be established, the county social service board of the county in 21 which the death occurs shall employ some person to arrange for and supervise the 22 burial or cremation. If the deceased was a resident or inmate of a public 23 institution, the county in which the deceased was a resident for county general 24 assistance purposes immediately before entering the institution shall employ a

1 person to arrange for and supervise the burial or cremation. Each board of county
2 commissioners may negotiate with the interested funeral directors or funeral 3 homes regarding cremation expenses and burial expenses but the total charges
4 for burial services, including transportation of the deceased to the place of burial,
5 the grave box or vault, grave space, and grave opening and closing expenses,
6 may not be less than one thousand five hundred dollars. The county social service 7 board shall pay the charge for funeral expenses as negotiated by the board of 8 county commissioners, less any amount left by the deceased to defray the 9 expenses.

10 4. A If the person with the duty of burial under this section, or the personal 11 representative of the decedent's estate, if any, is aware of the decedent's 12 instructions regarding the disposition of the remains, that person shall honor those 13 instructions, to the extent reasonable and possible, any to the extent the 14 instructions do not impose an economic or emotional hardship. A decedent's 15 instructions may be reflected in a variety of methods, including pre-need funeral 16 arrangements a deceased articulated and funded in a pre-need funeral service 17 contract, a health care directive, a durable power of attorney for health care, a 18 power of attorney, a will, a document created under section 2 of this Act, or a 19 document of gift for an anatomical gift.

20 SECTION 2. A new section to chapter 23-06 of the North Dakota Century Code is 21 created and enacted as follows:

22 Cremation or other lawful disposition of a body - Authorization document -
23 Immunity.

- 24 1. A legally competent adult may prepare a written statement directing the cremation 25 or other lawful disposition of that adult's own remains pursuant to section 23-06-03.
26 The written statement must be signed and dated by the legally competent adult 27 and may be part of the legally competent adult's will.
- 28 2. A document that conforms to this section authorizes a crematorium or funeral 29 establishment to carry out the instructions of the legally competent adult who is the 30 subject of the document. It is not necessary for a crematorium or funeral 31 establishment to obtain the consent or concurrence of any other person when the

1 crematorium or funeral establishment cremates or otherwise provides for the lawful 2 disposition of a body pursuant to instructions contained in a document that 3 conforms to this section.

4 3. This section does not mandate that a crematorium or funeral establishment 5 cremate or otherwise provide for the lawful disposition of a body pursuant to the 6 document unless the legally competent adult who executed the document 7 articulated and funded in a pre-need funeral service contract the legally competent 8 adult's instructions as expressed in the document.

9 4. A crematorium or funeral establishment that cremates or otherwise provides for the 10 lawful disposition of a body in good-faith reliance upon instructions of a decedent
11 pursuant to section 23-06-03 or on an apparently genuine document executed 12 pursuant to this section is not subject to civil liability or professional discipline. The 13 decision of a crematorium or funeral establishment to cremate or otherwise provide 14 for the lawful disposition of a body in reliance on a document executed pursuant to 15 this section is presumed to be made in good faith.
